BLAST KILLING, SEX

Readers Hit TV, Movies

A lot of people are upset about the recent trend in motion pictures and television programs.

This week's Hartley Newspapers mail contained more letters from people who showed they were fed up with too many killings and indecent presentations of sex through our national forms of entertainment.

These letters, along with the many others that were received previously, will be mailed to Governor Michael DiSalle, Senator Frank Lausche and U.S. Representative Samuel Devine. All three have expressed sincere interest in the letters and requested copies.

If you have an opinion about this subject, please make your stand known by writing a letter to this newspaper. Your letter will be placed with those already received for presentation to the three officials.

May Be Downfall of Nation . . .

I would like to express my opinion of the killings and indecent sex pictures on television and motion picture theatres. If America is supposed to be a Christian nation, this kind of practice surely doesn't coincide.

You can hardly turn on the television but what you have a program with shooting or killing or sex. Our young people, especially those whose parents are unconcerned, don't have a chance to grow up without a distorted picture of life, nor do they have a chance to appreciate the finer things of life. No wonder our mental hospitals and penal institutions are filled to overflowing. This practice along with the liquor traffic may some day be the downfall of our nation.

I am glad to know that some of our congressmen are concerned about the situation and I hope they will be able to have some influence in obtaining legislation to remedy the practice.

—Mrs. L. E. Wolford,
527 N. Hague-av.

Any Wonder We See Broken Homes

It is high time that the readers of the Hartley Newspapers are showing a deep concern over the issue of getting rid of too many killings and sexy films which flood our television screens and movie theaters?

Shall we citizens of Columbus, continue to allow such films to be shown on our screens? If so, then we just don't care about strengthening the morals of our community. The training of our youth today may be taken for granted in a great many ways. It is no picnic to pick up the front pages of newspapers to read about crime, murder, sex offenders, stealing, etc.

In Cincinnati, Dayton and Cleveland, indecent films were discouraged from being shown in any theater. However, in Columbus, such films are being shown and their ratings seem to be higher, thus causing extended runs, lasting for weeks or months. It is the fault of many of our citizens who continue to attend any theater showing these films.

Is it any wonder that we see many broken homes? Parents find it too important to hold down two jobs instead of trying to raise their children by teaching them the difference of what is right or wrong. Children see too much on television that is unfit to be seen. This gives them the opportunity to do whatever they please while parents are too busy with other things.

There are still some very fine programs on television, but how many people watch them? I think that more educational and inspirational programs would do all of us a great deal more good than viewing indecent films.

Our Governors, Senators and Representatives are beginning to show a greater interest in the big problem, and it is up to each one of us to let them know that we want some legislation which will curb future showings of indecent films, as well as obscene literature of any type. Any legislation that our lawmakers should introduce will be appreciated.

The sooner that members of Congress act on important legislation to correct these abuses the better off every citizen throughout the nation will be. It is up to everyone of us to do everything in our power to do a little more positive thinking on vital issues which concern the welfare of every man, woman and child.

—John Rogers,
393 E. Gates-st.

At A Low Ebb Morally . . .

We welcome the opportunity to voice our opinion in regards to sex movies, bed-room fiction publications, murder, drinking, illicit love affairs on both movie and TV programs.

Pray tell us how you can expect a secure home life on a continuous diet of this filth; and would like to add the liquor business is one of the biggest contributing factors. The State of Ohio ought to be ashamed to even question why the delinquency of our youth, the divorces, auto wrecks and a huge welfare and crime load. If our officials wanted to be honest they would have to admit the expenses to the taxpayer would outweigh the little revenue received two to one.

Columbus must be at a low ebb morally. An example, take the picture "The Lovers" at the so-called Bexley Art Theater, it being banned in Cleveland and Dayton, but it is good enough for Columbus. Any picture of as low a moral quality as this picture is and can draw a crowd for over four months certainly puts us on a pretty low level.

Trusting those who are in high places will think seriously on this matter, we remain.

—George E. Neff and Grace E. Neff
495 N. Powell-av.

Here's A Means for Good . . .

I feel that I am like most of the American people in this respect. For a long time I have been aware and disapproved of the type of programs that is so often shown on television and movie screens.

I have felt that they were not fit for our youth to see and listen to, but like too many others, I have set back doing nothing, because I felt there wasn't anything possible for me to do. I am glad of this opportunity to express my disapproval.

There are many good, entertaining and educational programs on the air, but with such a wonderful medium for good, that would be possible through the right kind of programs at all times, why do we have to subject our youth to such pictures of crime, sex and indecent dress?

This is a democracy and the people have the right to express themselves, so why can't we join forces and demand that these programs be taken off the air and out of the movies? We talk about juvenile delinquency and here is a means for good or bad which reaches into almost every American home.

I am sure the networks will give their listeners and viewers what they demand. If the demand is strong enough. It is up to us. Shall we remain complacent, thus giving our approval, or rise up together and make ourselves heard?

—Bessie McLinn,
130 S. Sylvan-av.

Wholesome Fare is the Exception . .

I saw an article in the Reynoldsburg Record regarding the Hartley Newspapers campaign against too many killings and indecent presentation of sex on TV and at the theatres. I wish to commend you on this.

As a new citizen in this community I was disappointed to find that at local movie houses "anything goes" apparently. As for television in the evening one must see murders or things on the "seamy" side of life revealing our baser nature. The more wholesome fare on TV or at the movies is the exception rather than the rule.

As the mother of two small boys, I am concerned first for their welfare and secondly, for the effect on the community when such licentiousness is unrestrained.

In all other respects I have found Columbus vicinity to be an excellent place to raise a family.

SHADY LANE PTA PLANS COMEDY

WRITTEN BY MEMBERS—"How to Drive Your Kids Crazy," a comedy written by members of the Shady Lane Elementary School PTA will be given by the association Wednesday, Mar. 9 at 8 p.m. during the regular PTA meeting. The play, written by Mrs. Dorothy Pettafor, Mrs. William Prentice and Mrs. Charles Runell, has drawn so much attention that other PTA groups have already asked to use it. The public is invited. The entire cast is shown above in a scene from the play. Left to right, are, Ed Tann, Ed Sahr, Jim Roy, Mrs. John Hoyt and Nancy Sturtz.

Maxwell To Seek Early Hearing In Electric Suit

Whitehall City Solicitor James Maxwell, Jr., said Monday that he plans to file a motion for an earlier hearing in his $150,000 damage suit against the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co.

Maxwell said the motion, if granted, should bring the case to court dockets for a hearing by Apr. 15. He said this would cut about two years from the length of the suit action.

The solicitor said he is bringing the suit as a consumer and a member of the class, the class being all Whitehall electric users.

Maxwell filed the suit last Thursday in Franklin County Common Pleas Court. The suit will attempt to break the new rate-boost contract awarded by Whitehall City Council to C&SOE in December.

The suit asks the court for temporary and permanent injunctions barring the utility from applying the rate increase. It also requests court appointment of a receiver to supervise distribution of the $50,000 compensatory and $100,000 punitive damages among Whitehall electric consumers.

The solicitor points out four reasons in his suit which he feels make the recent rate ordinance invalid:

A. It was not fully and distinctly read on three separate days prior to its passage as required by law.

B. It is retroactive in its effect upon charges for electricity consumed prior to the effective date of the ordinance.

C. It did not go into full operation until after the term for which the councilmen who passed the ordinance had been elected.

D. It abridged the contracts existing between the consumers of Whitehall and the utility.

The solicitor said he based his fourth reason on the contract the customer made with the utility when he ordered service and got it at the rate prevailing at the time of the order.

E. Livingston Tract Given A 'No' Nod

At least that appeared to be the fond hope of officials of the Davis Investment Co.—until early this week.

Columbus City Council and Mayor W. Ralston Westlake couldn't quite see it that way; a thumbs down proposal was given on a request by the Davis firm to rezone the tract that lies along E. Livingston near Cunard-rd.

The reason, apparently: keep the downtown section booming.

As Mayor Westlake opined: "Overloading would create vacancies in existing shopping centers. It would also increase the number of vacancies in downtown buildings."

If the rezoning had been approved, it would have nearly doubled the size of the tract that the Davis Company had proposed a shopping center for. The way things stand now, they still have a little over eight acres on which to begin construction. It had been previously zoned, William C. Davis said.

Planning Director Jack Bachtel had previously intoned that neighborhood business centers should be restricted in size. He added that large stores and other businesses should be set up in the downtown area. The Planning Commission, before Monday night's council meeting, had suggested that council reject Davis' request.

According to Service Director Ernest H. Stork, neighborhood centers should be disallowed until attempts have been made to present plans to arrest traffic and other problems. He feels that centers should not be allowed in the entire Metropolitan area until these problems have been ironed out.

The Davis firm, however, already has put plans into operation at another site, this for a subdivision east of Big Darby Creek along E. Livingston and Noe-Bixby-rd.

Pine Hill Subdivision, consisting of some 550 lots, will soon be under construction, according to Davis.

Alum Creek Flood Views Are Discussed

A $14 million flood control reservoir that could also be used as a water supply and recreational site is one of the solutions offered to remedy Alum Creek floodings.

This proposal was made Monday when interested parties gave their opinions at a special meeting before Franklin County Commissioners.

Waiting for federal aid to finance such a project would take a minimum of five years, Donald T. Williams, of the US Army Corps of Engineers, told the interested persons who filled the hearing room.

He pointed out that at least four years would be required to obtain the funds if a survey, already underway of the entire Scioto Basin, would show justification for federal participation. The survey will not be completed until June, 1961.

An attempt is already being made to coordinate efforts of study groups, explained Gen. Miles M. Dawson of the State Division of Wildlife.

C. Carlton Hartley, representing the water and sewage committee of the Development Committee of Greater Columbus, said his group was interested in promoting long range flood control plans of the entire Scioto basin, including Alum Creek.

WYANCHA MEETS

Columbus' newest camping group, Wyancha Chapter (pronounced "Why ain't cha") which means why aren't you a members) will meet Saturday, Mar. 5, 7:30 p.m., at the Main Federal Savings and Loan office, 891 S. James-rd. Bill Price, chief naturalist, Ohio Division of Parks, will be the speaker. Prospective members are invited.

Etna Road First Grader Named Easter Seal Child

Seven-year-old Colleen Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Priscilla Taylor, 828 Pierce-av, has been selected as the county's 1960 Easter Seal child.

The Franklin County Society for Crippled Children has also appointed Judge Dana F. Reynolds honorary chairman of the annual campaign for funds to aid crippled children. The drive will feature the sale of Easter Seals and a lily parade between Mar. 17 and Apr. 17.

Colleen is a first grader at Etna Road School, Whitehall. She is cerebral palsied and, while she does have muscular handicap in both legs, she has good hands use and speech.

In Oct. 1959 she started physical therapy treatments at the society's center, 553 E. Town st. Colleen's mother says she sees much improvement after five months of twice-a-week treatments. Seventy children receive such care locally.

Reynoldsburg Motel Ran Ad; Got Results

Satisfied — that's the word used most often by Hartley Newspapers classified advertisers. Take the Al Rick Motel of Reynoldsburg. They wanted a part-time maid. They advertised in Hartley Newspapers and quickly filled the position. Have your needs filled swiftly by calling BR. 4-1155 and placing a classified ad.

Local Executive Suffers Possible Heart Ailment

Henry M. O'Neill, Sr., 90 S. Ashbourne-rd, was admitted to Mt. Carmel Hospital Saturday after suffering an apparent heart attack.

O'Neill is the president and general manager of the Seven Up Bottling Company and a director of the Ohio National Bank.

O'Neill's sickness came only a day after he was re-appointed for another three-year term to the Metropolitan Park Board.

E. Columbus Junior High Crowd Busy

Next meeting will begin at 7 p.m. Friday, Mar. 4, at the center. A dance will follow. All junior high students in the area are invited.

Then center's special events for March include: Saturday, Mar. 12—trip to University Farms (Susie Q clubs); Friday, Mar. 18 — elementary "sock hop;" Friday, Mar. 25, family night for elementary age children and parents (includes pic nic supper, progressive games and contests.)

World Day Of Prayer Planned

The World Day of Prayer observance for Shepherd Methodist Church and the East Columbus Christian Church will be held at East Columbus Church, 3147 E. Fifth-av, Friday, Mar. 4, 1:30 p.m.

This is the 74th observance of World Prayer Day. This year's theme is "Laborers Together With God." The service comes from the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada.

Representatives of churches cooperating in the observance are: Mrs. Paul Keller, chairman, and Mrs. Everett Dillin, both of East Columbus Christian Church; Mrs. Melvin Trout, Shepard Methodist Church.

Mrs. Eugene Hunter, St. Paul's Methodist Church; Mrs. Willard DeLong, Shepard Nazarene Church, and Mrs. Clarence Hubbard, Grace Methodist Church, Alum Creek.

Warrios, Whitehall Muster For Glory Road Pull

Parings for pairings will have slipped into a more recognizable form by this weekend, for by then the ol' tourney pot will have really begun to boil. Only eight teams will be left on the glory road to the state hardwood diadem.

And among those eight could very likely be two from the eastern sector: Eastmoor, which pulled a lollapalooza when it stunned North, and Whitehall, which last night handed a struggling South quintet a staggering 61-55 setback.

Only Bexley will be listed among the also-rans when the tournament draws to a close, after dropping a Tuesday night duel with Washington C.H.

The Whitehall fleet will meet the winner of the London-Gahanna game, slated for tonight, in a Saturday do-or-dier. Game time is 9:30 p.m.

The restless Warriors, anxious to atone for a disappointing season, even though they monaged to pull some snappy surprises at intervals, will be girding all their guns for Newark Friday at 8 p.m.

If both triumph, next Tuesday night could see the two eastern fives locking horns. All games are slated for the Ohio State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Last night's Ram-Bulldog battle saw two scrappy outfits drawing an anxious bead on each other's cherished title hopes. When it was all over, the 'Dogs were sent arfing to the showers.

Whitehall used only five men all the way with Gary Catalina nicking the nets for 17 points and Rick Neutzling looping in 14 tallies. Tom Rohm joined the top scoring duo with 13 wickets of his own.

Ram followers saw their favorites hop into an early lead, maintain a distinct advantage throughout before tiring in the final stanza.

The Yearling Lads breezed to a 17 to 12 first quarter lead, added 13 more in the second quarter, and pumped in 21 more points after the intermission to put the contest out of reach.

South saw its chances dwindle away when it could manage to hit the hoops for only 34 tallies in the first three stanzas. They made a brave bout of it in the final period by matching the Ram third quarter totals of 21 markers. But by then it was no use.

The win boosted the Whitehall over-all seasonal mark to 11 wins in 19 outings.

WHITEHALL — Calalina 6-5-17, Adams 2-3-7, Neutzling 6-2-14, Rohm 4-5-13, Merriman 3-4-10. Totals: 21-19-61.

SOUTH—Young 10-1-21, Sims 0-0-0, Gregory 4-1-9, Harker 1-0-2, Guyer 1-2-4, Foster 3-2-8, Swain 3-0-6, Lee 2-1-5. Totals: 24-7-55.

WHITEHALL FRESHMEN SUBBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Buzzer Blast Blocks Bears' Bid But Bounces Warriors In

Sometimes it takes more than an outstanding performance to bring home the bacon. The outcome of a game could depend merely on the push of a button.

Such was the case Tuesday night when upstart Eastmoor, swept past North by a screamish score of 68-67 in Central District Class AA play. Twice before this year the Polar Bears had shown the Warriors who was boss, but not so this night.

The confusing thing, however, was that Eastmoor didn't know for sure until way after the game was over whether they had won or not. A surging try by North's Bill Parks hit the nets at the same time, it appeared, that an official pushed the game-ending buzzer.

The referees opined that they had failed to hear the buzzer. The timer finally decided the issue and declared the Bear try invalid. The argument about whether or not his effort was any good lasted approximately 20 minutes.

North grabbed a narrow 17-15 first period lead, staved off the Warrior attack to lead 34-31 at half-time, mounted their own attack for a 55 to 47 third quarter edge, then watched it dwindle away during the closing minutes.

Lions Lose Out

Bexley and Washington C.H. combined for a spine-tingler that saw the Lions coming out on the short end of a 52-50 score in the first game of the Central District Class AA meet.

The Lion brigade saw a first quarter 18-12 lead fall away to a spirited Courthouse attack. The last quarter was played under "slow-up" conditions by both sides.

The Fayette County team entered the last canto with a short 43-40 margin. They managed to score only nine more in the final stanza to Bexley's ten. But it wasn't enough for a Lion win.

Top scoring hot-shot Sam McCandlish peppered the nets for 21 points to take game scoring honors.

North — Scott, 5-3-12; Underhill, 1-1-3; Lyles, 6-2-18; Parks, 5-0-10; Holley, 9-5-23. Totals — 28-11-67.

Eastmoor — Topolosky, 5-0-10; Huffman, 6-3-15; Lampros, 5-0-10; Carlos, 9-6-24; Van Horn, 2-3-7; Dwyer, 1-0-2. Totals — 28-12-68.

North	17	34	55	67
Eastmoor	15	31	47	68

Washington C.H. — Southworth, 5-5-15; Pfersick, 3-5-11; Glee, 0-2-2; Stillings, 8-3-19; Reno, 1-3-5. Totals — 17-18-52.

Bexley — Tussing, 4-0-8; Pollock, 0; Haunty, 6-1-13; McCandlish, 7-7-21; Rader, 2-1-5; Ritter, 0-1-1; Mechling, 1-0-2. Totals, 20-10-50.

It's All The Way Or Else For Ram Mat Corps This Weekend

By John Poepplemeyer

It'll all be over by Saturday night, but before then the walls of the Men's Gymnasium on the Ohio State campus will have ricocheted with the grunts and groans of grasping grapplers on their way to State Championship laurels.

Among those aspiring to division diadems will be six of the Ram matmen: Allan Rosenblum, in the 103 pound class; Mike Berry, in the 112 pound category; Ted Hupp, in the 120 pound division; Gary Joseph, in the 133 pound class; Gary Wyant, in the 138 pound section; and Dan Gartner, in the 165 pound division.

The prelims are slated to get underway at 1 p.m. Friday with the quarter finals following at 7. Semi-finals will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday and the championship round is scheduled for 7:30 that evening.

On the six Rams, only Rosenblum and Gartner failed to take Central District titles at Franklin Heights last week. The Ram mat corps finished second to Worthington by a 93-80 count.

The Rams' mighty mite mat menace, Mike Berry, will assuredly be butting his way for the 112 pound crown. Last year he narrowly missed walking off with state honors when he lost out on a decision in the finals.

His mat-mate, Joseph, is also ready to gird his way toward grappling success. He made it to the semi-finals in '59 before bowing out. The Whitehall wrestlers garnered eighth place in that state meet, topping all Columbus area teams.

Rosenblum's opponent will be Pete Palmisano, of Garfield Heights; Berry will grapple with George Giganti, of Cleveland John Adams; Hupp tangles with Don DeWitt, of Canton McKinley; Joseph will lock arms with Basil Fiori, of Parma; Wyant will dish it out with Ron Reader, of Cleveland Brush; Gartner battles Archie Perkins, of North Canton.

Central Region results last week:

CHAMPIONSHIP DIVISION

Berry decisioned Doug Goins, of Worthington.

Hupp decisioned Jim Clark, of Franklin Heights.

Joseph decisioned Larry Morse, of Worthington.

CONSOLATION ROUND

Rosenblum decisioned Jim Morgan, of Circleville.

Gartner decisioned Ron Foulkes, of East.

Sammy The Lion, Rick The Ram Make It!

Two each Lions and Rams are finally on the same team: the Central Buckeye League All-Star contingent.

Whitehall's Rick Neutzling and Bexley's Sam McCandlish, two of the loop's top basket weavers, landed first team spots on the squad selected by area coaches.

Two Toms from each of the schools polled enough votes to end up on the second team: Bexley's Tussing and Whitehall's Rohm. All of the lads are seniors.

Among the best of the rest were the Rams' Gary Catalina and Ken Merriman.

Hawk Cagers, WarriorsGrab Finale Wins

Finale Wins

The season looked a little better to Eastmoor and Bishop Hartley cage squads last week as both brigades ended up on a happy victory note.

The Warriors took care of South's attack to whip up a 77-64 verdict while the Hawks shot their way to a 66 to 36 win over Springfield Catholic.

For the Hawks, they ended their first year of varsity competition with a 6-12 record. The Warriors ended on a 7-11 note, a portent of better things to come, perhaps.

Hartley hit the hoops for a 19-7 first quarter spread, increased their margin to 35-13 at half-time and breezed home the last two quarters.

Co-captain Steve Warren pounded 22 points through the nets and teammate Burman manipulated the strings for 18 more.

The Warriors won easily enough over a team that all season long has shown a tendency to win — and lose — in spurts. Eastmoor popped off to a 24 to 16 first quarter lead and was never headed as Don Carlos looped in 24 points and Jim Huffman added 25.

HARTLEY HIGH SCHOOL'S

HAWK Lines

By Suzy Sharky

Mission Crusaders Donate Gold Ciboria

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade of Hartley High donated two gold Ciboria to missionaries in the United States. The money for these gifts was obtained from personal student donations, after-game sockhops, and various other activities sponsored by this organization. Barb Scholl is president.

Friday was a big day for Hartley. As the last game of the season arrived, all Hawk fans were anticipating victory over Springfield Catholic. A bus was chartered, allowing approximately 40 Hawk boosters to witness the 66-36 win over the Tornadoes.

Our Future Teachers have been assuming some of the responsibility of school administration. This week, members of the FTA aided the faculty in the preparations for Career Day, which will be held sometime in March.

Maybe you didn't know it but this past week was Catholic Book Week. In keeping with this title, the library staff at Hartley sponsored a contest. Each contestant was to make up a list of all Catholic books and their authors, gotten from authorative sources. The person submitting the most complete and accurate list is to be presented an award by Father White during this next week.

The new varsity jackets are now seen frequently around the Livingston-Zettler district, and the blue and white striped design adds a splash of color to our vicinity. Of course, the white hawk is part of the make-up too.

Reading has become more of a pleasure than a chore now that members of Sister Francis Margaret's junior English class have written their own short stories. To make this project a little more interesting, a contest was held to pick out the best of the literature submitted. One judging was held by the students themselves and was based on the topic.

The winners in this category were John Kurelic for his story "The Hick," Barb Scholl, "A Miracle for Manny," and Judy Harrison, "A Part of the Crowd."

The second judging is to be held this coming week by the faculty. This selection will be based on content and grammatical correctness.

Many of the members of the Junior Red Cross have volunteered their services for work in local hospitals. These workers will be called upon at various times during the next few weeks to carry out extra duties in the assigned hospitals.

In addition to these activities, the first aid program will go into full swing next week. The Future Nurses and Red Cross clubs will join together for this activity.

PUPILS PLAN VARIETY SHOW

EASTMOOR HIGH—Eastmoor students will present their bi-annual variety show Friday and Saturday, Mar. 4 and 5 at 8 p.m. The show will be called "Barnacles, Belles and Badinage," and much of the action will take place at King Neptune's palace. Tickets may be purchased at the door. The chorus line will be one of the headline talent events. The line includes, left to right, Julia Walls, Ellen Appelbaum, Sharon Hemmer, Karen Wilkins, Nancy Fisherbaugh, Pam Smyser, Kay Johnston and Janet Gray.

Session Set By Interfaith Film Group

Jewish Center, 1125 College-av, has been set as the site of the (East and South) area meeting of the Interfaith Committee for Better Entertainment, Tuesday, Mar. 8 at 1 p.m.

Persons interested in raising the standard of movie entertainment are welcome.

Mrs. Walter L. Harris, of the Council of Catholic Women and chairman of the Interfaith Committee for Better Entertainment, will preside. Rev. George Fulcher, editor of the "Catholic Times" will speak on "Cooperation for Better Entertainment" and Mrs. Lowell Riley, of the United Church Women and past chairman, will suggest "What You as a Parent Can Do." A question and answer period will follow.

Work of the committee is sponsored by the United Church Women, Temple Israel Sisterhood and the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

As a guide for parents, the group publishes a recommended listing of family-suited films showing in Columbus.

B'nai B'rith Schedules Cantor Katz

Zion Lodge No. 62 of B'nai B'rith will feature a personal appearance of Sholom Katz, world-famous cantor and concert artist, Tuesday evening, Mar. 8, at the Columbus Jewish Center auditorium, at its annual paid-up membership program.

Assisted at the piano by Mrs. Augusta Frank, he will present folk songs, cantorial numbers, and other popular favorites.

No tickets will be sold, but unpaid B'nai B'rith men and women members may gain admission by bringing their dues up to date at the door.

Zion Lodge will also welcome Raymond Freilier, president of District Grand Lodge No. 2.

First nominations for prospective officers will be taken.

The program will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Bexley High School LION'S ROAR

Eight Seniors Rate High For Scholarship

By Jessie Wile

Eight Bexley seniors scored in the top five per cent among the 26,000 Ohio students who took the general scholarship test for high school seniors.

Jeff Stern, Ed Goodman, Jeff Papier, Dave Sansbury, Kathie Kisnzle, Bill Rogers, Mick Jordan, and Doug Fleckner, each scored more than 196 out of a possible 300.

College and universities use the test as a prediction of possible success in college.

Bexley's seniors and juniors are participating in an advertising contest designed to promote the interest and thinking of high school students in the field of advertising and its place in society. The title of this year's contest is "When I Think About Advertising."

Juniors are doing their papers on subjects concerning the American writers they have been studying. Their subjects may also include those related to the building of America and the contributions of the people who built the nation.

Seniors may use any subject they are interested in for their papers. Many seniors are reading about the subjects they have chosen to follow as careers.

The Senior Honors English Class, an accelerated English college preparatory program, is doing advanced reading and writing.

In addition to their 3,500 to 5,000 word research papers and the required advertising contest essay, the seniors participating in the honors program are reading two novels from the Victorian Period, "Vanity Fair" or Adam Bede," "The Return of the Native" and other essays and poems.

Johnson Park School Honors Eighth Graders

The first scholarship assembly of Johnson Park Junior High School was held on Friday, Feb. 12 in the school auditorium. The purpose of this assembly was to honor the scholastic achievements for the 1958-59 school year of the present eighth-grade students.

T. H. Mayer, principal of Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School, gave the address and the school chorus sang two numbers.

Two students, Rita Snyder and Judith Renz, were honored as the top band and orchestra students. They were awarded scholarships for the remainder of the school year for individual study at Capital University Music Conservatory. Rita plays the violin, and Judy the bass clarinet.

Students, who earned honorable-mention grades, A's, B's, and/or one C last year were given wallet-sized cards indicating their achievement. The students honored were Robert Coffman, James Farkas, John Ranft, Michael Keys, William Mock, Judith Bates, Jyl Lyn Dozer, Shirley McHale, Arlene Schwarzwalder, William Tucker, Susan Leach, Roberta Moline, Deborah Simonds, Diane Skillman, Susan Cohen, Connie Webb, Steven Frazier, Kenneth Hamilton, Jerome Mossing, William Share, Elsa McCracken, Marjorie Cox, Evanne Keefe, Lynn Haley, Shirley Tope and James Jones.

The pupils who earned Honor Roll grades, all A's and B's, were awarded certificate of merit cards, and scholarship pins. These students are Carole Braun, Andrea Bridge, Glenda Pierge, Anna Rotfus, Mitchell Dorger, Kennith Murray, Judy George, Donna Manson, John Jones, Michael Newell, David Wright, Cynthia Cole, Pamela Gordon, Barbara Pierpoint, Don Scheer, William Schirner, Diane Barnes, Lee Baumgardner, Linda Levine, Marcia Rountree, Sherry Smith, Candy Bliss, Michael Cooperman, Beverly Kanyok, Bonnie Ripps, Donald Dymond, Dennis Miller, Ronald Hodge, Melinda Pearce, Pamela Penry, Anita Zeno, James Birmingham, Michael Hickman, Karen Niemann, Sandra Richards, Pamela Thompson, Ronald Blevins, Ronald Dawson, Karl Lau, Robert Matthews, Kathryn Baker, Kerry Brown, Marilyn Kravig, Carol Liebersbach, Sharon Regan, Sally Seckel, Judy Van Kirk, Stan Sobel and Jonna Lantz.

The final award was presented to the students who earned all A's in textbook subjects and who had no C's last year. Each of these students received the certificate of merit card, a school letter with a scholarship pin insert, and a meritorious award certificate suitable for framing. The following pupils qualified for these honors: Lisa Arrichiello, Chris Lindenberg, Judith Pier, Lester Courtney, Robert Haugen, Karen Schuster, Janice Wray, Elaine Bush, Sandra Laile, Thomas Coneybeer, Patricia Geiger, Rita Snyder and Beth Talley.

Six of the above received all A's in all of their subjects. These were Chris Lindenberg, Robert Haugen, Karen Schuster, Janice Wray, Rita Snyder and Beth Talley.

Faculty Tilt Full Of Laughs; Variety Show Arrives Friday

The annual Faculty-Reserve basketball game was held last Thursday. The Faculty team brought roars of laughter as its players came out to warm up in ridiculous get-ups.

Mr. Courtney, known more commonly as "Red" to his fans, was dressed as a beatnik, complete with red goatee. Other outfits ranged from nightgowns to multi-colored Bermuda shorts. The score at the end of the game read Reserves 25, Faculty 18, but the validity of these scores is questioned. Some of the points were made by dunking the ball into a bucket on the floor and passing the ball to a player who was hanging behind the backboard and who dropped the ball in.

But no one really seems to care who won because the two teams provided plenty of laughs.

"Belles, Barnacles, and Badinage," Eastmoor's variety show, will be presented Friday and Saturday, Mar. 4 and 5, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Cynthia Husted and Larry Nichols, mistress and master of ceremonies, will transport the audience to King Neptune's domain under the sea. There will be a chorus line, singing and dancing; humorous skits, Dixieland and jazz bands, pantomimes, and other acts.

Three Eastmoor seniors placed in the top five per cent of those who took the Ohio General Scholarship Test for High School seniors. Ry Poole scored 221 out of a possible 300 points; John Thomas 212, and Eileen Collins, 208.

Senior Sweater Day, a new tradition here at Eastmoor, was observed for the first time Friday. Another new tradition, Senior Government Day, will take place Mar. 16. On this day, seniors will take over the teachers' places and will even be allowed to assign homework.

Planning for the Junior-Senior Prom June 4 has started by having the seniors place ideas for a theme in a suggestion box. Joe Bob Goodwin is general chairman of the prom, and is being assisted by Janice Zurawinski, decorations; Linda George, arrangements; Ron Boyers, publicity; LaRita Gantz, tickets; Sharon Jarvis, refreshments; Sid Townsend, band; and Jennifer Douthit, program.

A group of representatives from the army, navy, marine corps, and air force visited Eastmoor last Tuesday to talk to boys in their junior and senior year about the opportunities they would have after finishing high school.

Eastmoor's Hi-Y basketball team suffered its first defeat of the season last Saturday, when they were beaten in an over-time game by Grandview, 47-40. This loss put Eastmoor in second place in the Class A Hi-Y basketball league. High point men were Lee Seigel and John Braulick.

The District Solo and Ensemble Contest will be held Saturday, Mar. 5 at Capital University. Eastmoor has a total of 43 entries in the instrumental and vocal divisions.

Sixty-five Eastmoor French students attended the annual city-wide French banquet held Monday at the Ohio Union. One of our students, Steve Stellman, was selected to be master of ceremonies. Fourteen talented members of the French class put on a skit entitled "Something different."

COURTRIGHT PLANS BASKETBALL NIGHT

PTA WILL SPONSOR EVENT—The Courtright Elementary School PTA will sponsor a basketball game Friday, Mar. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the school gym. The first game will be played between boys of the two sixth grade classes. Sixth grade girls will act as cheerleaders. The second game will feature fathers of the kindergarten class through the third grade versus fathers of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Mothers will act as cheerleaders for this game. Left to right, are, rear, Mrs. William Voelkel, Harold Pearce and Mrs. Harold Pearce; front, Tommy Gernall and Bob Helms, who is explaining the tactics the sixth grade boys will use in their game.

Capital University Chairman Makes History Of TV Program "You Are There"

Dr. Hilmar Grimm, lecturer in things antique on Channel 10's "University Hall" program, has been presenting history almost in 3-D lately. The whole process has come about by his use of the films from "You Are There," the much accorded series dramatizing historical events with Walter Cronkite as narrator.

Using carefully edited sections of "You Are There" episodes, Dr. Grimm, Chairman of Capital University's Department of History, has really brought history to life in his Fridays at 7:15 a.m. presentations.

Presently tracing the development of the move for American independence, Dr. Grimm will use the film to illustrate Patrick Henry's liberty or death speech, the Boston Tea Party, and the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Then, Dr. Grimm will concentrate on the events of the Revolution that culminated in war and the drafting of the Constitution.

Stressing the fact that the films will be used only to illustrate and amplify, not as programs in themselves, Dr. Grimm uses many other sources to relate history to modern day events.

Incidentally, the policy of casting "You Are There" actors for their likeness to historical characters creates many amusing incidents. In the show devoted to the Declaration of Independence, Shepperd Strudwick, playing John Hancock, is in reality the great-great-great-great grandson of Patrick Henry, and another actor in the same scene is the grandson (with five greats) of Thomas Jefferson.

Foreign Students Take American School Course

Local Chapter of American Field Service, under the leadership of Mrs. Paul T. Key, 2434 Dale-av, who brought four teenage students from abroad to study in local schools this year is currently making plans for the 1960 school year.

Students who are now in Columbus and studying at local schools are Franz Gunther Holl, (Germay) who is attending Bexley High School; Shirin Ta'avoni, (Iran) who is at Grandview High School; Karen Margrethe Eriksson, (Denmark) attending Upper Arlington High School and Mario Parenti, (Italy) another student at Bexley High School.

American Field Service is a private, non-profit educational organization whose purpose is the furthering of understanding and good-will among people of the world. The program brings teen-age students from abroad to study in American high schools and preparatory schools and to live with American families and communities for a year.

Any school accepting an AFS student will be asked to submit candidates for the American program abroad. American teenagers live with families abroad for two summer months or attend schools abroad for two to six months.

The local AFS chapter provides the $650 per year which it costs to sponsor a student. Schools or families interested in accepting a student for the 1960 school term beginning next fall may contact Mrs. Kline L. Roberts, 1658 Essex-av for information concerning the American Field Service program. Mrs. Roberts is in charge of the homes committee.

EARN AND LEARN CORNER

Home Economics Aids DE Student At Work

Four years of home economics training at Whitehall-Yearling High School have given Phyllis Puckett the background for her on-the-job instruction in the Distributive Education program.

DE is an instructional program in distribution. The high school DE program is based on a cooperative arrangement between the school and distributive businesses in the community. Students in the program spend part of the day in school and part on an actual job in one of these firms.

The student studies the principles of store operation, salesmanship and merchandise information at the school. He applies this knowledge when working at the actual job.

Phyllis is working in a women's apparel store. As part of her course of study in home economics, she studied textiles and the making of clothing along with color harmonies. These have all helped her in her outside job.

During her junior year, Phyllis became interested in the DE program because it would give her a chance to put her education in home economics, English and math to practical use in a real job.

The guidance department gave Phyllis the opportunity to take the vocational planning aptitude test. The test indicated that she had the interest and aptitude to do satisfactory work in the sales field.

The Diana Shop, a women's and children's store in the Great Eastern Shopping Center, employed Phyllis as a DE student. She applies what she learns in her morning classes to her work as a salesgirl in the afternoon.

She spends one period a day in her high school class studying principles of business. She spends another period studying material directly related to the jobs performed in the field of women's wear. Her related studies include: knowledge of stock, why and how of stock-keeping, classification of stock, selection and presentation of merchandise in the ladies' ready-to-wear field.

Phyllis will graduate June 10, and will have the opportunity to go to work full time June 11. This is a result of her year of supervised work experience in the DE program.

O'Neill Stays On Park Board

Fuel Oil Fire Leaves Four Homeless

A man, his wife and their two children narrowly escaped injury as they fled from their home as flames from an oil stove exploded and sent fire dancing across the floor of their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chambers only had time to carry their two children to safety. Flames quickly swept through the two-story frame house before firemen could bring it under control.

The estimated damage is set at $7500. Only the walls and roof remain standing. All of the furnishings and clothing were burned. Whitehall Fire Chief said that the remains will have to be razed.

No injuries were reported by firemen, however, Chambers complained of a back injury when he fell as he fled from the burning home with one of his children.

Area Man Named To Gas Co. Post

Norman Millard

Appointment of Norman R. Millard Jr., 2850 Ruhl-av, Columbus, as a gas advisor for the Ohio Fuel Gas Company's Columbus District, has been announced by WHbur T. Collins, district manager for Ohio Fuel.

Millard will concentrate on sales of gas appliances and equipment to builders, Collins said.

Before joining Ohio Fuel Millard was a Columbus area sales representative for the Gates Rubber Co. of Denver.

Born in Newton, Mass., Millard was graduated in 1944 from Newton High School and in 1952 from Ohio Wesleyan University. He holds a bachelor of arts degree. He served in the Marine Corps from 1944 to 1947.

He and his wife, Anna Mae, attend the Bexley Methodist Church. They have two children, Jeffrey and Carol.

Women's Missionary Federation of American Lutheran, is sponsoring Frau Neimann's trip to America. Recommended by the exchange program of Lutheran World Federation, Frau Niemann will study women's work in the Lutheran Church of America for three months.

For 12 years she worked at the large Westphalian institution for physically handicapped persons of Volmarstein-Ruhr. In addition to chaplaincy duties there, she was in charge of the education and vocational training of crippled girls.

During tht past 10 years she has been engaged in prison chaplaincy.

All women of Christ Church and their friends are invited.

WOMEN'S GROUP OF SHADY LANE PLANS MEETING

Women's Association of Shady Lane Presbyterian will meet Tuesday, Mar. 8, 8 p.m. at the church, Elaine-rd at Livingston-av.

Mrs. Marshall Cotner will be in charge of devotions which will precede a short business meeting.

Mrs. J. Mervin Hess, program chairman, will introduce the guest speaker, Dr. George L. Lewis, associate professor of speech and education, Ohio State University.

He will discuss "The Theater — A Tool of Social Criticism."

Post Pushes Rickenbacker School Name

As veterans of the United States' three most recent wars, members of Bexley Post 430, American Legion, have gone on record in favor of naming the new far East Side Columbus high school in honor of Eddie Rickenbacker.

The native son who became a World War I flying ace is now head of one of the nation's largest airlines.

Members also voted best wishes to Bexley's Mayor William Schneider upon his 25th anniversary in office. A letter to the mayor recalled the post's oraganization and early years in Jeffrey Mansion, and also "the fine cooperation we have received from the city in all projects in which we have a legitimate concern."

Speaker at the February meeting was attorney Wayne Geissinger. He told the Legionnaires that to understand Soviet Russia's global strategy, they must forget the historic concept that wars have definite beginnings and endings.

In his talk on "Protracted conflict," Geissinger said, "Communists make no distinction between war and peace, but employ whichever means is opportune to gain their ends. They use deception, deceit and any other means to reach their objectives.

Geissinger, who lives at 299 S. Harding-rd, summarized information he gained last summer during a two-week seminar for reserve officers in Washington, D.C.

WHITEHALL LIBRARY BOOKENDS

Civil War, Lincoln, Davis Lee Attracts Many Readers

The Civil War seems to have almost as many fans locally as the current Ohio State basketball team.

This period in our country's history has produced more literature than any other. Many of these interesting volumes are available at the Whitehall Branch of the Columbus Public Library.

One of the outstanding recent Civil War books, Burke Davis' "To Appomatox," tells how the army of Northern Virginia under General Lee made its last stand beyond Petersburg and Richmond. The book is so successful in reconstructing the nine tense and dramatic days in April, 1865, that it gives the reader a sense of having participated in the experience.

Civil War personalities have supplied biographers with an extensive list of colorful subjects.

Abraham Lincoln, most frequently written about, has been the subject of such titles as James Randall's "Mr. Lincoln," and Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln" in four volumes.

Robert E. Lee runs Lincoln a close second and his life story provided Douglas Southall Freeman with material for his four volumes "R. E. Lee," and Burke Davis with material for "Gray Fox." Other Civil War biographies include "Mighty Stonewall," by Frank E. Vandiver and "Jefferson Davis" by Hudson Strode.

Interesting novels about the Civil War include Vina Delmar's "Beloved;" Clifford Dowdy's "Bugles Blow No More;" Harold Sinclair's "The Horse Soldiers" and its sequel "The Cavalryman;" John Brick's "Jubilee;" and Frank Slaughter's "Lorena."

A book based on historical fact, be it fiction or non-fiction, makes good entertainment for a long winter's evening.

Whitehall Branch Library's hours are from 1 to 9 Monday through Thursday, 9 to 9 on Friday, and 9 to 5:30 on Saturday, with a story hour from 10 to 11 every Saturday morning.

Contest—

will be provided. Here's your chance to get your summer vacation free and see one of America's most exciting cities.

Also among the top prizes are: a Kenmore washer, 12 cubic-foot Coldspot refrigerator and a 17-inch portable television set from Sears; and a G.E. Filter Flo washer and a $150 Golden Triangle all-transistor radio from Barry's Appliances.

All residents in the Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record circulation areas are eligible to enter. The contest is not open to employes of either the shopping center or Hartley Newspapers.

A thick coating of moisture makes an icy road even slicker, and this increases skidding dangers considerably, says the Columbus Auto Club.

World Of Nature Seen In Your Own Backyard

Back yards are interesting places, even in cities. Many forms of fascinating animals and plants refuse to budge from man's housing developments.

Pheasants and quail come to clean up the grain spilled from birds feeding stations. Rabbits nibble off tender flower shoots. Moles undermine tulip beds. Violets, spring beauties and Dutchman's breeches bloom in spite of fertilizer and grass seed.

Once in a while you will find a more unusual critter trespassing on your ground. Just the other night my neighbor's dog treed an opossum along the drive. Ron Carlson was taking his Beagle, Sam, for his nightly walk, when they encountered the 'possum. The animal ran up a small white oak tree, the first one he came to, and stopped climbing about 15 feet off the ground. Ron notified me, and we had a good look at the 'possum.

Back yards become more interesting during the summer, for you spend more time outdoors then. I remember one day last July while mowing the grass, I heard an awful thrashing in the top of a tall tree. Looking up, I spotted a red-tailed hawk recovering his dignity and flying away. A red squirrel was heading for his den, and he was really making the bark chips fly as he scurried along. The squirrel had evidently been sunning himself on a limb when the hawk spotted him. Who ever heard of a large hawk in your back yard? But he was there.

Starting about now the crows begin to fly. They are looking for good nesting territories, or something, but they sure do a lot of flying. Much of this activity can be seen from city and suburban houses.

Flying squirrels are nocturnal, like opossums, and are seldom seen even though you may have some for neighbors. A couple of years ago I was removing an old tree from our yard and disturbed three adults and a nest of young flying squirrels. Watching them glide around in broad daylight was a real treat.

The world of insects is perhaps the most colorful and certainly the most varied forms of life, and yes, plenty of them live in your back yard. Walking sticks and the praying mantis are two common forms that always stir interest in neighborhood youngsters when they are found. The moths and butterflies are beautiful beyond description. What could be more interesting than watching a butterfly hatch from an ugly chrysalis, unfold its wings, flutter them in the sunlight to dry, and then fly away? This is the start of a trip that may take the fragile insect to Mexico or Central America.

There is an unknown world in your back yard. The world renowned naturalist Jean Henri Fabre conducted all of his studies in his back yard. This Frenchman spent his life taking a close look at the land he lived on. You have a lot of neighbors you never dreamed of. It might be fun to take a look at some of them.

Ted Mack Amateur Hour Returns To Television

By ROGER SWANEY
CHANNEL 6

Returning to the television screen on Mar. 7 will be Ted Mack and the Original Amateur Hour. The show will be carried over WTVN-TV (Channel 6) on Monday evenings at 10:30.

The Amateur Hour was originated by the late Major Edward Bowes. Through him and his associate, Ted Mack, the show has gained fame by its many TV viewers who have watched the program previously . . .

The "Walt Disney Presents" program, also seen over Channel 6, has recently been cited for awards by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. The Foundation annually names individuals, organizations and schools for their contribution to a better understanding of the American way of life.

"Walt Disney Presents" received the foundation's top television award for "The Boston Tea Party" and "The Shot That Was Heard Around the World," presented in segments in "The Story of Johnny Tremain" in the 1958-59 season.

The programs, according to the citation, ". . . have brought millions of Americans, young and old, a greater understanding of their heritage and a vivid presentation of their glorious historical past. They have made a sizeable contribution toward a better understanding of the birth of our nation and the struggles and bitterness involved.

CHANNEL 4

The Art Carney Show will be colorcast over WLW-C Friday, Mar. 4, at 8:30 p.m. The theme of the show will be "The Best of Everything."

This satirical revue is based on the American fondness for giving awards for everything, to everyone from physicists to plumbers, on every possible occasion.

Among targets in the sketches will be a congressional committee, a beauty and talent contest, a rock 'n roll singer called "The Fabulous Flavius," and a TV program of classical music.

Also hitting channel 4's changes for only one day will be Ruth Lyons' 50-50 Club, which will be telecast in black and white only from the Indiana Theater in Indianapolis on Friday, Mar. 4, instead of from her usual spot in Cincinnati.

CHANNEL 10

Television viewers can now keep a late date with some of history's most famous figures over WBNS-TV, Monday through Thursday with the new program "You Are There". This late show will follow immediately after "Armchair Theater PM."

From Julius Caesar to Adolph Hitler, "You Are There" dramatizes the great moments in the lives of the men who shaped the destiny of the world, be they saints or sinners. The show is filmed in the style of on-the-spot news coverage and features interviews that simulate the actions of historical greats.

A series of Sunday afternoon hour-long TV programs will feature the widely acclaimed New York Philharmonic Young People's concerts, conducted by Leonard Bernstein.

The concerts will be seen over WBNS-TV from Carnegie Hall in New York on Sunday, Mar. 6 and 27, from 1 to 2 p.m.

Roger Englander produces and directs the series of concerts which are presented under the supervision of Richard Lewine, director of special projects for the CBS Television Network.

Local Scene

According to Mershon Auditorium officials on Hal Holbrook's famous characterization, "Mark Twain Tonight," the auditorium has been sold out. The show is scheduled for Mar. 2 at 8 p.m.

Scheduled for Sunday, Mar. 6, will be the OSU School of Music's concert band in a special production under the direction of guest conductor, Lt. Col. William F. Santelmann.

Irish Plan St. Patrick Day Regate

The Shamrock Club will meet Sunday, March 6, at 2 p.m., in the Knights of Columbus hall, 80 S. Sixth-st, for the purpose of arranging for the annual observance of St. Patrick's Day. Entering the 28th year since its foundation, the club this year will follow tradition by assembling at the KC auditorium and proceed to St. Patrick's Church where solemn high mass will be rendered and Holy Communion received. Bishop Clarence G. Issenmann will preside. Following this there will be a procession to the Neil House where breakfast will be served. Irish songs and dancing will be rendered by the choral club. The Shamrock Chorus has made a number of appearances before other local organizations and established quite a reputation.

Officers of the Shamrock Club are Msgr. Joseph E. McGlynn, pastor St. Joseph Cathedral, Chaplain; James D. Callahan, president, Frank M. Strapp, vice-president; Thomas D. Cahill, treasurer, and William P. Downey, secretary. Larry J. Corcoran is chairman of publicity.

Dick McCabe is president of the choral club and Mike Eberly director. Tickets for the breakfast may be obtained from Mike Murtha and Emmett Bain, or any officer of the Shamrock Club.

GM Wage Rate Remains Same

General Motors this week announced continuation of the current 13 cents an hour cost-of-living allowance for the March, April and May period to approximately 320,000 hourly-rate employes.

Under the GM wage formula, wages are reviewed quarterly and adjusted in line with the government's consumer price index.

Recent changes were not sufficient under the formula to require revision of the current cost-of-living allowance.

Salaried employes will continue to receive a quarterly allowance of $65 for the same period.

The next review will be in May.

Local Girl Scouts Hold World Fellowship Fete

Cumberland Trail Neighborhood had its annual Juliette Low World Fellowship program Feb. 27. The affair was held at the First English Lutheran Church on Saturday from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

District Advisor Miss Betty Hollenbaugh and the newly-elected Neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Jean Freeman were present. Fifteen Girl Scout troops including seniors, intermediates and Brownies participated.

Each troop represented a different country in which there is a Girl Scout or Girl Guide program. The representation included songs, games, skits, dances and a question and answer panel. The contribution to the Juliette Low World Fellowship Fund was dropped into an urn at the foot of the platform as each troop mounted to the stage. An excellent performance was given by all.

Songs were sung and refreshments served after the main program.

Troop 270 served as hostesses.

Troop 295

Troop 295 will be going by bus to the Fourth Annual Flower Show at the Ohio State Fairgrounds Friday, Mar. 4.

Troop 71

Troop 71 is making terry cloth bibs and stuffed animals for St. Ann's Orphanage as an Easter project. The enlarged troop now has three members from a disbanded troop.

Troop Activities

Five Girl Scout troops are to be presented with American flags on Tuesday, Mar. 1. The troops are 59, 71, 625, 666 and 699. The presentations are to be made at a combined meeting by Mrs. Inez Florence.

Donors of the flags are, Ladies of the Grand Army Circle Seven and Spanish American Ladies Auxiliary 18.

Girl Scouts International Party Held

Area Girl Scouts Hold Friendship Day Festivities

The Town and Country Neighborhood Girl Scout troops participated in the Juliet Low World Friendship Day festivities in their local area. They held a morning program at East Broad Street School, Feb. 27.

Greetings were offered to the troops by Dotty Taylor.

SHADY LANE GIRL SCOUTS

Mrs. Jay Dunlap, 1321 Country Club-rd, neighborhood chairman, has asked officers, leaders and troop committee members to attend a neighborhood meeting at 9:30 a.m. Mar. 10 at Eastview Methodist Church.

The neighborhood clergy has announced a special seating arrangement for Scouts attending church at the following designated times on Girl Scout Sunday, March 6:

Shady Lane Presbyterian, 9:30 a.m.; Eastview Methodist, 8:30 a.m.; St. Phillips, 9 a.m.; and Reformation Lutheran, 10 a.m.

Seventh grade intermediate troops 348 and 730 are working on sports badges. Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Keene are the respective leaders of these troops.

Troop 944 celebrated its birthday, Feb. 25, with an international friendship party. Heinz Helm of Berlin, Germany, spoke. Some 12 scouts received membership stars.

The display case in the Willis Park School will be decorated the week of March 8 by this troop.

Parent Series Continued

The second session of Fairmoor School's "Parent Education" program will begin on Thursday, Mar. 10 at 1:30 p.m. There will be seven meetings in March.

At these meetings, teachers and parents will discuss the curriculum for the second semester, merits of the new report cards, and better understanding and cooperation of parents, teachers, and children.

Free baby sitting service will be provided for pre-school children.

X-RAYS SLATED

The Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser will offer free chest X-rays to approximately 550 employes of Wesleyan University Press, 1250 Fairwood-av, Friday, Mar. 4, the Tuberculosis Society reports.

Anniversary Shoe Display

Evans-Schwartz Shoe Store Marks First Year In Bexley

Evans and Schwartz shoe stores are celebrating the first anniversary of the opening of their newest Bexley location and installation of the Odds-'N'-Ends bargain basement.

This basement department is unique, in-so-much that practically all of the merchandise has been gathered from all four Evans and Schwartz shoe stores. Many basement departments are run on a basis of having mostly cheaper grades of merchandise. But at Bexley, you will find a big selection of quality shoes in a variety of sizes and styles.

They have been regular stock and are now compiled to give a nice range of desired sizes. The difference is in the fact that the prices have been so greatly reduced, that many of the shoes are being offered at only a fraction of the original price. They include dress and walking shoes for men, and women; popular shoes for campus and school wear; for teenagers and children.

The main floor of the store is so arranged and attractively designed that it is considered one of the most beautiful shoe stores in the central Ohio area. It is located at 2468 E. Main st in the building formerly occupied by the Sportsman store.

There is ample parking area nearby. The Evans and Schwartz shoe stores are known for their careful methods of fitting and sincerity in helping their customers select shoes that are comfortable and proper for foot balance. They carry nationally known brands of fine quality shoes at popular prices.

EASTERN KIWANIS GIVES TV SET

PRESENTED TO ST. VINCENT'S—Members of the Eastern Kiwanis Club presented a portable television set to St. Vincent's Orphanage Tuesday. The set was purchased from money gained in the collection of sales tax stamps. The club collected $1,000 from stamps in 1959. Although the stamps help support many similar community projects, the club's principal fund raising project is its annual newspaper sale. Left to right are, Ernie Emswiler, "Red" Such, Mother M. Bede, William H. Ryan and Victor E. Wears.

AT LEAST DOGS LIKE IT!

SNOW, SNOW AND MORE SNOW—Seems like months since anyone has seen a dry street or sidewalk in Columbus but at least the children and dogs love the snowy blanket that continues to cover the city. This dog was captured in the camera's eye as she romped in a snow drift in an East Side park area.

Two Eastmoor Students Earn Rank As Finalists

Two Eastmoor High School seniors have been named finalists in the 1959-60 competition of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation program.

Principal T. Y. Mayer, of Eastmoor, said the students winning the honor were Jennifer Douthit, co-editor of the yearbook and active in vocal music, and Ry Poole, starting quarterback on the Eastmoor football team and active in instrumental music.

The seniors distinguished themselves by their high scores on two college aptitude tests used in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

Only about six-tenths of one percent of the seniors in each state received the awards. A national total of 10,000 students were so honored.

550,000 Compete

Over 550,000 students took part in the competition which began last April.

Miss Douthit and Poole will now compete for Merit Scholar honors. Those winning in the finals and the colleges they have chosen will share in the several million dollars in Merit Scholarship funds to be offered by over 110 different organizations and individuals and by the corporation itself.

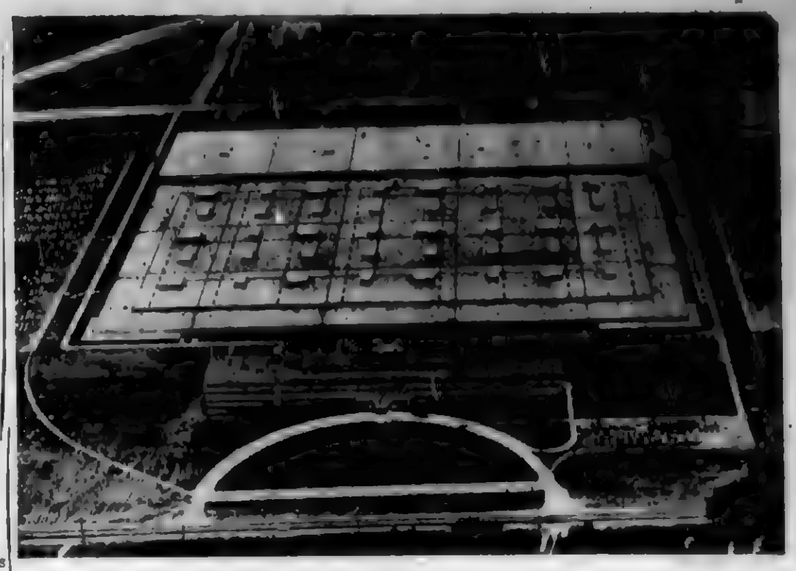
The winners will be announced Apr. 27.

• • •

Previous experience indicates that the finalists will be offered some $2.5 million worth of freshman-year scholarship assistance from these sources in addition to the awards made to those selected as Merit Scholars.

Post Resource

According to John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, "the Certificate of Merit winners, the top performers in the competition, constitute our country's most valuable single resource. Representing the best of each state in the Union they deserve the maximum recognition and encouragement of every citizen concerned with the future of America. The brilliant record of Merit Scholars of other years speaks for itself," he declared.



In the selection of Merit Scholars, high school grades, leadership, citizenship, and extra-curricular activities are considered as well as test scores.

Merit Scholarships are for four-year awards, and carry stipends that range from $100 a year to $1500 a year. Each stipend is individually determined on the basis of need. The amount is based on family resources, summer earnings, and college costs, all of which vary for each winner, Stalnaker said.

SCHOLARS—Two Eastmoor High School seniors, Jennifer Douthit, left, and Ry Poole, right, are finalists in the 1959-60 National Merit Scholarship Corporation program competition.

WESTERN ELECTRIC IS A GIANT!—Here is Western Electric's giant Columbus plant situated on 254 acres at 6200 E. Broad-st. The plant consists of a modern single-story manufacturing building and in front of it, a four-story office building. Along with two service buildings, there are some 35 acres under roof. The size of the manufacturing building can best be explained this way: it is equivalent to 21 football fields in floor space, would hold more than six OSU football stadiums or the Empire State Building could be layed across it diagonally with plenty of room to spare.

WESTERN ELECTRIC

New Firm Spends $14 Million In Area On Buying, Payroll

Three years after announcing plans to build a telephone equipment manufacturing plant in Columbus, the Western Electric Company is contributing substantially to the economy of this area, according to the firm's year-end report, published this week.

During 1959, the company contributed in excess of $14 million to the Columbus area alone in terms of combined purchases and payroll.

With employment steadily increasing to the 2700 level during 1959, pay checks also climbed to more than $8 million. In addition, more than 800 small businesses in the area supplied the plant with goods and services that amounted to nearly $5,800,000 and $8,400,000 throughout the state.

Employment at the plant climbed above the 3100 mark Saturday and will possibly be increased another 1500 by the end of 1960, according to John D. Burlie, plant manager.

These facts and figures point out that the large new Western Electric plant at 6200 E. Broad-st, has made a solid contribution to Columbus and has become an attractive asset to the city's East Side.

A plant spokesman said that many East Siders have been hired and estimated that many more employes have moved to the East Side after being hired by Western Electric.

The spokesman said that only engineers and technicians were brought in from other areas when the plant was opened. Manager Burlie said that most supporting workers were hired locally.

This points to Western Electric as a real economic boon to residents and businessmen in the East Side.

New products and improved cost performance highlighted a busy 1959 for the firm. Production exceeded that of 1958 in most product categories. The volume of telephone sets produced in 1959—more than seven million—was greater than in any other year.

Several new telephone products went into heavy production, including a small dial-lighted telephone, call the "Princess," and a new all-purpose business telephone known as the Call Director.

Quantity production of the Home Interphone System which permits inter-communication within a house by use of telephones, loudspeakers and "hands-free" microphones, began in December after extensive development and field trials.

The company's plant investment increased by $64,419,000 over 1958 to reach a total of $925,000,000 at year's end after write-off of facilities retired from service.

In looking ahead, Manager Burlie expects to see continued growth of the plant through 1960. The present payroll per month is more than $1,100,000. The total payroll for this year is estimated at $20 million.

East Siders will have an opportunity to tour the giant plant next fall when the firm plans a public open house.

Port Profits Jump; U.S. Declines Aid

Port Columbus officials were both happy and disappointed this week.

Happy to report record-breaking profits of $233,595 in 1959 and unhappy to learn that no federal funds will be forthcoming to match needed construction costs in 1961.

In presenting his annual report Saturday, Airport Superintendent Francis Bolton said the profits reflect the first year of operation of the new terminal. In 1958 profits were $37,131; in 1956, $121,972.

Passengers, airmail, air express and freight increases ranged from 17 to 22 percent. Landings dropped only four percent, despite the closing of the Naval Air facility. Two new commercial airlines were added, however. The parking lot brought in the largest single income—$151,087.

Bolton said this is the first time in 15 years that Port Columbus has been deleted from the Federal Aviation Agency's budget. Port authorities had asked for $200,000, mainly to repair taxiways, called essential to the safety of larger aircraft.

$49,500 Home Is Condemned After Blaze

A sign reading condemned has been placed on a nearly completed $49,500 split-level home at 1702 Spartan-dr, in South Berwick, following a destructive fire the evening of Mar. 3.

An overheated furnace was blamed for the blaze which heavily damaged the interior of the home and demolished the fully-equipped kitchen. The home was being built by William E. Blessing, developer.

Firefighter William Grunkemeyer, 38, of 2148 Schenley-av, was treated at Grant Hospital for smoke exhaustion and Firefighters Paul Kreider, 34, of 706 Weyant-av, and Ronald Ward, 24, of 3557 Kirkwood-rd, were treated at the scene.

BAND GROUP TO MEET

Monthly meeting of Whitehall Band Boosters Club will be held Mar. 15 at 8 p.m. in the band room at Whitehall-Yearling High School.

Eastmoor Blvd. Woman Captures Best Hat Award

Mrs. Rivington Fisher, of 549 Eastmoor-blvd, who says she loves beautiful things, hats especially, has just been named one of America's best-hatted women by the Millinery Institute of America.

The national award came to her as a complete surprise, she said. The honor she received is known as the Golden Hat Award.

Mrs. Fisher says one does not always have to pay a high price for hats. One of her favorites is a pink straw which cost just $4.

Six Choirs To Present Music Fete

East Columbus Christian Church, 3147 E. Fifth-av, will host the first annual East Columbus Festival of Music, planned Sunday, Mar. 27, 7:30 p.m.

An anthem by the six participating choirs, will be the festival finale.

LUNCHES DOWN

Lunch rates in Whitehall schools have been reduced by five cents. The Whitehall Board of Education early this week okayed the reduction that will go into effect for the rest of this school year.

Review Offers Whitehall City Council Calendar

Whitehall City Council recently approved preparation of a master plan of capital improvements. While this plan is being carried out, a large amount of legislation will be considered that will affect many residents.

As a service to Whitehall citizens, the Eastern Review will carry a calendar of pending legislation. The column, which will appear in the issue prior to each council meeting, will be edited by Council President E. D. Willis.

This calendar will run in conjunction with the Review's regular report on council activities. Legislation that has been acted upon will be covered in the report. Pending legislation will be previewed in the calendar for those interested in specific actions.

To List Actions

Ordinances and resolutions will be listed in the calendar according to the number of readings they have been given and the date of the reading. Legislation with emergency clauses will be so designated.

Legislation is required by law to be read at three consecutive council meetings. Council action is taken on the third reading. If an ordinance carries an emergency clause, it can be acted upon at either the first or second reading or can be carried to the third reading following normal legislative procedure.

Pending legislation appearing in the calendar is under study by the councilmen. Public opinion is the controlling factor in decisions made by council. It is during this period of study that comments of the people can be most effective.

Council President Willis said, "I urge all Whitehall citizens to follow the calendar regularly and am looking forward to comments regarding the legislation that will effect your city."

First of the council calendars appears today on page 5.

Bexley Plans School Bus Protection

The Bexley Council Tuesday night authorized the preparation of an ordinance requiring traffic to stop for school buses loading and unloading students.

Timothy A. Harrison, 44 Meadow Park-av, requested council take this action for the safety of the children of the community.

Council also gave permission to Preston Cooke and Co., realtors, to lease property at 2378 E. Main-st for a printing shop.

A request by Walter Webb, 4360 Broadview-rd, to demolish a vacant building on Cassady-av adjacent to the North Bexley Food Shop and construct a new building was referred to the safety committee.

The new building planned on the site would be in variance with the city building regulation which requires a 20 foot set back from the adjacent alley.

Bexley High Band Parents Plan Annual Variety Show Next Week

The Bexley Band Parents Association is once again planning its annual variety show to be held in the Bexley High School auditorium, Friday and Saturday, Mar. 18 and 19, 8:15 p.m.

This project is sponsored by the parents of the band members to pay for the new band uniforms which the high school band purchased this past fall.

Plan Minstrel

First act of the variety show will be a minstrel. End men will include: Tom Davis, Buzz Spencer, Harold Thompson and George McCleary. Junior end men will be Ronnie Hanover, David Stewart, Tony Cain and Jim Hardgrove.

The parents also will present square dancing, several singing numbers and skits during the show.

Other acts will include: the senior girls kick line, the barbershop chorus, Junior Beatniks,

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits — Oranges, grapefruit, bananas, grapes, apples, frozen strawberries.

RICE—ONE OF WORLD'S OLDEST FOODS

Do you forget about rice? It has long been the world's staple food. Served as a vegetable, as a dessert, alone or in combination with other foods, rice is nutritious, economical and easy to prepare. As with many other food products, rice has gone "modern" too.

MODERN RICE

Different kinds of rice in grocery stores look very much alike. However, you'll find several kinds available. Each kind possesses a distinctive appearance and flavor.

Brown rice is the product of the first milling process. It has only the hull removed—the bran coating remains. It requires longer cooking time than some other forms.

Regular white rice has the hull and bran layer removed. It has been polished, which removes another coating.

Parboiled or converted rice is white rice which has had a special treatment before milling. The grains are precooked. Much of the B vitamin content is forced into the center of the grain and is not lost when the bran is discarded.

Fortified or enriched rice is made by mixing a highly fortified rice with the ordinary milled rice. Thiamine, Niacin, ron and sometmes Riboflavin are added to the premix.

Precooked white rice has been partially cooked before packaging. It requires a very short cooking time.

Wild rice does not belong to the rice family. It is the seed of a wild grass gathered around the Great Lakes region. The volume is small, and it is usually considered a high-cost luxury item. Delicious when served with any kind of game meat.

RICE SPECIALTIES

If you're short on time and willing to spend a little more money, there's a wide variety of convenience packages available. Some of these are: canned rice, frozen fried rice and partially prepared pudding mixes. Rice cereals, quick-cooking and ready-to-eat, are available in many forms. In some of these cereals the nutrients have been restored to the brown rice level. The label will give such information.

In general, the more nearly the product is ready-to-serve, the higher the cost per serving.

NEW FOOD ITEM

Citrus fruit lovers may look forward to another new product. One frozen orange concentrate processor is introducing "a new improved" orange concentrate on the Eastern market, Mar. 10.

The juice will contain more orange pulp and "all of the full body and aroma of home squeezed juice." If it is accepted, Ohio markets may carry this soon.

More Readers Join Hartley Campaign For Better Television, Motion Pictures

Widespread criticism of the recent trend in motion pictures and television programs continued to spread this week with more readers expressing their opinions against too many killings and indecent presentations of sex.

They are joining the many others who have already become a part of the Hartley Newspaper campaign for better television programs and motion pictures. Their letters will be mailed to Governor Michael DiSalle, Senator Frank Lausche and U.S. Representative Samuel Devine. All three have expressed sincere interest in the letters and requested copies.

If you have an opinion about this subject, please make your stand known by writing a letter to this newspaper.

Here are the high points of letters received this week.

• • •

I wish to add my protest against the innumerable shows featuring violence of all sorts and an undue emphasis on sex. It has gotten to the point where children think death is almost always violent and life is cheap; that adultery is acceptable and sophisticated.

Mrs. Louis Hillenbrand

• • •

No wonder there are so many divorces and broken homes, deserted children, breaking and entering, juvenile murders and rapes. They see such things on television . . . Our responsibility is to set before them a better pattern in which to live by.

Rev. J. L. Geer
Hilliard

• • •

The thing uppermost in my mind about these shows is the influence it may give to a child growing up. I don't believe we should ever think of taking a chance on this for our children.

Jane Ganas
869 Binns-blvd.

• • •

Television programs are in general as unsatisfactory to discriminating listeners or viewers as are the radio programs. The plays shown can nearly always be outlined in advance by an observant viewer. . . add to this the excesses of profanity, drinking, social looseness and murder and it is no wonder people are turning away from the air waves.

Newton A. Thatcher
Franklin County Treasurer

• • •

Why don't they leave the old films of gangsters buried where they can't do our youth any more harm . . . Why isn't the low cut and scant shorts on dancers also censored. How can we teach any moral conduct to our children when the actress on television and movies whom the children like to copy are so flagrant with their moral conduct.

Mrs. Oliver Ott
901 Scott-st.

We feel that there can be nothing more deadly to the home life of our nation than the type of things that enter our homes and certainly with the emphasis these days upon murder scenes and the bedroom scenes, emphasizing the maliciousness of individuals and also the sex life.

Levon A. Ahaum
Minister
Livingston Methodist Church

• • •

I think it is not enough to say "too many killings." I say "no killing" on television . . . "this very obnoxious practice" is becoming far too much of a practice. Why can't television, which we love so much, be kept on a high level.

W. F. Musser

City, County Schools Share In $40 Million Distribution

Schools in Franklin, Fairfield, Madison and Pickaway counties are to share in a nearly $40,000,000 distribution of school foundation money that has been made by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The foundation funds that went out as third quarterly payments to school districts by the state, brought the total distribution so far this fiscal year to $136,180,452.

Amounts sent to city school districts: Bexley, $23,184; Columbus, $883,281.65; Southwestern, $157,956.87; and Whitehall, $136,228.75.

Amounts to be distributed by county board of education to local school districts: Fairfield, $223,522.42; Franklin, $458,145.62; Madison, $112,782.64; and Pickaway, $54,196.39.

An additional obligation of $2,400,000 will be expended by the state as soon as the money is available. This allotment includes $2 million as the state's share of the cost of the teachers' retirement system and another $400,000 for the school employees' retirement system.

A breakdown of the third quarterly foundation payments show that $37,488,629.06 will go solely for school operations while another $2,144,677 will be earmarked specifically for transportation costs.

Theatres Plan 'Day of Triumph' Film Showing

"Day Of Triumph," a film portrayal of the life of Christ, will be shown at a number of neighborhood theaters in Columbus, starting Sunday, Mar. 13.

Doors will open at 1:45 p.m. Sunday with a continuous showing of the film all day. Theatres will open at 6:30 p.m. weekdays.

Clinton Theatre, 3379 N. High-st; Eastern Theatre, 1642 E. Main-st; Markham Theatre, 1320 S. High-st, and University Theatre, 1980 N. High-st.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Righteousness Brings Peace To Christians

It is true that we live in a world where the innocent suffer with the guilty. Jesus never promises His disciples a calm or easy way.

He did promise them rest and peace. It is this that makes the difference between those who suffer for the sake of righteousness or as innocent victims of the wrongdoing of others or from some innocent cause — and those who suffer because of their evil-doings.

The records of sin and penalty are countless.

Not long ago, a self-made millionaire in England killed himself. He had chosen the way of evil living. The note he left behind expressed the view that all men were greedy vultures.

How different is the way of the righteous—and how well is this way expressed in the contrast between darkness and light in John's first epistle.

The way to darkness is the way of lying and destruction, but the way of light is the way of cleanness and honor and good fellowship.

John reminds us that we are never really free of evil, that if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves. But he does not say that even with our sinful tendencies, it is possible for human beings like us to walk in the light and to have fellowship with one another, as we seek the companionship and help of Him who is the light of the world.

YOUTH IN CLOVER

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Television Critic Says Some Blame Must Fall On Parents

I realize there are some people who do not agree with me at all. But, I am an American as well as the next.

I, myself, have a boy to raise like most American families. I realize the responsibility we all have, but do some of you? In some of the opinions I have read from other people, I would like to say that in some things I agree 100 per cent.

You know, there are so many people who think these things are wrong. But have you not done some of these things yourself?

What are the teen-agers of today to do with themselves for entertainment?

Do you expect them to sit at home with nothing to do? Isn't idle time what helps cause these problems?

There are some parents who do not take time to tell their child about life and sex, so how are they to find out?

If all you parents would be fair with yourselves, isn't it your failure some where that helps cause delinquency in our children?

As far as the television and movie shows, I agree that there are some pictures that shouldn't be shown. But, do you expect this world to be perfect if the people aren't.

You know, children practice what they have been taught, or what they sometimes see their parents do. Don't judge your child until you have judged yourself.

—Mrs. Carl McGlaughlin

Green Stamps help keep OHIO PRICES DOWN!

Like the ads of local merchants that you see in this newspaper, S&H Green Stamps boost business. At the same time they help keep prices down.

Here is why: When a store sells more, it can sell for less, since bigger volume brings lower costs.

Stores that use S&H Green Stamps must sell competitively. Ohio housewives are expert shoppers. They read the ads. They check and compare prices. And they can't be fooled!

Trading stamps are being saved today by two out of three American families—about 35 million in all. And their use is still growing in this and other States.

Whitehall In-Service Program Aids Teaching

When the schools are closed for a teacher's workshop the parents' question is, "What do the teachers do, take a vacation?"

The Whitehall in-service program is a vital part of a school year. It is important to our teachers as a time to invite guest authorities in to tell about programs which are being carried on in other school systems.

These are days in which teachers can discuss common problems and find out what others are doing in their classrooms, in various subjects, and about similar problems. These are times when each teacher might look at himself or herself and ask, "Am I doing the best job of teaching that I can do?"

New ideas are presented and each teacher considers how he can best fit it into his program so as to improve the learning situation of the children.

Learning Aided

The in-service program which you may hear about is not a vacation time for teachers, but a real learning experience. A recent study of 2,000 school districts scattered throughout the 48 states revealed that 94 percent of them were providing their teachers with some opportunities for professional growth on the job.

As a result of various studies made with teachers in the United States the requests of needs for professional growth led toward these general areas: improved teaching procedures, fuller understanding of philosophy and aims of present-day education, planning curriculum content, child growth and development, understanding of forces affecting education, greater understanding and skill in growth process, testing, evaluation, and diagnosis and remedial work. There are other areas but these were mentioned most frequently.

Why is it that teachers and administrators are willing to put in extra work and time to take part in the in-service programs? Why do school boards permit time during the school year to foster in-service programs?

Aim Is Profit

Why do teachers and other school people meet so frequently and earnestly in workshops, conferences, and in-service ventures to discuss the why's and wherefore's of fthe school business? The real motive probably is profit. As all big business ventures a school system is interested in making a profit only in a different way. This type of profit represents returns on time and energies of the pupils and on the investment of the public. To those who operate the schools the returns are through satisfaction.

The teachers and administrators recently took part in a workshop of two days. On the program as the main speaker appeared Dr. Ewing, professor of speech at Ohio State University and director of education television research projects, WOSU. Dr. Ewing discussed what has been done and is being done in education through television.

Even though there is a great future in television for the classroom it will never replace the classroom teacher. It is a means of bringing a specialist in science, mathematics, reading, and the like to many classrooms at the same time to give demonstrations, but it is still up to the classroom teacher to do the follow-up.

By Grade Levels

During the workshop, the staff divided up into grade levels. All first grade teachers met together, all second grade teachers, etc. The high school teachers met by departments. By meeting in groups of this type common problems were aired, possibly not to result in a foolproof answer but everyone had a chance to give opinions and many good ideas were shared.

A few of the problems discussed were: Should foreign language be placed in the elementary school?

Should we place more emphasis on science?

Should we have or consider classes for the gifted?

Should we develop primary units of organization in grades 1, 2, 3?

Should we give proficiency tests?

Further Study Set

These and many other questions were tossed back and forth within the various groups and many ideas were put forth. At the end of the workshop a period of time was allowed for reporting and recommendations of each group. Some of these questions were referred to a further study before any decisions can be made.

Thee Rosemore School staff had been spending many hours previous to the workshop in developing ideas in the teaching of science to our sixth and seventh grade students. Except for the general meetings all of the workshop time for the Rosemore teachers was spent at Rosemore School with the high school science department personnel in discussing the items that should be taught in sixth and seventh grade science and the teachers gained much help and experience in actually setting up, working with, and explaining science demonstrations and experiments.

In-service workshops are valuable to teachers and your children will reap the harvest as a result of these activities. Education will never reach the goal of perfection. As time progresses and people and situations change we will always be striving for some more effective way to teach our children to get the most out of life.

PRIZE-O-RAMA

Contest Closes Soon, Enter Now For Prizes

Only six short weeks remain in Town and Country Shopping Center's wonderful 13-week Prize-O-Rama contest.

Those who enter now not only have the chance to win one of the sparkling grand awards but also one of the fabulous weekly prizes.

Next week's prize is aimed at pleasing the homemaker who takes pride in her cookies or the man who likes cooking for a hobby. It will be an electric roaster oven, given by Albers.

Winner of last week's prize, a 17-inch portable television, was Aileen Galbreath of 561 Kellner-rd. She, like all weekly prize winners, will also be eligible to win a grand award.

IT'S EASY, FREE

Entering Prize-O-Rama is easy and requires no purchases. Just clip the entry blank appearing in the contest ad and drop it off at one of the Stores of the Week. This week these stores will include: Penneys, Sears Roebuck and Co., Moores and Zettlers.

All residents in the Eastern Review or Reynoldsburg Record circulation areas are eligible to enter Prize-O-Rama. Employes of the shopping center or Hartley Newspapers may not enter.

Grand prizes include the most wonderful group of gifts being offered anywhere. A $3,100 Moretti sports car heads the list. Next is a five-day trip for two via TWA to Las Vegas with all hotel accommodations provided.

Other top prizes include: a Kenmore washer, 12-cubic foot Coldspot refrigerator and a 17-inch portable television set from Sears; and a G. E. Filter Flo washer and $150 Golden Triangle all-transistor radio from Barry's Appliances.

Don't wait until the final week. Join the Prize-O-Rama promenade of winners now and get the opportunity to win a weekly as well as a grand prize.

Whitehall Baseball Men Are Named

Three men have been named baseball commissioners by the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association ,Inc.

The men are: George Myers, Babe Ruth League; A. Zettler Greely, Little League; and Jim Shackleford, Minor League. It will be their duty to control scheduling, umpiring, playoffs and make rule decisions for their respective leagues.

Also appointed was Harold Fleck as park commissioner.

There are still openings for coaches and assistant coaches in all of the leagues. Anyone interested should call Henry Maxfield, president, at BE. 5-7910, or Linn Hiatt, vice president, BE. 5-3043.

Assortment Of Recipes For Lenten

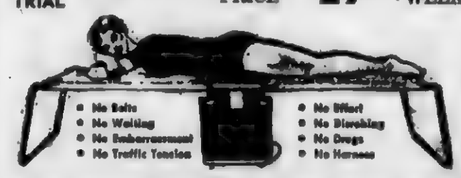
Are you having difficulties planning your meals and trying to satisfy your family's appetites during this Lenten season?

There are many delicious and satisfying foods that can be substituted for meat on the menu. By planning and making an effort the housewife can create a very flavorful and nourishing Lenten menu.

The Whitehall Branch Library has an assortment of books to help you with your planning and cooking. They are: "Art of Fish Cookery," by Milo Miloradovich; "Meatless Meals," by Leona Malek; "Good Housekeeping Cook Book; "Fannie Farmer's Cook Book;" "Creative Cooking," by Nicholas Roosevelt; "Menus and Recipes For All Occasions," by Stella Standard; "Picture Cook Book," by Betty Crocker; "Joy Of Cooking," by Irma Rombauer; "Rain, Hail and Baked Beans," a New England seasonal cookbook by Duncan MacDonald; "Mushroom Recipes," by Marcelle Morphy; "Onions Without Tears," by Jean Rothwell; "Delicious Seafood Recipes," by Louis Garrison; and "Shrimp Cookery," by Helen Worth.

Fellowship Sets Worship Service

Columbus Fellowship worship service will be held Sunday, Mar. 13, 4 p.m., at Broad Street Methodist Church, E. Broad-st at Washington-av.



Doral Chenoweth, of the Citizen-Journal, will speak, and Mrs. Tom Maston, secretary of Columbus Fellowship, will preside. Fellowship Choir, under the direction of Dr. Jane Forsyth, will sing; with A. Kelton Lawrence at the organ.

A forum is planned at 5:15 p.m., with Frank Baldo, executive director of Civil Rights Commission, speaking on "Equal Job Opportunities."

Bexley High School LION's ROAR

'Church Before School' Lenten Services Slated

By Glenda Schottenstein

Six "Church Before School" Lenten services have been planned by the youth of the four Protestant Churches in Bexley.

Students from St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Bexley Methodist Church, Brookwood Presbyterian Church, and Christ Lutheran Church will organize and lead the services.

"What Have I Done?" will be the theme of the services which will last from 7:45 to 8 a.m. Services will alternate at three of the churches.

The Ash Wednesday service was held at St. Alban's, and another service took place yesterday morning at Bexley Methodist. Other services will be: Mar. 16, at Christ Lutheran; Mar. 23, at St. Albans; Mar. 30, at Bexley Methodist, and Apr. 6 at Christ Lutheran.

Serving on the publicity committee are Irene Humphrey, Kathy Julian, Stan South, and Polly Taylor.

Merit Scholarship Honors

Eddie Goodman, Jeff Papier, and Judy Starke, all Bexley High seniors, have been named finalists in the 1959-60 Merit Scholarship Program.

"They will now be eligible for consideration for scholarships under the program," said C. W. Jones, principal. Finalists receiving college scholarships will be announced in late April.

Student Soloists

Miki Blum, who plays the flute in the Bexley High School Band, will appear as a soloist with the Columbus Youth Symphony this spring.

Miki won the opportunity by placing second in the instrumental division of a contest sponsored by the Young Associates of the Columbus Symphony at Capital University, Feb. 20.

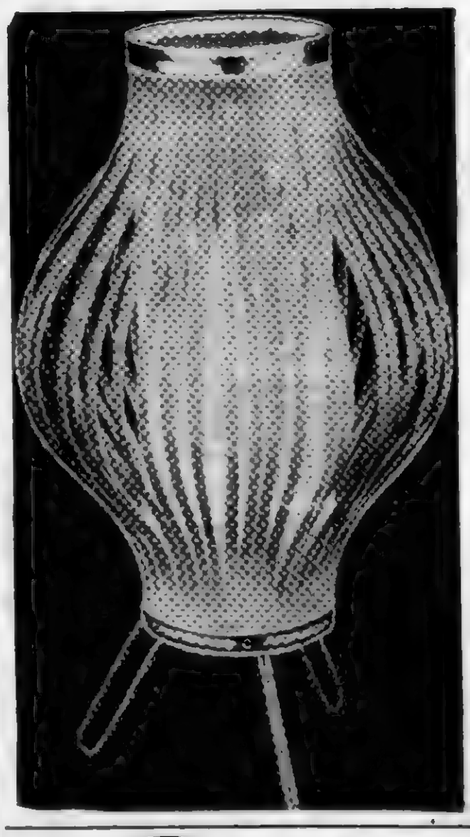
Girls' State Delegate

Betty Harris, a junior, was recently chosen as Bexley's delegate to Buckeye Girl's State by the Bexley Women's Club, which will finance her registration.

Karen Mercer was chosen as alternate to the convention, which will take place from June 18 to June 26.

During this period delegates from all over Ohio will learn about the government and take part in mock elections for city and state officials.

Eastmoor Pupils Win Top Rating



Fifteen Eastmoor High School's entries earned Ratings of 1 (Superior) in the district solo and ensemble contest at Capital University Mar. 5.

Winning the ratings were: Soloists—Mary Beth Thompson, flute; Barry Hilton, Jim Wright, and Bob Lewis, clarinet; Barbara Moltenberry, oboe; Janice Moltenberry and Mary Heffron, bassoon; Steve Cornils, trombone and vocal; and Sidney Townsend, tuba.

Ensembles were: Kenny Stickrod, Eric Snider, and Dick Stein in a trumpet trio; Mary Beth Thompson, Anita Topson, and Carol Rush in a flute trio; a saxophone quartet consisting of Sandy Edwards, Jane Lewis, Jim Wright, and Frank Oakley; a woodwind quintet consisting of Anita Topson, Jim Wright, Mary Jane Eyster, Janice Moltenberry, and Sandy Bland; and Boys' Ensemble, whose members are John Braulick, John Ewing, Floyd Snyder, Steve Jones, Dave Hoon, Mike Gorski, and Emmet Pearson.

These soloists and ensembles are eligible to enter the state contest on Apr. 9.

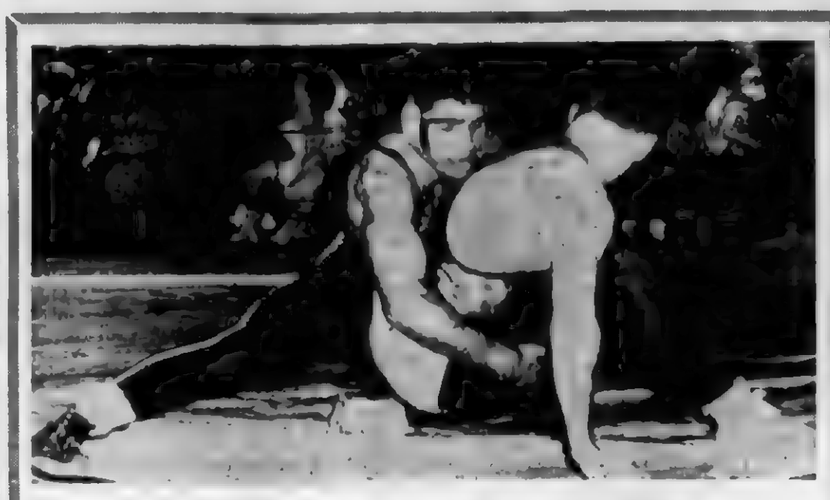
Ram's Gary Joseph Wrestles Way To State Matdom Title

Nabs Crown That Eluded Him In '59

By John Poeppelmeyer



The supple, muscular-looking young body, clad in an old-fashioned type men's bathing suit, lifted from the well worn mat. The gear around the perspiring youth's head was tilted a bit, but it still adorned, crown-like, the head of a champion.

For Gary Joseph, Whitehall wrestler, it was a moment he had waited a year to achieve—he had just won the state matdom title in his class.

One year ago, Joseph also found himself on the way to state laurels. He chugged his way along to the semi-finals before being derailed.

But this year, Joseph, who does his wrestling in the 133-pound class, found himself in the finals—at long last—and, to coin a term, "done himself proud."

On the way up, he decisioned Carl Hoppel, a rough customer from Lisbon Beaver in the semis. His opponent in the finals last Saturday night was a grappling demon from Shaker Heights. One Larry Janis by name.

GARY JOSEPH ON HIS WAY TO TITLE

To spectators, the battle appeared to be all over before it started. But to Joseph it must have seemed to be a long time before he was finally able to walk off the mat to claim his long-awaited for atonement.

A mat buddy of his, Mike Berry, who goes at it in the 112-pound division didn't fare as well. It seemed to be history repeating itself. Berry gained the finals last year only to be nosed out. It happened again this year.

He had fought his way to the finals again, dropping Charles Schaull of Clyde in the prefinals. But Eastlake North's John Price proved to be too formidable an opponent. He took his time and finally decisioned the capable Ram.

As a team, the Ramatmen moved up a notch from last season. It was eighth last year, seventh this time.

END OF 'GLORY ROAD'

Eastmoor, Whitehall Shackled

The "Glory Road" turned out to be a one-way detour to oblivion for Eastern Sector bucketballers last week.

Eastmoor buckled down to fight Mid-Eight champ London to a standstill before losing out in overtime. Newark nipped Whitehall in another tug-o-war, thus closing out the cage campaign in the eastern area.

The Warriors bounced their way to a 20 to 12 first quarter lead but started running out of steam from there on in. The Raiders boosted 21 points through the net in the second stanza to come within hailing distance of the Warriors at half-time.

With seven seconds remaining in the game, the Warriors held a one-point lead. It was quickly dissolved when London's Gary Reynolds was fouled and sank his gift shot.

London shoved through a pair of quick lay-ups as the overtime began. Eastmoor narrowed the gap with a pair of their own free throws. But it wasn't enough as Reynolds came through with two more foul shots and the game. The two free tosses were the Warrior's only points in the overtime. The final: Eastmoor, 55; London, 61.

The Whitehall-Newark affair was a tight see-sawer all the way.

The Rams jumped off to a one point 11-10 first canto lead and managed to increase their margin by five more points during the second period.

The hometown boys were still hot in the third quarter as they held onto a tight 34-31 lead. But from there on, it was all Newark.

They made 17 points in the final frame while surrendering only nine to Whitehall. The final: Whitehall, 43; Newark, 46.

East Columbus Recreation Center Cagers Lose Out

Teams from the East Columbus Recreation Center didn't fare too well in the City Inter-Center Basketball Tourney last week.

Both the junior and intermediate squads came in for a quashing. The 10 through 12 age group lost out to Linden and the older lads stumbled their collective toes against Whetstone.

The intermediates' leading scorer was Mike Sullivan.

Other news from the East Columbus front notes that the Center's Free-Throwing contest will be conducted next week. Contest information can be obtained from Tom Golden. Boys 12 to 18 are eligible to participate.

The winner from each age classification, junior, intermediate and senior, will compete in a city wide tourney.

Eastmoor High School's Warriors' Spear-It

By Barbara Moltenberry

Top 10 Seniors In School Scholastic-Wise, Are Named

The scholastic rank of all seniors in the class of 238 members has recently been announced. The top 10 are Jennifer Douthit, Eileen Collins, Ry Poole, David Shupe, Barbara Moltenberry, Rachael Egbert, Blanche Copley, Cynthia Husted, Andrea Powell and Judy Williams.

Principal T. H. Mayer is in Washington, D.C., this week attending the convention of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development. Mayer is presenting to the convention Eastmoor's program of advanced classes.

Fifteen of Eastmoor's entries received ratings of supervisor in the district solo and ensemble contest at Capital University Mar. 5. The soloists: Mary Beth Thompson, flute; Barry Hilton, Jim Wright and Bob Lewis, clarinet; Barbara Moltenberry, oboe; Janice Moltenberry and Mary Heffron, bassoon; Steve Cornils, trombone and vocal; and Sidney Townsend, tuba.

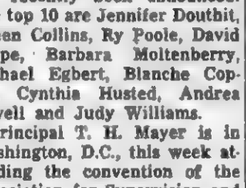
Ensembles were Kenny Stickrod, Eric Snider and Dick Stein in a trumpet trio; Mary Beth Thompson, Anita Topson and Carol Rush in a flute trio; a saxophone quartet consisting of Sandy Edwards, Jane Lewis, Jim Wright and Frank Oakley; a woodwind quintet consisting of Anita Topson, Jim Wright, Mary Jane Eyster, Janice Moltenberry and Sandy Bland; and boys' ensemble, whose members are John Braulick, John Ewing, Floyd Snyder, Steve Jones, Dave Hoon, Mike Gorski and Emmet Pearson.

These soloists and ensembles are eligible to enter the state contest Apr. 9.

Sandy Bland has been chosen queen of Eastmoor's band. She will represent the school at the annual military ball, where a queen of queens will be selected from all the school candidates in this area. The dance, for band members and their friends, will be held Mar. 11 at the Neil House from 9 p.m. till midnight.

A special guest this week is Wendell Smith, known as the "traveling science teacher." He has been giving interesting demonstrations to all science and math classes, and on Wednesday gave an assembly program.

Rehearsals have begun for Eastmoor's production of "The Bad Seed." Pam Finke is playing the part of the dangerous little Rhoda Penmark. Susan Brown and Joe Goodwin portray Christine and Kenneth Penmark, Rhoda's parents. Others in the cast include Cindy Husted, Charles Einhorn, Eileen Collins, Virginia Schott, Stan Bobrof, Denny Tishkoff and Larry Nichols. Production dates are to be announced later.



"Do We Need a Behavior Code?" will be the topic for discussion at the PTA meeting Mar. 14. The code, which some cities have already adopted, consists of agreements between children and parents on matters concerning dating, cars, school conduct, etc. Moderator of the panel leading the discussion will be Rev. Wilson Egbert, and assisting him will be Mrs. V. C. Geer, Robert Lewis, Ry Poole and Bobbie Robin.

The brass sextet will provide music at this meeting, to be held in the cafeteria at 8 p.m.

The Eastmoor track squad, coached by Mr. Cahill, has been hard at work preparing for the fifth greater Columbus indoor track meet, to be held in the French Field House on the OSU campus, Mar. 15 at 7:30 p.m.

The concert band will present a program at the Instrumental Music Parents' Association meeting Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p.m.

The final section of the 1960 "Shield", consisting mainly of the activity pages, was sent to press this week.

Whitehall Youths Launch Weight Training Class

During the past three months, a group of Whitehall boys have become interested in body development and physical fitness. Under the direction of Coach Ted Georgeff, they have started a weight training program.

The boys who have been participating are Ron Paxton, Tim Darin, Bill Compton, Ben Farner, Don Smith, Charles Poe, Clyde Smith, Richard Loeffler, and Douglas Trott.

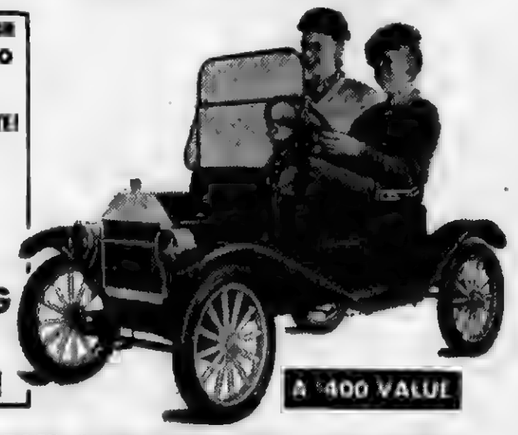
The program consists of four days of workouts with one day for measurements and agility games.

Results have been favorable according to the coach. The boys who were underweight, gained poundage along with increasing dimensions, in the chest, arms, hips, thighs, and calfs.

Boys who were overweight have lost weight. They showed increases in measurements of chest, arms, neck and calf muscles. There was a definite decrease in hip and waist measurements. Other boys gained in stature quite noticeably. Chest measurements averaged approximately three inches in growth. The waist reduction averaged two inches. Other measurements progressed comparatively.

A new program for beginners will be starting shortly.

C. R. Boulton Builder Of Railroads, Dies



Funeral services were held Tuesday for Cal R. Boulton, 1173 Sunbury-rd, who has been active in railroad contracting for 50 years.

Area Pupils Write Radio TB Scripts

East Side senior high school students are participating in a unique new radio script writing project, "TB On The Spot," spsonored by the Tuberculosis Society and a local radio station.

Contestants are required to write a one-minute spot announcement on "Local TB Research," "TB Society's Case-Finding Program," "Local Facts About TB," or a combination of these subjects.

Fifty students — at least one from each participating high school — will be heard on the air in his own original radio script during the late spring.

Complete kits containing the rules and awards, entry blanks, sample spot announcements, and resource materials on TB can be obtained from Mrs. Sara Amos or Mrs. Sara Buchanan, Bexley High School; Al Latham, Miss Sarra Searcy, or Mrs. Betty Cupoli, East; James Kaiser, Eastmoor; Fr. McPaul, Aquinas; principal's office, Bishop Hartley; Principal Austin Peel, at Whitehall-Yearling High School; or the TB Society, CA. 8-6704.

Among the 50 whose spots will be broadcast, a minimum of six will receive transistor radios as grand prizes. An additional 15 will be awarded phonograph records.

The school of each grand prize winner will receive "The Golden Microphone Award of Honor," a symbolic trophy engraved with its name and the contest sponsors. "TB On The Spot" deadline is Apr. 15.

Integrity, Ideals Topic Of PTA

"Integrity and Ideals" and how children acquire them will be the topic of the Willis Park School PTA at their meeting on Tuesday, Mar. 15 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Arthur H. Becker, professor of psychology at Capital University, will be the speaker for the evening and will also present a film which will help illustrate the question under discussion.

Council Finishes Details On Senior Citizen Units

Columbus Council Monday night completed final paperwork between the city and the Columbus Metropolitan Housing Authority for the Senior Citizen's Recreation and elevator apartment units.

Council also appropriated $25,000 to begin purchasing easements for the $2.2 million Stelzer-rd waterline.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTIONS CAUSE STIR OF EXCITEMENT

Most of the excitement this week centers around the activities of the Junior Class. After holding three class meetings, it was decided that Junior Class officers were to be elected by petition.

It works this way! Each prospective candidate, or his selected campaign manager circulates a notice in which is listed qualifications for the office and reasons why this certain candidate would make a good official. If he obtains 50 names, he is a nominee for office.

Plans for a campaign week are not definite yet. All elections are to be held by next Friday.

With the start of the penitential Lenten season, the Bishop's Relief Drive got under way at Hartley. The money obtained from donations by students will be forwarded by Bishop Issenmann to some charitable organization.

Carol Enderle certainly was surprised when she heard her name over the PA in the announcement that she was the winner of the Catholic Book Week contest sponsored by the library staff held under the direction of Sister Eleanor Josephine. In submitting over 800 titles and authors of Catholic Books, Carol surpassed the runners-up, Patty Kusan and Jane Huentley who entered more than 300 titles each. Father White awarded a daily missal to Carol on Friday.

Note on the convention! Jayne Henly and Ann Spencer are working hard on the campaign buttons to be worn by the delegates when they attend this affair at Capital University next Saturday.

Vulcan Offices At New Location

Vulcan Basement Waterproofing Co. has moved its office to 2700 E. Main-st.

The firm specializes in waterproofing basements, sealing bricks, masonry, etc., against water seepage, using its own product, Resinotic Volclay.

Treatment by the product requires no digging and does not injure flowers, lawns, shrubs, driveways, etc., according to officials of the company.

Miami Parents Plan Meeting

The Columbus Area members of the Miami Parents Association will meet with administrative and counseling officials of Miami University, Oxford at the Columbus Central YMCA on Mar. 17 at 7:45 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyt E. Bell, 862 Francis-av, assisted in making arrangements for the meeting planned to discuss university procedures and policies.

Whitehall Councilmen Can Smoke At Meetings

Whitehall city councilmen can now smoke at council meetings providing they do so in a small lobby just inside the front door of Beechwood-rd School.

A previous ban on smoking at meetings has been lifted by Whitehall Fireman James Soteriades. Large cigarette receptacles are provided in the "smoking area."

$4 Million Expansion Set At Cap

Capital University's 110th anniversary celebration last Wednesday was highlighted by President Dr. Harold L. Yochum's announcement of a proposed $4 million construction program for the university.

Students and faculty were told that the program will be extended over a 10-year period to meet increasing enrollments.

Dr. Yochum said the summer of 1961 would be the earliest possible starting date for construction.

A classroom building, administration buildings, three new dormitories, enlargement of the refectory, a field house, a natatorium and expansion of several buildings for speech and fine arts, music and a library.

Financing Set

The program will be financed by grants from the church body and regular fund raising programs of the alumni association and the development association, according to the university's president.

Dr. Yochum said nearly $4 million has been invested in new facilities during the last 12 years and about the same amount will be required by 1970 when enrollment is expected to rise above 2000. There are now 1300 students attending Capital.

Dr. Leo F. Reinartz, of Middletown, speaking for the Board of Regents of the American Lutheran Church, assured the students and faculty that the American branch of the Lutheran Church would lend generous support to the university's plans.

The American Lutheran Church, through grants, provided about a third of the cost of new construction at Capital during the last 12 years.

Guest To Speak At Faith Church

The pulpit of Faith Lutheran Church, 730 Collingwood-av, will be occupied Sunday, Mar. 13, 8 and 10:30 a.m., by Rev. Dan B. Bravin, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.

He will speak on "What Christianity Offers the Jewish People."

Dr. Bravin is area secretary of the Department of Christian Approach to the Jewish People of the National Lutheran Council. He is editor of Dawn, a publication of Jewish-Christian thought, Bible commentator and missionary.

E. Broad-st. Islands Set For Removal

Removal of "safety islands" along a mile-strip of E. Broadst, is expected to start by April 1 according to Whitehall Service Safety Director Robert Mickey.

Availability of blacktop for patching the street after removal of the six to eight inch tall islands will determine the starting date, said Mickey.

Owners of Town and Country Shopping Center will provide an air compressor and black top for the work, according to Mickey. The strip runs between the west limits of Whitehall east to Beechwood-rd. Plans for the removal of the concrete islands east of Beechwood are indefinite.

The director said the city will furnish the labor and a roller for the shopping center strip.

He added that the islands have been the objects of frequent complaints by motorists who refer to them as "tire-busters." Mickey said the removal may make enough room for a storage lane to be added to the street to relieve traffic congestion in front of the shopping center.

If you're not getting your share of today's expanded market, perhaps you're setting you're sights too low!

Time was when business men could depend on their next door neighbors to empty their shelves, but the continued development of the horseless carriage has pushed the market farther and farther from his doors.

Today, with nearby communities only minutes away, merchants must present their "case" to this expanded market. Your advertising message in the Eastern Review reaches over 22,000 families in this immediate shopping area . . . Far more than you can reach through any other medium.

It is no longer a matter of community merchants sending their messages into a radius of several blocks. Now it is essential that the coverage extend over several miles. You get that coverage in The Eastern Review.

A Weekly Guide For Things To Do In Your Leisure Hours

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

Snow, Sunshine Battle For Supremacy Now

Spring is here, according to outdoors fans.

The weather may not feel like it, and astronomers claim it doesn't begin until the 20th of the month. But the unmistakable signs are here, and after a long winter the signs of spring are welcome.

Bird migrations are always an indication of spring, but it takes a little experience to make such observations. Waterfowl flights were not reliable this year, because the wild winter allowed them to fly around and about all season long. I saw a "v" of Canada geese high in the sky flying northward more than a month ago. These were obviously migrating geese, but I think they were rushing the season a little.

Smaller birds, those not so hardy, are more accurate observers of the changing seasons. Red-winged blackbirds and meadow larks show up in number about the first of March, and their arrival is always a good sign. Bluebirds and robins can sometimes be observed in this area all winter long, but their numbers increase about this time. Flocks of grackles have been seen. All of this activity points to the coming of spring.

Many plants signal the changing season long before the calendar and weatherman make any acknowledgements. The swelling of maple buds is a good sign, and the fragile-looking spring beauty has broken dormancy.

There will be plenty of winter-like weather yet—snow, ice and cold winds. Old man winter dies hard, but he's on a down hill slide now. I have seen woodchucks out foraging around when snow was still on the ground. Birds are singing between snow squalls. Suckers are on the riffles of streams.

Anglers Renew Interest

Perhaps the most significant sign of all is the seasonal urging that fishermen feel about this time of year. The first activity is looking over the old tackle box and the rod and reel. A call is paid to the local sporting goods store to peek at the fresh displays of fishing gear. Travel brochures and leaflets become well worn.

Cabin fever is a preliminary disease — the more virulent spring fever is yet to come.

Let the winter winds blow, let the snow showers come, winter is gasping his last breath. Spring is here!

JUST TO REMIND YOU

The 52nd Annual Convention of the League of Ohio Sportsmen will be held at Neil House Mar. 17, 18, 19 and 20.

The club will again present a display of photographs showing the activities of the club during the past year. Delegates Ted Lee and Reed Taylor said they will again have a suite of rooms and will be happy to meet their many friends.

ICE TRAPS DUCK

Asheville, N.C.—When a duck sleeping in a lake awoke recently, he found that his tail feathers were frozen in ice.

By midafternoon, word of the duck's plight brought crowds, a traffic jam around city-owned Beaver Lake, and the fire department. The duck's dilemma was solved by Harry A. Guter who used a fire department grappling hook to haul himself in a small skiff across the 100 yards of ice to the grounded fowl. The duck was transferred to open waters of a lake.

Local Irish To Observe St. Pat's Day

The Shamrock Club will observe St. Patrick's Day this year in traditional fashion. Beginning at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Mar. 17, the procession will start at the Knights of Columbus hall, 80 S. Sixth-st and proceed to St. Patrick's Church where Solemn High Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m.

Rev. James T. McKenna, OP, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and Bishop Clarence G. Issenmann will preside.

The sermon will be offered by Rev. James R. Coffey, OP, House of Studies, Washington, D.C., who is assistant archivist and historian of the Dominican Province of St. Joseph. Rev. Coffey has just returned from Rome where he spent a year in research on Dominican history.

Following the mass the Shamrock Club will proceed to the Neil House where breakfast will be served. Louis C. (Bud) Murphy will act as toastmaster. Music and entertainment will be furnished by the Shamrock Club Chorus.

The Shamrock Club of Columbus is now in its 28th year of service.

Agricultural pests often are found in dirt caked under fenders and on wheels of cars returning from abroad, according to plant quarantine officials of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

Who's Who Behind The Scenes In TV

BY ROGER SWANEY

CHANNEL 4

After talking about all of the national shows appearing over the local stations, the TV Beat is going to familiarize the readers with part of the backbone of the local stations who help make these shows possible, both locally and nationally.

Jerry Razor, a WLW-C staff member, has been outstanding on such Channel 4 shows as Petticoat Party and Meetin' Time.

Plus his professional duties at the studio he also finds time to work with the Columbus Players Club. He played the lead part in the Players Club 1959 production of "Pal Joey."

Razor hails from a small town located south of Columbus called Commercial Point. He is a graduate of OSU with an Arts and Sciences degree in Radio and Television.

Entering the second half of its 1959-60 season, WLW in conjunction with NBC has seen few changes in its schedule. New daytime shows being televised over '4' are Play Your Hunch, Loretta Young Theatre, Comedy Playhouse and Adventure Time.

Hitting the evening spotlight is Overland Trail, Man From Interpol and Masquerade Party. These shows offer the viewer a mixture of drama, comedy and audience participation.

CHANNEL 6

A new series being started this week in the 'Idle Hour Guide' will be telephone interviews with professional personalities. Lawrence Welk is taking the highlight of this new series for this week. These interviews are made possible for television editors through the courtesy of WTVN and the American Broadcasting Corporation.

While on the rage of talking about people behind the scenes of the local stations, the Promotion Department at WTVN deserves some consideration. Under the leadership of Harry Mohr, promotion manager and his assistants, Marianne Mathews and Barbara Coski. This trio makes it possible for the TV viewer to receive the type of entertainment they want to see. Day in and day out they are constantly looking for new ways to make TV more enjoyable for the pleasure of its listeners. For example: Recently the late show was shifted around so much that they, themselves didn't actually know what was going to be shown on the late hour show. However, they did end up with a very appropriate name—The Hour Glass'.

Also headlining new shows on the local channels is the Ted Mack Amateur Hour. This, however, is not new as it will just be returning to the screen with a new line of talent on the way to stardom.

CHANNEL 10

Chet Long, a favorite of Columbus, brings to the viewers and listeners, facts of news happenings in the area. Chet keeps a busy schedule not only on the news outlook of the city but also is active in many civic activities in the area.

A well known trademark with the Channel 10 newscaster is his "closing thought." At the close of his programs he always finds time to offer to the public a phrase of wisdom.

Local Scene

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 17, 18 and 19 the Columbus Independent Players will present their first play of the year for their club.

The club will give "New Girl In Town" at the Hartman Theater. Showtime will be at 8 p.m. all three evenings. Tickets can be obtained from members of the cast or Players Club or by contacting the Clock Restaurant, 161 N. High-st.

The New York City Opera Company will make an appearance in Columbus on Thursday, Mar. 10 at 8 p.m. The famed company will present "The Ballad of Baby Doe." Reserved seat tickets can be obtained by calling or writing the Ohio State University at Mershon Auditorium.

Plans are making headway for the day when the Irish will don their derbies and swing their shillelaghs in a procession from the K of C Hall to St. Patrick's Church and on to the Neil House for breakfast. Members of the Shamrock Club, namely Buddy O'Cotter, Jim O'Callahan and Larry O'Corcoran, will proudly display the Irish in the blood as they proudly march to the Neil House for their annual St. Patrick's Day Breakfast on Mar. 17.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Champagne Bandmaster Rates Ohio As 'Tops'

Lawrence Welk

The first of a series of telephone interviews with prominent stage, screen and television personalities was received this week. Lawrence Welk will share the first week of this series.

Born on a farm near Strausburg, N.D., on Mar. 11, 1903, the bandleader who now shares has champagne music with thousands of people across the nation, has been a showman the biggest part of his life.

His musical career started out by his playing instruments by ear. That falls true with him today. At the age of 57 the one time farm boy has gained fame with his ear for music.

Welk's family life finds him sharing his spare time with his two girls and a boy not leaving out his two grandchildren. He likes sports, golfing and fishing as a sideline to his everyday activities.

"I feel very close to the people of Ohio" were Welk's words over the phone. He further stated that Ohio has offered the nation some very great talent in the field of show business.

Welk's memories of Ohio take him around Euclid Beach near Cleveland. He said that he has appeared in several other cities in the Ohio area that bring back fond memories but this was in his prime when he was just getting a foot in the field of music.

Plans are in the making that he will return to Ohio this summer with his show. He said they are in hopes of compiling a large show for a Goodwill Tour to be presented this summer.

In closing, the master of the champaign music said that they feel very close to the people of Ohio.

BETRAYED

Toronto—"It's not right to steal," a little boy exclaimed in a loud voice to a woman in a department store. A store detective, hearing the words, took the woman, Mrs. Mary Landry, 30, into custody. After brief questioning, she admitted that she had stolen some goods. The little boy was her son, police learned.

PLAN BREAKFAST

The Holy Name Society of Holy Spirit Catholic Church, Whitehall, will hold its annual father-son breakfast Sunday, Mar. 13, 10:30 a.m. at the Desert Inn.

British Priest Will Lecture At St. Mary Of The Springs

Rev. Gordon Albion—England's "Apostle of the Air"—will speak Sunday, Mar. 13 at the college of St. Mary of the Springs.

His address "Catholics and Protestants: Ideas for a New Approach," will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the little theater on the college campus.

Rev. Albion broadcasts regularly on radio and television in England, Canada and Europe. The 54-year-old priest first toured the United States in 1953.

Reserved seats for his address, and for succeeding series presentations are available by mail or telephone or at the box office.

Next series speaker, artist Ade Bethune, know for her decoration and design of churches will discuss the excavations of St. Peter's tomb Mar. 20.

Property Owners Asked For Air Space Control

Columbus is negotiating with 35 Wonderland Addition property owners to control air space over their land for the soon-to-be constructed new east-west runway at Port Columbus, according to an official report Friday.

The properties are located between Hamilton-rd and the airport. One is owned by City Councilman Ronald E. DeVore.

Columbus, under the proposed agreements, would be able to top or remove a tree or other growth which endangers aircraft approaching the new runway.

Beautician Wins Styling Award

Madeline Hettinger, owner of the Fairmoor Beauty Salon, 42 S. James-rd, was a recent winner of a hair styling and color contest.

She won the second place alumni award from the Ohio State School of Cosmetology.

New Bus Line May Begin After Mar. 15

Possibility was seen Thursday that the new Hamilton-rd area bus line may be in operation shortly after Mar. 15.

Further details for the route were completed at a meeting Monday night between a Columbus Transit Co. representative, Whitehall's Mayor Walter Moling and Service-Safety Director Robert Mickey.

The transit company requested that a traffic light be installed at St. Ann and Hamilton-rd. This request and regulations for bus loading zones and no parking areas will be placed before Whitehall City Council Mar. 15.

The planned bus route would be as follows: E. Broad-st to Hamilton, south to St. Ann's, west to Westphal, south to Etna-rd, east to Hamilton, south to Main, west to Ross-rd, north to Langley, east to Hamilton, north to Etna and then return over the same route.

Corporal Jeffries Given Top Infantryman Badge

Army Cpl. Thomas C. Jeffries, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jeffries, 241 N. Remington-rd, recently received the Expert Infantryman Badge while assigned to the 8th Division's 504th Infantry in Germany.

The 23-year-old soldier, an operations specialist in the infantry's Company C in Mainz, entered the Army in February, 1958 and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

DEPOT MAN HONORED

LT. COL. CIRALDO—Lt. Col. Robert I. Ciralde, deputy director of the Quartermaster Equipment and Parts Commodity Center at the Columbus General Depot, was recently awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Army Commendation Ribbon with Medal Pendant. Roving Science Instructor Visits Eastmoor Pupils

By Ray Shaffer

After waiting three years, Eastmoor High School Principal T. H. Mayer's plan to have a have a National Science Foundation teacher visit the school has been realized.

Wendall Smith, traveling science teacher, visited Eastmoor last week to present a series of classroom discussions and demonstrations on science, math and biology.

Principal Mayer put in a request for such a visit more than three years ago. To his knowledge, this is the first time a teacher of this type has visited any Columbus school.

Purpose of the visits, according to Smith, is to present certain school subjects in a more interesting manner to students and also to provide an opportunity for an exchange of ideas between teachers from various parts of the country.

Smith is actually employed by Michigan State University but took a leave of absence so he could work for the National Science Foundation, which sponsors the traveling teachers.

He is one of 20 such teachers circulating in seven states at the present. The states include Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Smith visits schools located within a 200-mile radius of his home in Minerva, O.

Adds Humor

Smith created a great deal of interest at Eastmoor in the subjects he discussed through a humorous, object lesson-type of teaching. He indicated that humor and eye-catching demonstrations with an element of surprise help hold the undivided attention of his audience and builds interest in the subject.

He also uses students in presenting science demontrations to give the lessons a more personal appeal on the pupil level.

Smith puts a certain amount of showmanship into his presentations. He said, "Students have often commented that I should have gone into show business."

Through his travels, Smith has observed many educational systems. "I have found a lot of educational improvements in school curriculum which many people are not aware of," he said.

SCIENCE DEMONSTRATION — Wendall Smith, traveling teacher for the National Science Foundation, presents a science demonstration for students at Eastmoor High School. A student was blindfolded for this one and asked to describe the size and shape of the wooden box he holds. In an attempt to point out that a scientist must leave no stone unturned in research, Smith explained a number of physical qualities of the box that the pupil failed to notice.

Land Use Committee Has Important Job

It is interesting to learn that a new sub-committee of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus has been organized. It is known as the Land Use Planning Committee.

More careful attention to the subject of planning for Columbus and Franklin County has come about in recent years. But it may be that we are getting serious about the matter some 30 years too late.

Even now we have the problem of the one hand not knowing what the other hand is doing, or in some cases over-ruling what the other has done. This problem becomes increasingly difficult to cope with as the many governmental entities in Franklin County expand.

The news of the past few weeks has been quite interesting and very well sets the stage for the kind of problems that face our rapidly growing community.

City planners, and we understand with the city administration backing, just recently turned down a request for the enlargement of an East Side shopping center, stating that we have enough major shopping centers at this time. A few days later two major shopping centers are announced for the north side and within a short distance of an already established center.

Much wisdom is needed for the development of long range planning for our city and county. But when such is accomplished there needs to be adequate provisions to make the plans stick.

The Development Committee is to be complimented on entering another important field of service and its recommendations deserve careful consideration.

Ain't It the Truth?

The item below was passed on to us by Jack Sensenbrenner and we think it is worth repeating. Originally the piece appeared in the ROANOKE (Va.) TIMES. The Title is "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address Rewritten" and it goes like this . . .

"One score and six years ago our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated on the proposition that all men are fair game.

"We are now engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether this taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so impoverished can long endure. We are met on Form 1040. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with those men who here spend their lives that they may spend our money.

"It is altogether anguish and torture that we should

Mayor and Mrs. W. A. Schneider

Bexley Mayor Named Area's 'Best Citizen'

Bexley Mayor W. A. Schneider has been chosen "Best Citizen of 1959" for this area in the Eastern Review's recent citizen contest.

The contest was judged by a minister and a prominent businessman. Both judges live and work in the East Side.

Now in his seventh term as mayor, Schneider has held the position for 25 years and has been active in a number of civic and service organizations.

A resident of Bexley for 39 years, the mayor resides with his wife at 789 Euclaire-av. He has one son, now living in Bay City, Mich. Another son, died at the age of 16.

Because of ill health, Schneider was never able to attend high school when he was a youth. Growing stronger as he grew older, he went to work with a plumber and seven years later opened his own plumbing firm, which he operated for 30 years.

Both judges agreed that Mayor Schneider's many years of service in Christ Lutheran Church had a great deal to do with their decision. Schneider is a trustee of the church.

In the nominating letter, a Bexley resident stated, "More important, I think, than his (Schneider) many years of service to the community, are the principles by which the mayor lives and operates the city."

"I feel his ideas are the very foundation of good citizenship. I have seen the mayor operate in his Mayor's Court and I know that he carries out his policy of honesty and fairness when handing down justice."

"He is a very active man but he always has time for anyone who comes to his office and gives personal attention to their problems. For these reasons, I consider him Best Citizen of the past year, and many other years during his long career."

Perhaps Mayor Schneider's popularity can be attributed to his hobby. "My only real hobby is people. I like to see my friends often and talk to them. I enjoy meeting and making new friends. In fact, I just enjoy people," said the mayor smiling. A smile that is familiar to many people throughout this area, not just Bexley.

WHITEHALL REFUSES PAYMENT

Columbus Board Stands Pat On Courtright Issue

By Betty Daft

Possibility of court action to settle a long-disputed question of the amount of Columbus School Board's indebtedness to Whitehall was suggested this week by a board spokesman.

City board members protest as unfair, the State Board of Education's ruling that the city should pay $236,789 for Courtright School Building, inherited by the city system when the area was annexed, as well as $289,000 bonded indebtedness and interest.

Francis T. Rudy, executive assistant to the superintendent of Columbus Schools, repeated Wednesday, "We accept as our responsibility the debt of $289,000 and have tried repeatedly to pay the amount, but Whitehall has consistently refused to accept it.

"The Board offered payment again, in a registered letter sent to Whitehall two days ago.

"$236,789 Unfair"

"Our protest is that it is unfair for the people of Columbus to pay $236,789 for Courtright School.

"Approximately 4000 acres formeraly in Whitehall School District, with a present student population of about 2200 has been annexed to the city.

"Persons living in that area have helped to pay for Courtright as well as all other schools in Whitehall District. They still have full use of the school, now operated under Columbus jurisdiction."

John A. Hoskins, assistant State Attorney General, in reviewing the issue for the State Board Monday, suggested that state foundation funds to Columbus in the amount of $888,628 each quarter, might be withheld until payment was made.

Rudy commented that Columbus Schools would "take whatever court action might be indicated if the matter is pressed."

Liv-Moor Safety Signs To Go Up

A nearly 100 per cent community effort on the part of Liv-Moor residents has resulted in a successful safety campaign to "protect our children."

City Council earlier this week gave the Liv-Moor Heights Civic Association the okay to install "watch our children" signs in 11 various spots in the area. Still pending is final approval by the city safety director.

The whole project began a year ago when a "watch brigade" of citizens recorded apparent speeders along Scottwood-rd. All approaches to Scottwood had been posted with stop signs, according to Mrs. Frederick Woods, of 1454 Coburg-rd, association secretary, making Scottwood a through street.

When repeat speed breakers were spotted a letter was sent to them, asking them to be cautious. Some time later, another watch brigade was set up and the number of speeders in the vicinity had decreased, Mrs. Woods said.

The association's safety committee at that time consisted of Paul Erich, chairman, and Mrs. Woods and Robert Allerding. They were originally the group responsible for getting the safety sign drive underway. Completing the project this past Monday were the members of the 1960 safety committee, Mrs. Richard Patterson, chairman, and Charles Tudor and Joan Brady.

The signs will be posted at 11 locations, all at main entrances to Liv-Moor Heights, Mrs. Woods said. Two will be at the corner of Zettler and Scottwood. Others: Coburg and Livingston; Barnett and Livingston; Seabrook and Coburg; Scottwood and Coburg; Roswell and Coburg; Courtright and Liv-Moor; Coburg and Deshler; Kirkwood and Zettler and at Liv-Moor and Barnett.

Three different types of wording will be used on the signs: "Please Protect Our Children"; "Caution—Children at Play"; "Watch Children."

The signs are being paid for out of funds provided by membership dues. Approximately 92 percent of the residents belong to the association, Mrs. Wood stated.

City, Board May Share Sidewalk Cost

Whitehall Council, at the joint meeting between the legislators and the school board last Thursday, gave tentative approval to split the cost of a 400-foot-long sidewalk between Beechwood School and Beechtree-rd in English Village.

The legislators also approved a board request for a streetlight on Kae-av near Rosemore Junior High School and school crossing warnings on Hamilton-rd near Etna-rd and on E. Main-st, in front of East Main Elementary.

Several councilmen expressed disappointment at the board's decision to hold on to a three-acre tract, west of the Whitehall-Yearling High School athletic field. The city was seeking the land as a recreation site.

Councilman A Zettler Greely termed the combined meeting a success. "It gave the two groups an opportunity to discuss mutual problems and work on possible solutions," he said.

Whitehall Legion Receives Plaque

Comrade-Whitehall Post 490 recently received a plaque for exceeding its membership quota. The award was presented by Walter R. Barnhart, 12th District Commander.

George H. Jones, post commander, reported at their last meeting that the post is co-sponsoring attendance of three local high school juniors at Buckeye Boys' State.

WBBA Outlines New Financial Support Plan

Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association is living up to its promise of a year ago—that it would not ask business houses for an outright gift of money again.

This year the merchants will get something in return for the money they give to keep Whitehall boys in uniforms and playing equipment.

They will be offered advertising in a program and schedule book that will be used every day of the playing season. Linn L. Hiatt, 876 Colgate-av, who is vice president and financial chairman of the WBBA, estimated that about 2,000 people will be using the programs each week. Twelve teams will be in action each night.

"This book, plus the regular membership drive handled by the boys themselves, will be the entire source of income for the organization," Hiatt said.

Budget Requirements Double

He gave figures to show that his committee faces more than double the task it had in 1959. The purchasing committee reported that it will need between $4,000 and $4,500 to keep 30 teams equipped. The great hike over last year's $2,000 budget is necessary because of the addition of Babe Ruth teams (13 to 15-year-olds) to local baseball legions in 1960.

"The new budget, plus the voluntary help of more than 100 adults, has to be met to insure a clean, supervised summer sports program for all Whitehall boys from eight to 15 years of age. Hiatt pointed out. "We hope everybody will help."

The desired $4,000-plus does not include the $1,000 supplied by the Whitehall Recreation board for the current construction of a six-diamond playing field.

Each member of the finance committee soliciting ads will carry a letter of identification signed by Hiatt and WBBA president Henry J. Maxfield. Prospective ad buyers are urged to request proper identification. Other members of the committee are A. Zettler Greely, John C. McQuaid, Francis E. Schaeffer, William O. Dodson, and George S. Wilson.

East Columbus Elementary Has Spelling Contest

East Columbus Elementary School sixth graders held a spelling bee Tuesday afternoon and chose winners for the preliminary exam to be held at Mohawk School on Tuesday, Apr. 6.

Winners of the East Columbus School are Norman Matthews, 11, son of Mrs. Virginia McCance, 3136 E. 12th-st; and alternate winner was William Egbert, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson C. Egbert, 3015 E. 13th-st.

This spelling bee is a national project for elementary schools. The winners of the Mohawk School preliminaries will go to Ohio State University for the finals on May 14.

Winners at OSU will then go to Washington, D. C. to participate in the semi-finals and from there the winners of the semi-finals will go to New York City for the National Championship spelling bee finals.

Vote Registration Deadline Mar. 23

Registration for voting in the May 3 primary election closes on Wednesday, Mar. 23.

It is necessary to register, if you have moved since your last registration, if you have changed your name (even from Miss to Mrs.), if you were just 21 or will be by Nov. 8, 1960.

Eastern Civitan Club Will Meet Wednesday

Eastern Civitan Club will hold its regular dinner meeting Wednesday, Mar. 23 at 111 N. fourth-st at 6:30 p.m.

The meeting will be followed with members taking a tour of the automatic installation facility of Bell Telephone Co.

COLUMBUS SYMPHONY PLANS YOUTH CONCERT

BEXLEY MONTROSE PUPILS—During this week, area pupils will be listening to or hearing about music to be included on the program of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra Youth Concert they will attend Saturday, Mar. 26, 1 p.m. at Veterans Memorial Auditorium. Highlight of the program will be the construction of a grand piano on stage. Pupils of Main-Montrose Elementary School in Bexley, are shown as they study several bars of music appearing on the board in the background. The music is from "Andante" from the Surprise Symphony by Haydn, which will be included in the program. Left to right are Laura Lee, Barbara Birch, David Brodsky and Karl Heinke. They are members of Miss Geraldine Twyford's fifth grade class.

'GIRLS IN GREEN' WILL VISIT YOU

The "girls in green," 5,000 strong in the Columbus area, will be out to sell a quarter million boxes from Friday, Mar. 18 to Monday, Mar. 28.

Although the United Appeal supports the general expenses of Girl Scouting, additional funds are required to round out their program. Proceeds from the cookie sale are earmarked for camping needs.

The local council supports five camping sites, open to 11,000 Girl Scouts in six counties. It has worked for the moral and educational development of girls here since 1921.

Cookies will be sold in four flavors at 50 cents a box. Sale chairmen in the Hartley Newspaper areas are: West—Mrs. Jack Kidwell, 28 Lenox-av, New Rome; East—Mrs. Thomas Seckel, 2814 Berwick-blvd. and Mrs. Orval Bell, 1055 Beechwood-rd; South—Alice Brown, 390 Oak-st; Reynoldsburg—Mrs. Austin Wogan, 7493 E. Science Fair Winners Announced

Students of Hartley participated in the school's second annual Science Fair Sunday, Mar. 13. The Fair was held to encourage Hartley's future scientists by giving them a chance to work on a project along their lines of interest. It also served as a basis of selecting the best 25 exhibits from more than 200 submitted that would represent Hartley at the State Finals.

Out of these 25, three top winners were named by the judges committee, made up of science teachers from the various local schools. First place honors went to Phil Feldmeier, second place to Mary Lou Noon and Rick Jacobs and Jim Fairbanks tied for third place. These three received award ribbons for their work and they will be honored at a special assembly to be held later on.

HAWK Lines

By Suzy Sharky

The intramural basketball program, under the direction of Earl Vermillion, will soon come to a close. Both boys' and girls' teams were organized early in January. The three championship teams in the boys' league, are Glass, juniors; Williamson, sophomores, and Aneshansley, freshman.

Student Council began pricing various juke boxes this weekend. The juke box for Hartley will be at the school in time for the Victory Dance sponsored by the Athletic Association.

The juniors are eagerly awaiting their class rings, which will arrive sometime after Easter. The rings, the first Hartley will ever have, will be struck in gold with a sapphire or ruby stone and will have Hartley's crest set on top. The rings were designed by a student committee.

"Sunbonnet Girl," an operetta to be presented by the Sophomore Glee Club, will be held in the near future. Sister Ann Christopher, choral teacher and director, held tryouts last week. The operetta is open to the public, and admission proceeds are used for the Music Department.

Local hospitals are receiving help from Hartley students. Members of Sister Angela's Junior Red Cross have been working at the hospitals for the past few weeks, acting as messengers, running errands, carrying trays. Volunteers from the advanced biology class also assist in this work.

Hartley's school newspaper, The Hawk-Eye, published its sixth issue this Wednesday. This issue marked the beginning of the second year for the paper, one more "first" for the Hawks of Bishop Hartley.

Bexley High School LION'S ROAR

Band Parents' Show Slated For Two-Day Presentation

By Jessie Wile

The Band Parents' Show will be presented Mar. 17 and 18 in the high school auditorium.

Appearing in the program will be the acts selected from the high school talent assembly: the senior girls' military kick-line, the Junior Beatniks, the sophomore girls' chorus line, Linda Ohmer's baton-twirling act, the barber-shop chorus and Brenda Walsman's version of "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No."

John Hardgrove, director of the show, will be assisted by C. Robert Myers, choir director and William Rost, band director.

The proceeds will be used to pay for the band uniforms which were purchased last fall.

Featured in the show will be the junior and senior high combos.

The Girls' Athletic Club style show will present fashions for the spring season Tuesday, Mar. 22, in the high school auditorium.

The theme of the style show is "Springtime." Spring clothes for mothers and teen-age girls will be featured. The stage will be decorated with spring flowers and spring music will be played.

Two mothers, Mrs. Richard Dick and Mrs. R. C. Stacker will model women's dresses, suits and casual clothes.

Bey Sclove, Lynn Elsass, Lee Ann Powers, Irene Humphrey and Jane Staker have been chosen to model the teen-age clothes.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of chairman, Sandy Petzinger, Suzanne Tussing, Cindy Crail and Marilyn Poth.

The style show is open to all Bexley girls and their mothers. After the show Linda Held and her committee will serve refreshments.

LOCAL DEATHS

Whitehall Pre-School Is Packed

The Whitehall Board of Education has been fortunate the past three years to have the wonderful cooperation of the churches in our city in the housing of part of the kindergarten classes.

This year the school system had an enrollement of over 500 kindergarten children as of Feb. 1.

These five-year-old children are attending classes at Norton Church of Christ, Faith Lutheran Church, Evangelical United Brethren Church; also, in three classrooms at Yearling High, two sessions at East Broad Street School, two sessions at the Rosemore School and two sessions at Etna Road School.

They begin their understanding of numbers, the size of groups of objects, and learning to count. They learn to recognize the numbers and what they stand for.

Children learn to stand before a group and talk. They outgrow baby-talk and learn to use complete sentences. They learn to recognize their own name and often many others. They see differences in sizes and shapes of objects which lead directly into seeing differences in shapes of words. They learn how to use school materials to express their own ideas. And, of course, they learn games and songs and hear children's stories. All of these things lead into first grade work and are a vital part of a total school program. The Whitehall Board of Education knows this and that is why they are caught in the dilemma of more children than there are school rooms to house them.

10 PER CENT PHONE LEVY

President Eisenhower has insisted on extension of the ten per cent Federal tax on local telephone service after June 30th, rejecting Governor Rockefeller's plan to transfer the levy to states for educational needs.

CATHERINE E. KENNY

Requiem High Mass was offered for Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Kenny, 86, 173 Woodland-av, Tuesday, Mar. 15, at St. Mary's Church.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Annie Nelson.

Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

It's Now Official

Ladies' old-fashioned bloomers are passe. The National Labor Relations Board has said so. In Alabama a textile mill decided a couple of years ago to discontinue making bloomers. There was no market for them. This threw eight people out of work. The union to which the eight paid dues filed a complaint with The NLRB, alleging unfair labor practices. The union urged the NLRB to compel the company to keep on making bloomers so the jobs could continue. After two years of mumbo-jumbo the NLRB decided that the company had the best possible reason for not making women's bloomers. They discovered that women don't even buy them anymore . . . much less wear them! We weren't told how they conducted the survey. —(Twin City Bulletin)

Eastmoor High School's Warriors' Spear-It

By Barbara Meltenberry

Students Turn Tutors, Take Twirl At Teaching

Eastmoor's senior class turned the tables on the teachers yesterday when Student Council sponsored a "Senior-Teacher Day." Seniors were able to teach all the classes of a particular teacher and assign homework for that day.

The seniors and the teachers they were assigned to are Emmet Pearson, Mr. Aggas; Sandy Eiseman, Mr. Barr; Virginia Siefert, Mrs. Bartlett; Neva Lowe, Miss Belk; Edith Harris, Miss Bell; Sandy Bland, Miss Berisford; Dave Frederick, Mr. Buck; Ron Boyers, Mr. Cahill; Bill Gillam, Miss Casey; Barry Friedman, Mr. Condit; Jeff Gordon, Mr. Conover; Joe Goodwin, Mr. Courtney; Joy Henry, Mr. Crane; Penny Wainer, Mr. Dixon; Peggy Colegrove, Mr. Eckelberry; Bill Burton, Mr. Foose; Blanche Copley, Mrs. Franklin; Diane Ortlepp, Mr. Disbro.

Angel Burnette, Mr. Fry; Pat Winslow, Mrs. Glaser; Gretchen Vols, Miss Glessner; Cathy Hiser, Mr. Heintz; Nancy Welch, Mrs. Hicks; Eileen Collins, Miss Holtzman; Barton Zaner, Mr. Howard; Sandy Chambers, Miss Jackson; Frank Hoffman, Mrs. Johannes; Sid Townsend, Mr. Kaye; Cynthia Husted, Mr. Keiser; Linda Ramseyer, Miss Marmet.

Ron Berman, Mrs. Mechling; Judy Williams, Miss Miller; Sue Hallmark, Mr. Mobberly; Karen Smith, Mr. Morris; Don Schrock, Mr. Murphy; Rachel Egbert, Mrs. Pryor; Joyce Koltun, Mr. Pursell; Kay Martindale, Mr. Shurlow; Doris Wimmer, Miss Singer; Bobbi Robin, Mrs. Singleton; Margrit Bauer, Mr. Steele; Linda George, Mr. Tata; Homer McKnight, Mrs. Warfield; Mike Swinger, Mrs. Wilson; Ry Poole, Mr. Mayer; John Braulick, Mr. Goss.

The Lance, a new type of magazine proposed by faculty member William Disbro, will be the first one of its kind in Columbus. The booklet will contain examples of the finest work done by students in each academic subject and photographs of the best work done in photography, art and home ecnomics.

Committee chairmen are Frank Hoffman, student editor; Stan Bobrof, promotion; Jay Perler, sales; and Pat Winslow, editorial.

Javelin and discus throwing contests were part of the fun at the annual Latin banquet yesterday. Actually Miss Lincoln's Latin students used toothpicks for javelins and paper plates for the discus contest. A queen was selected from all the girls wearing the Roman-type clothing. The anniversary of the death of Caesar on Mar. 15 was the theme of the entertainment provided by some of the Latin classes. On the menu for the evening were "Poor Boy" sandwiches.

Sidney Townsend, the band's excellent tuba and string bass player, was chosen outstanding musician at the first annual dance band clinic, sponsored by the Ziggy Coyle Music Centers Mar. 12. Sidney was awarded a scholarship to the Stan Kenton Dance Band Clinic at Indiana University during a week in August.

Anyone wanting information on camping needs only to go to one of Eastmoor's showcases. The Outdoor Club has arraged an interesting display of camping attire, cooking utensils, tools, tents and other camping equipment. There are also maps showing ideal hiking and camping spots.

Outdoor Club officers are Ron Raver, president; Bob Wymer, vice-president; Diane Fagan, secretary; Sue Hoffman, treasurer; and B. Foose, advisor.

Margrit Bauer, co-editor of the 1960 "Shield," Eastmoor's yearbook, has just won the $300 Taylor Yearbook scholarship awarded to an Ohio high school graduate. She was declared the state winner on the basis of academic achievement, character and yearbook interest. Margrit will attend Ohio University in the fall.

Webber Registers Guilty Plea In Infant Slaying

Franklin County Criminal Court Friday heard a plea of guilty to first-degree manslaughter charges against Elmer Lee Webber, Jr., of 3111 E. Sixth-st. Webber was charged with the specified charges for the Jan. 14 slaying of Richard K. Eskelson, an infant boarded at his home.

Judge Robert M. Draper referred Webber's case to the probation department for consideration. He did, however, tell Webber that this would not necessarily indicate that he would be paroled.

Church To Host Denison Students

A team of students from Denison University will conduct a special service at East Baptist Church Sunday, Mar. 20, 7:30 p.m.

Students will report on a conference held at Ohio University over the Christmas holidays, attended by 3,000 students, half of them from overseas.

Public is invited.

Bexley Celebration Club Starts Egg Hunt Plans

Bexley Celebrations Association attracted a large attendance at its meeting last Thursday when plans were formulated for the annual Easter egg hunt to be held at the Jeffrey Mansion.

Extensive plans were laid for the hunt which is expected to be one of the organization's most successful events, according to a spokesman. Arthur Leach was also selected as the financial secretary for the group at the meeting.

Modern Fisherman Debunks Cold Weather Angling Myths

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

In the midst of last week's Arctic weather he caught 15 bluegills from a farm pond. "Surprisingly," he said, "the ice was not very thick. The deep blanket of snow evidently kept the ice relatively thin, so I had to be careful."

An interesting observation by Strohm was that the fish were caught at all depths. This may mean that bluegills are on the move, and will be ready for artificial lures as soon as the ice goes out for good.

Another early March catch was a four and a quarter pound largemouth bass taken from the Scioto River by Herman Motter, 2258 Fishinger-rd. The fish was taken on a meal worm, which just goes to show you don't know what to expect when ice fishing.

Change Tactics With Season

The period of time between the end of ice fishing and the beginning of spring fishing is shortening each year. This is probably due to the fact that more and more fishermen learn that fish do not really become dormant during cold weather. Myths die hard, but the truth of the matter is that a lot of central Ohio anglers catch fish the year around — they just change their tactics to fit the season.

Even during uncertain March weather sportsmen are preparing for the onrush of the spring season. Gazing into the crystal ball shows that artificial nightcrawlers will be more popular than ever this year. The growth of these lures has been tremendous, and currently Heddon's, an old-timer in the business is entering the worm and eel field. These worms are getting fancier all the time, and this season you will see them with gold bands for added fish attraction.

Plastic Lures Are Catching

The so-called black eel was born in the South, when some enterprising angler dyed a foot-long piece of pork rind black and started catching bass on it like mad. About the same time the plastic industry reached a pinnacle of resourcefulness, and produced a phony nightcrawler that fooled everything from sunfish to barnyard chickens. Now, everything is mixed up and you have black nightcrawlers, plastic eels and happy fishermen.

You will find the artificial worms trussed up in harnesses for trolling in Lake Erie, and there are plenty of them sold mounted back of a June bug spinner. They are available in bulk quantities, and many fishermen carry a pocket full to thread on hooks like live works. Others come with hooks imbedded.

The secret in fishing these lures is to work them slowly. My first experience with "black eels" was on Lake Hamilton in Arkansas, and we worked them lazily along rocky shelves near shore. In one day we caught largemouth bass, spotted bass and smallmouths in different sections of the lake. Plastic worms are pretty much an all-round bait in this area too. Rock bass gobble them up as do largemouths and smallmouths. To catch bluegills you need the small edition — plastic red worms.

Contempating the coming fishing season is fun. Everyone dreams of having a banner year, as a result of finding a truly good bait. This year everybody will find plastic nightcrawlers and eels.

Bible School Conference Slated Friday

A free one-day Vacation Bible School Workshop will be held at the Central YMCA auditorium, 40 W. Long-st, Friday, Mar. 18. The display will be under the sponsorship of the Christian Book and Gift Store.

There will be two separate sessions, the first being at 2 p.m. and the same session being repeated at 7 p.m. According to Mrs. Mildred Smith, sponsor of the workshop, the purpose of this conference is to help Vacation Bible School workers in their planning and to acquaint them with the brand new courses, as well as many new and outstanding creative activities.

A large display of handwork and creative activities will be on display. Every worker can view the supplies at his leisure, with out-of-town experienced field workers at hand to explain the best possible use of all materials. The workers are experienced in working with children in Christian education and will also be helpful to Sunday School teachers. The workshop is open and free to the public.

WLW-C To Televise 1960 Redleg Games

By Roger Swaney

A total of 26 baseball games of the Cincinnati Redlegs will be seen over Channel 4 during the 1960 season. Of the 26 games to be televised, 13 will be home games in color, according to WLW-C officials.

WLW-C is making available to schools, fraternal organizations, clubs and other interested groups a print of "In Focus."

In Focus is a story about television. It tells the effect that television can have upon a family, a town and a country. The film includes excerpts from television programs. The people who will tell the story of television are factory workers, farmers, homemakers, teachers and a host of other people. The people playing the part in this film did not have a script written for them nor words put into their mouths. They act the part as they feel toward the TV industry . . .

Motion picture star Jeff Chandler has been signed by Producer William Goetz for the title role of David for a series of two-hour-long Biblical dramas that the Academy award-winning movie producer will film in Israel for airing over WTVN-TV.

The Biblical dramas will tell of the adventures of David when, banished by King Saul, he was froced to live as an outlaw.

These presentations are expected to be presented over ABC as special programs in the 1960-61 season . . .

An hour-long documentary report on Korea will be telecast Tuesday, Mar. 29, at 10 a.m. John Secondari, who produced the filming will also narrate the production of what Korea is like today.

The story is based on Korea, a nation attempting to establish an independent life in an atmosphere which is not quite war but is so far from peace . . .

On Friday, Apr. 1, Person to Person with Charles Collingwood will present its special half-hour visit to Vatican City over WBNS-TV.

Acting as host for the program is Archbishop Martin J. O'Connor, rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

The visit will originate in the Pontifical American College where the Archbishop will explain the operation of the 100-year-old college, which is for American students who are studying for the priesthood . . .

On Mar. 28 and Apr. 3 the Players Club of Columbus will present Anna Christie. The play was written by Eugene O'Neill. It will be given by the players at their theater on Franklin-av just off Washington-av.

Joyce Cavarozzy is playing the title role and Bob Rathbun, Hanley Collins, and Hester Ramsey are in feature leading roles. Others in the cast include Joe Myles, Merton Boyd, Roger Allen, Lewis Grey, Dale Landis and John Crawford.

Erle Stanley Gardner, The Man Behind Perry Mason

A pile of books over 165 times higher than Mt. Everest, by one author! Original texts in English, translation into 20 languages, including Indian! A wide preoccupation with prison reform, crime detection, forensic medicine, courtroom justice. That's the story of a lawyer turned author, a champion of the unfortunate, a phenomenon in publishing. It's the story of Erle Stanley Gardner.

Twenty-seven years ago, a hard-covered mystery novel by a new author was placed on America's bookshelves. On its jacket — a terse prediction: "Perry Mason, criminal lawyer. Remember that name. You'll meet him again. He is going to be famous."

What makes this fictional attorney move at the pace he has? The answer lies partly in the working habits of his creator.

Gardner, an energetic Maestro of Mysteries, rises each working day at 4 a.m. to keep six secretaries busy recording his ideas. He often dictates parts of four different novels in an afternoon. Operates like a chess champion playing a half-dozen boards at once.

Gardner's been known to excuse himself from a dinner party, to return an hour later. In his study, just dictated: a complete chapter ready for another of his celebrated novels.

More than 107 million individual Perry Mason volumes have been sold in the U.S. and Canada alone, to say nothing of hundreds of thousands in England, with translations appearing in Czech, Danish, Dutch Finnish, French, German, Hebrew, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Slovene, Spanish, Swedish and a number of the Indian languages.

This legal pioneer also has intense interests in prison conditions and reform, scientific methods of detection, forensic medicine, lie detectors and criminal psychology. In short, he's a man dedicated to justice.

Such involvements require a great deal of peace and concentration, and Gardner finds them in four hideouts scattered throughout California. Home base is the Rancho del Paisano, a rugged 3,000-acre tract near Temecula where he turns out an average of 20,000 words a day. For diversion, this man, seventy on his last birthday, is yet adept at horseback riding and archery.

One of his most recent contributions was to help found a civic group in Texas. There, an attorney general organized a group of businessmen to educate people in nearby communities in the responsibilities of law enforcement. The group has been so successful — and appreciative of Gardner's personal contribution — that they have named him an honorary citizen of Texas, a Texas Ranger and an assistant Attorney General.

But Gardner has no such ulterior motives in turning out his works. He left a successful law practice to join the literary world simply because he enjoys it.

Like many other successful writers, Garden also uses a pseudonym — A. A. Fair. Under that byline, he's created other characters — such as Bertha Cool, a femme private eye. And under his own name, the "D.A." series presents the "other side" of courtroom battles.

'Mrs. America' Judges Named For State Finals

Five prominent Ohioans will serve as judges for the state finals of the 1960 "Mrs. America" contest in Columbus, May 4 and 5.

They are Mrs. W. W. Hayes, wife of OSU football coach Woody Hayes; Frank W. Spencer, published of the Newark Advocate, and immediate past president of the Ohio Newspaper Association; Edward F. Feighan, Cleveland municipal court judge; Mrs. Miriam J. Hawkins, society editor of the Warren Tribune Chronicle, and Marian Fletcher, public relations director and assistant to the society and food editors of the Lima Citizen.

They will choose the state's leading homemaker from among 17 state finalists selected during local and district "Mrs. America" eliminations which will get under way early in April.

Applications for the "Mrs. America" contest are still being accepted by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company. Deadline for entries is midnight, Mar. 31, and the event is open to all married women over 21.

Contestants will be judged on their homemaking ability, appearance, personality and poise, character, grooming and community activities.

More than $50,000 in prizes will be given away.

Jets Annual Ticket Book Drive Underway

This advance sale of general admission tickets, which provides the club with half of its pre-season income, concludes Monday, Apr. 11.

Fans purchasing book tickets save $2.50 per book. The $10 books each contain 10 general admission tickets which sell for $1.25 over the counter at the stadium.

The book tickets are good for admission to any regularly scheduled International League game during the season and are valued at $1.25 apiece when exchanged for box and reserved seats at Jet Stadium.

Numerous individuals and business concerns in Columbus and Franklin County will handle the sale of the books. The books may also be purchased at the Jet Stadium office, which will be open from 9 to 5 daily until the season opener against Montreal, Apr. 20. Persons seeking additional information may call the stadium office (CA. 4-1175).

The five previous years of the book ticket sale have grossed the club $399,310, an average intake of $79,862.

The annual Book Ticket Drive is the major medium through which individuals in the Central Ohio area are able to insure the continued financial stability of the community-owned Jets and the Columbus Youth Foundation.

HOT MONEY!

Miami, Fla.—Hot money put Dewitt Addison in the Miami jail.

He tried to exchange $280 in scorched bills at a bank in suburban Coral Gables. Police arrested him and charged him with the robbery of a Vero Beach supermarket.

Officers said the money was burned when Addison opened the safe with a blowtorch.

High Schoolers Compete In Ad Essay Contest

Students from 40 public, private and parochial high schools of Columbus and Franklin County will compete in the 15th annual high school essay contest, now under way under the sponsorship of the Advertising Club of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce.

Theme for the 1960 contest is "When I Think About Advertising . . .", to be presented in 1,000 words or less.

Three prizes of $75, $50 and and $25, plus individual trophies, will be awarded to the winners by the local advertising club. Two other winners will receive honorable mention certificates. The local first prize winner will then compete in the national contest, which offers $500 in cash, plus an all-expense-paid trip to the International Advertising Convention in New York City in June, 1960.

Take Merit Scholarship Tests 59 Whitehall-Yearling Students

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what can be learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

The test is the first step in the sixth annual competition for Merit Scholarships provided by some 100 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself. Over $15,000,000 has been awarded in the first four years of the program.

The number of scholarships awarded in any year depends upon the extent of sponsor participation. The basic continuing program is for $1,000,000 a year for (ten annual programs). It is estimated that sponsorship participation this year will add more than $2 million in sponsored Merit Scholarships. It is also expected that various outside-the-program sources will increase the present amounts offered to high scoring students by several million dollars.

For students taking the test on Mar. 8, results will be reported to all participating schools before the end of the spring semester in time for use by class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Some 10,000 Semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Names of Semifinalists are published in a booklet which is widely distributed among colleges and other scholarship agencies.

Each Semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performances in the second examination will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from this group of finalists on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular and outside-of-school interests and accomplishments, and other indications indicating future promise. Each finalist in addition to being considered for a Merit Scholarship is awarded a Certificate of Merit attesting to his outstanding performance.

Four-year scholarships are awarded to the winners with stipends depending on financial need. Minimum award in 1961 will be $100, the maximum will be $1,500. The average stipend in 1959 was $743. Supplementary cost-of-education grants are usually made to the college and universities which the scholars attend.

An additional 25,000 students selected without regard to state quotas are awarded letters commending them for their superior performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. These students are asked to complete brief personal data cards, and are considered for special awards made through the facilities of NMSC. Names along with test scores of both semifinalists and the students in the commended group will be sent without charge to the colleges indicated as either a first or second choice by the participant.

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a nationwide search for students who demonstrate extraordinary ability to benefit from a college education. More than a million and a half high school students have participated in the Merit Program, and in the fall of 1959 more than 3,100 Merit Scholars were enrolled in nearly 400 colleges and universities in the United States.

Davis Leads Levy Renew Committee

Bexley resident, David A. Davis, vice-president of the Mid-West division of the Borden Co., is chairman of the newly formed Citizen's Committee for Renewal of the Tuberculosis Tax Levy.

The group seeks to get May 3 voter approval of a decreased renewal levy to support the county tuberculosis hospital (Benjamin Franklin).

The 1950 levy was for .65 mills, while the new levy would be .6 mill for each dollar of appraised valuation.

Other East Side members of the committee include Mrs. David Gerstenfeld of the Columbus Federation of the National Council of Jewish Women, and David D. White, representing the Mt. Vernon Avenue District Improvement Association.

Chairman Davis lives with his wife and three children at 2444 Fair-av. He is serving on boards with the Development Committee for Greater Columbus, Columbus Hospital Federation, Better Business Bureau of Central Ohio, Inc., First Methodist Church and is president of the directors of the Columbus Jets. He is also treasurer of the Columbus Convention Bureau.

'Mrs. America' Judges Named For State Finals

Five prominent Ohioans will serve as judges for the state finals of the 1960 "Mrs. America" contest in Columbus, May 4 and 5.

They are Mrs. W. W. Hayes, wife of OSU football coach Woody Hayes; Frank W. Spencer, published of the Newark Advocate, and immediate past president of the Ohio Newspaper Association; Edward F. Feighan, Cleveland municipal court judge; Mrs. Miriam J. Applications for the "Mrs. America" contest are still being accepted by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company. Deadline for entries is midnight, Mar. 31, and the event is open to all married women over 21.

WHITEHALL LIBRARY BOOKENDS

Books For Teens On Shelves

Teen-agers are more concerned about the future and their ability to meet grown-up challenges than any other problem, surveys have shown. To help young people make these life-shaping decisions, the Whitehall Branch Library has a sizeable collection of helpful books on such subjects as personality development, etiquette, vocational guidance and education.

General books on how to be a successful teen-ager include two by William Menninger, a well-known psychologist and educator. One of these books, "How You Grow Up," discusses the problems of early adolescence, while the other, "Blue Print for Teen-Age Living," is designed to help teen-agers form healthy opinions on such subjects as dating, petting, cars, alcohol, school and job.

Still other helpful guides are "Teen Days," by Frances Bruce Strain; "Time Out for Youth," by Arthur S. Gregor; "Young Teens Talk It Over," by Mary Beery, and "Questions Boys Ask," by David Armstrong.

"Understanding Your Parents," by Ernest Osborne, is a book every young person will want to read. This is designed to give young people a new insight into their own behavior and their parents' often incomprehensible attitudes.

It is necessary for young people to make a decision on their future careers early. To help them make this important choice easier, many new books have been published recently that give help and advice on how to select a career.

In "17 Million Jobs," John Perry gives clear descriptions of starting jobs, their requirements, what they pay, what they offer, and what education or apprenticeship is required. Requirements and compensations of 20 possible careers for girls are covered in "Cues for Careers," by Judith Scott, while Harry Kitson describes hundreds of jobs in his book "Vocations for Boys."

Etiquette books are in continuous demand by teen-agers. "Manners Made Easy," by Mary Beery, gives practical help in developing poise, being well-groomed, and meeting social situations common to present day living. Other books in the etiquette section include "He-Manners," by Robert Loeb, "Manners for Moderns," by Judith Scott, and "Teen-age Dance Etiquette," by Betty White.

Interested young people will also find numerous other books at the Whitehall Branch Library that will help them solve their everydoy problems, select a career or school, choose a hobby, or develop a new personality.

Library hours are from 1 to 9 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; 9 to 9 Friday, and 9 to 5:30 Saturday, with a story hour for the youngsters from 10 to 11 Saturday.

BIBLE COMMENT

Living Lesson High Above Paris Streets

Each block of stone for massive Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris was cut by hand. Into the foundations, the stones were laid by the 13th century builders just as they were lifted from the quarries—to give maximum support.

The skill of the carvings and the care with which every inch of the building was constructed can be seen today. The structure, with minor repairs, stands as it did 700 years ago, while many 20th century buildings already show signs of decay.

The medieval craftsman who worked carefully on this and other cathedrals and churches did so not merely out of pride in his handiwork. He felt that, even if no mortal man viewed his talents far above the pavement, surely God would.

Not many of us today can help in the community project of building a cathedral. But we can still serve God in many ways.

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR

Fruits—Oranges, grapefruit, bananas, pineapples, frozen strawberries.

Vegetables — Cabbage, carrots, head lettuce, potatoes, onions.

MILK—FRESH AND MANUFACTURED

The chances are that when you write "milk" on your shopping list you mean fluid milk. However, you may find it interesting to count all the milk products—fresh and manufactured — on food shelves and in dairy cases at your favorite store. You'll be amazed at how long the list has become.

Among the fresh milk products in the dairy case you will find: plain whole milk, homogenized milk — fat globules have been broken up; vitamin D milk—vitamin D has been added; fortified milk—not only vitamin D, but other nutrients have been added, which usually increases cost.

Others include skim milk—which has most of the butterfat removed; chocolate milk—whole milk to which chocolate syrup or cocoa has been added; chocolate dairy drink—made with skim; and half and half—half whole milk and half cream.

Cultured milks are popular with many and believed to be easily digested. Most widely used are buttermilk and yogart. Buttermilk, originally a by-product of butter, is now produced artificially from pasteurized skim milk. It has a slightly acid flavor and custard-like consistency.

EVAPORATED, CONDENSED, DRIED

Evaporated Milk is homogenized whole milk from which about one-half the water has been removed. Most evaporated milk has vitamin D added. As you know, it costs less than whole milk.

Evaporated skim milk is one of the newer dairy products. When diluted with an equal amount of water, it may be used like fresh milk.

Condensed milk is a concentrated milk containing about 40 per cent sugar.

Dry milk—there are two types available: "non-fat dry milk" and "instant non-fat dry milk." Both are manufactured from skim milk and both are the same as skim milk when reconstituted with water. The instant non-fat is easier to use, being easily soluble even in cold water. Both have good keeping qualities and are lower in cost than other forms of milk.

Dry whole milk is sure to come, but at present is in the experimental stage. It does not have the keeping quality of the non-fat dry milk.

Chocolate flavored non-fat dry milk mix is a powdered mixture with dry milk solids, chocolate, sugar, and sometimes an additional flavoring.

MOST FOR THE MONEY

Some ways to stretch the milk dollars are to: (1) carry your own, (2) price large containers, (3) price the different forms. A saving of a penny on each quart amounts up by the end of the month.

Regardless of the form of milk you buy, it is considered one of our better foods, nutrition-wise. Since most of the proteins, minerals and vitamins (except vitamin A) are in the milk solids rather than the fat, even the dry skim milk has many of the fine nutritive values of the original milk.

Rematch Pits Frenchman And Talaber

A return battle between Magnificent Maurice, the Frenchman, and Frankie Talaber, the former University of Northwestern star, is scheduled for Saturday night, Mar. 19 at Old Memorial Hall.

In the first meeting a few weeks back, Maurice's attack terminated when Talaber was knocked cold and taken to the hospital, where he was under the care of physicians for five days.

The popular Talaber having been in training for two weeks and with a fine victory under his belt over Big Red Benson, is looking forward to avenging the first setback.

Another bout like the Maurice-Talaber scrap, scheduled for one hour time limit and two out of three falls to win, pit the Masked Destroyer against young Sam Steamboat from Honolulu.

Krusher Karlson goes against Farmer Rocky Brown in a battle of the giants, while a tag team classic rounds out the night's action.

It's Girl Scout Cookie Time
Over 5,000 Girl Scouts will be out to sell 250,000 boxes of cookies in the Columbus area, starting after school, Friday, March 18, and continuing through Monday, March 28, to support the camping program.
The Girl Scout Organization has been a Community Service since 1921 in the Columbus Area, meeting the needs of the maturing girls by providing a stimulating and inspiring program. As our communities are growing — so are the needs of the Girl Scout Council. By supporting the Cookie Sale, residents will help continue this educational and moral development for their future leaders.
The cookies are 50c per box and come in four varieties — four-flavor Sandwich Cremes, Chocolate Mints, Scot-Teas, and Savannahs. The cookies are made of pure ingredients and a special wrapping insures freshness for several months and storing in freezers.

GIRL SCOUTS TO HOLD AWARD MEET

CHRIST THE KING AREA—The Girl Scouts of Christ the King Neighborhood will hold their first open court of awards Sunday, Mar. 20, 1:30 p.m. in the Little Theater of Hartley High School. The program is in conjunction with the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. Each troop will make a donation to the fund. Also featured will be slides of Girl Scouts at camp and the 1959 Juliette Low program held at Christ the King School. Taking part in the ceremonies will be, left to right, Nancy Knox, Troop 377; Carla Mason, Troop 689; Susan Bosworth, Troop 855; and Toni Stephens, Troop 579.

DRIVE UNDERWAY

EASTER SEAL GIRL—Colleen Taylor, seven, daughter of Mrs. Priscilla Taylor of 328 Pierce-av, Whitehall, the Franklin County Easter Seal Child, points to a replica of the Easter Seals that are being placed in the mail this week. The drive is being conducted from Mar. 17 through Apr. 17.

Boys' Clinic On Baseball Set Monday

All the ins and outs of boys' baseball will be aired at a 7:30 p.m. clinic Monday, Mar. 21 at Whitehall-Yearling High School auditorium.

Ted Georgeff, head varsity baseball coach, will direct the two-hour session open to all boys eight years and older, their parents and the public.

Henry Maxfield, president of the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association said a special invitation is out to all WBBA players and their coaches.

The Monday cilinc will feature a baseball training film and short talks on each playing position by Whitehall varsity players and coaches.

"This program is heartily endorsed by the WBBA," Maxfield said. "With proper supervision in our growing organization, we should be able to supply our high school with better players every year."

Fireman Chase Truck On Fire

The Whitehall Fire Department chased a fire for three miles Wednesday before they could catch it to put it out.

The fire department was called to Yearling-rd to extinguish a fire in the emergency brake housing of a truck.

When they arrived on the scene they found David Holt, 2496 Sullivant-av, wrapping a blanket filled with snow around the burning area. After the fire was out in the brake housing, the man fung the blanket in the bed of the truck and continued on his way. This time the firemen had to trail him for three miles before they could get him stopped to extinguish a fire that had started in the blanket when he used it to put out the fire in the brake housing.

Those receiving a "very good" rating were: Mickey Muldrew, French horn; Rober Robers and Lennie Schmidt, trombone; Leslie Gorman, clarinet; Jim Borad, snare drum; Carol Smith, Barbara Bojanowski, Ann Malay, Chris Ward, clarinet quartet; Wes Orr, Ronnie Smathers, Bill Flowers, Dan Clark, Roger Haas and Mickey Muldrew, Phyllis Weaver, Carol Fleener, Linda Layman and Pam Porter, sax quartet.

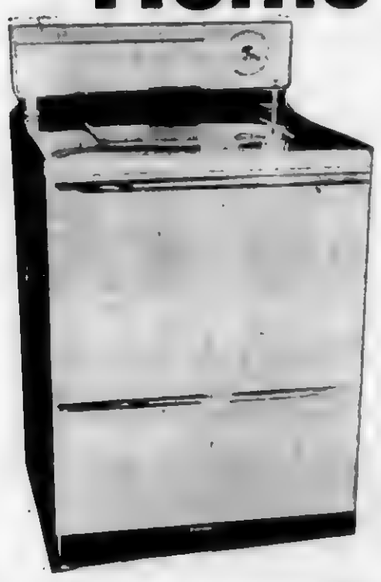
Postal Clerks Plan Wage Rally

Columbus Local 232 of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks will hold a rally Saturday, Mar. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in Mohawk School to demonstrate support of a bill providing a wage increase.

The clerks seek to make a 2.5 cost of living increase permanent prior to the July 1 expiration date of the wage adjustment.



They also are asking for a $600 increase in their annual wage. Postal clerks now earn $2 to $2.49 an hour.

EFFECTIVE STYLING—Don Morris, manager of Holiday-Flagg Shoe Store in Town and Country, points out a more effective way of displaying merchandise to Bill Flowers, Whitehall Distributive Education student.

EARN AND LEARN CORNER

Distibutive Education To Help Area Student

Bill Flowers, 764 Lamby Lane, a distributive education student at Whitehall-Yearling High School, plans to become a full-time employee with the Holiday-Flagg Shoe Store in Town and Country Shopping Center upon graduation from high school. Bill has the opportunity as a result of one year supervised work experience at the Holiday-Flagg Shoe Store.

Distributive education is an instructional program for the field of distribution. It includes instruction for employees of retail, wholesale, and service establishments.

DE students attend school one-half day and work in a local retail, wholesale, or service establishment one-half day. The work in the business establishment is supervised by the school, and related instruction is given in the DE classroom.

Salesmanship, sales promotion, and merchandise information are a few of the business topics Bill studies in his DE classroom. The Holiday-Flagg Shoe Store is Bill's afternoon classroom. It is here that he applies the principles he learns in his morning DE class.

For example, Bill will study types of customers and how to handle them as part of his classroom work. He will report to his job in the afternoon and use his classroom knowledge when servicing his real-life customers. Flowers says this about the DE program: DE has given him a chance to prepare myself for full-time work after graduation, and has made it possible for him to get extra recognition from my company.

Mr. Don Morris, Flower's employer and training sponsor at the Holiday-Flagg Shoe Store is very enthusiastic about the program. Each afternoon he spends time with Flower's instructing him in techniques of selling, displaying, and inventorying a shoe store. Morris says this about Bill and the DE program: "Bill has so much enthusiasm and interest in the shoe business that it is a pleasure to assist him. I think this is true because he has the opportunity to study about the shoe business in his DE classroom."

For further information about the distributive education program call Mr. John Barton, BE. 5-2385, Whitehall-Yearling High School.

MORE DISCOURAGED AT MOVIES, TV

Readers Say Television Could Gain Greatly With Better Programming

Continuing support for the stand taken by Hartley Newspapers for the improvement of television programs and motion pictures is shown this week by additional letters from readers.

They are joining in the Hartley Newspaper campaign against too many killings and improper display of sex on television and at motion picture theaters. Their views will be made known to U.S. Representative Samuel Devine, Senator Frank Lausche and Governor Michael DiSalle, who have already requested copies.

If you have an opinion on this controversial subject, please make your view known by writing a letter to this newspaper. Here are highlights from letters received this week:

In cooperation with Hartley Newspapers, I and my family are heartily and most sincerely protesting against killings and emphasis of sex on television. I am also protesting against drinking on television. It is disgusting that some television programs must constantly use the obvious drink to make their programs seem likable.

Our laws are made to protect us from evil and often put restraint on each of our freedoms, but we as a nation decide which laws are for mankind's own benefit. We have a choice of voting or sending representatives to vote for us in all such matters.

It suddenly becomes a different matter though when the ethical and moral duty of these industries becomes involved. At once a cry goes up: "You're trying to restrict our constitutional rights, freedom of speech, etc."

We do not believe our constitution was intended to protect the offender from the innocent but just the opposite.

We would firmly support any action that could be taken in this matter.

When we succumb to false gods, we become morally insensitive . . . Who suffers? Youth. So for their sakes, lets start helping them by removing all television programs and movies which involve the following objectional features: too many guns, too many knives, no evaluation placed on the living body, and too much destruction of property.

— Ruth D. Hanway

• • •

With such free and bold use of guns and the [illegible]ing of sex pictures as seen [illegible]uths today, the nation is yielding a bumper crop of cold blooded murderers and sex degenerates.

Young men and women pictured in bank robberies, walking into business establishments killing the owners, serve as training stations for those who are actually engaged in such practices.

Parents with young families who are in need of moral support and encouragement are being blinded by the false glitter of "movie romance" and immorality, bringing to bear upon the minds of many that this is the way of life.

In many instances, resulting in a number of homes becoming infested with germs of restlessness and passion aroused, parent delinquency develops; and finally, a broken home.

A greater profit to city, state and nation lies in the right-about face to more inspirational and character building programs, providing youth and all ages with a brighter outlook on life and a respect for his fellowmen.

We are heartily in accord with the campaign and wish to voice our disapproval of such programs unbecoming to a Christian nation.

May I add my protest with the many fine letters in your newspaper regarding the low standard of movie and television shows. They cannot help but lower the morals of the audience.

I think it is the cause of many killings, suicides and crimes of all kinds by young and older people.

We are glad that people are raising a voice against so much crime and vulgarity being shown on television shows.

We hesitate to watch pictures in a mixed crowd and really believe that it will be the downfall of our nation by educating the minds of our young people in the wrong way.

THE OTHER SIDE

Theater Man States Public Won't Back Finer Pictures

I just received your copy of the Eastern Review and have been reading the letters you have received regarding TV programs and movies which some people think is going to be the downfall of this country.

I am interested in this, as I am in the motion picture business in Columbus, in fact we have theatres in many cities. It was our theatres that were closed in Cleveland and Dayton for showing "The Lovers."

We in the business are getting a little tired of having people tell us how to run our business. First, may I point out that all these people who are yelling "wolf" are people who never go near a theatre. They have never seen "The Lovers," or they would not be putting up such a fuss.

In a way we owe them thanks, because if they didn't yell so much the picture would not get as much free publicity as it did. This picture would have played no more than a few weeks, but by them saying it is immoral etc. we have enjoyed 18 weeks showing.

Yes, the Bexley police checked the picture. They had so many phone calls they had to, but they did not see anything wrong with the picture, nor has anyone else who saw it. Why don't these people wise up?

We do not force anyone to come to our theatres, or do the TV stations force anyone to watch their programs. This is a free country. Or may I say I thought so, at least that is what I fought for in the last war. We can do and think as we please, but don't try to get everyone to think as we do.

There are some people who get their enjoyment out of the fact that they are always trying to run other people's business. If they wish to run a business let them get into one on their own money and brains. If they can't, then let others run their own as they see fit.

At the Bexley we run fine movies, which we think these people will enjoy, but they never come to see them. If they are so interested in seeing their type of pictures be shown, why don't they support them? All they wish is to give someone a rough way to go.

PLAN FOR PLANNING MEET—Local members of B'nai B'rith Girls and the Pops Dworkin Chapter of Aleph Zadiek Aleph are busy planning for the District Two Executives of B'nai B'rith Youth Organization planning session this weekend. Left to right are, seated, Steve Zwelling and Sonia Gold; standing, Nancy Cohen, Bev Finke and Terry Thall. Seven states will be represented.

Area Youth To Host 30 Jewish Teen Executives For Weekend

Emma Lazarus Chapter of B'nai B'rith Girls' and the Pops' Dworkin Chapter of Aleph Zadiek Aleph will be host to the District Two Executive of B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, Mar. 25 through Mar. 27.

Representing Ohio, Kentucky, Colorado, Wyoming, Indiana, Kansas and Missouri, will be 30 district executives.

The purposes of the meeting are to plan the forthcoming B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, District Two Convention to be held in June at Denver, Colo., to strengthen unity among the executives and to help the Columbus Chapters of AZA and BBG to understand more about the district level, its objectives, and how it operates.

In the evening of Mar. 25, there will be a welcoming Sabbath at Tifereth Israel Temple. The members of AZA and BBG will be conducting the services. The main speakers will be Sherrie Nathan and Ronnie Snyder, presidents of District Two BBG and AZA.

Speaking on the theme of the executive meeting, Ronnie Snyder will deliver his sermon on "Painting a District Picture of You." Miss Nathan's topic will be "Jewish Youth Week."

On the agenda for Saturday will be separate and joint delegate sessions. The district executives will be discussing the District Two Convention. The delegate sessions will be held at the homes of Harriet Soule and Frank Hoffman.

On the program, also, for Saturday afternoon, the executives will be given a tour of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation.

Saturday evening will be the highlight of the weekend with the executives attending AZA's 18th Annual Sweetheart Dance at the Ohio Union on the Ohio State campus.

Sunday morning, ending the weekend's activities will be a farewell brunch open to all BBG and AZA members at the Jewish Center.

AZA and BBG members are being aided in their planning by Mr. Sterling of B'nai B'rith and Saul Kauffman, AZA's advisor.

The overall co-chairmen for the weekend are Sandi Katz and Ron Solove. Working with them are Ron Boster and Bev Finke, housing; Frank Hoffman and Marsha Topcik, transportation; Arnie White and Nancy Cohen, food; Stu Israel, program; Terry Thall and Jeff Hass, registration; Steve Zwelling and Sonia Gold, publicity; and Harriet Soule, facilities.

Meat Imports and Surpluses Don't Jibe

It doesn't make sense that we should have abundant surpluses of meats in this country and that farmers should be paid a subsidy while increasing amounts of meats are imported.

County Agene George Gaynard this past week, in a local address, called atention to some of the farm problems. Just recently an editorial in Chicago Drovers Journal placed emphasis on the condition, too. They point out an increase in meat imports of 243 percent in the past year.

We understand from reliable sources that a local large food market is selling an abundant amount of imported lamb . . . imported from Iceland. Some persons might say, "So what? If the price is lower, why not?" Therein lies the rub. For the most part people don't know the difference and there is actually no difference in price . . . to the consumer.

It doesn't seem to make sense to allow such practices to continue when neither the farmer nor the consumer is benefited.

Three Burned While Cleaning With Gasoline

Dennis Parks, 756 S. Kellner-rd, and his son, John, were burned in the basement of their home when gasoline which they were using to clean auto parts ignited.

John Park, 18, is in good condition in Lincoln Memorial Hospital with first, second and third degree burns of the hands and feet. Firemen treated Dennis Parks, the boy's father at the scene.

A third person known only as Robert and about 18 years old was believed to also be burned. He fled when the gasoline ignited.

Estimated damage to the Parks' home was set at $500.

'Start Again From Scratch' Flood Study Committee Urges

One year following the ravaging flood of 1959 steps are being taken to seek a plan whereby such floods of the future can be prevented.

In a four-point resolution the Water and Sewage Committee of the Development Committee of Greater Columbus today recommended that the present Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy District be dissolved; that funds of the district be returned to the counties that paid into the district and that such funds be specifically reserved for the purposes originally intended; that the city withdraw the action in appealing the dissolution of the district; and that necessary steps be taken toward the formation of a new conservancy district.

'Should Start With Franklin'

The committee further states that the new conservancy district should be "limited initially" to Franklin County and such counties downstream from Franklin County and contiguous to the Scioto River and to each other which evidence their desire and intention of actively participating in a positive manner in the affairs of the new district.

"When organized and incorporated, the new district should consider the subsequent admission of other counties, within the Scioto watershed as defined by the Ohio Water Commission, as they express their willingness to support the district's programs and purposes for water resources planning and management to the end that the district not only ultimately embrace all counties within the entire watershed but in the process of development be compatible with the programs and purposes of the Ohio Water Commission."

Court To Reconvene

Judge Myron Gasseman, conservancy district judge, was to receive a set of the recommendations today. The 17-judge court will be reconvened very soon for further consideration of the matter. Following the flood last year the court had asked dissolution of the district. Soon thereafter the city, through Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, had sought to delay the dissolution of the district.

In the 25 years that the District has been organized it has nothing to its credit. It has been determined that the district is too large and that all the counties involved do not have the same interests in flood control.

Much interest has been shown in the formation of a Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy local district that will take immediate steps to get some kind of a flood control and water conservation program under way.

These recommendations come after many weeks of study by the committee, and consultation with numerous people qualified to discuss the matter, according to C. Carlton Hartley, chairman of the water and sewage committee.

COMING YOUR WAY

New Section For Suburbia

Next Apr. 7, Hartley Newspapers marks another great stride forward in the service rendered to its readers by the Eastern Review.

On that day, Suburbia Today magazine will make its first appearance in this area as a special section to paid subscribers of the Eastern Review.

On Thursday of the first full week of every month thereafter it will continue to present the articles and features that make it one of the top-flight magazines in America.

Suburbia Today is published by Leonard S. Davidow who also is publisher of Family Weekly—another well known colorgravure magazine section. He heads Consolidated Book Publishers, one of the largest publishers of books in the world.

SUBURBIA TODAY is currently appearing with hundreds of suburban newspapers throughout the nation. It is distinguished by its fine printing and appearance as well as its high level of reader interest.

Presented entirely in rotogravure, it is a product of the most modern high speed four-color rotogravure presses and is able to offer every advantage of this fine printing technique. Colorgravure will be carried in the editorial portion of the magazine as well as in the advertising pages.

There will be something in SUBURBIA TODAY for everyone in the family as it explores the timely, exciting, fascinating things in suburban life—science, sports, medicine, religion, art, amusements, romance, homemaking, food, children, careers, business, industry, travel, fashions, and a myriad of other subjects, from issue to issue.

Leonard Davidow

One of the most looked-for features will be the colorful pages of unusual recipes appearing every month. Each recipe is carefully tried and tested before it is published in SUBURBIA TODAY, in the kitchen of the famed Culinary Arts Institute.

Then a new step-by-step method of presenting the recipes makes them a real pleasure to follow. We predict that many readers of the Eastern Review will be saving the recipes from each issue and en-

Polish Man Is Picked For Army Honors

A former displaced person has has been named the Soldier of the Month for March, at the Columbus General Depot.

Sp/5 Stanley Moskwa, 63rd Engineer Company, a 10-year veteran, received a three-day pass, a $10 check and a letter of commendation from Brig. Gen. Harold H. Shaller, depot commander, after being named to the honor.

A native of Zaborow, Poland, Moskwa was routed from his home, along with his mother, when the Germans invaded his home country in 1939.

During World War II he lived in many refugee camps in Europe. He learned to speak English from the American occupation troops while he shined their shoes.

In 1949, after living in several displaced persons camps in Europe, he came to the United States while his mother returned to Poland to live with a daughter.

Shortly after his arrival in this country, Moskwa joined the Army and plans to make a career of military life. After tours of duty at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Warzburg and Regenburg, Germany, Moskwa was assigned to the Columbus General Depot in Dec. 1957.

He became an American citizen in 1954.

COMPLIANCE DEADLINE SET

April Court Action Looms In Courtright Dilemma

by Betty Daft

Columbus School Board was informed Tuesday by Whitehall Board of Education, of Whitehall's intention to take legal action in the Courtright School dispute.

Mrs. Ruth B. Kosar, Whitehall Board president, in a letter to Daniel W. DeHayes, president of Columbus Board, said legal proceedings would be started on Apr. 18, if the city schools had not complied with a state board ruling on the matter by that date.

State Board ruled, on Dec. 30, 1957, that the city should pay $236,789 for Courtright School, inherited by the city system when the area was annexed, as well as $289,000 bonded indebtedness and interest.

Columbus Schools accept the debt of $289,000, but protest as unfair the additional $236,789.

Mrs. Kosar's letter to the Columbus Board said, in part:

"It has been, and is now, the position of the Whitehall City Board of Education that the decision of the State Board of Education with respect to said division of funds and indebtedness is final and that neither local board of education can properly contest such division.

"The Board of Education of the City of Columbus has on several occasions offered to comply with that portion of the division of funds and indebtedness about which there is no dispute, but always on the condition that the Board of Education of the City of Whitehall forego that portion of the division respecting the Courtright School.

"Of course, the Board of Education of the City of Whitehall has no authority, much less inclination, to comply with such a condition.

"It now appears impossible to avoid litigation concerning these matters . . .

If, however, no indication that the Board of Education of the City of Columbus intends to comply with the order of the State Board of Education is received by the Board of Education of the City of Whitehall on or before Apr. 18, 1960, then the Board of Education of the City of Whitehall will instruct its attorneys promptly to commence legal proceedings to compel compliance with said order of the State Board of Education.

School Contracts Awarded

Contracts awarded by the Columbus Board Tuesday will assure school housing for more than 1,000 additional elementary students in eastern Columbus next September.

In addition, plans are now on the drawing board for a huge junior-senior high school, to be built in the vicinity of Livingston-av and Lattimer.

Contracts totaling $376,804 were awarded for Leawood Elementary, 1677 Hamilton-rd. The school will contain 19 classrooms.

General and electrical contract was awarded Trapp Construction Co. for $294,790, who will subcontract electrical work to Eastmoor Electric Co., Inc.

Plumbing, heating and ventilating contract for $82,014 went to Campbell Plumbing and Heating Co.

Contracts totaled $226,800 for the 12 room and multi-purpose room addition to Pinecrest. Opened only last September, the addition will more than double the school's present, 12-classroom size.

General and electric contract was awarded to Wagenbrenner Construction Co. for $175,900, whi will subcontract electrical work to Eastmoor Co. Plumbing, heating and ventilating contract for $50,900 went to William H. Rinehart, Inc.

Bexley Council Rejects School Bus Ordinance

Timothy A. Harrison, of 44 Meadow Park-av, appeared before Bexley City Council Tuesday night urging adoption of legislation to require traffic to stop for school buses.

Councilmen had rejected the suggested ordinance earlier. This marked Harrison's second appearance before council to urge the legislation.

Mayor William A. Schneider favored making it unlawful for any driver to discharge passengers from a vehicle without first pulling over to the curb. He said too many bus drivers, and some parents, let youngsters out in the middle of the street.

The mayor said the ordinance requiring traffic to stop would cause more problems than it would solve. Councilmen finally agreed to confer with school officials on the matter.

Jeep Windshield Broken By Slush, Two Injured

The windshield of a Port Columbus snowplowing jeep was shattered by slush and two city employes received face cuts on Wednesday afternoon.

Rodney Puterbaugh, 20, 2685 Berrell-av, and Edgar Suver, 29, 1474 Stelzer-rd, were treated in St. Anthony Hospital.

Montrose Basketball Court Will Get Lights

The outdoor basketball court at Montrose School is going to be equipped with lights for night-time play, according to an announcement by Superintendent Emerson Jarvis.

WINTER PRIZE-O-RAMA

Moretti Sports Car GRAND PRIZE

Here's How You Win the Prize-O-Rama

RULES

1. All you have to do is sign one of the official entry coupons. An entry coupon will be printed in each issue of the Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record from January 21 through April 14, 1960. Official entry blanks may also be obtained from the manager at any of the participating stores in Town & Country Shopping Center.
2. Any person may enter the Prize-O-Rama each week for 13 weeks.
3. No purchase is necessary to enter the Prize-O-Rama.
4. A drawing will be held each Tuesday at 12 noon at Summers and Son. Entrants do not have to be present to be named winners. Names of winning contestants will be printed in each succeeding issue of the Eastern Review and The Reynoldsburg Record. The list will also be posted at various stores at the center. Prizes so awarded must be claimed by the following Wednesday.
5. All names will be returned to the containers, and everyone will be eligible for succeeding weekly prizes and the grand prize awards at the conclusion of the contest. Exact time and place of the grand prize drawing will be announced in the Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record.
6. No member of the family of employees of shopping center, shopping center store, shopping center owners, Eastern Review or Reynoldsburg Record will be eligible to receive awards in the Prize-O-Rama.

Johnson Park Eighth Grade Pupils Honored

Pupils who earned all A's in textbook subjects and received no C's received a certificate of merit, a school letter with a scholarship pin insert, and a meritorious-award certificate suitable for framing.

Certificate-of-merit cards and scholarship pins were awarded to pupils who made all A's and B's.

Wallet-sized cards were presented to pupils who earned all A's and B's and only one C.

Scholarships for the remainder of the school year for individual study at Capital University's Music Conservatory were given to two outstanding band and orchestra students.

Youth Hospitalized In Extortion Try

Hartley High School students became the victims of an extortion try on their way home from school Tuesday. One 14-year-old boy was hit in the face and hospitalized when accosted by a 19-year-old youth who demanded a quarter.

Being held in City Prison for investigation of unarmed robbery are Larry Harp, 19, of 467 Gilbert-av. and Duane Lahey, 19, of 1675 Vilardo-dr.

VOLUNTEERS STUFF SEAL ENVELOPES

THE WEST CALLS YOU—If you have never seen the West, then a great thrill of natural beauty awaits you. This is one of many sights that await the winner of the Prize-O-Rama first prize, a trip for two to Las Vegas. Veteran travelers to the West should also welcome a chance to visit the "wide open spaces" once more.

T-C Merchants Outline Fabulous Prize-O-Rama Gift Trip To Vegas

The lucky couple who draws the Town and Country Shopping Center's first prize in its Winter Prize-O-Rama will indeed win an exciting and valuable gift.

It is a trip for two to Las Vegas via Trans World Airlines, on a Super G. Constellation Golden Banner Coach. The prize package includes air transportation to and from Las Vegas to Columbus plus all hotel accommodations.

The lucky couple will leave on any Monday and be at Las Vegas that evening. They will leave for home at midnight Friday and be home before noon on Saturday. All flights are non-stop except for connections at Chicago.

In Las Vegas, their home away from home will be the fabulous Stardust Hotel, the world's largest and most luxurious resort hotel. There, they will be served breakfast four mornings in the hotel's pool pavilion or Palm Room.

Floor Shows

There will also be four full course dinners complete with floor shows, alternating between the Stardust's 700-seat theater dining room, the Cafe Continental, and the famous Desert Inn. Swimming and sunning are included at the Stardust pool, "The Big Dipper."

On stage at the continental will be what Life magazine describes as "The World's Greatest Floor Show," "Le Lido De Paris Revue of 1960." In it are featured the "Bluebell Girls." The show includes six lavish productions, with magnificent stages and astonishing multi-stages.

This is all included in the fabulous first prize in Prize-O-Rama. It will be awarded to some lucky resident in the Reynoldsburg Record or Eastern Review circulation areas.

How do you do it? It's easy. Just clip the entry coupon appearing in the contest ad in this paper, fill it out and drop it off at one of the stores of the week. They are Summers and Sons, Schiff's Shoes, Town and Country Launderette and Miller-Jones Shoes. No purchases are necessary.

Winners of this week's weekly prizes include: William E. Barr, 4003 Beechbank-rd, $10 gift certificate from Ross Cleaners; Royal C. Engberg, 124 N. Gould, four $4.98 record albums from Summers and Sons; and William T. Dye, $10 gift certificate from Lloyds.

A General Electric Filter Flo washer from Barry's Appliances and a $10 gift certificate from T and C Laundry will be awarded as the next weekly prizes. Winners of weekly prizes are also eligible for the grand awards.

The grand award will be the Moretti sports car. First prize is the trip to Las Vegas. These awards will be given Saturday, Apr. 16, at a special drawing.

Other top prizes include a GE Filter Flo washer from Barry's Appliances; a Kenmore washer and Coldspot refrigerator from Sears.

Employes of the shopping center or those of Hartley Newspapers are not eligible to enter the contest.

Bexley High School LION's ROAR

Mock Policital Conventions Get Underway On Saturday

by Glenda Schottenstein

Bexley High School delegation to the Mock Political Convention at Capital University will represent the state of Kentucky.

The conventions, sponsored by the Political Science Department of Capital University, will take place Mar. 26 and Apr. 2. The Democratic Convention will be in March and the Republican Convention in April.

Patty Lutzy and Doug Fleckner have been selected to be on the platform committee at the Democratic Convention. Judy Starke and Jeff Stern have been chosen to serve on the Republican platform committee.

Other delegates to the Republican Convention will be: Gayle Caplan, Barbara Daines, Jim Davis, Jud Elliott, Dave Fritsche, Gail Graves, Irene Humphrey, Fred Mann, Mario Parenti, Steve Thomas, and Anne Willis.

Patterned after the National Presidential Conventions, the Capital Conventions will be composed of state delegations.

The Mock Cinventions are held to teach the procedure of conventions to the delegates, to stimulate political thought among the voters of tomorrow, and to create an interest in important political issues among high school students.

Slates Annual Open Meeting

The annual open meeting of the Heritage Garden Club and Lincoln Village Beautifiers will be held at Prairie Lincoln School, 4900 Amesbury-wy, Mar. 28 at 8 p.m.

Howard Warwick of Warick's Landscaping and Garden Store will speak on "Pruning and Care of Shrubs and Ornamentals."

Mrs. William Clark, general chairman, announces that dried materials and arrangements of such will be on display. A floral arrangement by Mrs. Donald Carey and Mrs. Troy Carroll will be given as door prize.

Mrs. Fred Howell, president of Lincoln Village Beautifiers and Mrs. Ted Prostko, president of Heritage Garden Club extend a welcome invitation to all those who are interested. Mrs. William McGee will assist Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Prostko on the welcoming committee.

Refreshments will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. Earl Rader, chairman, Mrs. Robert Fox, Mrs. J. F. Herf, Mrs. Howard Mitchell and Mrs. G. W. Moxley.

Delay Is Seen In Construction At Bexley High

Bexley High School's nine classroom and gym addition probably will not be completed until Oct. 1, the school board revealed this week.

Steel shortages several months ago had much to do with the construction slow-up, said Dr. Everson Jarvis, superintendent. Original target date for completion was Aug. 1.

Some new classrooms may be ready by September to relieve the present overcrowdedness, Dr. Jarvis said.

The board will soon ask for furniture bids for the addition's new library and office suite.

HAWK Lines

By Paul Coleman

Hartley Swimmers, Cagers Will Get Awards Tomorrow

Members of the 1959-60 varsity basketball and swimming teams will be honored tomorrow at a special assembly presided over by Rev. Robert White and Coach Tom Kreiger. The awards the Hawk athletes will receive will be the "H" monogram award for their respective sport, either swimming or basketball.

Although the letter winners will not be known until tomorrow, all the varsity team members deserve credit, even if they do not receive an award this year. The seven who made up the varsity basketball squad are Bob Burman, Bobby Ganter, Mike Hanf, Jim Harkless, Joe Raymer, Steve Warren and Bob Whitman. The team posted a 6-12 record this year, the first for the Hawks in all varsity sports.

The swimming team, nicknamed the "Swimmin' Hawks" early in the season, was coached by three Bexley residents, Bruce Burriss, John Montgomery and Cris Avren. They were: John Britton, Bob Cromwell, Leland Diacich, Jim Fairbanks, Bill Heiser, Jim Heiser, Craig Jordon, Bob Miller, Jeff Nelson, Jack Nemeth, Ronnie Palumbo and Bill Post.

The future plans of many Hartley students may have been altered last Friday, when Hartley held its first Career Day.

This event was sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association, in conjunction with the faculty. Members of the committee were John Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Salsbury, Mrs. Charles Raymer, Mrs. Ollie M. Goodloe, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, John Bruno, Earl Vermillion, Robert Nelson, Sister Mary Lucille, SND, Sister Helen Cecilia, SND, and Sister Angela, SND.

The program was opened by Father White, followed by the keynote speaker, Charles E. Weaver. Then the boys heard a talk on military obligations of the Selective Service Act, by Lt. Col. William P. Richardson.

Two of the officers of Student Council attended a presidents' meeting of the Ohio Association of Student Councils March 21. President Paul Coleman and Vice-President Louis Thomas went to the meeting, held at University High School to get ideas on new projects, student handbooks and yearbooks, and other ideas concerned with Council.

The Girls Intramural basketball games came to a close last Friday. The games were supervised by Mrs. Joseph Van Bale.

Candidates for the spring sports program met last week with Coach Krieger to hear the news about their respective sports. Hartley will have three spring sports this year, baseball, track and golf. Baseball Hawks will start practicing as soon as possible, and indoor sessions are planned even before the weather clears. The Hawks will not play varsity baseball this year, but decided to wait a year to gain experience.

Hartley did not participate in the local Class A and AA basketball tournaments either. The Hawks will wait a year for this also. Coach Krieger felt that waiting a year would "give them something to look forward to."

Concert Band At Eastmoor Receives Superior Rating

Our Eastmoor Concert Band, directed by Mr. Kaye, received a rating of superior, the highest rating possible, from each of the four judges at the District Band and Choral Conest at Whitehall High School Mar. 19. The Senior Choir and Boys' Glee Club, directed by Mr. Morris, both received ratings of excellent. The band is now hard at work preparing for the state contest April 23 in Westerville.

The Boosters Winter Banquet was held Mar. 22 to honor our basketball and wrestling teams. The Rev. J. Mervin Hess gave the invocation. C. W. Pursell, faculty manager, served as toast master and John Poole, Boosters' president, introduced the teams, following a delicious fried chicken dinner.

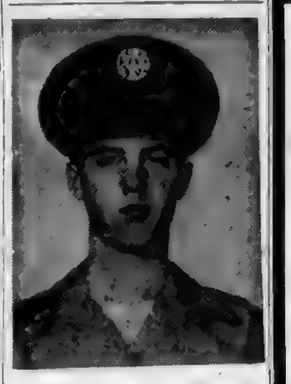
Eastmoor's first wrestling squad, coached by Bob Carter, consists of Lencar Biddle, Steve Bless, Jack Butler, Bill Cohen, Jeff Covel, Steve Craig, Dean Eby, Dick Hauser, Brad Hull, Monroe Lerner, Larry Nichols, Ron Rice, Jack Rosenfield, Tom Short, Clifford Siegel, and Richard Siegel.

"Bali-Hi," a song from the musical "South Pacific," has been chosen by the senior class as the theme for the Junior-Senior prom June 4, for which plans are already underway.



Seniors have been ordering their personal cards as another step towards graduation. The cards come in many designs and are used to exchange with other students or send with the commencement announcements.

Miss Miller, the senior adviser, is in charge of the sale of cards. She is assisted by homeroom representatives Sid Townsend, Susan Hallmark, Sandy Bland, Karen Smith, Bob Hutson, Kathryn Pepper, and Rachael Egbert.

Diane Bricker was the champion of the recent eighth grade spelling bee at Eastmoor, Shirley Lytle was the runner-up. Diane will compete in the city spelling bee April 9, at Mohawk Junior High School.

Student Council members have been busy gathering opinions from the students and faculty concerning last week's Senior - Teacher Day. Everyone seems to have found this a successful and beneficial event.

Double Ring Nuptial Ceremony Unites Anne E. Eyster, Joseph A. Goodrich

MRS. JOSEPH AARON GOODRICH

In a candlelight ceremony at Oakwood Methodist Church Saturday afternoon, Mar. 19, Miss Anne Elizabeth Eyster and Mr. Joseph Aaron Goodrich were united in marriage. Rev. Carl E. Hicks officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denton D. Eyster, 2770 Eastminster-rd, Mr. Goodrich's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Goodrich, 992 E. Mound-st.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace with nylon net scalloped skirt and set-in-cummerbund. The apron-effect back featured a large butterfly bow.

Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a small flowered half-hat, and she carried a French nose-gay of feathered white carnations centered with blush-pink cymbidiums upon a white Bible.

Miss Mary Jane Eyster served her sister as maid of honor. Miss Jean Eyster, a cousin, and Miss Amy Leonard were bridesmaids.

All wore identical gowns of lace over taffeta. The maid of honor's gown was blue and the bridesmaids' were deep pink. Their small flowered head bands matched pastel satin cummerbunds and each carried a small bouquet of white rosebuds with pastel ribbon.

Mr. Ernest F. Goodrich served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. David Eyster, the bride's brother ,and Mr. Robert Newell.

The bride is a senior in the College of Education at Ohio State University. Mr. Goodrich is associated with Kroger Co.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside at 162 13th-av.

Haines Forms Joint Office Of Optometry

Dr. Howard F. Haines, optometrist, 74 S. Third-st, is announcing the association of his son, Dr. Charles O. Haines, in the practice of optometry, and the formation of a joint practice to be known as Drs. H. F. and C. O. Haines Optometrists.

They will engage in the general practice of optometry, contact lenses, vision training and subnormal vision.

Mrs. Sue R. Haines, who has her Masters Degree in Education from Ohio State will continue to do vision training and remedial reading.

Dr. Benjamin Laubach, also a recent Ohio State graduate, will continue his association, doing refraction and contact lens work.

Their office, which occupies the first floor of the Haines Building, has been remodeled to include a third examining room, new contact lens fitting room and a contact lens modification laboratory. These additions supplement the existing vision training facilities, laboratory for surfacing, and fabrication of conventional opthalmic material and a parking area.

Theft, Forgeries Laid To Quintet

They have been charged with burglary, grand larceny and forging and passing bogus checks. The men were accused of stealing a check writing machine Feb. 22 from the Walz Route 40 Hardware.

Eleven checks, all in $75 amounts, had been passed. Police also found 120 such checks in one man's home.

Bexley Man Is Promoted In Gas Firm

Ed Foster

Edwin K. Foster, 673 Euclaire-av, Bexley, has been promoted to junior engineer in the Ohio Fuel Gas Company's Central District Industrial Department, it was announced today by Wilbur T. Collins, district manager for Ohio Fuel.

Foster started with Ohio Fuel last September as an engineering trainee in Columbus.

Born in Vancouver, Wash., Foster is 23. He was graduated from Rosary High School, Columbus, in 1954, and received his Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree from Ohio State University in Aug. 1959.

He is a member of the 359th Engineering Company, Army Reserve, Christ the King Church, and Theta Tau professional engineering fraternity.

Buckeye Will Open Finance Office Soon

The Buckeye Finance Company will open its new office, located at 915 S. Hamilton-rd, next to Goodyear Service Store, in April.

The new branch will be under the management of Charles Williams. The new office will be this area.

Williams, a resident of 4248 Beechlawn-rd, has six years experience in the finance business. He was formerly employed by Household Finance. In recent years, he has worked in Charleston, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va. and Cleveland. He came to Columbus in 1958.

The new manager is married and has three children.

Small loans in the amount of $25 to $1,000 will be the main business conducted at the new branch. Buckeye Finance also pays five per cent interest on invested monies.

Trucks, Concrete Wall Damaged

A dozen trucks and a concrete wall in an equipment yard at 820 N. Cassady-av were damaged to the extent of $1500 last weekend.

The damage was apparently caused by juveniles operating the vehicles, according to spokesmen for the owners. The equipment is owned by Marcus Toddy Steel Products and Eaton Colby Chemical Co., 820 N. Cassady-av; Kentwell Machine Co., 830 N. Cassady-av, and Nick Cenci and Sons, Inc., 844 N. Cassady-av.

Cub Pack 424 Has Blue And Gold Banquet

All den tables were decorated in blue and gold and carried the 50-year anniversary theme.

Invocation was given by Mrs. June Marshall the Den Mother of Den One. Flag ceremony was presented by Den Three with Mrs. Bristle, Den Mother in charge.

Charles Marshall, institutional representative for the East Main Street School PTA, presented Cub Master, John Andrews, with a plaque for his services and a farewell gift.

B. Lewis, of the staff of the organization and extension committee of the Southeast District presented the pack with its charter and also presented a certificate showing 100 per cent participation in Boys Life magazine subscription.

Sam Krouse presented the pack with an award for the window display that was formulated by the efforts of the entire pack, and put on during Scout Week at the Great Eastern Shopping Center.

Frank Waters also presented Mrs. Gladys Bristle with the Den Mothers award for her devoted services to the cause of Cub Scouting.

Mrs. Olson, Den Mother of Den 10 was also given recognition for her services rendered to the cause of Scouting. She informed the pack that she and her family were being transfered to Puerto Rico and she was relieved of her duties of Den Mother by Mrs. Dean.

Seven boys were advanced in ranks along the Cub Scouting trail. Five boys from Webeloes Den were advanced to the Scout Troops. Harold Woods, Scoutmaster of Troop 278 of the Beechwood School accepted three boys, Mike Fisher, John Andrews and John Preston.

Edward Bristle was taken into Troop 390 at the Whitehall Firehouse. Steven Fulton goes to a troop in Columbus.

EAST COLUMBUS CHRISTIAN CHURCH CHOIR

Six Church Choirs Meet Sunday For East Columbus Music Festival

Choirs from five churches in the far East Side of Columbus will gather at East Columbus Christian Church Sunday, Mar. 27, 7:30 p.m., for the first annual East Columbus Festival of Choir Music.

The choir of East Columbus Christian Church will also take part. The church's pastor, Dr. "Bro. Joe" Belcastro, will deliver the opening remarks. The public is invited.

Churches participating include: Fairmoor United Presbyterian, Eastview Methodist, Gahanna Community, Eastminister Presbyterian, Christ Methodist and East Columbus Christian.

The program will be as follows:

Fairmoor Presbyterian choir, under the direction of Mrs. Viola Hilton, will present "Turn Thy Face from My Sins" and "God of our Fathers."

Eastview choir, under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Culbertson, will offer "Open Our Eyes" and "Cherubim Song."

Gahanna Community, directed by Mrs. John Selvey, will present "Seek Ye The Lord" and "Draw Nigh To Jerusalem."

Eastminister choir, directed by Mrs. Carol Marty, will sing "O Saviour of the World" and "Psalm 150."

Christ Methodist choir will present "Create In Me a Clean Heart O God" and "O Lord Be Merciful" under the direction of Richard Froton.

East Columbus Christian choir, directed by Charles Warner, Jr., will sing "Unto the Sky" and "He'll Understand."

The Fred Waring arrangement of "Onward Christian Soldiers" will be presented by the massed choirs as a climax to the program. Rev. John Lewis, of Christ Methodist will give the benediction.

Two-Weeks' Revival Set At Whitehall

Whitehall Baptist Church, 392 Maplewood-av, will begin a series of revival services, Sunday, Apr. 3. Rev. J. Williard Jarvis, pastor, announced.

Crusade theme will be "New Life for You."

Rev. Paul Payne, pastor of Blue Ash Baptist Church, Cincinnati, will be the evangelist, speaking each evening.

Rev. Payne is a graduate of Cambellsville Junior College, Georgetown College, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He served several pastorates in Kentucky before coming to Ohio.

Rev. Marvin Warner, pastor of Groveport Baptist Church, will be the evangelist singer for the crusade.

Long To Head Capital Alumni Visitation Plan

Luther Long

Capital University will launch its Franklin County Capital University Alumni Personal Visitation Apr. 2, according to an announcement by Alumni Director Daniel C. Springer.

Named to head the campaign will be Luther Long, Columbus attorney and Capital graduate, whose appointment was made 10 days ago.

The purpose of this campaign will be to better cement relations between alumni and their alma mater and to build up the annual support of the Franklin County alumni.

The campaign will commence with a kick-off dinner on campus to be held Friday evening, Apr. 1. Visits will begin on Apr. 2, and during the campaign, which will end Apr. 11, about 2000 Capital alumni in the county will be visited. About three hundred workers will take part in the visitations. The last personal campaign was conducted in 1951.

Whitehall Baptist Names Winners In Competitions

Whitehall Baptist Church's Training Union promotes junior memory work, intermediate sword drill, and young people's speakers tournament competitions.

Each year first and second place winners are chosen, with first place winner sent to represent the Church in the Capital City Association elimination.

This year, Whitehall will be represented by Glenn Sage in the junior memory work drill. Gloria Cassell was second place winner.

Judy Wilmouth and Barbara Latta tied for first place and will represent the church in the intermediate sword drill, and Gerry Lynn Malone was second place winner.

Bruce Medley will participate in the young peoples speakers tournament. Sidney Townsend was second place winner.

Associational elimination will be held Friday, Mar. 25, at Whitehall Baptist Church, 392 Maplewood-ay. Rev. J. Willard Jarvis is pastor.

Student Prince Presentation Is Slated At Capital

Capital University announces its forthcoming production of Romberg's "Student Prince" to be given two nights at Mees Hall Auditorium. The show will be held Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21 starting at 8:30 p.m.

Starring in the cast will be Dick Mathey, Betty Margetts and John Stevens who will play the parts of the Prince, Kathie and Engel. The Men's Glee Club at Capital will portray the Saxons and Rhenichers in the Student Corps.

Presenting the all-campus event are Phi Beta and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternities. Tickets and reserved seats will soon be available upon request.

CLUB TO ELECT

Mothers and Wives Club of Phi Sigma Kappa will elect officers Monday, Apr. 4 at the home of Mrs. Francis Rudy, 335 E. Longview-av, at 8 p.m.

Pat Carroll

PHENOMENA

Carl Junction, Mo.—After a tornado struck the farm of Gene Bryant, he found that his 14 cows and five hogs were not even scratched, but the barn in which they were housed had vanished.

The twister developed out of a nearly cloudless sky while the family was gathered at home. No one was injured.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Pat Carroll's School Days Acting Leads To Stardom

Louisiana born Pat Carroll, a natural at music and the art of comedy, started in the business during her high school days. Her first interest was with Little Theatre groups during that time. After college, a brief teaching career and some freelance radio acting, the lure of New York became too strong to resist and the years 1947 to 1949 saw her in nearly 200 stock productions. In 1949, during the second World War, she took charge of a traveling theatre group for the U.S. Army.

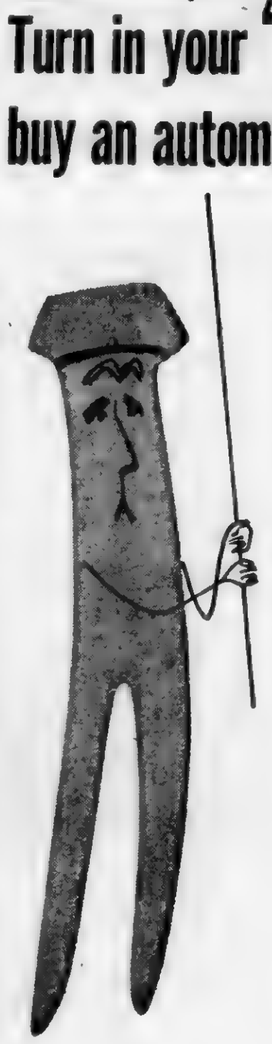
This was only the start for what today is one of America's leading female comedienne. Her path to fame was gained through appearances on the shows of Jimmy Durante, Mickey Rooney, Ann Sothern, George Gobel and Dennis Day. She has been featured with Maurice Chevalier, Perry Como, Buddy Hackett and Jeannie Carson, as well as entertaining on Producer's Showcase and several Max Liebman "Spectaculars." All of this was climaxed in 1956 when she was awarded the Emmy for "best supporting actress" for her hilarious portrayals on the Sid Caesar Show.

Miss Carroll was married to Lee Karsian, a New York talent executive, in 1956. Taking a two year intermission to make a home for her husband and raising two children, she has returned to the stage and TV screen in the same fashion that she left it.

Since her return she has been guest artist on such shows as Tennessee Ernie Ford, Pat Boone, Patrice Munel, Masquerade Party and Jack Parr, not leaving her weekly appearance on Keep Talking.

As for the immediate future and in addition to her already crowded schedule, Miss Carroll has set out to reorganize her fan clubs, providing them with materials and with additional purpose so that as a group they might make worthwhile contributions to the community.

Miss Carroll is at present writing her autobiography, as well as developing a whimsical down to earth weekly newspaper column on show business.



The popular young star's gift in the entertainment field continues to grow. Ever since she was 13, when she organized her first vaudeville show, she has acted, sung, danced, clowned, composed and played the accordion — all with a rare degree of success.

Long well known as a rare female comic, Pat Carroll only recently began to use the variety of intellectual talents she has been perfecting since she studied drama at Catholic University in Washington. Still fascinated by learning, she studies English literature at home while she takes an extension course in law from LaSalle University. All the while, she practices her show business techniques like a ballerina.

Television To Bring Back Days Of The Ole' Circus

BY ROGER SWANEY

Hitting up 'the good ole' days will be the WTVN's showing of The Timex All-Star Circus, Thursday, Mar. 31. An hour long production featuring famous artists from the world over will highlight the hour-long program, starting at 7:30 p.m. Joe E. Brown will emcee the program with guest stars Charley Baumann, animal trainer; Albert and Paulina Schumann, horse act; The Villams, juggling team; Alfons Hustier, aerialist; Cyrill Mills, founder of the Bertram Mills Circus and The Francesos, musical clowns. All acts appearing on this program are from Europe's renowned Bertram Mills Circus.

On Tuesday, Mar. 29 at 10 p.m., WTVN-TV will present "Korea—The Forgotten Front." This is a story of a nation that 10 years ago commanded the attention of the world but is now virtually forgotten. The production will give viewers contact with American troops, with Koreans, officials and private citizens during the war spent years and after . . .

Several WLW-C programs will not be seen next Friday and Saturday due to the showing of the High School Basketball Tournament that will be telecast from OSU's St. John's Arena. The semi-finals will start Friday, Mar. 25 at 7:30 p.m. and the finals will start at 7:45, Saturday, Mar. 26.

WLW and NBC will present 14 nighttime programs covering the far-flung missions of President Eisenhower and other world leaders in the coming months. Journey to Understanding will bring to the public reports of these leaders and the accomplishments of their varied visits . . .

A new voice has been added to WBNS's announcing staff. It is that of Bill McCormick. McCormick recently returned to Columbus from California where he spent some time in the theatrical field . . .

A special 30-minute report to the community dealing with the Red Cross blood program has been scheduled as WBNS-TV's Telementary 25. It is slated for presentation on Friday, Mar. 25 at 10:30 p.m. . . .

WRFD has announced the appointment of Marianne Tomlinson as the station's director of women's activities.

WOSU-TV will be bringing on the spot coverage of the semi-final and final cage games of Ohio's High School Basketball Tournament. John Schmidt will give the play-by-play coverage.

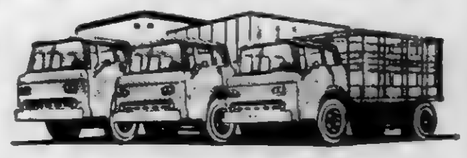
Tickets will go on sale early in April at Mershon Auditorium for the production of Louis Armstrong and his All Star 'Pop' Concert appearing at the campus auditorium on Friday, May 6 at 8 p.m. This will be Satchmo's first OSU campus appearance. . .

Also heading the artist series at OSU Mershon Auditorium will be the Metropolitan Opera Singer, Rosalind Elias, mezzo soprano on Tuesday, Mar. 29 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at Mershon Auditorium Ticket Office, Fifteenth-av and High-st.

Philadelphia Orchestra To Stage Concert

EUGENE ORMANDY

Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, makes it a rule to play something on each of his programs that his hearers will hum or whistle on their way home. After his Columbus concert, Wednesday, 8 p.m., Mar. 30, at Veterans' Memorial, the romantic melodies from Tchiakovsky's "Pathetique" Symphony will ring in many ears.



Other items in that program will be a Sinfonia for Double Orchestra (No. 1, in E flat major, Op. 18) by Johann Christian Bach, the Prelude and Fugue for String Orchestra by the American composer, Roy Harris, and a Divertimento entitled "Paganiniana" by the contemporary Italian, Alfredo Casella.

The Philadelphia Orchestra concert is the final item for this season in the series sponsored by the Symphony Club of Central Ohio. Tickets are on sale at Summers' Music Store, 144 E. Broad-st. The box office telephone is CA. 4-1515, and at Zeisler's in the Lane Shopping Center.

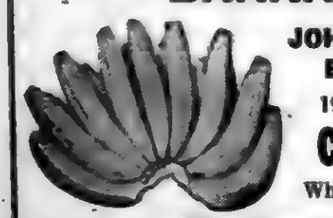
UFO (Unidentified Pond Objects) Solved

Fred Strunk, Cincinnati farm pond owner, thought he had ghosts in his pond. He reported seeing white objects moving around the pond, according to Dale Roach, Hamilton County game protector, Ohio Division of Wildlife. Later he discovered that they were white muskrats.



When the trapping season opened, Strunk live trapped five of the white muskrats, presumably a family group. He tried to keep them alive, but all but one of the uncommon fur bearers died. The muskrats were not true albinos as their nose, eyes and ears were a normal brown color.

Strunk's pond is located in Anderson Township.

State Rejects Heating Plan For Mansion

The state has decided not to spend $60,000 to revamp the heating system in the Governor's Mansion at 358 N. Parkview-av.

It was estimated that conversion from steam to hot water heat and an allied cooling system for summer would cost $60,000.

Since accepting the Rev. Charles U. Harris property in 1956 the state has spent $167,393 for repairs and improvements, department records show.

BASEBALL AHEAD—Dave Postle, 13, (right) of 123 Winthrop-rd, shows Jeff Finko, 10, 191 S. Hampton-rd, a member of the Jewish Center, how to cover a base. Both boys will be selling Junior Jet badges on Monday, Mar. 28, when the sale officially begins. Badges sell for 50 cents and entitle the wearer to see most of the Jet's home games free, when accompanied by an adult.

Jet Badges Are Youths' Tickets To Summer Of Penny Baseball

Penny-per-game will be enjoyed again this season by youthful fans when they buy the familiar Jet Badge.

Sale of the badges, which sell for 50 cents apiece, begins Monday, Mar. 28, and continues until May 1.

Badge wearers are entitled to see al of the Jets' home games free except for opening day, Sundays, holidays and special occasions. As in the past, badge wearers must be accompanied by an adult.

Any school age boy or girl—teenage and high school youths included — is eligible to buy a badge. The same youth groups that have sold badges for the past several years will sell them again this year.

These groups are Boy Scouts of America, The Boys' Club, Catholic Youth Organization, The Jewish Center, and members of the YMCA, and the Girl Scouts.

Proceeds from the sales of badges, after costs are deducted, are kept by the youth organizations to support activities within their groups. After the sales campaign officially closes on May 1, any child without a badge who desires one, can buy it from a member of the organizations selling them.

Since the program was begun in 1955, badge sales have rocketed each year. Last year's record badge sales exceeded 30,000. This year's sales are expected to equal or even surpass that number.

Ohio Population Nears 10 Million

The Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development predicted today that Uncle Sam's nose count of Ohioians this year will show the Buckeye state's population flirting with the 10 million mark.

Dr. Marjorie Guy, the Ohio department's population expert, estimated that Ohio's population as of Jan. 1, 1960, would finally show up as something like 9,732,558.

She estimated the population of Bexley at 13,117 and of Whitehall at 21,276. Columbus was estimated at 499,501.

Football Clinic Set For Cap

Head Football Coach Jack Landrum of Capital University has announced that the Third Annual Football Clinic will be held Mar. 28 and Apr. 4 in Alumni Gymnasium on the Capital campus.

The clinic will be divided into two sessions, that of Mar. 28 which deals with offense, and that of Apr. 4, which will be concerned with defense. Sessions on both dates will get under way at 7:30 p.m.

Outstanding speakers have been secured for both sessions, and will include names well known in high school athletic circles. Speaking on offense will be Coach Bob Stuart of Eastmoor High School and Coach Paul E. Orr, of Greenfield. Speakers for the defensive session will be Coach Forrest Sharrock of Rosary High and Coach Bill Kidd of New Philadelphia High.

Famed Horse Owner And Driver Dies

Funeral services for T. Bentonton (Pop) Dempsey, 87, 85 Eastmoor-blvd, will be held at the Leach and Son Funeral Home at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Friends will be received at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Thursday.

Benton, one of the oldest harness race horse drivers and owners in the United States, died in White Cross Hospital Wednesday. He suffered a stroke several months ago.

He was a member of the U.S. Trotting Association as well as being widely known in the harness racing business.

Benton was born in northwestern Pennsylvania.

Surviving him are his wife, Rose; one son, Benton A., who is affiliated with the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

A DOG NAMED BUTCH

Sydney, Australia. — A dog named Butch has paid with his life for being a five-star hero. The bull terrier challenged a poisonous snake to defend five young children in danger of being bitten. As the children stood terrified two feet from the viper, Butch attacked.

The snake bit the nine-year-old dog on the throat and fled from the battle arena. A veterinary surgeon, summoned by the children, fought several hours in vain to save the canine hero's life.

Suburbia Today T.M. the magazine of pleasant places
The Eastern Review
Two tickets to reading pleasure coming your way on April 7
You've got two on the aisle for the tops in reading pleasure, when Suburbia Today, the first colorgravure magazine specially designed for surburban families, makes its debut in this newspaper on April 7.
Suburbia Today will bring to you and your family the tops in entertaining stories and features, informative articles and interesting departments—lavishly illustrated in full, sparkling color.
We're proud that The Eastern Review is one of the selected community newspapers across the country to be able to furnish this added service to you, our readers. We feel confident that you will find it a top reading event every month.

"No yearly 'spring break-up' headaches around here since we got our concrete streets!"
When the frost leaves the ground—that's the time concrete really proves its worth. You won't find springtime potholes, ruts and washouts on modern concrete streets. No bruised tires or frazzled tempers. No patching crews rushing out as soon as the weather breaks.
The "spring break-up" season holds no hazards for concrete streets because concrete is rigid and solid instead of soft and flexible. It spreads traffic loads across the spongy, thawed ground beneath it. And a concrete street has the strength and thickness to keep "frost boils" from working through the pavement.
That's one good reason concrete's upkeep costs stay so low. You keep on saving money year after year with all-weather concrete streets.

Landscape Expert Will Speak At Garden Meet

A landscape expert, who was formerly the landscape overseer at the Castle Lichtenberg, will speak on "New and Better Shrubs and Evergreens for Landscaping" at the Officers' Council of Franklin County, Ohio Association of Garden Club's meeting on Monday, Mar. [illegible].

The speaker, Gus Reiner of the Oakland Park Nursery, recently visited Germany and is a graduate of the School of Agriculture and Landscaping, located in the City of Lauffen, Germany.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in Room 109, Horticulture Building, Ohio State University. Members of 39 garden clubs belong to the Officers' Council.

Hostess clubs will be Grove City Garden Club, Floribunda Garden Club, Garden Neighbors, Terra Garden Club, Town and Country and Fleur De Lis Garden Club.

Girl Scouts Enjoy Sports, Jr. First Aid

The past few months have been busy ones for several troops of the Fairmoor neighborhood.

A future project of the neighborhood will be to make and sell items at the Fairmoor Fun Frolic, Apr. 2. All profits will be donated to the school.

Heart Council Names New Area Head

Newly elected president of the Franklin County Heart Council is M. R. "Mike" Hausman, 2739 Bryden-rd. He was elected to the top post at the Council's annual meeting held Mar. 14.

Two vice presidents voted into office were Glenn L. Myers, 3849 W. Henderson-rd, and William W. Davis, M.D., 135 E. Walnut. Richard H. Goodwin, 151 Amazon-pl was elected treasurer; Mrs. James J. Conn, 2561 Sherwin, secretary, and Howard D. Sirak, M.D., 154 Stanbury, counselor.

In addition, the Council designated to serve as delegates to the Central Ohio Heart Association, Jack T. Edwards, Jr., 2200 Riverhill, immediate past president of the Council; and Michael A. Anthony, M.D., 1700 Andover.

New members of the Executive Board are: Mack Grimes, 1832 Collingwood-rd; William Bretz, 372 East Weber-rd; John Lukeman, 2610 Berwyn-rd; Si Sokol, 2228 N. High-st; Frederick W. Dierker, M.D., 157 Ceramic-dr; Stanley Schellenger, 1589 Berkshire, and Thomas J. Williams, M.D., 1480 Grandview.

Hausman brings to the Council presidency an extensive background in Heart Association activities. A member of the boards of directors of the Central Ohio and Ohio State Heart Associations, he served as county chairman of the 1958 Heart Fund Drive and was a delegate to the American Heart Association conventions in 1958 and 1959. He was chairman of the public utilities division for the 1960 campaign.

Active in numerous civic organizations, he is vice president of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, a member of the board and executive committee of the Central Ohio Better Business Bureau and a past president of Columbus Builders Exchange. He is also a member of the board of trustees of Temple Israel.

Whitehall Senior Girl Paves Way For Symington At Mock Election

Political Science Department At Cap Hosts 'Convention'

A jubilant delegation from Kansas, composed of Whitehall-Yearling students, saw its carefully planned strategy pay off Saturday night, with the third ballot "nomination" of Sen. Stuart Symington for the presidency at the mock political convention held at Capital University.

With all the aplomb of seasoned politicians, the youngsters, armed with gigantic signs, balloons and name-confetti, "beat the drums" for their favorite-son choice.

Nancy Sherman, chairman of the Whitehall delegation, lead the campaign with a nomination speech that garnered enough support to nominate Symington on the third vote.

Nancy's speech was based on Symington's experience in National Defense and titled him the "man of the hour."

Assured of 94 votes in before-convention commitments from Missouri (West High) and Pennsylvania (Mansfield High), secured by correspondence with the other schools, the busy "Kansans" lost no time in living up others.

Through contagious enthusiasm and the convincing speech of Miss Sherman, the delegates, through a complicated series of maneuvers and traded support promises, made the political coup of the convention in a surprising, landslide vote for Symington.

Doug Fleckner, chairman of the Bexley delegation, under the name of Kentucky, said the "Kentuckians" supported Sen. Lyndon Johnson on the first two ballots but finally joined the Symington camp to help in the latter's victory.

54 Schools Participate

The school was one of 54 central Ohio high schools attending the event, sponsored by Capital University's Political Science Department.

POLITICS IN 'MINIATURE'—Delegations from Whitehall-Yearling, Eastmoor and Bexley high schools joined more than 700 students from all over the state at the mock political convention held at Capital University Saturday. The "Democrats" are shown as they work their way through some fancy political maneuvers. The "Republican" convention will be held this Saturday.

Thirty Earn Science Fair Top Ratings

Of the 75 entrants in the third annual Science Fair, Mar. 16 at Whitehall-Yearling High School, 30 won top ratings. Individual projects for study and experimental work were chosen from many fields of science, such as chemistry, physics, botany, zoology, geology and astronomy.

A team of judges rated each project according to standards set up on a statewide basis. Thirteen students received 'superior' ratings and 17 received 'excellent' ratings. These groups qualified for the Central Ohio District Science Fair to be held at the Ohio State Fairgrounds, Apr. 9.

Among the 44 judges were research scientists and engineers from North American Aviation Co., State Agricultural Laboratories staff, Capital and Ohio State University faculty members, and science teachers from surrounding community schools.

Parents and guests were given an opportunity to observe the projects and question the students after the judging. Certificates of ratings were given out at an assembly at the close of the evening.

East Siders Lend Effort To 'Y' Drive

Two local people hold responsible positions in the current final phase of the $2½ million YM-YWCA Expansion Program.

Mrs. Herbert S. Cook, 110 Park-dr, and Mrs. Harrison Sayre, 264 N. Drexel-av, are co-chairmen of the women's division of the citizens' committee. B. Bartley Arnold is chairman of the men's division.

According to A. E. Rowe, director of expansion, only four per cent of the fund will go to the downtown 'YM' and eight per cent to the downtown 'YW' branch. The rest is earmarked for the metro branches.

Rowe said the entire effort is being accelerated in hopes of meeting the goal by the first of June. The last YM-YW development fund was held in 1911.

Two Apply For Recreation Post, More Sought

Only two persons applied for the newly created city recreation post at a Whitehall Recreation Commission meeting on Thursday night.

The two applicants are C. H. Hannahs, 716 Sheridan-av, Bexley and Larry Baio, 4142 Mayflower-blvd, Whitehall.

Milligan said that both applicants have good backgrounds in the field, but we should have more applicants from which to select.

Adult Education Registration Set For Whitehall

Several new classes are to be organized in the Whitehall adult education program. Registrations will be taken Apr. 4 in the Whitehall-Yearling High School office from 7 to 9 p.m.

Bridge classes will be taught by Mrs. Evelyn Engelman, a central Ohio bridge player, who resides in Bexley.

Floral designing will be taught by Mrs. Elmer Blazer, a member of the Whitehall Garden Club and a judge for the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs. Both women are well qualified in their fields and have had teaching experience.

Classes will meet for eight evenings. Floral design starts Apr. 11; ceramics, Apr. 13; and bridge, Apr. 25.

For further information call BE. 5-2385.

Big Count-Down Starts This Week

It's ready, set, go, this week for several hundred Franklin Countains who are doing their bit in taking the nation's biggest population count-down.

The 1960 Census of Population and Housing, as it is called, begins Friday morning, Apr. 1. The local enumerators are part of an army of 160,000 who must visit every dwelling in 3½ million square miles of the 50 states.

District Supervisor W. B. Marshall pointed out that residents of this area can speed up the big count by having their Advance Report Forms filled out and ready for the census takers. It will be a big time saver, he said.

The blanks were distributed locally several days ago. They give each family a chance to have the legally required answers ready before the house-to-house canvass starts.

Headquarters for the 36 districts of the 12th Congressional District (Franklin County) is in the Provost Marshal's building at the Columbus General Depot. One of the officials, Mrs. Mabel Crockett, said some calls already are coming in from persons confused by the advance form.

Most of their answers can be gotten by carefully reading Section A of the form," she said. "Persons temporarily visiting local homes are not to be counted here. They will be reached eventually in their own territories," she declared.

Counting Travelers Thursday

Traveling people will be counted at all hotels, motels and other public lodgings on the night of Thursday, Mar. 31. They will be counted as part of the local population only if they have no usual place of residence elsewhere.

Managers of these special dwellings will distribute the forms to their guests and Census Bureau employes will be on hand to assist in filling them out.

Fourth Will Answer More

While the first phase of the census should be over by the 12th, a second phase should also be finished. At every fourth household, the census taker will leave a household questionnaire. It asks additional questions covering population and housing facts. Householders are requested to mail the form within three days to the local census district office.

Supervisor Marshall emphasized that all information is held in absolute confidence under Federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages and percentages, he said, adding "Information about individuals cannot be examined by persons other than census employes, who are sworn to secrecy. Thus the answers cannot be used for investigation, taxation or regulation."

Columbus, so often used as a testing ground in other ways,

TERRY PATTERSON—Terry Patterson, with just four years of lessons in piano, is stirring interest in local music circles. Her mother, left, looks on as the 12-year-old pianist "runs through" 33 pages of Greig's A Minor Concerto by memory in a concert at home.

Girl Pianist, Age 12, Stirs Interest In Local, State Music Circles

By Ray Shaffer

Her name is Terry Patterson, a name that may become very familiar throughout the country in years to come. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Patterson, of 550 S. James-rd.

Terry recently took second place in the Columbus Symphony Orchestra's Young Musicians' Competition. The competition was directed primarily at older teenagers and special permission had to be granted to enter Terry. Approximately 20 youths took part.

Symphony Conductor Evan Whallon advised the girl's teacher, Ruth Manahan, that Terry should be warned that the competition would just be for experience and not to expect to win any awards.

As it turned out, the young pianist surprised everyone with her presentation of Greig's A Minor Concerto—33 pages long, played entirely from memory!

Conservatory Bid

The Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, through the local competition, became interested in Terry and has expressed a desire to offer her a scholarship. However, their hands are tied because the girl is too young for a scholarship. Representatives of the conservatory have told Terry's parents that the pianist has a natural talent and has a bright future in the music world.

Mrs. Patterson is very pleased by the scholarship prospect but would like Terry to finish her education in local public schools.

Terry really doesn't seem too impressed with all the fuss. She has only been taking piano for four years. She said, "I don't know why people make such a fuss about my playing at my age—it's so easy, I really feel a little guilty."

Anyone who has taken piano lessons at all, knows that the concerto and many other classical pieces cannot be termed easy, except by the very talented.

Terry is an all A student in the seventh grade at Broadleigh Elementary School. Her interests are as varied and changeable as those of any youngster her age.

She enjoys ping-pong, cooking, contract bridge, reading, dogs and horses. She is presently teaching herself touch-typing so she can help her mother with the latter's Welcome Wagon

Chances Of Winning Grand In Contest For Easter Hams

The FREE EASTER HAM offer announced in this paper last week is continued this week and next.

Elsewhere in this newspaper a full page of coupons is printed. Merely clip the coupons, fill in your name, address and phone number and then drop them in the containers in the various stores listed in the page.

You may enter the contest as many times as you wish. Anyone over 16 years of age is eligible to win. Merchants have additional coupons available in event you have a friend or neighbor who would like to enter.

Over 170 Swift Premium fully cooked hams will be awarded when drawings are held on Monday, Apr. 11. Winners will be announced in that week's issue of this newspaper, in time for the winners to receive their free hams for Easter dinner.

Be sure to visit every place of business listed on the ham coupon page. You have that many more chances of winning. Coupons should be delivered in person and not mailed.

Already Successful Fair Can Be Among Finest

An Editorial

The Franklin County Fair of 1959 was judged the best in the state. This is an honor and deserves the plaudits of the whole community.

We have observed with interest some developments that have taken place in recent years to improve the Franklin County Fair. We have observed, too, that if some proper steps are taken now, the Franklin County Fair will be enlarged and can very well be developed into one of the best in the country.

Place emphasis on making the Franklin County Fair one of the finest events in Ohio, encouraging exhibitors from all over the central section of the state.

Form a long range planning committee to set up a proposed plan for the fair's expanded development during the next five years and to suggest procedures for obtaining funds whereby improvements may be realized.

This committee should be composed of five men or women appointed by the fair board president. The committee chairman should have the authority to appoint whatever sub-committees may be desired.

The committee should weigh best usages of the fairgrounds and seek further utilization of the grounds and buildings throughout the year.

Seek more and better permanent buildings for the grounds as well as better all-around facilities including better streets, lighting and cleanliness. Appearance of the grounds should be improved and ways determined to keep the fair from becoming obnoxious to Hilliard residents during the fair season.

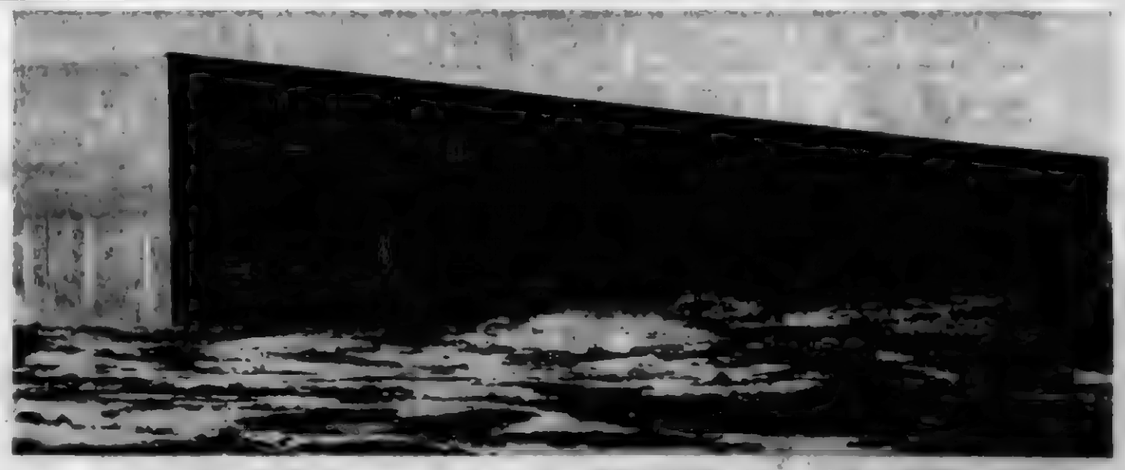
Careful study of the fair program with special consideration to the change that has come about in a county that is rapidly becoming more urban than rural. Attention should be given the need for additional displays, perhaps of manufactured items as well as agricultural so that the fair will represent all of Franklin County.

Continued and expanded emphasis on youth activities among suburban people.

Development of an all-around program that is likely to appeal to all members of the family.

Change the constitution to make provision for election of three members to the board of directors from each of five sections of the county: Northeast, Southeast, Southwest and Northwest, plus Columbus. Nine additional members should be elected at large with the county agricultural extension agent retaining his ex-officio membership.

One member should be elected from each district and three at large annually. This could be meshed into the present program over a three-year period.



Determine if expansion of the fair program might eventually call for purchase of additional ground and, if so, take steps toward such a purchase before the land is no longer available.

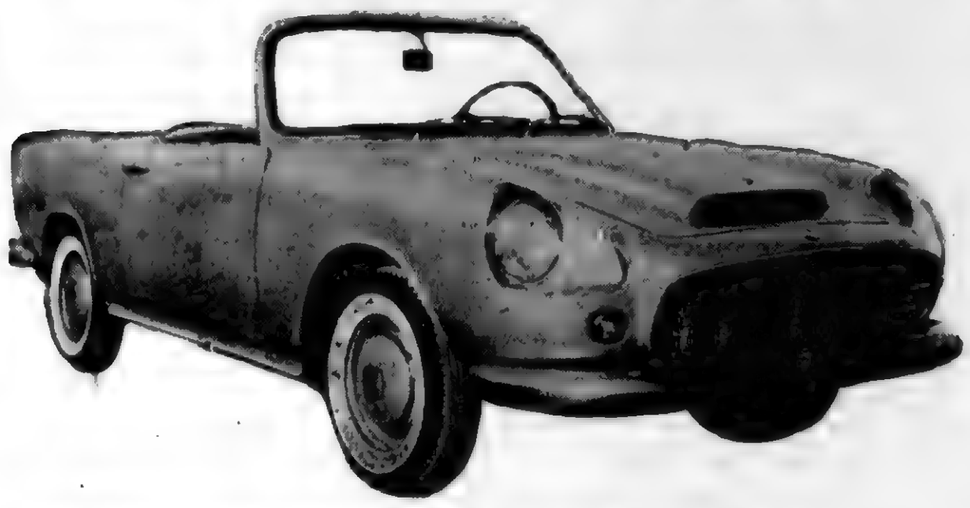
Consideration to developing the fair board's secretary position to one of year-around operation with emphasis on promoting and planning the fair.

Special emphasis on development of membership, thus encouraging more interest in the county fair. A special membership drive should be held annually under direction of a specially - appointed membership committee.

The matter of assured representation from all sections of the county should prove popular and should provide much more enthusiasm and membership support for the fair when this comes to pass. Several counties now have such a plan.

No fault is being found with the present fair board. It has done a good job. These recommendations are merely based on the need for an expanded development of the county fair. It is hoped the board president will see fit to take steps toward putting such a program into high gear. Results obtained will not be immediate but many good things could be provided for the fair in the next few years.

GROUP SEEKS NAME FOR WHITEHALL ARMORY



COMMITTEE APPOINTED—The public will be invited to submit names for the new U.S. Army Reserve Center now under construction in Whitehall. A committee to dedicate the armory in July has been appointed. It includes Col. Donald E. Pratt, chairman; Lt. Col. Ewing, Columbus Sub Sector Commander; Mayor Walter S. Moling, Ray Shipley, A. Zettler Greely, councilmen; Joseph R. Ralston, Mrs. E. W. Davies and Earl Bare, all of Whitehall. First objective of the committee is to pick the name of a deceased Army person to be memorialized by having the armory named in his honor. Persons recommended should have served in the Army sometime from Civil War times through the Korean conflict; should have been decorated or had attained prominence; and should have been a native of Whitehall. Names to be considered may be sent to "The Armory Dedication Committee" in care of the Whitehall Administration Building, 208 E. Yearling-rd, Whitehall.

WHITEHALL LIBRARY BOOKNOTES

Books About Birds Popular As Spring Weather Nears

Requests at the Whitehall Branch Library for books about birds, bird-watching, and the building of feeding stations and bird houses always steps up considerably as spring approaches.

Aid in identifying the countless species of living birds can be obtained in such colorfully illustrated manuals as "The Bird Book," by Leon Hausman; "The Beauty of Birds," by Newberry, and "Pocket Guide to the Birds," by Cruickshank.

The young people will find "Our State Birds," by Curtis, "Birds of the World," a Federal Writers' Project, and "The True Book of Birds We Know," by Friskey, interesting and useful and all available in the juvenile section of the Whitehall Library.

Still another aspect, how to attract birds to your yard and make friends with them, is covered in "How to Build Birdhouses and Feeders, and How to Attract Birds to Your Garden," by Shulz, and "72 New Birdhouses and Feeders You Can Make," by Sibley.

For the person who likes to read interesting and curious facts about birds, the library has Allan Cruickshank's recent "1001 Questions Answered About Birds."

Books are also available at the library on bird migration.

HARTLEY HIGH SCHOOL'S

HAWK Lines

Hartley Class Of '61 Elects Jim Harkless President

The junior class of Hartley elected its first class officers a week ago Tuesday. Elected were Jim Harkless, president; Nancy Jo Krauss, vice-president; Mary Ann Sharkey, secretary; and Pat Lynch, treasurer. They were elected by a secret ballot of the entire class of '61.

The election climaxed a week of campaigning which was both colorful and interesting. Campaign managers of the candidates, who were nominated by petition, placed signs up and down the halls of Hartley. Many of these were very cleverly worded, with slogans such as "Don't Grieve, Vote for Steve," "It's a Cinch with P. J. Lynch," and "Put a Big X for Big Ron." Buttons of various shapes and sizes were also passed out, and some students seemed to collect as many as possible to decorate their person.

The juniors elected these officers to deal with problems that confront the junior class as a whole. They preside over the junior class meetings that are held every Tuesday at homeroom time. The junior prom, the senior class trip and the class rings are some of the problems facing this first set of class officers Hartley has ever had.

Hartley represented the state of Hawaii on Saturday, Mar. 26, at the mock Democratic convention at Capital University, along with some 50 other schools from Franklin County area who represented the other states and territories in the Union. The delegation from Hartley, which threw its support to Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts, was made up of students from the American history class who gave their political leanings as Democratic. They were Paul Coleman, chairman, Bob Burchfield, Marilyn Hanf, Janet Murray and Mary Jo Smith. In the Republican convention, to be held this Saturday, Hartley will also represent Hawaii. Delegates for this convention are Ron Glass, chairman, Jim Nelson, Lucy Ryan, Lena Schwind, Sue Sharkey and Don Van Horn.

The class of '62 is progressing nicely on its operetta, supervised by Sister Ann Christopher. The operetta is traditionally put on by the sophomore class. Last year's presentation, "Music in the Attic," was a complete sell-out. The try-outs for the parts were held sometime ago. Michele Savage has the part of Susan Clifton, the girl's lead, and Bob Albrecht has Bob Coleman, the boy's lead. Also having speaking parts are Mike Bruno, Cheryl Gatterdam, Carl Polito and Carol Schneider. The speaking roles are coached by Sister Mary Lucille.

The noon-time sock-hops, under the supervision of Jeff Kiener, treasurer of student council, have some new additions. It seems that many of the boys wanted to do something else than just dance, so Jeff got permission to use the wrestling mats at noon, since the sock-hops are held in the gym. Now the boys engage in varied gymnastics, doing everything from tumbling to building four layer pyramids. Not to be outdone, one of the girls, Pam Rothermel, brought a jumping rope last Friday, and even persuaded some of the boys to try it.

Baseball practice is now in full swing at Hartley. The Hawks are now practicing indoors, but Coach Kreiger expects to have his team ready for competition soon. The baseball team has more candidates than any other spring sport at Hartley, with track coming second and golf third.

Arrangements for the Hawks' 1960 football schedule should be completed soon. Some games have already been scheduled, including one with St. Charles. The Hawks hope that a year's experience plus a change in attitude will give them a better grid season than last year.

3000 CLEAN TEETH

Dental Health Program Used In Elementaries

To date, there is no "one-shot" answer to dental diseases and disorders. So it is necessary to use as many of the preventive measures as possible.

Secure early and regular dental treatment by the family dentist and work closely with the community Dental Health Program.

A cooperative program of dental health education and prevention has just been accomplished in two of Whitehall's elementary schools, East Main Street and Beechwood. As a result, there are about 350 second and third grade students with over 3,000 clean teeth.

This all came about from the approval of the Columbus Dental Society and the Franklin County Health Department, the willingness of the Whitehall school officials and the need of more Ohio studies on the preventive benefits to be obtained by painting children's teeth with fluoride solutions.

Dental Health Education was emphasized by the teachers of the schools and each child participated in a dental procedure. It is believed that an actual dental chair experience by the child, especially when there is no discomfort involved, is one of the biggest boosters for following the early and regular office visits recommended by dentists.

A great deal of planning and administrative time was expended on the program by Principals Victor L. Will, Mrs. Gertrude Fisher and School Nurse Mrs. Hauss. The PTA representatives contributed much to the success of the program by working with the dentist and the children throughout the two month period.

It is hoped the benefits derived, the study material being compiled, and the enthusiasm of the parents will be such that the program can be rescheduled for the next three years in order to complete the planned four-year research project.

Three Win Tin Lizzie Replicas

The winners of the Tin Lizzie Contest held by Gray Drug stores in the Great Eastern and Town and Country Shopping centers are Leonard Comeras, 1141 Billy-dr, Otto Knoll, Jr., 493 Maplewood-av, and Norman Striger, 3121 E. Fifth-av.

The winners received half scale replicas of 1910 Model T cars. The 50-inch wheel base autos have three horsepower engines. The cars have been delivered and will probably be seen soon on the streets of the East Side.

Jumbled Words, Bonus Gift Added To Center's Giant 'Prize-O-Rama'

Another jumbled words contest has been incorporated into Town and Country Shopping Center's Prize-O-Rama this week with a Kenmore Washer from Sears-Roebuck Co., as a bonus prize.

Winner of the washer will be the first person to rearrange the words into a sentence and bring the correct sentence to Sears in the center.

The jumbled words appear in the contest ads to be found in this newspaper. All you have to do is read all the ads, find the words, arrange them in a sentence and turn the entry blank in. The entry that comes closest to the predetermined sentence will win.

The jumbled words and the bonus prize are just added surprises in the fabulous Prize-O-Rama event.

Now that warm weather has finally put in an appearance, most people are beginning to dream of vacations and summer travel. No trip could be more exciting than the one T and C merchants are planning for the first prize winner in this contest. The prize is a fabulous five-day trip for two via TWA Super G Constellation Golden Banner Coach to Las Vegas, Nev.

The glamorous Stardust Hotel, shown above, will be the prize winner's home away from home in Nevada. It's the world's largest and most luxurious resort hotel. Delightful meals, sightseeing, swimming, sunning and viewing some of the local floor shows will all make the trip one to remember.

Entering Prize-O-Rama is easy as pie. Just clip the entry blank and take it to one of the Stores of the Week. This week's stores are Thom McAn Shoes, Hallmark House, Moore's and Kiddie Korner.

Drawings are held each Tuesday and winners are announced in that week's issue of this newspaper. Winners of weekly prizes are also eligible for the grand award: the trip to Vegas and a Moretti sports car.

All residents living in the Eastern Review or Reynoldsburg Record circulation areas are eligible to enter. The contest is not open to employés of the shopping center or those of Hartley Newspapers.

Hurry and enter now. Only two more weeks remain in this, the greatest contest ever sponsored in the East Side or in Reynoldsburg. Many wonderful prizes are still waiting for your entry.

The weekly prize this week will be a $29.95 G. E. radio from Kresge's.

Winners this week include: Mrs. Reed Davidson, 956 Grandon-av, G.E. Filter Flo washer from Barry's, and Claribel Brennan, of 409 Wolfe-av, $10 gift certificate from T. and C. Laundry.

Area Women In Cerebral Palsy Course

Participants are Nancy Baumann, 234 S. Harding-rd; Mrs. Leo Summers, Hazel Summers and Melinda Merkle, 846 Antwerp-rd.

The four-session curriculum is being staged by United Cerebral Palsy of Central Ohio, a United Appeal agency, to meet the need for baby-sitters capable of caring for the severely handicapped youngsters.

The classes, held Saturday mornings at Thompson Recreation Center, will give students a basic knowledge of cerebral palsy and teach them the physical skills for handling the children.

DEMILLE'S 'KING OF KINGS' RETURNS

WILL SHOW AT REFORMATION CHURCH—Cecil B. DeMille's 1927 motion picture classic, "The King of Kings," will be shown at Reformation Lutheran Church, Wednesday, Apr. 6 at 7 p.m. Public is invited. The new print of the film will be shown. Appropriate music has been added to make the film presentable to an audience today. This will be the only presentation of the world-renowned masterpiece in the East Side this season. The new church is located one block north of Livingston-av on Hamilton-rd, with ample parking available. No admission will be charged.

Missionary To Address Christ Lutheran Women

Dr. John Kuder

Dr. John Kuder, missionary to New Guinea, will speak at the general meeting of Women of the Church, Christ Lutheran Church, 2314 E. Main-st, Tuesday, Apr. 5, 8 p.m.

Dr. Kuder, missionary of the American Lutheran Church, is home on furlough. He first went to New Guinea in 1934, and now serves as president of Lutheran Mission, New Guinea, largest Protestant mission in the southwest Pacific. More than 100 missionaries from the United States, Canada, Australia and Germany are on the staff of the internationally-operated Lutheran Mission, New Guinea.

Dr. Kuder has also been elected Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of New Guinea with a baptized membership of approximately 200,000, and more than 2,000 full-time workers serving in the church and supported by native congregations.

Dr. and Mrs. Kuder are making their residence at the mission furlough home, 875 Sheridan-av, during their year's absence from their mission field.

Mrs. Leonard Ludwig is president of the Women's Society and Mrs. W. Richard Lehmann, program chairman.

Circles 6, Mrs. G. H. Doermann, chairman, and 10, Miss Cecelia Huglen, chairman, are in charge of the social hour following the program. Mrs. Ralph Johnston and Mrs. William Bernlohr, project chairmen, will serve as hostesses.

BUTLER COMBATS BOLTS

Paul M. Butler, Democratic National Chairman, reiterated [illegible] the National Committee warning that challenges may be made against seating of national convention delegates from states with unpledged Presidential electors.

The warning reflects a rule unanimously adopted by the 1956 convention. It is a rule designed to forestall possible bolts from the party's national ticket

BIBLE COMMENTS

Church Can't Clear Path, But Can Help

Eager to protect the morals of their congregations, many clergymen embark on extensive programs to rid local magazine stores of what they consider dangerous literature.

The traffic in obscenity is big and evil business—one that could poison the foundation of the society. The foundation is our young people, and they are the ones most influenced by anything they read or see.

Yet, as Christians, the clergy must be careful that in their zeal, they do not substitute another danger and lose sight of positive ideals. Obscenity has been defined as that which incites peurile—immature—interests.

To condemn wholesale all books that deal with the baser instincts of man in serious literature should not be the wish of the knowledgeable religious person.

To censor without discriminations opens the church to the charge that it is operating on a negative set of values; attempting to head off all unsuitable influences instead of firmly building its own influence as a bulwark against sin.

The church cannot lead its followers by clearing a glistening path before them. It must hold up its true and courageous standards for all to see—and people will find their own way.

'Be Wary Of Animal Bites Now'—Goodloe

Now is the time to muzzle the possibility of being bit by animals, according to Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, city health commissioner. Animal bites show a marked increase in April and reach their peak in May, local records show.

Since children are frequently victims of dog bites, parents are urged to teach their youngsters six important rules: 1. Never play with or pet strange dogs or other animals; 2. Never tease or abuse animals; 3. Do not bother an animal when it is eating; 4. Do not handle injured animals; 5. Never try to separate fighting animals; and 6. Never put your fingers on the cage of a confined animal.

Report All Bites

Rabies can be the fatal result of an animal bite. It is imperative to report any bite, no matter how trivial, to the police or health department, Dale R. Cornett, D. V. M., is permanently assigned to investigate all reported animal bites. Rabies immunization is a must for all Columbus dogs.

Should you be an animal bite victim, be sure to obtain medical attention and to report the incident. Your ability to identify the animal that bit you may be highly important; try to find out where it lives and note special characteristics such as color, size, breed and sex.

Public Schools Ask Registration

Columbus Public School officials have asked parents of children who will be entering school for the first time next September to call the elementary school in their neighborhood to make arrangements for registration.

To be eligible to enter kindergarten in September, children must be five years of age on or before Dec. 31, 1960. To be eligible to enter first grade, children must be six years of age on or before the same date.

School officials emphasized that registration of these children should be completed as soon as possible. This will enable schools to devote more time to counseling with children and parents and to make plans for the new school year.

More than 10,500 five and six-year-olds are expected to answer the school bell for the first time next fall.

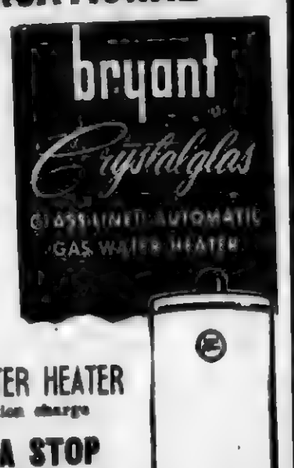
BIG INVENTORY RISE



Manufacturing statistics for January released by the Department of Commerce give some support to those who doubt that business will be at boom levels in the first half of this year.

The figures showed a second enormous increase in inventories, indicating that the job of restocking after the steel strike had been accomplished more rapidly than had been expected. The rise in January was $800,000,000 after seasonal adjustment, the same as in December.

Bibles, atlases, and reference books, as well as books on home decorating and books for children.

It was in 1931 that Mr. Davidow began his publishing operations. There are now more than 800 employes in his organizations and more than 200 of them are editorial workers. This vast reservoir of editorial and publishing resources are available to SUBURBIA TODAY to produce the best of all magazine sections.

Under his dynamic leadership, a hand-picked staff of top-flight journalists and expert technicians are making SUBURBIA TODAY a highly successful and rapidly-growing magazine section for the all-family enjoyment of well over one million readers of suburban newspapers from coast to coast.

is one of 20 cities under special study during the 1960 census. Mrs. Crockett said three observers are here from the International Statistical Office, representing Ethiopia, Korea and Peru, to learn new methods. In addition a Special Records group from Washington, D.C. is here to see if things were laid out smoothly.

ROSS CLEANERS REMODELED

NEW EQUIPMENT—Jewell French, left, operates the cellar machine of the shirt processing machine at the newly remodeled Ross Cleaners Store in the Town and Country Shopping Center. Della Colburn registers and packages the finished shirts. The only machine of its kind in this area has been installed in the store. This exclusive machine completely processes and finishes shirts, requiring only slight assistance from operaters. A machine that steams and contours dresses to their precise original lines and dimensions, and a unique systematic garment conveyor that delivers pre-sorted garments, sealed in protective coverings, are two other additions to the store. The Ross chain started 30 years ago in Columbus and now includes eight stores.

Election—

the participating schools will take over next Saturday, for their mock convention.

U.S. Rep. Walter H. Moeller opened the day's session. He discussed accomplishments of previous Democratic administrations in the keynote address.

Rousing demonstrations, fairly rocking the rafters of Mees Hall, caucuses and meetings preceded the nominations.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Texas, was the unanimous choice for the vice-presidential "nomination."

Sen. John F. Kennedy, Massachusetts, led on the first two ballots for president.

He had 280 votes on the first ballot. Sen. Lyndon Johnson Texas, had 234 and Symington 215. The vote on the second was, 275 for Kennedy, 248 for Johnson, and 234, Symington.

Symington received 418 votes on the third ballot, Kennedy 311, and Johnson, 48.

The mock political conventions anticipate the national presidential conventions to be held this summer in Los Angeles and Chicago.

Conventions are run entirely by students. Each high school is assigned a state and is entitled to send one half of the number of delegates that the state actually sends to the national convention. Students draw up their own platforms and nominate nationally prominent candidates.

Features, patterned after national conventions, are state caucuses, demonstrations for nominees, final balloting of the states, and nomination of the vice-president.

Like all young girls, Terry has a favorite movie star. Her's is Ann Sothern, popular in movies, radio and television. The pianist and the actress correspond regularly and Miss Sothern sent a special letter of encouragement to Terry on the musicians' competition. The actress was herself a child prodigee.

Terry said she definitely plans to make music her career and it appears she is off to a good start.

DANISH ROYALTY TO VISIT

The King and Queen of Denmark will pay a state visit to the United States in October.

The White House mad the announcement recently that King Frederik and Queen Ingrid have accepted an invitation from President Eisenhower to come to this country early in that month.

Books Broaden Background For Boys, Girls Of All Ages

By Robert V. Roshon
East Broad Street School

A number of years ago, before Whitehall became a city, schools in this area were not fortunate enough to each have a library. They depended upon the county to provide, through the Bookmobile services, library books for the children.

Then, through a provision in the State Department of Education, Whitehall Schools were requested to spend a certain portion of their state foundation monies per child for the purchase of library books.

This was the beginning of libraries in the individual schools in the Whitehall System.

It has been possible during the past several years to provide a fairly nice selection of books for Whitehall children. Some of the schools have set up grade level libraries where it is impossible to establish a central place for storing the books. In other schools a central area was available and the books were catalogued and arranged for easy use.

This year for the first time the Bookmobile does not visit all of our Whitehall Schools. Presently its itinerary is adjusted so that it visits only the East Main Street School.

The reason the Bookmobile is not provided for the rest of the schools is because of the addition of the Whitehall Branch of the Columbus Public Library which is located at the corner of Broad-st and Yearling-rd.

One might ask the question why it is necessary to have so many places available for getting books. Books are one of the main ways people are able to enlarge and broaden their personal backgrounds. Therefore, with libraries being built slowly, but surely, both in schools and the community children should be encouraged to take advantage of all of these facilities.

When the frost leaves the ground—that's the time concrete really proves its worth. You won't find springtime potholes, ruts and washouts on modern concrete streets. No bruised tires or frazzled tempers. No patching crews rushing out as soon as the weather breaks.

The "spring break-up" season holds no hazards for concrete streets because concrete is rigid and solid instead of soft and flexible. It spreads traffic loads across the spongy, thawed ground beneath it. And a concrete street has the strength and thickness to keep "frost boils" from working through the pavement.

That's one good reason concrete's upkeep costs stay so low. You keep on saving money year after year with all-weather concrete streets.

Public Library Braces For Another Decade Of Growth

"FOR A BETTER-READ, BETTER-INFORMED AMERICA"

National Library Week
April 3-9, 1960

Just as every dog has his day, every industry, business and association has its special week. Last time we counted there were several hundred such "weeks" in the American calendar.

Few, however, are so vital to the welfare of our way of life as the approaching National Library Week, which will be observed in more than 5000 communities in all 50 states from Sunday, April 3, through Saturday, April 9.

Here's what President Dwight D. Eisenhower has to say about its importance:

"The strength of our nation is founded in the minds and hearts of its citizens — individuals who have sought out the truth and have formed their own convictions. In this search, the freedom to read is an indispensable asset. During National Library Week, I hope that all Americans will make a special effort to seek out the treasures of knowledge, ideas and spiritual insight provided by our libraries across the land."

Your nearby public library will be holding "open house" during this week. But that's nothing unusual — the public library is open the year-round to serve your informational and recreational needs that can be met through the "wonderful world of books." A uniquely American institution, your public library opens its portals to all, regardless of race, creed, political affiliation or color.

National Library Week will be observed to the tune of a challenging slogan, "Open Wonderful New Worlds . . . Wake Up and Read!" and with the avowed objective of "A Better-Read, Better-Informed America."

You can join in the spirit of the observance by visiting your public library, by cashing in on your "freedom to read" birthright. Many of our nation's foremost statesmen are fully as alarmed by the "reading gap" as they are by the "missile gap." Help plug the "reading gap" by using your public library!

WHITEHALL BRANCH—Fifth and latest of the branch buildings of the Columbus Library System, it was opened just over a year ago at 4371 E. Broad-st. Truly the "dream" building of the system, it is air conditioned and has special facilities for children. It boasts the largest book collection of the branches—29,000 volumes. Twenty-nine school classes visited during the year. Mrs. Eunice Houck, librarian, said story-craft sessions will be held this summer.

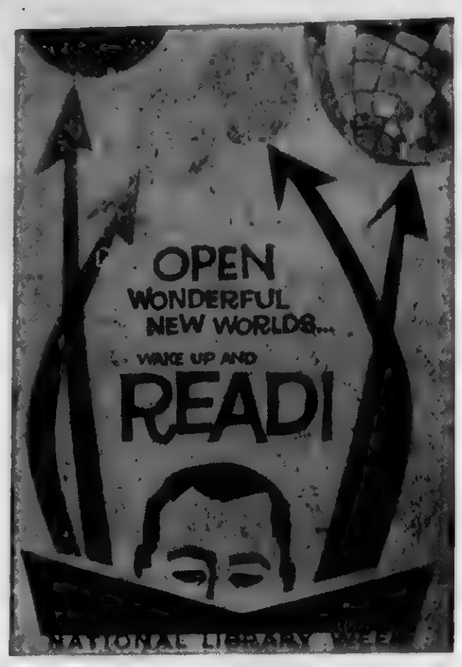
HILLTOP BRANCH—Hilltop has proved to be the "readingest" section of town over the years. For more than five years before the opening of the Hilltop Branch in 1928, the community supported its own library. The present building, at 2955 W. Broad-st, was the first branch built by the Columbus Library System. It was dedicated in Mar. 1950. The 23,000-volume collection is maintained by Miss Mary Elizabeth Keyes. Thirty-three story sessions were held last year.

HILLTONIA BRANCH—Serving a growing community, it opened Jan. 5, 1959 with all new books, new furnishings and a new staff. In a leased building at 2282 W. Mound-st, built to library specifications, it shares tenancy with the county unit of the American Cancer Society. Fifty-one classes from nearby public and parochial schools visited during 1959. Hilltonia has done much to relieve overcrowded Hilltop Branch. Miss Marie Biehl is branch head.

FRANKLINTON BRANCH—Has been in the same leased building at 840 Sullivant-av, since Jan. 1943. It contains about 10,500 books. Patronage has fallen off since the expressway bisected the West Side. A search is under way for a more centrally located site. About 3,000 readers hold cards from Franklinton. The branch, headed by Miss Ellen Metzger, carries on a very active program with children in the summer months. Last year 402 youngsters took part in 34 story hour sessions.

PARSONS BRANCH—Miss Margaret Bausch has been head of the South Side branch since it first opened in a leased storeroom at 1124 Parsons-av, on Oct. 4, 1928. The present branch at 845 Parsons-av, was completed in 1956 at a cost of $99,414. Catering greatly to the children, it features a special story-hour room, and traditionally sponsors pet and puppet shows. Some 5,000 card carriers have access to more than 21,000 volumes.

BOOKMOBILES—Four huge bookmobiles service suburban and built-up residential areas of Franklin County. Last year the Bookmobiles checked out 574,000 of the 2,134,00 loaned out by the Columbus Public Library System. The Bookmobiles stop at public and parochial schools throughout the county as well as at village intersections. Adults are welcome aboard at all stops. Largest of the "libraries on wheels" holds some 5,000 volumes.



Area Book Loans Top 2 Million

The past year brought not only an all-time high record of service and library usage but also the end of a decade of unprecedented growth of the Columbus Public Library system.

For the first time in history book loans exceeded the two million mark. This was nearly triple the figure loaned in 1949, according to Margaret E. Carroll, librarian.

Cognizant of the so-called "population explosion" the library board in 1959 awarded contracts for a two-story addition to the Main Library and enlarged facilities for bookmobiles. This coupled with the new mechanical charging system will speed up the central processing of books to serve the various community branches.

In the last decade residential branches have been brought up to twelve and a 13th has been committed for Hilliard.

Limited horizons are dangerous to a free people. Be grateful that you live in a society based on the freedom to read. For a better-read, better-informed America — OPEN WONDERFUL NEW WORLDS . . . WAKE UP AND READ!

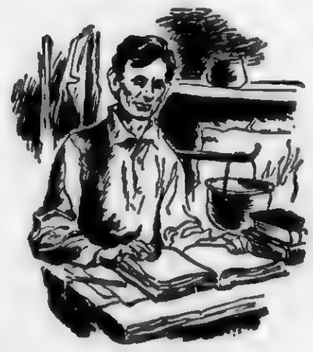
GAS AIR CONDITIONING

Lets You Browse in Comfort Winter and Summer at Columbus Branch Libraries



Yes, "All-Year" Gas Air Conditioning assures the finest of indoor weather the year 'round at these five Columbus Branch Libraries: LINDEN, BEECHWOLD, PARSONS AVENUE, ARLINGTON AND WHITEHALL.

These institutions of public service installed the Arkla Servel "All-Year" equipment for many reasons. The unique units serve both as a winter heating and a summer cooling system. They use just one fuel — low-cost Gas. And, they're on the job every day of the year, cleaning and filtering the air . . . controlling the humidity . . . circulating fresh air . . . to make the Gas Air Conditioned library a pleasant, more comfortable place for you to relax and read.

Gas Air Conditioners — both year 'round and "add-on" models — also are available through your Gas Company for your own modern home. Call CA 8-5611, Ext. 683 for further information.

Bexley High School LION'S ROAR

Question: 'Where's Charlie? Answer: Here, This Weekend

By Glenda Schottenstein

A movie on cancer, "The Other City," will be shown Apr. 5 at 3:30 p.m. at Bexley High School. The showing will be sponsored by the Student Health Council.

"Where's Charlie?" a musical by George Abbott, will be presented by the Bexley High School Choir and senior drama students Thursday and Friday, March 31 and April 1, at 8 p.m.

C. Robert Myers, choir director, and Mrs. Sara Buchanan, dramatics teacher, will direct the production. Barbara Duffy is the student director.

Jack Wood and Jim Schomaker will play the parts of Charlie and Jack, respectively, students at Oxford College in England. They invite their girl friends Kitty and Amy for the weekend with the understanding that Charlie's aunt is coming as chaperone.

Kitty and Amy will be portrayed by Kathy Newhouse and Mae Beth Hagler, respectively.

Charlie's aunt, Donna Lucia, who will be played by Kay Gearhart, fails to arrive, and in order for the girls to stay, Charlie masquerades as his aunt and chaperones the girls, who are occupying rooms in the boys' dormitory. Hilarious complications result as Charlie tries to be both himself and his aunt.

Others in the cast include Bob Hill as Spettingue, Kitty's guardian; Jud Elliot as Sir Francis, Jack's father; Sandy Polster as the photographer; and Charles Myers as Wilkinson, the play director.

Attend Convention

900 delegates from 84 Ohio high schools met to "nominate" the Democratic presidential candidate.

U. S. Sen. Stuart Symington came from behind to win on the third ballot. U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy and U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson were also nominated.

Sen. Kennedy led on the first two ballots but Symington picked up the votes he needed from the 'delegates" who had voted for Sen. Johnson.

Sen. Johnson was then a unanimous choice for the vice-presidential nomination.

A civil rights fight developed when several southern states wanted to propose an amendment to the civil rights plank in the platform.

One southern state wanted to put civil rights in control of the states. The amendment was soundly defeated and an amendment was adopted that the attorney general be responsible for "insuring the voting rights of minority groups."

Students Of Seven Schools In Area Will Get TB Tests

Tuberculin skin tests, provided to first graders for the first time last Spring, will be given to 3,000 seventh, eleventh and twelfth graders in 36 Catholic schools, including seven in this area, the Tuberculosis Society has announced.

Monday, Apr. 4, 71 seventh graders will receive the free skin tests at St. Catharine's School, 2865 Fair-av, as will 123 eleventh and twelfth grade students at St. Charles, 2010 E. Broad-st.

Tuesday, 109 seventh graders at Christ the King, 2855 E. Livingston-av, and 160 junior at Bishop Hartley, Livingston-av and Zettler-rd, will be tested.

Wednesday, 59 seventh grade pupils at Holy Spirit, 4382 Duchene-ln, and 44 at St. Thomas, 767 N. Cassady-av, will be tested as will 112 juniors and seniors at St. Mary of the Springs, Nelson and Sunbury-rds.

Whether, and to what extent, tuberculin tests replace, or supplement, chest X-rays on the high school level depends upon results of this pilot program, the Tuberculosis Society stated. Both detection weapons have advantages of their own. X-rays reveal abnormalities besides TB in the chest area. Tuberculin tests find positive reactors who may not now have the disease but who will be candidates for active tuberculosis since they have TB germs in their bodies.

The needle-type Manoux test consists of inserting one-tenth c.c. of purified protein derivative between the first two layers of skin on the forearm.

"P.P.D.," harmless in itself, produces an allergic reaction to any TB germs present in the body. This "positive" reaction is characterized by a swollen welt, measuring five or more millimeters, appearing on the arm. Arrangements will be made for positive reactors to receive chest X-rays for tuberculosis, and their household contacts to be chest-checked to locate the source case of the TB infection.

Optimist Club Boys' Speech Contest Set

The Optimist Clubs of Zone F District 24 with Lt. Governor James F. Kraner and Zone Chairman Edward Erfurt, will hold its Oratorical Contest Eliminations Saturday, Apr. 2, in the auditorium of the Columbus and Southern Electric Co., 215 N. Front-st, at 10 a.m.

The public is invited. Both Southern and Eastern Optimist Clubs will have representatives in the contest.

The official subject will be "The Voice of Optimism." The contest is open to all boys, 15 years old and under.

The first annual Optimist International Boys' Oratorical Contest was held in 1938. The purpose of this event has been to provide a valuable self-improvement activity for boys. The boys receive training in the art and practice of public speaking.

The winner of the zone contest will compete with 10 other boys at the Ohio District 24 conventions in Lima, in May. The winner will be sent to the Regional contest at Philadelphia and the finals will be held at Grand Rapids, Mich. in June.

The first place winner in the finals will receive $1,000 and the next three winners will receive $500 scholarships.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

Virginia Beach, Va. — The carp in Lake Holly have really eaten their heads off, so to speak. They chewed grass and roots at the lake's edge and caused a highway to collapse. The highway ran along the edge of the water.

A city council verdict ruled that the carp were to be poisoned and the lake restocked with a variety of game fish.

BANDIT TAKES ADVICE

Detroit — A would-be holdup man, Joseph J. Vranesich, entered a Detroit bakery and demanded: "Give me the money or I'll shoot."

Mrs. Dorothy Weiner, a clerk suggested "Why don't you go next door to the meat market? They have a lot more money."

He did just that. The woman then called the police, who arrested Vranesich as he came out of the meat market with $79.00.

Whitehall DE Program Aids Department Store Salesgirl

The toy department in the Boston Store, located in the Town and Country Shopping Center, is Penny Lineberry's afternoon classroom. Penny, 4193 Medway-av, does this work for her on-the-job training in the distributive education program at Whitehall-Yearling High School.

Penny began working for the Boston Store in September, 1959 at the gift wrapping desk and has worked in several departments in the store.

Penny spends two periods a day in the distributive education classroom in the high school in addition to her required senior subjects. In the distributive education class, Penny studies principles of business which she can apply to her job in the Boston Store.

She has studied salesmanship, merchandise information, types of customers, and has just finished a unit on buying for resale. She also studies material that is directly related to her position in the Toy Department. For example, she has recently completed units on selling toys for children of all ages, increasing sales through related toy merchandise, selling toys for special occasions and selling toys for older children.

Penny plans to continue working in the field of distribution after her graduation in June. She has this to say about her year in the program: "Distributive education is one of the finest programs to enter our American high schools."

Asher Moser manager of the Boston Store, has employed distributive education student-trainees each year for the past three years. He stated, "The distributive education program provides the students with an opportunity to explore opportunities in the business field. As a result of this opportunity, we the businessmen have the privilege of helping the school in the education of our young people."

If you feel that your senior student at Whitehall-Yearling High School could benefit from being part of the distributive education program, contact John C. Barton at the high school. Scheduling for next year's classes starts soon.

If you must press Dynel blends, use a dry press cloth and low-temperature iron. Dynel is very sensitive to heat.

How is it with you today? Is the fog too heavy for you to find your way to church? Does Saturday's dissipation bear too heavily for you to dare try worshipping God on Sunday? Have clouds obscured from your eyes the light of the cross? Do you shun all responsibility of citizenship in building a better community, a better church, a better world? How big is the question mark before your eyes? There is a way that seemeth right to a man but the ways thereof are the ways of death. If you have no concern for truth and honor . . . if your end is gain at the expense of your fellowman . . . if your horizon is the patch of woods a few feet before you . . . then your contribution to mankind and God is questionable, and if all men were like you, the millennium might never come. We are charged with being our brother's keeper, building churches, and bringing in His Kingdom. God will reward every man according to his stewardship while here. Why not clear up the question? See the cross caught in the focus of the great lights. It beckons you and me. And make no mistake, we'll reap just what we sow. Don't fail your church. Don't fail God. Don't fail yourself . . . attend church regularly.

Man Comes Up With Electronic Gadget To Help Locate More Fish

• • •

• • •

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

Fishermen in this area will soon be exposed to a gadget that is presently going by the name of "electronic fisherman." The device is the brainchild of A. R. "Jack" Pickering, 630 E. Royal Forest-blvd, who began to design it mentally while fishing for lake trout in Canada.

The instrument is actually a sensitive thermometer that gives you rapid water temperature readings on a dial. You can let the probe out a foot at a time, and while your partner is threading his guides, you can determine water temperature at every depth. Experienced anglers will realize that this easily obtained, accurate information will help them catch fish.

"Nothing in the world will put a fish on your hook," says Pickering, "but this will help you find fish and the catching will be up to you."

Fish Seek Oxygen Zone

How does water temperature help you find fish? During summer in almost all bodies of water there is a warm layer of water on top, a cooler layer on bottom. The zone where the two layers meet is called the thermocline. Heavy wind action may mix the layers of water, but they keep to themselves for the most part. With no contact to the atmosphere the cool layer of water soon becomes depleted of oxygen. (Aquatic plants are a source of oxygen in water, but few of them grow in deeper water).

A fish must have oxygen to live, so you will not find a lot of sport fish in the cooler waters during summer in Ohio lakes. You will sometimes catch bluegills in deep water in the summer, but only after some mixing action has provided oxygen to the lower depths. More bluegills are caught near the surface.

Thermocline Depth Varies

The tricky thing is finding the thermocline. It may be three feet below the surface on one side of the lake, and eight feet below on the other. Or, it may vary from day to day at the same location.

Some experience is necessary to use water temperature as a fishing aid. It would not be a sound rule to never fish in the cool zone in Ohio, or in northern lakes. By experimenting, however, the information will become useful, and you won't be fishing completely "blind." Skill will always be part of a fisherman's tackle.

This handy little instrument invented by Jack Pickering is light and sturdy, and should appeal to a lot of fishermen. Some interest has been expressed by fish biologists in using the electronic fisherman in studies where quick water temperatures are needed. More details are available by writing to: Electronic Fisherman, Inc., Box 741, Columbus.

WLW-C To Air Redleg Training Game Saturday

Baseball makes its debut on the local scene next Saturday.

Starting at 4:30 p.m. Saturday on WLW-C, the Cincinnati Redlegs will be highlighted from their winter training grounds at Tampa, Fla. It will be the first of a long summer of baseball over Channel 4.

Rounding out the Saturday evening program on Channel 4 will be a special telecast of "Mr. K in Paris" on Journey to Understanding. The NBC newsstaff will follow the Soviet Premier through his travels in Paris and the surrounding provinces. Frank McGee will be the commentator for the filmed coverage.

An escaped convict who promised to return to prison after visiting his dying father, became prey to a vicious bounty hunter on "The Deputy" at 9 p.m. Marshal Simon Fry (Henry Fonda) tries to arrest the boy before he becomes a victim of the bounty hunter.

"Alas, Babylon," Pat Frank's recent novel of survival following an atomic disaster, will be dramatized as a special "Playhouse 90" program Sunday, Apr. 3, at 8 p.m. on CBS-TV and Channel 10.

Peter Kortner will produce and Robert Stevens will direct the 90-minute drama. David Shaw is adapting this story of how a community uses its collective resources to live through the holocaust of a third World War.

Hartley Newspaper television editor Roger Swaney was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital last Thursday. He was reported in good condition Friday morning.

The recently acquired rights to Major League Baseball by ABC-TV has enabled WTVN to add to the national pastime to the sports program structure.

The 25-week series begins Apr. 15 and continues through Oct. 1. The weekly telecast will be seen Saturdays at 4 p.m. on Channel 6.

A series of outstanding dramas will premier on Channel 4, Mar. 31 at 8:30 when "Producer's Choice" debuts.

The opening program "The Last Season," will star Charles Laughton, with Patricia Medina.

The town character, their teacher, finds that the Nazi's are disrupting his life and his teachings, when they take over his town.

When they forbid him to teach French he refuses and is dismissed, but the entire town gathers to hear his "Last Lesson."

The "Producer's Choice" films are the best of two anthology series. The show will present some of the world's top stars in the teleplays.

'All That's New For You' At 1960 Home Show In April

"All That's New For You" will be the theme of the 1960 Home Show of the Builders Exchange of Columbus in the Buckeye Building at the State Fairgrounds Apr. 2-8.

Home owners, prospective home builders and all other residents will be interested in the latest homemaking conveniences and are especially invited to attend.

They will see on display the most dazzling, impressive array of home accessories, services and home building materials ever assembled in the traditional home show.

In extending an invitation to residents of the community, John A. Kight, show manager, emphasized that visitors will see in one building on one floor the latest in both today's and tomorrow's home living conveniences.

"It would require hours of shopping from store to store to see and make price comparisons of the various items that can be seen at the show in a short time," said Kight.

Many of the displays in the 328 exhibitor spaces will feature home conveniences never before shown publicly in this area, he said.

One major attraction will be the display of ultra-modern kitchens. Some of these kitchens cost up to $35,000.

Beulah Park Opens 44-Day Meet April 8th In Grove City

Racing fans within a hundred mile radius of Columbus are girding themselves for the opening of the new season in central Ohio, the date being Apr. 8 and the place Beulah Park.

As has been the custom for many years, the Ohio Championship will be the big event of the season at Beulah Park. This $10,000 added event, over the mile and a sixteenth distance, is scheduled for Saturday, May 21.

Memory of Robert J. Dienst who served as Beulah's president from 1937 until his sudden death last fall will be honored Saturday, Apr. 30. Robert Y. Dienst, son of Robert J. and now president of Beulah has announced a Dienst Memorial Handicap at a mile and 70 yards with a purse of $6,000.

LET'S SMILE WE CAN SEE!

Stopping at a wayside service station in Arizona, the lady motorist inquired: "Do you have a rest room?"

"Nope," returned the attendant. "When any of us gets tired, we just sits on one of those oil drums."

KRAZY DAZE REACHES CLIMAX

HELD LAST WEEKEND—Here are a few associates of the Town and Country J. C. Penney Store as they looked during the Krazy Daze event held this past weekend. Many stores participated in this event and the crazy outfits were just one way in which local stores celebrated the bargain event. Not so crazy were the many dollar saving items on display. All stores have returned to normal now and all the stores of the East Side are now bursting with spring fashions with all types of wonderful bargains.

Suburbia Today Starts Next Week

SUBURBIA TODAY, America's big new full-color rotogravure magazine is coming to you as a new feature of the Eastern Review. The first issue will appear next Thursday, Apr 7, and there will be an exciting, entertaining issue every month thereafter.

You will welcome SUBURBIA TODAY'S articles exploring all the interesting things going on in the suburbs today. You will like the unusual recipes, the news about fashions, and all the other excellent features that make SUBURBIA TODAY downright good reading. Look for SUBURBIA TODAY this Thursday and on Thursday of the first full week of every month with your copy of the Eastern Review.

WEIGHT LIFTING POPULAR

EAST COLUMBUS CENTER—The new weight lifting class at East Columbus Recreation Center, 734 Rarig-av, is proving popular and in a few short weeks has attracted 25 members. The youths have up to 175 pounds of bar and dumb bell weights to work with. The class meets Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Left to right are Ronnie Verhaeghe, Mel Slott, instructor and Kenney Verhaeghe.

Next time you're in the market for a water heater, remember these important facts. First, A. O. Smith guarantees all Permaglas water heaters for their full value... 10 full years for most models, 5 full years for budget-priced models... without ordinary "mileage" or years-in-use restrictions imposed by other manufacturers. Also, remember that A. O. Smith has produced more than 5 million glass-lined water heaters... more than all other makers combined!

Eastmoor High School's Warriors' Spear-It

By Barbara Moltenberry

Warriorettes Chosen; Cheerleaders Honored

By Barbara Moltenberry

The Warriorettes, Eastmoor's girls' precision drill team, have been chosen for next year. The girls, under the leadership of Mrs. Glaser, will perform during the half-times of football and basketball games.

Chosen were Carol Adams, Renee Barker, Connie Barr, Sonja Brantley, Karen Davis, Karen Dutton, Sharon Evans, Carolyn Farkas, Nancy Fisherbaugh, Mary Forester, Marsha Frager, Diana Friedman, Loretta Fuller, Diane Gay, Ann Goldthwaite, Lynn Hanawalt, Carol Heiser, Carolee Hammerly, Isobel Inglis, Carole Joseph, Ruth Konkle and Glenna Layman.

Hermine Margulis, Gini Marsh, Carol Martindale, Paula Mox, Jan Parthemer, Sharon Reich, Bev. Reynolds, Delores Rice, Judie Roderick, Linda Schaedel, Gerry Shomaker, Edna Slauson, Judy Tuggle, Gerry Van Vleet, Mari Werlin, Karen Wilkins, Jude Williams, Ginny Young, and Rita Zweier.

Eileen Collins, a senior, has been awarded an $800 scholarship to Ohio Wesleyan University on the basis of her academic achievement in high school. The scholarship is for her freshman year, but is renewable upon good college work.

Eastmoor's Junior and Senior choirs and 53 of its instrumental musicians will participate in the PTA's annual city-wide Music Festival Apr. 1, in St. John's Arena at 8 p.m. The program's theme is "A Wonderful World" and will feature an all-city band, two orchestras, a brass ensemble, choirs and 40 majorettes.

Eastmoor's cheerleaders were honored at the basketball banquet Mar. 22. Victoria Miller, their adviser, commended the girls and presented them with award letters and certificates of achievement.

Varsity cheerleaders are Ellen Appelbaum, Angel Burnette, Joy Henry, Cindy Husted, Neva Lowe, and Arlene Masch.

Junior High cheerleaders are Lynn Balthaser, Tara Jackson, Judy Kuchler, Terri Rose, Bobbi Shaw, Julia Wells, and Sarah Welch.

Harold Shurlow and John Condit, faculty members, are winners of National Science Foundation fellowships to the Ohio State University summer institutes in science and math. Shurlow is a graduate of Capital university and teaches math. Condit graduated from Ohio State University and is a science instructor.

Six hundred eighty-three preliminary district scholarship tests in 15 subjects were given today to students in the ninth through the 12th grades. The top three scorers in each subject will take a state test later.

Mothers and daughters were seen with unmatched earrings, different shoes on each foot, and different colors of nail polish at the GAA's Mother-Daughter Tea Mar. 29. The usual combinations were part of the get-acquainted game. Other entertainment was provided by Eileen Collins, Chairman of the event was Jeannine Moneymaker.

GAA officers are Karen Rea, president; Nancy Welch, vice-president; Judy Williams, secretary, and Arlene Masch, treasurer.

"The Bad Seed," by Maxwell Anderson, will be presented by Eastmoor students Friday and Saturday, Apr. 8 and 9, at 8:15 p.m. Student directors for the play are Mari Werlin and Steve McDowell. Prompters are Carol Brown and Debbie Dolezal. Properties are by Kay Martindale and Marsha Feuer. Publicity is by Diana Friendman and Ben Rose, and Alice Shenker and Diane Ortlep are business managers.

Columbus' Active Blind People Are Finding Bowling Easy, Fun

The popularity of bowling has grown by leaps and bounds in the past few years until now, even blind persons have been attracted to the sport.

Not to be outdone by the women's and children's leagues, Columbus blind folks decided that lack of sight need not keep them from enjoying the ten-pin pastime.

People with normal vision ask, "How is it possible for a blind person to bowl?" The blind bowlers claim it really isn't very difficult at all and only special equipment required are metal railings to help the blind judge the width of the alleys.

"The biggest battle," said one blind bowler, "is getting up the nerve to try bowling the first time. From then on it gets easier and easier. Of course our averages never get as high as those of bowlers with normal vision, but we have fun and good competition within our own league."

He added, "Our league is made up of blind people who aren't content to just sit at home. We are active people and want to stay that way even though we can't see. Bowling is one of the few sports that can be adapted to our disadvantage."

The local blind bowlers' groups was founded in 1950. In 1952, Mrs. Marilyn Ballenger, whose husband is blind, helped organize the Columbus Blind Bowlers' League, which meets every Sunday at Main Lanes in Whitehall.

Members number approximately 25 and represent residents from all over Franklin County. The league is made up of four teams of five bowlers, with a few substitutes.

Biggest interest to area blind bowlers at the present is the State Blind Bowlers Tournament to be held Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 23 and 24, at Main Lanes.

Charles Buhrts is president of the local league and Charles Hobson is president of the state group. Many of the state officers and representatives in Blind Bowlers are Columbus residents.

The blind bowlers invite anyone to watch them bowl Sundays at 6:30 p.m. and especially urge sighted persons to interest their blind friends in bowling with the league.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Valencia oranges, grapefruit, bananas, fresh pineapple, frozen orange juice.

Vegetables—Broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, onions, endive.

TO HELP WITH YOUR MARKETING

This week you will have to choose between taking a little extra money to market or shopping very carefully. This is especially true of fresh produce. Florida has taken another beating from rains and a cold wave. Higher prices can be expected until crops recover. Biggest price increase is noted on cucumbers, but peppers, squash, green beans and other tender vegetables are up also. Potato prices are higher. Be sure to check quality before buying—some of the old potatoes are only fair now.

On the brighter side, broccoli is more reasonable and its rich green color means high quality and good nutrition. Cauliflower is more plentiful, and there's lots of good cabbage. Asparagus is lower in price and the quality is generally good. However, the hardy vegetables will continue to be the more economical choices until warm weather arrives. Watch, too, for special prices on frozen and canned vegetables.

CITRUS FRUIT EXCELLENT

Florida Valencias—the favorite juice oranges—are now at their best eating and worth the extra effort of making fresh juice for breakfast. We can have frozen orange juice all summer. Grapefruit should be enjoyed to the fullest, for supply will dwindle soon and quality will be lower. Pineapples are probably at their lowest price levels for the year. Banana supplies are large and quality is good.

Long red stalks of rhubarb suggest fresh rhubarb pie. It will be cheaper when our homegrown rhubarb comes to market, but the rosy color and delicate flavor of hot house rhubarb makes it a welcome addition to menus. Strawberries will probably be higher in price — if they are available—because of the heavy rains in the Plant City, Florida, area. It's too soon to estimate the damage at the time this was written.

WEATHER AFFECTS MEAT PRICES

Livesock marketing is expected to return to normal after being disrupted by bad weather. Indications are that pork prices will decline slower than usual this spring, due to the decrease in hog supplies for market. Hams are being held for the Easter trade. However, the output of canned hams this year through mid-February has been reported to be 26% greater than a like period in 1959, so they are particularly fine bargains.

BEEF PRICES are steady but expected to drop some in April as supplies increase. Some near-cost specials may be found in chuck and rib roasts—continue to "shop the ads."

Extra Large and Large Size Eggs are still among your best protein buys in spite of recent price jump. You'll have to blame the weather again for the decreased egg supply.

FISH—For fresh fish, smelts and herring are your best buy this week. Lake Erie is still frozen over, so we will have to wait later than usual this spring for fresh perch, pickerel and bass. There are ample supplies of frozen fish at low prices.

City Wants Pilot Dogs' New Acreage

That's the situation officials of Pilot Dogs, Inc. find themselves in.

A late Thursday afternoon meeting has been called so board members can delve into what they should do about a tract of land they acquired, then found out the city also wanted it.

Six acres were purchased by Pilot Dogs between the Scioto River and the Southwest Freeway, south of Greenlawn-av, for $25,000.

But more than a year ago, according to John Bowen, assistant city attorney, the city served notice to the previous property owners that it was about to file court action to appropriate the land.

Cry Of 'Play Ball' Soon To Ring At Shadywood

Some forty fathers of boys in the Shadywood Park area just south of Livingston-av, on Hamilton-rd, could be seen last weekend busily getting the baseball diamonds into shape for an anticipated 300-400 boys who will take part in his summer's baseball program

Baseball fans in the community will be given quite a treat when they see teams playing in three age groups, ranging from 8 to 15 years.

The first tryouts for teams begin at the Shadywood Field, Saturday, Apr. 16, at 10 a.m. for boys between the ages of 10 and 12. The following Saturday morning will be devoted to 8 and 9 year olds. Selection of players for teams in the 13 to 15 year group will be announced at a later date.

The large program planned for this summer is rather unusual in view of the fact that the sponsoring organization, the Shadywood Park Boosters Association, is just beginning its second year of operation

The Board of Trustees, directed by Commissioner Jack E Dawson, established the policy that all boys be placed on teams regardless of ability. This has created wide community support. Through the efforts of the Trustees, and the volunteer coaches and umpires, three diamonds were built last year on land generously loaned by the developers of Thunderbird Acres.

In the summer of 1959 twelve fully equipped and uniformed teams, consisting of 220 boys, were fielded. Each team played from 20 to 25 league games, in addition to many with teams in other leagues.

By popular request, night baseball has been included in the plans for this year, provided funds for lighting a field are available. To meet the needs for scheduling an anticipated 18 to 22 teams, a fourth and possibly fifth diamond will soon be under construction.

The Shadywood Park Boosters Association consists of, and is principally supported by residents and merchants in the vicinity of Livingston and Hamilton-rd. All work done by the organization is strictly voluntary. A membership drive will take place beginning Apr. 9

Funds raised are used solely for the development of baseball as a recreational program for the boys. There is no solicitation of funds at any games throughout the season

The name "Shadywood Park" is coined from a combination of the names of three housing developments in East Columbus, Shady Lane, Leawood Gardens, and Willis Park. Would-be Mickey Mantles and Warren Spahns, who live in these developments, are eligible to participate in the baseball program

Eligibility also covers areas of Walnut Estates, Village Green Thunderbird Acres, and Hickory Hills. Applications may be obtained from the following members of The Board of Trustees Don McKelvey, 4914 Barbara-ct. Jack Dawson, 1611 Dundee-ct. Art Crabbe, 1580 S. Hamilton rd: Bob Spaeth, 1448 Lockwood, and Sam Meites, 4895 Barbara ct. Only the lack of facilities prevent further expansion of the area of eligibility

The first cries of "Play Ball" will be heard in the third or fourth week in May. Each team will play a league schedule of 20 to 25 games, this summer.

While the 1959 season was very successful in providing lads with a full opportunity to play, community support for the 1960 program will assure an even more successful season.

NOVEL MURDER STORY—Eastmoor High's drama department will give Maxwell Anderson's "Bad Seed" Friday and Saturday, Apr. 8 and 9 at 8:15 p.m. The story is built around an eight-year-old girl who commits four murders. This will mark the first time that any student or adult amateur group has presented the difficult drama in this area. Among the members of the cast are: left to right, Susan Brown, Cynthia Husted, Stanley Bobrof, Pam Finke and Virginia Schott. Miss Husted is playing the part done on the Broadway stage by Eileen Heckart, formerly of Bexley.

Eastmoor's Drama Students To Give 'Bad Seed' Friday

Can people inherit the tendency to commit murder or is it strictly environmental? Maxwell Anderson's novel murder story, "The Bad Seed," asks this question

Eastmoor High School's dramatics department will present "Bad Seed" Friday and Saturday, Apr. 8 and 9 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium.

According to director James Kaiser, this will mark the very first time that any student or adult amateur group in this area has undertaken the presentation of the difficult play.

Kaiser said Wednesday, "it is a difficult but interesting play. I feel it will be the best thing we have ever done. We are in better shape now than we have ever been in any other play during this stage of rehearsing."

The play is built around an eight-year-old girl who commits four murders without being detected. Patty McCormack became famous while playing the role in New York and on the road for several years.

Pam Finke, who plays the role in the Eastmoor presentation, is an eighth grader at Eastmoor and has never had any previous acting experience Kaiser said she does a fine job with the part

Eastmoor is using the Broadway version rather than the movie version which had an unrealistic ending, according to Kaiser

Cynthia Husted will play the part done on Broadway by Eileen Heckart, who is a former resident of Bexley.

Other members of the cast include Susan Brown, Stanley Bobrof Virginia Schott, Charles Einhorn, Denny Tichkoff, Joe Goodwin, Larry Nichols and Eileen Collins

Tickets may be purchased at the door although few seats will be available for the Friday performance. Adults will be admitted at the student price of 75 cents

JEWISH SISTERHOODS PLAN CONVENTION

TEMPLE ISRAEL SENDS DELEGATES—The Ohio Federation of Temple Sisterhoods will hold its biennial convention in Columbus, Apr. 25 through 28, with headquarters at the Pick Fort Hayes Hotel. Delegates who will represent Temple Israel, 5419 E. Broad-st, are Mrs. Raymond Kahn, Mrs. Sidney Berg, Mrs. George Nacht, Mrs. Morris Groner, Mrs. William Glick, Mrs. Allan Meyer and Mrs. Leonard B. Greentree. Dr. Jerome Folkman will address the delegates at a worship service Tuesday, Apr. 26 at 8 p.m. at the temple, followed by a reception and tours of the new temple building. Mrs. Folkman will participate in a panel discussion, speaking on "Home," at the Wednesday morning session, Apr. 27 at the temple, followed by a luncheon and skit by Sisterhood members. Discussing the event are: left to right, Mrs. Sidney Berg, Mrs. Allan Meyer, Mrs. Raymond Kahn, Mrs. George Nacht and Mrs. Morris Groner.

Berwick's Demonstration Group Owes Founding To Colorado Club

Berwick Home Demonstration Club owes its founding to a similar organization operating in a city more than 1200 miles away, near Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Richard Moore, president, was born and raised in Colorado. When she and her family moved here several years ago, she missed her contact with home extension work which she enjoyed in her home state. So, she started her own two years ago.

There are 23 demonstration groups operating in Franklin County with new ones cropping up all the time. There are approximately 600 women enrolled in this program in the county

Although the groups were originally formed for rural housewives, interest has grown among city residents and there are a number of these clubs in the Columbus area now.

They are part of the extension work program planned by the National Department of Agriculture. Their training comes directly from Ohio State University and is supervised by the County Home Economics Agent, Mrs. Bertha Everhart

Mrs. Moore explained the purpose of the clubs this way: "We're learning ways of being better, more efficient homemakers."

The Berwick group has worked with such topics as foods, home decorating, house plants, family life and cake decorating. Future projects will include buying cheaper cuts of meats, easier life in the kitchen, tailoring woolens and self-improvement. Members are presently making their own Easter bonnets

A pre-planned program is set up for the clubs each year. A different project is slated for each month. Two leaders are chosen from the membership each month and sent to OSU for training on a project. They, in turn, go back to their club and teach the other members.

Members meet once each month in each other's homes for a full evening session. They hold a large picnic in the summer; go "out-on-the-town" for dinner before Christmas; and hold a Christmas planning workshop in the district in November The district also sponsors an achievement day in April when club work is displayed.

Two foreign-born housewives grace the Berwick membership roster—Mrs. Pat Sison, from Guam; and Mrs. James Hubbard, from England.

Other women interested in learning new things about housekeeping and fellowship with other housewives are welcome to join.

SUBURBIA TODAY IS HERE

'Magazine Of Pleasant Places' Starts Today In Eastern Review

As the title suggests, our new colorgravure magazine, "Suburbia Today" refers to a way of wonderful living as much as to our type of community

Suburbia Today comes to the readers of The Eastern Review beginning today and the Thursday of the first full week of every month thereafter. Suburbia will be published monthly at first; eventually, every week.

It will be the editorial purpose of the magazine to reflect the good taste of the social gayety, the serious purposes and friendly frivolity of family life in communities, while it defines new high standards and wider horizons for the aspiring young families on the way up.

It will provide the inspiration of the elegant example, while it discusses the practical day to day aspects of suburban living.

The editors and staff of Suburbia Today will themselves be a part of this cultured way of family and community life They will range the world to report the very best of new ideas in science and art, the best of hearty . . . and often gourmet foods, and gracious entertaining in our own suburban atmosphere. Suburbia Today will cover in word and picture the key achievements and establish ed trends of the contemporary scene. Its features will be intelligent and zestful, with a sense of humor, and always in good taste

Paul Hoffman, co-editor of Suburbia, has held editorial positions with several publishing houses since his first assignment as assistant editor of The Atlantic. In 1937, he became consulting editor of Hastings House Publishers. Hoffman authored "Seven Yesterdays" and "Country Christmas"

Mrs Marion Lowndes, co-editor, writer of "A Manual For Baby Sitters," "Ghosts That Still Walk," "Monsoon Quarter" and "The Care of the Sick Child at Home," was an associate editor of Harper's Bazaar before becoming an assignment editor for the News & Features Bureau of OWI Overseas.

Both Hoffman and Mrs. Lowndes have made editorial contributions to many of the nation's leading magazines.

For more than 25 years Delmar Lipp, managing editor of Suburbia Today, has done professional photography, much of his work printed in top publications throughout the country. Before joining the Suburbia staff, he was managing editor of The Princeton Jacket, a newspaper

E. Broad Curb Repair Approved

The City of Columbus this week authorized the advertising of bids to contract for the removal and replacement of 2,400 feet of combined curb and gutter on E Broad-st

The stretch lies between Rould-rd and the New York Central Railroad

MAYOR'S PET PROJECT

Hamilton Road Becomes State Route After Four Years Work

Whitehall Mayor Walter B Moling announced Friday that Hamilton-rd, extending from E Broad-st to Route 33, is now officially State Rt 317

The mayor said this has been one of his pet projects for the past four years. The change became effective Mar 30.

He said that turning the thoroughfare over to the state was accomplished through the combined efforts of Whitehall and officials in Columbus and Franklin County.

Mayor Moling said that contrary to reports, the purpose of the change is not to release Whitehall from the obligation of maintaining the 1.73 miles of Hamilton-rd which lies in the city's limits

The mayor said his purpose was to turn it over to the state so the State Highway Department would eventually improve the route and install a new street

He said that Whitehall will still be obligated to maintain its portion of the route, but will only have to pay a small part of the cost when the road is improved.

Mayor Moling said it may take several years before the street is improved but he has hopes that a portion of it on either side of E. Main-st, will be improved soon

The 5.29 mile extension is actually a continuance of Rt 317 which formerly stopped at Broad st, coming from the north.

Whitehall had to buy a strip of ground 10 feet wide by 176 feet running south in Hamilton rd from E. Main-st, before the state would accept the street

The state required a 60-foot right of way

The mayor started the project in February of 1956 by calling a meeting of executives from the Columbus General Depot, Lockbourne Air Force Base and North American Aviation He has been working steadily on the project ever since

PTA PLANS PROJECT PARADE

EASTMOOR MEETING—A project parade will be featured at the Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School PTA meeting, Monday, Apr. 11 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. A mixed ensemble will present several musical numbers; there will be a mock session of the Student Court, a demonstration by commercial students, a style show by the home economics class, and a tumbling session by boys of the physical education classes. In the cafeteria, there will be displays of work in art, dramatics, home economics, mathematics, science, woodworking, metals, etc. Marcia Davis, a member of the school's science seminar, plays with white baby rats, a special project of the seminar, which will also be displayed Monday.

Johnny's Pop's Baseball Interest Has To Be Kindled

Lack of interest on the part of fathers was blamed today as posing a serious threat to the possibility that many boys will not play baseball in the forthcoming Whitehall Little League season.

This gloomy prediction was voiced by John Bishop, construction superintendent in charge of developing the association's new nine-acre park When completed it is to consist of six diamonds

"Very few parents seem to know or care how the job actually gets done," declared Bishop All they know is they send Johnny out in the spring and everything is there'. Well it won't be this year unless Johnny's pop gets out and lends a hand"

The usually mild-mannered Bishop, coach of last year's champion Dodgers, was grim as he related how the whole load has fallen on some half-dozen 'regulars.

Bishop himself has spent the entire winter working weekends on the fields and constructing the concession stand from an old meat wagon he found on the property

The park is on Kae-av north of Rosemore School and just in back of Swimland.

"At least we have our backstops," Bishop stated, paying special tribute to Bernhard Gaston, 4148 Chandler-dr, who donated his time and equipment to welding a pile of second hand pipe into six backstops, saving the association $300. "In a volunteer organization that's mighty big money," said Bishop.

Bishop still has hopes of kindling the interest of the fathers. He will be at the fields all day on the weekends and from 5:30 until dark on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. "If they will only come out to look at the place it'll be a big step. Anyone who can even wield a rake is needed."

"Don't forget," he said, "practices starts Apr. 16. The boys will be out all right. I just hope their parents can make it possible for them to play ball."

Johnson Park Pupils Given Sports Letters

The following boys received basketball letters: Donald Arledge, J. Mitchell Dorger, Richard Agnew, Jerry Groves, Dennis Day, James Pyles, Ronald Dawson, John Paul Jones, and David Allison, manager.

Johnson Park played this year in the south section of the Columbus Junior High League. The team record in league play was one win, and nine losses, and the overall record was two wins and 10 losses.

Hoffman said that the new colorgravure magazine does not intend to carry stories datelined Moscow, raise eyebrows at the Supreme Court, or even help reorganize the Pentagon.

"Our concerns are more immediate," he said, "commuting, the price of eggs, vacation jobs, teacher shortage, what are people looking and laughing at? What are the new ideas for suburban living—the little sparks of imagination that light up house and home?"

Bexley Art Class Prepares For Washington, D. C. Trip

Thirty-five Bexley High School Art Club members will board a chartered bus tomorrow evening for Washington, D. C. where they will spend the weekend.

This will be the first time in Bexley High history that a club has taken a weekend trip.

The club will arrive in the nation's capital early Saturday morning.

All day Saturday, they will tour the city's famous sights, including Mount Vernon, the Grave of the Unknown Soldier, Washington's Monument, and the National Gallery of Fine Arts. Saturday night they will dine at a teenage night club.

Sunday morning the club will visit the church which President Eisenhower attends. The rest of the day will be devoted to other places of interest.

To prepare for this trip, the Art Club has had various projects. During the football season they made and sold "whoopees." They also sponsored the last basketball dance, entitled the "Artist's Palace."

Chaperons chosen are Mr. R. Trivella, Art Club advisor, and Miss Opal Wylie, Latin teacher at Bexley.

Newspaper Honor

The Torch, Bexley High School's school paper, received an All-American Honor Rating in the National Scholastic Press Association's 62nd Critical Service for first semester.

The All-American rating is the highest rating awarded by the NSPA. It represents "superior" and is reserved for the top publications.

Seventy-one monthly newspapers similar to the Torch were entered in the competition. The Torch was among the eight publications receiving the All-American rating.

The Torch ranked "superior" in news coverage, features, copyreading, sports coverage, page makeup, creativeness and photography.

Photography also received bonus points. "There are some nice pictures—clear and interesting," commented the judges.

"It is a pleasure to read such a professional paper," they concluded.

Local Income Tax Office Opens For Saturdays

Charles Laird, Whitehall Income Tax Commissioner, announced this week that the city's income tax office will remain open until noon on Saturdays throughout the month of April, for the convenience of residents.

The office, located at 690 S. Yearling-rd, across from Whitehall-Yearling School, is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Laird said that the deadline for filing is not until Apr. 30. He pointed out that many Whitehall citizens are confused by the Columbus deadline, which is Apr. 15.

Pvt. Thomas Miner Joins Unit In Germany

Army Pvt. Thomas Miner, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Challis A. Miner, 1572 Huxley-dr, Columbus, Ohio, recently arrived in Germany and is now a member of the 8th Infantry Division.

Miner, who was last stationed at Fort Hood, Tex., is a rocket-launcher gunner in Company 8 of the division's 18th Infantry in Sandhofen. The former Eastmoor High School student entered the Army in September 1959 and completed basic training at Fort Hood.

Pvt. Runck Is Named Fort Slocum Grad

The 24-year-old soldier is a 1953 graduate of Bexley High School and a 1958 graduate of Ohio State University.

State Okays Two Railroad Safety Lights

Ohio Highway Department this week authorized special amber caution lights for two busy railroad crossings in Whitehall.

Continuously flashing signals will be installed where the New York Central crosses E. Broad-st and E. Main-st. This is along the Whitehall-Columbus corporation line.

A survey showed that the crossings handle eight trains and more than 41,000 autos a day. This was not enough to qualify for automatically actuated flashers, however.

The new Whitehall signals will cost $240 a set.

Sohpomore's Win Basketball Intramural Championship

Hartley basketball intramural ended last Friday when Rick Williamson's sophomore team whipped Jim Anneshansely's freshmen by a score of 55-45. Bill Mackin, a sophomore, climaxed the game, when with two seconds to play he shot a perfect basket from half-court.

There were 16 teams from the junior, sophomore and freshman classes at the start. Handicaps were given so that each team had a fair chance to win. The last junior teams to be defeated were Charles Robinson's and Bill Maniace's.

The members of the winning team were: Rick Williamson, captain; Bill Mackin, Ray Griggs, John Wagner and Tom Koebel.

Ohio State Scholarship Tests were administered at Hartley on Thursday, Mar. 31. Top students from all classes took these examinations. The two highest scorers in each subject will go to Ohio State University to take the final test. These final exams will be given sometime in May.

Mock Convention Held

Juniors from Hartley made up the Republican delegation representing the state of Hawaii at the mock political convention held last Saturday at Capital University. Richard Nixon got the presidential nomination unanimously on the first ballot. After eliminating his main competition, Robert B. Anderson, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. became Nixon's running-mate.

Among the highlights of the convention for the Hartley delegation, was the seconding speech for Richard M. Nixon, given by their chairman, Ron Glass. The constitution for Student Council was unofficially ratified at a meeting of the council last week. Copies of the constitution will be given to each student, and after they have had a chance to examine it closely, they will vote on it. The constitution will not be accepted until two-thirds of the school votes for it.

Judy Wittman Heads Youth For Senator

Judy Wittman

Judy C. Wittman, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Wittman, 398 Collingwood-av, has been named Director of Ohio Youth for Symington. Her appointment was announced by Jerry Litton, National Director of Youth for Symington, Columbia, Mo.

Miss Wittman is a freshman at Ohio State University, majoring in political science. She is a member of the Ohio State University Young Democratic Club and is on the Activities Committee of the Women's Self Government Association.

This summer Youth for Symington plans to move its operations to Los Angeles for the Democratic National Convention. Miss Wittman plans to be there, leading an Ohio delegation of young people.

Old Torches Are Needed At Bexley

Several Bexley High School Torches are needed to complete the files of the school newspaper.

The 14 issues missing are issues 1 and 6 of 1925-1926; issue 8 of 1938; issues 3 and 5 of 1949-1950; issues 4, 6 and 7 of 1950-1951; issue 12 of 1951-1952; issues 4 and 8 of 1952-1953, and issues 5, 6 and 7 of 1953-1954.

If anyone has any of the issues, and is willing to donate them, please contact Mrs. Sara Amos, the advisor of the "Torch" at Bexley High School.

The completed file of the "Torches" will be bound and presented at the journalism banquet for the induction of Quill and Scroll members from the newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Quill and scroll is a national honorary journalism society.

Professor George Kienzle, head of the Ohio State University School of Journalism, is to be the speaker at the banquet to be held Apr. 25 at the Willard Restaurant.

"He will give awards to the writers of the stories that he considered the best in the Torch," said Gayle Caplan, assistant editor of the Torch.

"No mud and dirt! Everything's a lot cleaner since we got a concrete street!"

Concrete's the street for good homemakers! No tar to track in . . . no clutter, dust and dirt of periodic patching and surface treatment. And laid flat, concrete stays flat—never any hollow spots to collect water. You're always sure of good drainage.

And concrete's so smooth-riding and safe. Its grainy surface gives dependable skid resistance, even when it's raining. And you'll never find potholes or ripples to cause danger-

There's another big advantage at night. Light-colored concrete reflects up to 4 times more light than a dark surface can. It brightens things up for drivers . . . you can see and be seen far better.

With all this, concrete's initial cost is moderate—less than you'd think! And the upkeep cost is extremely low. A street of concrete will probably outlast your house. It has a life expectancy of 50 years and more.

It's the preferred pavement for residential streets all over America . . . it belongs on the street in front of your house.

Get together with your neighbors :::
If your street needs paving, make your preference for concrete known. Concrete is the only pavement that can be accurately engineered to meet the expected traffic load on your street for years to come.

Buelah Park All Prepared For Long Meet

Everything is set at Beulah Park for the opening of the 1960 racing season. This year it will be conducted in one 44-day meeting which ends Monday, May 30. Because of Good Friday, Apr. 15, there will be no racing on this date.

Beulah is out to better last season's record in mutuel play which was a record $12,031,641 and Robert Y. Dienst, president and general manager, believes that the long session has a good chance of bettering this mark. He figures that racing should be more formful and that the grade of competition should improve with horses campaigning steadily over the local oval.

There will be many familiar faces among the jockeys and trainers at the meeting. Beulah patrons have shown in the past that they have their "favorites" to follow and a great many of them will find popular riders and conditioners ready.

Paul Ward and Guillermo Silva who led the two meetings in 1959 are expected back to seek additional honors and they will be joined by Jimmy Dobson, Bobby Wall, Colin Knisley, J. C. Frenandez, Harrel Bolin, Paul Herron, Phil Borgemenks and John Neville to mention just a few.

As usual the Ohio Championship will be the top race of the meeting. It is scheduled for Saturday, May 21 and will have a purse of $10,000 added. Nominations close Monday, May 9 and weights will be announced by Racing Secretary Charles W. Smith on Monday, May 16. The distance is a mile and sixteenth.

Bexley Art Class Prepares For Washington, D. C. Trip

Thirty-five Bexley High School Art Club members will board a chartered bus tomorrow evening for Washington, D. C. where they will spend the weekend.

This will be the first time in Bexley High history that a club has taken a weekend trip.

The club will arrive in the nation's capital early Saturday morning.

All day Saturday, they will tour the city's famous sights, including Mount Vernon, the Grave of the Unknown Soldier, Washington's Monument, and the National Gallery of Fine Arts. Saturday night they will dine at a teenage night club.

Sunday morning the club will visit the church which President Eisenhower attends. The rest of the day will be devoted to other places of interest.

To prepare for this trip, the Art Club has had various projects. During the football season they made and sold "whoopees." They also sponsored the last basketball dance, entitled the "Artist's Palace."

Chaperons chosen are Mr. R. Trivella, Art Club advisor, and Miss Opal Wylie, Latin teacher at Bexley.

Newspaper Honor

The Torch, Bexley High School's school paper, received an All-American Honor Rating in the National Scholastic Press Association's 62nd Critical Service for first semester.

The All-American rating is the highest rating awarded by the NSPA. It represents "superior" and is reserved for the top publications.

Seventy-one monthly newspapers similar to the Torch were entered in the competition. The Torch was among the eight publications receiving the All-American rating.

The Torch ranked "superior" in news coverage, features, copyreading, sports coverage, page makeup, creativeness and photography.

Photography also received bonus points. "There are some nice pictures—clear and interesting," commented the judges.

"It is a pleasure to read such a professional paper," they concluded.

Local Income Tax Office Opens For Saturdays

Charles Laird, Whitehall Income Tax Commissioner, announced this week that the city's income tax office will remain open until noon on Saturdays throughout the month of April, for the convenience of residents.

The office, located at 680 S. Yearling-rd, across from Whitehall-Yearling School, is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Laird said that the deadline for filing is not until Apr. 30. He pointed out that many Whitehall citizens are confused by the Columbus deadline, which is Apr. 15.

Judy C. Wittman, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Wittman, 398 Collingwood-av, has been named Director of Ohio Youth for Symington. Her appointment was announced by Jerry Litton, National Director of Youth for Symington, Columbia, Mo.

Miss Wittman is a freshman at Ohio State University, majoring in political science. She is a member of the Ohio State University Young Democratic Club and is on the Activities Committee of the Women's Self Government Association.

This summer Youth for Symington plans to move its operations to Los Angeles for the Democratic National Convention. Miss Wittman plans to be there, leading an Ohio delegation of young people.

Old Torches Are Needed At Bexley

Several Bexley High School Torches are needed to complete the files of the school newspaper.

The 14 issues missing are issues 1 and 6 of 1925-1926; issue 8 of 1938; issues 3 and 5 of 1949-1950; issues 4, 6 and 7 of 1950-1951; issue 12 of 1951-1952; issues 4 and 8 of 1952-1953, and issues 5, 6 and 7 of 1953-1954.

If anyone has any of the issues, and is willing to donate them, please contact Mrs. Sara Amos, the advisor of the "Torch" at Bexley High School.

The completed file of the "Torches" will be bound and presented at the journalism banquet for the induction of Quill and Scroll members from the newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Quill and scroll is a national honorary journalism society.

Professor George Kienzle, head of the Ohio State University School of Journalism, is to be the speaker at the banquet to be held Apr. 25 at the Willard Restaurant.

"He will give awards to the writers of the stories that he considered the best in the Torch," said Gayle Caplan, assistant editor of the Torch.

"No mud and dirt! Everything's a lot cleaner since we got a concrete street!"

Concrete's the street for good homemakers! No tar to track in . . . no clutter, dust and dirt of periodic patching and surface treatment. And laid flat, concrete stays flat—never any hollow spots to collect water. You're always sure of good drainage.

And concrete's so smooth-riding and safe. Its grainy surface gives dependable skid resistance, even when it's raining. And you'll never find potholes or ripples to cause danger-[illegible].

There's another big advantage at night. Light-colored concrete reflects up to 4 times more light than a dark surface can. It brightens things up for drivers . . . you can see and be seen far better.

With all this, concrete's initial cost is moderate—less than you'd think! And the upkeep cost is extremely low. A street of concrete will probably outlast your house. It has a life expectancy of 50 years and more.

It's the preferred pavement for residential streets all over America . . . it belongs on the street in front of your house.

Get together with your neighbors : : :
If your street needs paving, make your preference for concrete known. Concrete is the only pavement that can be accurately engineered to meet the expected traffic load on your street for years to come.

Buelah Park All Prepared For Long Meet

Everything is set at Beulah Park for the opening of the 1960 racing season. This year it will be conducted in one 44-day meeting which ends Monday, May 30. Because of Good Friday, Apr. 15, there will be no racing on this date.

Beulah is out to better last season's record in mutuel play which was a record $12,031,641 and Robert Y. Dienst, president and general manager, believes that the long session has a good chance of bettering this mark. He figures that racing should be more formful and that the grade of competition should improve with horses campaigning steadily over the local oval.

There will be many familiar faces among the jockeys and trainers at the meeting. Beulah patrons have shown in the past that they have their "favorites" to follow and a great many of them will find popular riders and conditioners ready.

Paul Ward and Guillermo Silva who led the two meetings in 1959 are expected back to seek additional honors and they will be joined by Jimmy Dobson, Bobby Wall, Colin Knisley, J. C. Frenandez, Harrel Bolin, Paul Herron, Phil Borgemenks and John Neville to mention just a few.

As usual the Ohio Championship will be the top race of the meeting. It is scheduled for Saturday, May 21 and will have a purse of $10,000 added. Nominations close Monday, May 9 and weights will be announced by Racing Secretary Charles W. Smith on Monday, May 16. The distance is a mile and sixteenth.

Spring Arts Festival Slated At Capital

The Capital University Conservatory of Music is sponsoring a Contemporary Arts Festival early in May. The selection of dates for this festival is especially appropriate as National Music Week is announced for the week of May 1 to 8.

Honor Program Gets Underway At St. Mary's

Corrine Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Hall, is participating in the College of St. Mary of the Spring's Honors Program, reserved for superior students.

Honor Program students are selected on the basis of high school grades and extensive tests given as college freshmen. Students must maintain a Dean's List grade level in their regular studies to continue in the program.

Freshmen in the program attend weekly seminars devoted to creative thinking. Sophomores study the Psychology of Woman, and juniors attend a Great Books Program in conjunction with the college's Adult Education Program. Seniors do independent research in their major fields.

The program, aimed at offering gifted students the maximum challenge to their abilities, was begun at St. Mary of the Springs three years ago in cooperation with the Ohio College Research Program and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Miss Hall a junior is a graduate of Rosary High School, and is very active in IRC, Student Educators' Assn., AOCS, Confraternity of the Holy Rosary, Social Service, Junior Class Vice - President, Cooperative Council, Activity Committee Secretary, Catholic Youth Council Delegate, and the Dean's List.

Diocesan Men Will Assemble Apr. 24 At Bishop Hartley High

More than 800 delegates are expected to attend the Second Annual Convention of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men, Sunday, Apr. 24 at Bishop Hartley High School, according to Patrick J. Kirwin, 294 Rhoadsav. convention general chairman.

"Registration now being received indicates a record turnout for the workshop-discussion sessions," Kirwin said.

"Workshops will treat various problems and phases of the layman's life in the community and parish," he noted, adding "We will try to have something for everyone attending the sessions. The novice as well as the veteran parish and inter-parish group worker will have discussion sessions to interest him."

Religious retreats, adult education, parish programs, legislation, the Legion of Decency and decent literature are some of the topics.

Two sessions will be devoted to leadership training, one for the beginner and one for those who have completed the initial course.

Four workshops will be devoted to the Holy Name Society officers in each parish, the president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

The following area men have been named chairmen for the convention: Thomas M. Hart, 2550 Dover-rd, registration; Charles Wirth, 593 Wilson-av, program, printing; John T. Cantlon, 379 E. N. Broadway, information and hospitality; Dennis C. Finneran, Jr., 174 S. Eureka-av, publicity; Tom Williams, 1746 Bryden-rd, resolutions; John Mackin, 170 E. Weisheimer-rd, exhibits; James Charles, 922 N. Nelson-rd, special guests; Michael McGee, 2470 Middlesex-rd, Mass arrangements, and Dr. Frank Binder, 54 W. Beechwold, post-convention dinner.

Eastmoor High School's Warriors' Spear-It

By Barbara Moltenberry

Students Choose Nixon For President In National Poll

Richard Nixon is Eastmoor's choice for President of the United States. Mr. Nixon more than doubled the votes for the nearest candidate, John Kennedy, in the recent "National Student Poll," sponsored by the American Publications.

Nearly 800 Eastmoor students took part in the poll, which was conducted in individual class rooms representing grades eight, nine, 10, 11 and 12. A blank for write-in candidates followed a list of the already well-known candidates for President.

The candidates and the number of votes they received are: Richard Nixon, 469; John Kennedy, 206; Stuart Symington, 41; Hubert Humphrey, 20; Lyndon Johnson, 13; Harry Truman, 2; Mennen Williams, 1; and Orval Faubus, 1. Jerry Lucas, with 3 votes, beat the last three candidates.

• • •

Eastmoor opened its track season with an 103-11 victory over Aquinas last Friday. First places in all 14 events were captured by Eastmoor.

Eastmoor winners in order of finish and the events follow. 120 high hurdles: John Dollmatch, Tom Goodwin. 100 dash: Bob Benjamin, Jim Huffman, and Frank Oakley. 440 dash: Randy Sheets, Jack Connell, and Joe Burkey. 180 low hurdles: Dean Eby, Tom Goodwin, and Charles Manns. 880 run: Joe Shover, Orval Coates, and Bob Lewis. 220 dash: Bob Benjamin, Jim Huffman. Mile relay team: Joe Burkey, Randy Sheets, Jack Connell, and Glen Bolon.

Bob Agnew, first in pole vault. Shot put: Ray Bland and Dave Fredericks. High jump: John Matera, Ken Ramsey, Ron Boster and Bill Hoffman tied for first.

Broad jump: John Matera, Bob Benjamin. Discus throw: Ray Bland, Dave Fredericks.

Our Junior High baseball team was also victorious when they won over Linmoor 7-3 on Mar. 28.

Pat Winslow and Frank Hoffman have been chosen as editors of the "Lance," Eastmoor's new magazine for outstanding student work. Other committee chairmen under advisor Mr. Disbro are Jay Perler, sales; Debbie Dolezal, promotion; Pat Kavanaugh, editorial; Cindy Hu-

BIBLE COMMENT

Jesus Caused Revolution; But Not Rebel

Jesus was the cause of a spiritual revolution, but he was not a rebel. He sought a revolution through positive constructive action and teaching.

Jesus said that He did "not come to destroy, but to fulfill" (Matthew 5:17).

If He set His "I say unto you" against what people had been taught in the past, it was an advancement from the law of measured justice — from the law of "an eye for an eye" to the larger law of love and mercy. This, as Jesus knew, was the only way toward constructive and better relationships from the jungle of mutual recrimination and revenge.

Who is right and who is wrong in the international and personal disputes that range around us are not easily determined.

But one cannot help but feel that constant reprisals—the harsh word answered with another harsh word—is endangering our entire world community. If men would learn to forgive and forget, there would be far less fear, more hope for the nations and peoples concerned — and for the world in its quest for peace and safety.

Very definitely it was fulfillment, rather than destruction, that Jesus sought in relation to the religion which had been that of His home, His teaching and His environment.

HAPPY TIME AHEAD—Crowds like this are expected at Town and Country and Great Eastern Shopping Centers next Saturday when the Easter Bunny arrives.

Easter Bunny Will Hatch Basket Of Fun At Local Centers Saturday

Right on the dot at 1 p.m. next Saturday, Apr. 9, a life-size "Easter Bunny" is scheduled to appear at Town and Country Shopping ing Center, and then at 1:30 it will appear at Great Eastern Center.

The arrival will be made with a surprise flair, designed to please the youngsters.

Accompanying Miss Easter Bunny will be tiny tot "live bunnies" representing the "Lily Parade for the Crippled Children."

Easter lilies will be on sale at the Centers all that day.

Miss Bunny will greet her little friends on the canopied walks and distribute free candy Easter eggs until 8:30 p.m. The bunny will also be at Town and Country 1 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Apr. 9; 4 to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday the following week; 1 to 8 p.m. on Good Friday and the same hours on the Saturday before Easter.

Christ Memorial Sets Communion, Women's Event

Christ Methodist Church, 1480 Zettler-rd will have a Holy Communion service in the Fellowship Hall at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Apr. 14.

The Woman's Society of Christ Church will have a "Day Apart" program on Good Friday, Apr. 15 in the hall at 10 a.m. All ladies of church and community are invited.

A long, hard winter can do a lot of damage to streets and highways, according to the Columbus Auto Club. Watch out for rough spots.

LATE AIRING

Buffalo — A man wheeling a baby over snow-laden sidewalks at 3:15 a.m. just didn't seem reasonable to two Buffalo policemen. They stopped Robert W. Macy and took a peek into the baby carriage.

They said they found $151 worth of office machinery that had been stolen from an automobile showroom. The policemen then followed the tracks in the home of Mrs. Martha Beaman, w[illegible] the carriage had been stolen.

THREE GROUPS PLAN EGG HUNT

ROBINWOOD PLAZA—A repeat performance of an Easter Egg Hunt which was so successful last year will occur Saturday, Apr. 16, 9:30 a.m., in the field south of Robinwood Plaza section of Town and Country Shopping Center. Sponsoring the event are the Whitehall Volunteer Firemen, Boy Scout Troop 390 and the Town and Country Businessmen's Association. Children between the ages of three and 12 are invited. Among the eggs to be hunted are some 500 having a total money value of more than $100. Planning the event are: left to right, front, M. J. Kennedy, Scoutmaster; Jim Hatfield, of Troop 390; Ed Lasher, of the center; Ernie Peters, president of the firemen; Mayor Walter B. Moling and Virginia Jones, of the center; back row, Howard Morgan, volunteer fireman; Arthur Reddy, fire chief; and Donald C. Marcum, of the paid firemen.

Guest Artist Nick Perrini Appears With School Band

Nick Perrini, French horn soloist, will be the guest artist at the Friday evening, Apr. 8, Fifth Annual Spring Band Concert at the Whitehall-Yearling High School auditorium.

Perrini teaches at Capital University and plays with the Columbus Symphony. He will play the "Mozart French Horn Concerto No. 1 in E-flat" with the Whitehall Band.

The concert will also feature student soloists Merry Hettler and James Borad. Merry, a clarinetists, has been head majorette for two years, is completing her sixth year in the band and is its president. James Borad an 11th grader, will play the three-tympani version of "Timpat."

A trumpet trio composed of Wesley Orr, Dean Gram and Pete Klein will play "The Three Modernaires."

The Whitehall-Yearling High School Concert Band under the direction of Warren Wesler recently earned a 'superior' rating in the district and will travel to Otterbein College to compete in the state band contest.

Tickets are available from any Whitehall instrumental music student or at the door for 50 cents, adults, and 25 cents, school age children.

WHITEHALL-YEARLING

The Whitehall-Yearling High School PTA will elect officers Monday, Apr. 11, at 8 p.m.

Theme of the meeting will be "A Breath of Spring," a style show by the home economics department. Students will model dresses they have made. Refreshments will be served.

PATIENCE WITH CUBA

The United States will continue its attitude of patience toward the Cuban Government of Premier Fidel Castro: This became known after President Eisenhomer had considered the deteriorating United States-Cuban relations at a recent White House conference.

The United States, it was understood, will do nothing to build up a crisis and will threaten no economic sanctions, such as reducing Cuba's quota in the United States sugar market.

Three-fourths of the owners of private commercial forest land are farmers, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The Food and Drug Administration has announced new labeling standards to make clear to consumers how types of orange juice have been processed.

The standards cover all commercially packaged juices. They take effect in 90 days.

Every day more and more children need care through the Easter Seal services.

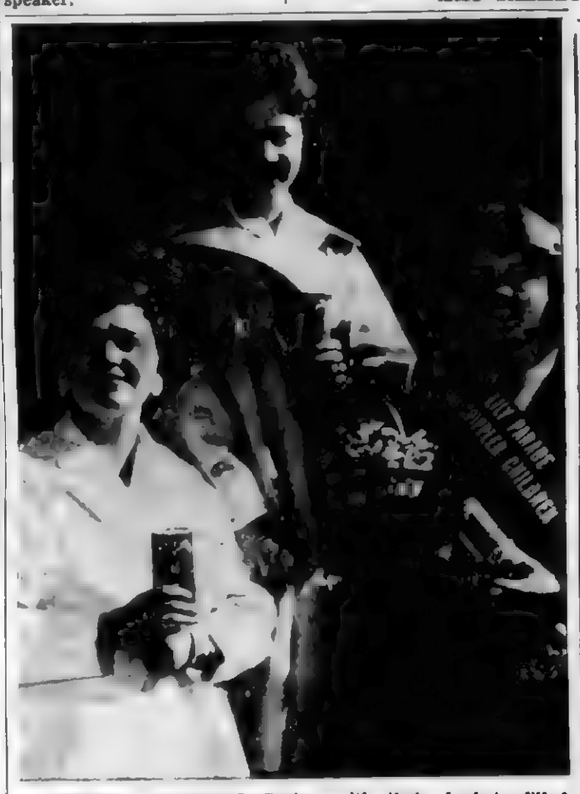
Lily Paraders Set For Drive

Easter baskets are being filled early this week as local Brace women fill them to the brim with diminutive paper lilies instead of Easter eggs in preparation for the 20th annual Lily Parade scheduled for Saturday, Apr. 9, throughout the city and county.

Mrs. Robert Runyan will head the East area, assisted by Mrs. L. C. Hall and Mrs. J. W. Stein.

High School girls from Bishop Hartley, Eastmoor, Whitehall, Bexley, and St. Mary of the Springs Academy Schools will carry baskets of lilies on their arms and will sell them to passers-by at Town and Country, and Great Eastern Shopping Centers.



Money received from the lily sales supplements Easter Seal campaign of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children. The parade is the one unified project of the Brace women in Columbus and the county.

Mrs. Charles Warner, Jr., 166 S. Ashburton-rd, is the president of all the Brace women, and will be in charge of the downtown area for the parade.

Refreshments will be served the high school girls when they finish their 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. sales stint. Headquarters will be the Eastminster Presbyterian Church.

Brace 4 will be in charge of the east area.

The drive continues until Easter Sunday, Apr. 17.

Outdoor Fun Possible On Shoestring Budget

With the income tax deadline drawing nigh, and the government issuing statements on the cost of living it's difficult to get away from the subject of money for very long. So, what about the cost of outdoor sports?

Fishing widows, members of bowling leagues and television watchers have always done a lot of talking about the tremendous cost of fishing and hunting. But, when you get down to actualities, maybe it isn't so.

Today it's possible for a neophyte angler to equip himself for months of outdoor pleasure with a small outlay of money. For instance, a cane pole can still be purchased with pocket change and a can of worms can be obtained for the price of a little exercise. Evan a good rod and reel combination isn't expensive. There are some dandy rigs on the market that retail for less than $12. Of course, a rod and reel are just a start. A man needs a variety of lures and miscellaneous equipment which can total $100 or more, and once he really gets the bug he will want a more expensive rod and reel.

I'd like to know how many rabbits and squirrels were shot in Ohio last year with single action shotguns. Certainly the total was tremendous, for these inexpensive guns are as efficient for one shot as any others. Choke requirements might not be exact, and the fit of the stock may not suit an expert gunner but these single shot weapons are popular and they are effective.

Hunting, then, is much the same as fishing—it costs just about what you want it to. In general, quality equipment is the best investment. The first cost is only slightly higher, and maintenance cost is almost nonexistent. Reputable manufacturers replace equipment which fails, and will repair worn equipment at very low cost.

Fishing: 30 Cents An Hour

A boat and motor require more of an outlay, but such an investment is worthwhile to many people. One fellow who keeps tabs on such things purchased an aluminum boat and a 10-hp outboard three years ago, and he figures he has already gotten his money back. Despite the fact that he owns a boat, motor, and a considerable amount of fishing tackle, he estimates that it costs him approximately 30 cents an hour to fish.

Candidate Offers U.S. Bond, Cash In Essay Contest

Students from seventh through 12th grades are invited to participate in a contest calling attention to the forthcoming primary election.

A prize of a $25 U.S. Savings Bond will go to the first place winner, $10 to second, and a copy of "History of Ohio and Its Government" to third place winner.

Participants are asked to write not more than 75 words on the subject, "My parents should vote in the primary election because. . ." Entries should be received no later than Apr. 20 and addressed to Stockton For State Representative Committee, 224 Leland-av. The contest is sponsored by Edward J. Stockton, 1265 Country Club-rd, candidate for state representative.

Radio-TV Club To Sponsor 'Book Bank' For Hospitals

"Book Bank Barrel" is a unique project conceived by the membership of the Columbus Radio-TV Club. Throughout the greater Columbus area, there is a need by hospitals for reading material for their patients, according to the club.

The annual collection of books by representatives of radio and television stations and their affiliated enterprises will help fill this need. The books received in this campaign will be repaired, classified and then delivered to the hospitals in this area.

Barrels are now placed in more than 40 locations around Columbus. Citizens are urged to locate old books and leave them in one of these barrel locations. Persons desiring to give books may also leave them at any radio or television station.

A documentary on the problems and joys of old age titled "The Living End" will be presented on "World Wide 60" Saturday, Apr. 9, at 9:30 p.m., on Channel 4.

The film will deal with the prejudice against the older persons in employment circles, and other prejudices that drive the old to the feeling that they are useless and lonely.

Pat Boone will originate his ABC-TV "Showroom" in at least five European countries for four successive broadcasts starting Apr. 14. It will mark the first time a regularly scheduled weekly telecast has done a successive series in Europe.

The 24th Masters Golf Tournament from the Augusta National Gold Club will be a highlight on Channel 10 Saturday, Apr. 9, and Sunday, Apr. 10. This will be the fifth straight year that the nation's top golf tournament will be seen on the CBS Network.

The tournament will be broadcast from 5 to 6 p.m. Saturday and from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

"The Art Carney Show," will present "Victory" Friday, Apr. 8, at 8:30 p.m. in color on Channel 4. This drama is an adaptation of the Joseph Conrad novel, and will co-star Lois Smith, Eric Portman and Oscar Homolka with Carney.

Red Buttons, only actor to win both an Oscar ("Sayonara") and an Emmy (Red Buttons Show), plays the first Western role in the Death Valley Days tale of "The Million Dollar Pants," to be seen on Channel 10 Sunday, Apr. 17, at 9:30 p.m.

Helen Hayes, Dame Judith Anderson, Siobhan McKenna, Charles Bickford, Geoffrey Horne and Kathy Willard will star in "The Cradle Song," best known among the plays of Spanish playwrights Gregorio and Maria Martinez Sierra, to be presented Sunday, Apr. 10 on the Hallmark Hall of Fame on Channel 4.

"A salute to the American Theater," special hour-long, star-studded program devoted to the theme of freedom and anti-discrimination in the theater, featuring excerpts from 12 outstanding dramatic and musical plays, will be re-broadcast Friday, Apr. 8, 9 p.m. on Channel 10. Franchot Tone will be the narrator.

LET'S SMILE WE CAN SEE!

A Georgia farmer put this sign in front of his watermelon patch:

One watermelon in this patch has been poisoned. Next morning the sign had been changed to read: Two watermelons in this patch have been poisoned.

TB Drive Ends Up Over Top

For the first time in three years the Franklin County Christmas seal campaign surpassed its $200,000-goal, the Tuberculosis Society has announced.

Receipts from the 1959 campaign totaled $201,408.45 on Mar. 31, end of the Tuberculosis Society's fiscal year, according to Dr. James R. Hull, general chairman. This is a seven percent increase over 1958.

1959 contributions averaged $2.47, 15 cents more than in 1958, to set a new record for individual donations. Contributors increased from 80,365 in 1958 to 81,381 in 1959.

Industrial gifts leaped to a new high, with the average 1959 contribution of $46.30, an increase of $6.06 over 1958.

Christmas seal receipts finance free tuberculin tests for school children and free industrial and community X-ray programs in every part of the county. Contributions also pay for health education programs provided without charge in classrooms in every area of the county, and for important medical research on tuberculosis and other lung diseases.

CONTEST NEARS END

Airlines, Local Officials To Select Prize Winners

Town and Country Shopping Center merchants have announced that the grand drawing for their Winter Prize-O-Rama contest will be held Saturday, Apr. 16, at 10 a.m. at the center.

Prizes to be awarded will include the fabulous Moretti sports car and the wonderful five-day trip for two to Las Vegas via TWA.

The drawing will be held immediately following the Easter egg hunt being held at the center the same morning. The public is invited.

Drawings will be made by officials of TWA and locally prominent citizens. The car may be driven away if the winner is present, however, winners are not required to be present.

There is only a little more than a week remaining in the Prize-O-Rama contest. So, hurry and enter the fun and have a chance at the grand prizes still awaiting a winner.

It's easy to enter. Clip the coupon appearing in the contest ad in this newspaper and drop it at one of the stores of the week. They are Thom McAn Shoes, Hallmark House, Moores and Kiddie Korner.

W. M. Harmon, of 774 Sheridan-av, was the winner of last week's prize, a $29.95 radio from Kresges. Charles E. Bird, of 2915 S. Roosevelt-av, was the winner of the Kenmore Washer in the jumbled words Prize-O-Rama bonus event held last week.

All residents in the Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record circulation areas are eligible to enter. The contest is closed to employes of the shopping center or those of Hartley Newspapers.

Don't miss out. Enter now!

Politicians now rate Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as the big winner nationally from the recent presidential primary in New Hampshire.

Some Democrats and Republicans state that this has helped move him toward the Democratic Presidential nomination on an early ballot at the Los Angeles convention, which opens July 11.

U.S. SPACE RECORD

In the midst of the growing partisan debate over the space program, President Eisenhower defended American accomplishments in space at his recent news conference. In scientific results, he suggested, the United States has surpassed the Soviet Union.

Yearling Concert Band To Perform On Friday

The Whitehall Yearling Concert Band will present its fifth annual spring concert Friday, Apr. 8, at 8 p.m., in the high school auditorium.

The concert band will be conducted by Warren Wesler. Nick Perrini will appear as guest soloist. Perrini is teaching French horn at Capital University and is playing with the Columbus, Wheeling and Springfield symphony orchestras.

Friday's program:

Coat of Arms Concert March, George Kenny; Woodland Sketches, Edward MacDowell; Wagner Showcase, Arr. Donald I. Moore; Psalm For Band, Vincent Persichetti; E-fers Holiday, Paul Yoder; Temeriane, Frank Erickson; Three Modernaires, Lowell Little.

At the Moulin Rouge From the Passion In Paint Suite, Henri Rene; Concerto No. 1 in E-Flat For French Horn, Mozart; Prayer and Dream Pantomime, "Hansel nd Greatel," Engelbert Humperdinck; Guys and Dolls Overture, Frank Loesser; Blue Mist, Beguine, Eric Osterling; Timpat, Robert Leist.

Proper use of the horn, says the Columbus Auto Club, is an important asset to safe driving. It is mistaken courtesy to refrain from using your horn at times when an audible warning would be appreciated by others, or could prevent a possible collision.

"If Jane had only stopped telling me how to drive..."

When anger grips the wheel, safety slips away! Backseat drivers can do a first class job of raising your temper to the boiling point. But hold on! Showing your critic just who's running things may get you into a dangerous situation. 37,000 people died on our highways last year. Many were victims of drivers who, in one thoughtless moment, allowed their emotions to take over the wheel. So keep your head...losing it could cost you your life!

Old Stuffed Crow Is Relic In Area

The crow was a pet of the Jacob Kinnel family of Fulton-st in Columbus until 1880, when the talking bird died and was stuffed.

The bird came to Shadeville in 1905, when one of Mr. Kinnel's grand-daughters, Mrs. Henrietta Munday, moved to the village. Mrs. Reiselt recalls herself and other children playing make-believe games with the stuffed bird until 1914.

In that year, Mrs. Munday, realizing the young girl's attachment to the prized memento, gave the object to her.

The animal was placed on a stand in Mrs. Reiselt's parents' parlor, and continued to receive the admiration of the neighborhood children. Mrs. Reiselt brought the object with her to the Toy-rd residence, when she married. It now adorns one of the upstairs rooms of the household.

Mr. Reiselt, who also enjoys collecting antiques, prizes a boiler whistle brought to this area in 1840 by settlers immigrating from Eastern Pennsylvania.

A legend regarding this whistle relates that the settlers blew the whistle in elation when the crossing of the Allegheny Mountains was finished. The pressure built up in the fired-up boiler, being carted across the mountains by wagon dislodged the whistle from its mountings.

Reiselt also has a collection of early American farm implements, and a butter mold and pepper mill passed down through the family.

Mrs. Reiselt displayed a collection of old china and crystal including a 100-year-old wedding jar that converts into a fruit compote, when turned upside down.

They have a 50-acre farm, which Reiselt cultivated in spare time, before his watchman's duties begin for Ohio State Department of Public Works. One of the farm buildings was built of timbers that were originally in a pre-Civil War distillery operated by W. F. Reese, original owner of a large tract in the vicinity of Reese Station.

Town Meet Will Feature Cancer Report

"Cancer Control — How Far Have We Come?" will be discussed on Columbus Town Meeting, Sunday, Apr. 10. This will be a progress report on combating the nation's most cruel killer, and will be seen at 5:30-6:30 p.m. over WBNS-TV, Channel 10.

Coinciding with the National Cancer Crusade Month in April, the hour-long telecast will highlight what is being done in the field of cancer research.

Other areas to be covered will include service projects, and a discussion of extensive educational programs, since one out of three percent cancer patients could have been saved if detected soon enough.

Speakers for the program will be Dr. Harry M. Weaver, vice president in charge of research for the American Cancer Society, New York, and Dr. Gerald McDonald, Illinois Research Hospital, Chicago. Dr. Weaver is no stranger to Columbus, having received his PhD from Ohio State Universit in 1938.

Others participating in this cancer report include Dr. Arthur G. James, Columbus physician, and President of the Ohio Division, Inc., American Cancer Society, and Frank Schwartz president and treasurer of the Schwartz Showell Corporation. Schwartz is an active volunteer of the Society's Franklin County Unit.

Nick Of The Jack Also Took Its Toll Back Before 1900

In this day and age of the freeway, the X-way, "inner" and "outer" belts and turnpikes, motorists are often heard complaining of the constant outlay of money, both in taxes and in toll payments.

But, back even before the turn of the century, their horse and buggy counterparts were not immune to the nick of the jack for the use of highways and by-ways.

Case in point: the Toll Sheet of the National Road as established by Board of County Commissioner of Franklin County — the same road now known as U.S. Rt. 40.

According to present information, the toll sheet was set up around 1895. W. H. Halliday was county auditor at the time.

In those days, the word Dearborn meant more than a city in in Michigan; it was, rather, a four wheel carriage with curtained sides.

A gig wasn't a demerit that one received in boot training; it was a light two-weeled one horse carriage.

An omnibus was the forerunner of our present day bus. And sulkies are still in use on local race tracks.

The schedule of toll charges along Rt. 40 ran from 12 cents for every cart or wagon drawn by one horse or other animal, to 70 cents if drawn by six horses" (cheaper by the half-dozen, it appears). For each additional horse thereafter, a charge of 12 cents per animal was levied.

The gigs, sulkies, buggies and Dearborns drawn by a single animal ran 12 cents if the vehicle contained only one seat. The cost rose to 20 cents if the carriage contained two seats. All additional animals cost six cents. Omnibuses came in for a charge of 40 cents if drawn by only two horses. But as the number of horses, or other animals to pull the vehicle increased, so did the charge—75 cents.

Even sleds and sleighs came in for a neat clip of the old pocketbook. These winter runners cost those who partook of their availability a toll of 12 cents.

Even if no vehicle was involved in the act of transportation, riders on horses and mules were hit for a six cent rate. If the four-legged creatures were not ridden, but led or driven, a person could save a penny.

Using the National Road for a score of cattle, cost a farmer 25 cents; every score of hogs and or sheep amounted to 12 cents.

Anyway you looked at it, if one used the National Road to "git from hyar to thar," it cost him a load of National shekels.

FORMER EASTMOOR STUDENT

Lack Of Normal Sight Doesn't Impede This Ninth Grader's Marks

The West Jefferson High School ninth grader, a former Eastmoor student, was born without sight in her left eye.

But her handicap is increased even more than that. She is partially blind in her right eye, also.

Yet, despite her handicaps, or maybe in spite of them, she has managed to achieve top notch marks in her school work.

Linda is presently living with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Reisinger, of RR 3, London. Last year while attending Eastmoor, she resided with her sister, Mrs. Carol Wollett, of 3116 E. 12th-av.

She takes a full complement of courses in high school including physical education. Her grades in English, Latin, algebra, home economics and civics are all of honor roll rating.

In sports she competes in basketball, volleyball and tumbling.

Her father passed away some seven years ago of a heart attack. Her mother succumbed in 1958 from pneumonia.

She says that she doesn't have too much trouble reading, but does admit that she has to hold books fairly close to her eyes.

Linda usually sits in the front row in her classrooms. With the aid of a magnifying glass she is able to read the blackboard.

She explained that she does not use the magnifying glass for reading of literature. Her mother, she said, was the one who prompted her to try the use of the glass for blackboard reading purposes.

According to her, she thinks that cataracts are responsible for her blindness. She stated that a doctor told her that she would have a 50-50 chance of seeing correctly if she were to consent to an operation.

As for television programs, Linda claims that she enjoys watching them, but it usually is a long time between visits to any movie theater.

Stringtown (Ohio) USA Not Ready For Town Hall Now

By Robert J. Wunderlin

The neat little sign by the side of the Ohio road is in error. It should read Pop. 9.

Since this past summer when the sign suddenly appeared one sunny week-end, one of the residents — N. Emerson Mathews — has died.

When we first sighted the freshly painted sign perched on its finger of green steel, we checked with the Post Office department on Marconi Boulevard.

"Stringtown?" the clerk asked. "How do you spell it — S-t-r-i-n—or how?"

• • •

We spelled out the letters.

We could hear him leafing through pages. "There are five or six Stringtowns in Ohio. Which one did you want?"

I told him out near Brice. Pickaway county I thought.

There was another pause. "Yep. There's one out in Pickaway County. Serviced by Kingston. Don't have its own postal service. None of the Stringtowns do. Rand-McNally says there is one at . . ."

"That's the one I wanted. Thanks."

The State Highway Department didn't have much more.

• • •

"We've got no Stringtown on our map," the map department advised us. "I don't think our department put the marker up."

So we swung out through Brice, turned east on Refugee-rd, and stopped just before the road crosses Blacklick bridge. One fork of the road (the one that continues south across Blacklick becomes Long-rd. The other that swings eastward past the popular Hempy Picnic grounds becomes Refugee or County Route 7.

"Stringtown? I guess there's really no official Stringtown. But last summer one of the neighbors found on old sign, painted it, and stuck it up alongside the road. This neighborhood, clustered around Hempy's, has been known as Stringtown for years.

"There used to be a store right back there by the gate," he explained. "Guess folks used to come from miles around to make their purchases at the Stringtown King's Store. That's where it got its name. I guess. But it's been gone a long time now.

"The old neighborhood has not changed much in 75 years. No housing projects out here yet. Same houses here now as were back seventy-five, eighty years ago."

We asked about the Pop. 10 letters.

"That's wrong now," he nodded sadly. "Lost one of our good neighbors not too long ago."

I told him that we often enjoyed his picnic grove during the summer. More than 350 jolly picnickers enjoy summer week-ends here.

"Wasn't this grove once an Indian camp," I asked.

"Don't think so. That's mostly folk-lore I guess. Nope. I've never found any signs of any Indian camp and I've done a lot of cleaning up around here."

"Your sign looks very legal," I added. "Do you have a mayor?"

He laughed. "Nope. And no town hall either. Guess we just aren't ready for one yet."

The mail-boxes reveal the names of the "nine" residents. They include, besides Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hempy, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Finks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tussing, Mrs. N. Emerson Mathews, Miss Lola Hempy and Miss Hazel Hempy.

Any one interested in driving past this little sign calling attention to the community can find it by going south through Brice to Refugee-rd, which shoots eastward, curves sharply and then gently and through Stringtown, Ohio, USA.

'MYSTICDALE,' OHIO REMAINS A MYSTERY

Effort of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown to locate a community in Ohio formerly known as Mysticdale still leaves the answer a mystery.

Secretary of State Brown's interest in the matter was enlisted by Columbus Chief of Police George W. Scholer who received a letter from Mrs. Maude Devonna Campe Park of Utica, N. Y., who believes she may have had relatives in Ohio.

Correspondence from Mrs. Park, who was born May 1, 1871, the daughter of Charles Joseph Campe and Annie Belle Finley Campe, reveals that visitors have told her that her ancestors had real estate in this town in Ohio, believed to be near Columbus.

Now, Secretary of State Brown, exhausted all research on the subject, is hoping someone may shed some light on the town described by Mrs. Campe as follows:

"The main street was known as Porter Avenue, which continues over the county line, the road leading straight into Columbus, 14 miles distant.

"There was a police station, court house, postoffice, hospital, Presbyterian church—all in close proximity to Porter Avenue. There was a Park called Darian Park in which stood a statue of a citizen called Gregory Darian. On the eastern border of the town was a hamlet called "The Lick."

Those who aided Brown in the search, including the Ohio Historical Society, join in the thought that such a town or city may have existed or still exists in some other state but the Columbus angle has them puzzled and intrigued.

Discussion On Weekly Papers Set

The subject of weekly newspapers and their vital role in modern-day communications will be discussed at a Columbus Business University Public Relations Seminar Series this coming Monday evening.

Marcus Orr, an editor of the Hartley Newspapers, will be the principal speaker.

Public relations, advertising and trade association executives from throughout Ohio are attending the weekly series.

Orr's subject will deal with one of the most powerful tools of mass communications in the nation, yet one that has only recently come to be recognized in its full importance by many men and women interested in reaching the public with their message. More than 300 weekly newspapers operate in Ohio alone.

Their "home town" feel and reputation for reliability has earned these weeklies a rapidly growing place not only in advertising budgets and public relations programs, but also in the home of the reader as well.

EDUCATONAL UNIT PLANNED AT GOOD SHEPHERD

ARCHITECT'S SKETCH—Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 211 N. Merkle-rd, will break ground Easter Sunday for its new $60,000 educational unit. The time of the service is set for 10:30 a.m. The new educational unit will provide 15 additional classrooms plus a nursery. Part of the present Sunday School facilities will be converted to office space, work room, and lounge. Frederick Stritzel is the architect. Rev. Robert T. Reiss has served as pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church since Aug. 1956. He has now accepted a call to Faith Lutheran Church at Mt. Vernon. Easter Sunday will be his last Sunday of service at Good Shepherd. The ground breaking ceremony followed by the late morning worship service will mark his last official duty at this church.

East Columbusite Still Remembers Old Village Days

An East Columbus native dug through her scrapbook this week to give the history of the local community which long ago melted into Columbus.

Many East Columbus residents still consider themselves villagers although the area was annexed in 1933, according to Mrs. Virginia Smith, of 2864 E. 10th-av, who has lived in the community for 38 years.

The community, which formed under the name "East Columbus Heights Addition," is roughly bounded by N. Cassady-av, the northern edge of Bexley, 17th-av and Stelzer-rd.

The community had been a village for about 13 years before it was annexed to Columbus and was fully equipped with a mayor, town marshall, constable, volunteer fire department and jail.

Mrs. Smith said that East Columbus Heights really owed much of its founding to the Ralston Steel Car Co., located on E. Fourth-av, which manufactured railroad freight cars.

Most of the male residents worked for Ralston and the company was responsible for building many of the homes in the area.

The community had its own little two cell jail, said Mrs. Smith. The building still stands on E. Fifth-av but has since been remodeled into a civic center by the East Columbus Civic Association.

Mrs. Smith said the area had its own U.S. Post Office and that it was absolutely necessary to include "East Columbus Heights" in a mailing address in order to receive mail properly.

The Volunteer Fire Department boasted a pull-type fire engine which was kept in a garage on E. 10th-av. A small building was built later to house the engine at the intersection of Alton-av and E. 10th-av. A large fire bell was hung at the rear of the jailhouse.

Before East Columbus was annexed, it boasted a motorized fire engine, which was kept beside the jail.

Al Stevens, Roy O'Dell, Charles Chapman, Lester and Claude Allen all served as village marshalls in the early days. Mrs. Smith said Saylor Berrige is the best remembered mayor of the community.

The old interurban, which ran as far as the Gahanna Bridge provided transportation for East Columbus residents to downtown Columbus.

Krumm Park had its beginning when the Krumm family turned the site over to the civic association for a park to be supported by the residents. It has since been taken over by Columbus and features a wading pool, playground equipment and a shelter house.

East Columbus Elementary School started out in a one room building heated by a coal stove. Later rooms were added and a portable building was placed at the far end of the school grounds for manual arts training for boys.

A number of additions made more recently have provided the area with a fine school building which also houses a recreation center maintained by the city.

Mrs. Smith said East Columbus Heights was normally a peaceful little community but boasted a few "overnight guests" in the jail from time to time.

Residents of the area have battled with City Hall for better sewers, streets and sidewalks and are proud of every new improvement because they still look upon the community as their own private village, said Mrs. Smith.

B'nai B'rith Lodges Celebrate Award Night

Under the auspices of the Columbus B'nai B'rith Joint Council, the combined efforts of the Mens' and Womens' local B'nai B'rith Lodges and Chapters produced one of the most successful "Family Awards Night" programs witnessed thus far.

The program which took place Apr. 6, at the Agudas Achim Synagogue, saw the presentation of the scholarship awards to outstanding Jewish High School students in Columbus. These annual awards are sponsored by B'nai B'rith Zion Lodge No. 62.

The annual Max Dworkin Memorial Award to the outstandinz A.Z.A. boy was awarded to Harvey Siegelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Siegelman, by Harry Goldstein.

Inaugurating the B'nai B'rith Woman of the Year Award for greatest service to B'nai B'rith and the community, Zion Chapter made its first annual presentation.

Candlelight Chapter presented its awards for the B. B. G. girl of the year to Miss Beverly Finks. Presentation was made by Mrs. Bernard Mellman.

Heading the business portion of the program, Zion Lodge held its second nomination for new officers.

Making up the slate of candidates nominated for the coming election are Ralph Shapiro, president; Ernest Stern, and Bernard Yenkin, vice presidents; M. D. Portman, warden, and Sam Michaels, secretary. Competing for the post of Guardian will be Sid Golden and Alan Weller.

The election is slated in May.

Fairway-blvd. Fuss Still On

The threat of a possible taxpayer suits has not altered plans of Whitehall Service-Safety Director Robert Mickey from seeking bids on Fairway-blvd.

The improvement, to cost an estimated $47,000, has been challenged by Solon Loren Mason.

He feels that the installation of concrete parking strips within the street right of way is making use of city money for a private improvement.

Mason stated that a taxpayers' suit would be filed against the city if a go-ahead was given on the project.

School Teacher Dies At Age 22

Funeral services were held Monday for Mrs. Donna Bobbitt, 22, 973 E. Broad-st, a fifth grade teacher at Beechwood Elementary School, Whitehall.

Mrs. Bobbitt died of hepatitis Friday in Grant Hospital after a month of illness.

A graduate of Ohio State University, she was a member of Livingston Methodist Church.

Other survivors include a daughter, Karen Jean.

SCIENTISTS AT WHITEHALL

Whitehall Ministers Arrange Community Seasonal Rites

Whitehall Ministerial Association will sponsor seasonal, community services on Good Friday and Easter morning.

Three-hour service planned for Good Friday, noon to 3 p.m. at Eastview Methodist Church, 4453 Josephus-ln, will be divided into seven sessions with a different minister speaking at each.

Sunrise services will be held at 5:45 a.m. at Miles' East Main Auto Drive-In with Whitehall ministers participating.

Rev. James B. Foster of Eastview Methodist Church will deliver the sermon. Rev. Lloyd Tuttle of Whitehall Evangelical United Brethren Church is in charge of arrangements.

Good Friday Service

Rev. Foster is host pastor for the Good Friday service.

Special music will be provided by participating churches, and nursery care will be available.

Rev. Francis McCarty of East Baptist Church will speak on "Forgiveness," during the first period, at 12:05 p.m., and Rev. Philip Ling, Norton Church of Christ, on "Pardon," in the second period.

"Love," will be the topic for Rev. J. Mervin Hess, Shady Lane Presbyterian Church, in the third session, and "Loneliness," will be discussed by Rev. David Risch, Faith Lutheran Church.

Rev. John Moody, St. Edward Episcopal Church, will speak on "Human Need," and Rev. Marcus Buehrer, Church of Christ, on "Triumph."

Rev. Lloyd Tuttle, Evangelical United Brethren of Whitehall, will conclude the service with a sermon on "Reunion."

Lions Ready Easter Egg Hunt Plans

The Third Annual Easter Egg Hunt at Krumm Park, Ninth and Alton, will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, co-sponsored by the East Columbus Lions and the East Columbus Recreation Council.

Krumm Park will be divided into three sections, one for children five years and under, another for first through third graders and a final section for fourth through sixth graders.

There will be prize eggs in each area. Prizes will be awarded following the hunt.

Ford Trent, chairman of the Boys' and Girls' Committee, urges the children to meet on the blacktop drive behind the shelter house. Parking will also be available in this area.

The Boy Scouts from St. Thomas and St. Paul churches will aid in conducting the hunt.

The eggs, 75 dozen in all, were being colored by the Senior Citizens Center.

VIC Sponsors Car Wash

The Vocational Industrial Club of Whitehall High School will sponsor a pre-Easter Car Wash Saturday, Apr. 16, at the high school from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Proceeds of the project will be used for the forthcoming Employer-Employee Banquet.

Recreation Post To Be Studied

The Whitehall City Recreation Commission has called a special meeting for Monday, Apr. 18, to discuss the city recreation director situation.

Thus far, only two have applied for the post. Under the ordinance regulating the position, it calls for three selections to be recommended to the mayor for appointment.

The salary for the directorship is $5200.

Easter -- 1960

A cross on a modern spire, standing resolute in the open sky — to millions it is symbolic of renewed hope and faith as the first Easter of a space-age decade unfolds.

Easter Plans Set In Bexley

An Easter Sunrise Service, sponsored by Christ Lutheran Church, will be held at Bernlohr Stadium, Capital University, at 6:30 a.m.

Dr. Harold L. Yochum, president of Capital University, will preach on the theme, "The Story Has The Right Ending." The Carol Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Long, the Junior Choristers and High School Choir, directed by Mrs. Walter Huffman, and the Senior Choir, under the direction of Dr. Ellis Snyder, will sing the music of Easter including "He Is Risen," a traditional 17th century carol.

The Call to Worship will be played by Jim Heyde and William Rogers, trumpeters, and Kenneth Klopfer, trombonist. In case of inclement weather before 6:30 a.m., the service will be held in the church. The public is cordially invited.

At 8:45 and 11 a.m., festive Easter worship services will be held in the church. Dr. Robert W. Long, senior pastor of the church, will take as his sermon theme, "The Time of Triumph." Richard B. Sutter, associate pastor, will be liturgist. James Heyde will serve as trumpeter.

At the 8:45 service, the Carol Choir and Junior Choristers will sing, "Awake Thou Wintry Earth," a 17th century Dutch carol. The High School Choir will sing "Easter Morn," by Plank. At the 11 a.m. service, Easter music will be sung by the Senior Choir.

Town-Country Shopping Center Prize-O-Rama Drawing Saturday

Culminating 13 weeks of the awarding of some $5,000 worth of valuable merchandise, in the Town and Country Shopping Center's "WINTER PRIZE-O-RAMA," will be the drawings for the Grand and First Prizes, at 10 a.m. next Saturday, following the giant Easter Egg hunt. The grand prize will be a beautiful Moretti sports car, while the first prize will be an expense-paid trip for two to Las Vegas. The lucky pair will be flown on a date of their selection to Las Vegas, via the TWA Airlines. Arriving there, they will be guests of the Stardust Hotel, acknowledged the world's finest resort hotel. They will have fun-filled days and glamorous nights in this most exciting spot.

There is still time to qualify for the Saturday drawings. All that is necessary is to clip and fill out the coupon from the newspapers—Eastern Review or Reynoldsburg Record—and deposit it in one of the Town and Country "Stores of the Week", Albers, Big Bear, Eavey's and Kroger's. No purchase is necessary and you need not be present to win.

Buying for Easter is on in full swing. Town and Country, with its allure of some 85 stores, well stocked with everything for Easter and spring, is attracting more and more shoppers.

Your Carrier Will Call Soon

Your Hartley Newspaper carrier will soon be calling on you to collect for the month of April.

Try to have the correct change ready for him when he calls. It makes his job a much easier one. Prompt payment on your part will help him to meet the deadline on his bill.

If your newspaper is not delivered properly, please notify the Circulation Department immediately.

Easter Egg Hunt Is Set For Saturday

Saturday morning will be a big time for the small fry of this community when the giant Easter Egg Hunt will be conducted at 9:30 in the large field on Robinwood-av just south of Eavey's.

This annual event is co-sponsored by the Town and Country merchants, and the Whitehall Firemen's Association, assisted by the Boy Scouts of Troop 390.

Some 3600 eggs will be hidden in the field and the hunt will be in two age groups, 3 to 5 and 9 to 12. Over 300 of the eggs will be prize eggs and the prizes will have a total value of over $100.

Another feature of Saturday morning's program of events will be the awarding of prizes to the winners of the Town and Country Coloring Contest. Eight lucky youngsters will walk off with prizes in this contest.

NAME TOP SENIORS

FACULTY COUNCIL—The Faculty Council of Whitehall-Yearling High School has named Nancy Sherman and Doyle Bailey as the top Students of the Month. Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sherman, of 1017 S. Yearling-rd, is vice-president of the student body; president of Student Council, president of Dramatics Club, editor of school newspaper, is a member of the College Club, marching and concert bands. Doyle, son of Mrs. Frances Bailey, of 686 Pierce-av, has copped a number of honors in recent scholarship tests. Both students plan to attend Ohio State University.

Children Are Home Again After Close Call In Blaze

Two East Side children are alive and home again from the hospital following a heroic rescue from their burning home last week by firefighters.

They are Samuel Goldfarb, three, and his sister, Tamara, two, children of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Goldfarb, 3858 Astor-av. Both were found huddled together and unconscious in a small upstairs closet of the home.

The firefighters made several attempts to find the children in the smoke and flame-filled home. Finally, Charles Davis donned an air mask and made his way to the closet.

After handing the girl to Norman Baker, Davis carried the boy downstairs. Both children suffered smoke exhaustion, but were not burned. They were treated at Lincoln Memorial Hospital and later were sent to Children's Hospital. They were released Tuesday.

Lt. Norman Taylor, 1129 Norris-dr, was hospitalized with cuts and Firemen Joe Martin and Charles Yaple were slightly injured while trying to reach the trapped youngsters.

Investigators said the boy apparently had been playing with matches. Mrs. Goldfarb was working in the basement when the fire started about 9 a.m. With the aid of a neighbor, Mrs. Barbara Keller, 3869 Astor-av, she got two smaller children out of the house before firefighters arrived.

Installed

NEW COMMANDER—James J. Forte, 143 N. James-rd, was elected and installed commander of Linden Post 3826, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The post held a joint installation of officers with the Ladies Auxiliary Apr. 10 in the post home, 3910 Cleveland-av.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Jesus Promised Man Greatest Of All Possessions In Life

In the long course of history, it is appalling to realize how many of the worldly great have had as a chief purpost in their careers the destruction of human life.

It has been not only on the battlefield "where thousands die to lift one hero to fame," but in the lust of conquest and power entire peoples have been exterminated.

In contrast with all that dark and terrible record are the records of many whose distinction has been in life-protecting and life-saving.

In many cases, their immediate inspiration and example is Jesuth of Nazareth. Jesus declared his mission was to give life, and to give it more abundantly (John 10:10).

What is that more abundand life that Jesus gives to man?

First of all, it is life itself —a sense of the reality of being one's self, of belonging, of consciouaness of what God has given, a creation that is ours, not a faraway beginning in a dim and distant Adam.

It is an awakening, a quickening of the soul, when man realizes some of the wonderment of his own being.

With this sense of life's value, of belonging, is the sense of performance — that life in a spiritual sense is never destroyed.

In what does the abundance of the Christian life consist? Undoubtedly its deepest element is a sense of inward peace. In those who have been most truly Christian that inward peace has been an indestructive possession, triumphing over suffering and persecution.

YMCA Day Camp Expands Season To Eight Periods

Boys' Branch YMCA is expanding its boys' day camping program this coming summer.

Because of the success of last year's three-period season, Branch Board Chairman George Tyack and Camp Chairman David Randall, have arranged eight five-day periods. They will begin June 20 and end Aug. 12.

The seventh and eighth periods, Aug. 1 to 5 and Aug. 8 to 12 at Blacklick Woods, are for boys seven through 10 of East Columbus. There are now only 80 places open, so plans should be made promptly.

For further information call the Boys' Branch YMCA, CA. 4-1131.

Eastmoor High School's Warriors' Spear-It

By Barbara Moltenberry

Easter Program Presented By Senior Hi-Y Students

An inspiring Easter program was held today to set the religious spirit of the Easter holiday, for which students will have a four-day weekend.

The Easter program is given annually by the Senior Hi-Y at a special assembly. The Senior Choir and Boys' Glee Club presented several Easter hymns. Scriptures were read by Ron Boyers, and Bill Graham led the audience in a responsive reading. Jim Huffman, Hi-Y chaplain, closed the religious program with a prayer.

Mary Heffron, a junior, was elected president of next year's Senior Y-Teen Club last week. Mary has been program chairman of the club this past year and has participated in many Eastmoor and city-wide Y-Teen activities.

Members of the nominating committee were Dottie Myer, present membership chairman Neva Lowe, Barbara Pursell, Janice Moltenberry, Jennifer Douthit, this year's Y-Teen vice president, and Barbara Moltenberry, president.

Eastmoor musicians participated in the state solo and ensemble contest at Lancaster last Saturday. Those who received ratings of superior were Mary Heffron, bassoon solo; Sid Townsend, tuba solo; Eric Snider, Dick Stein and Ken Stickrod, trumpet trio; Sandy Edwards, Jim Wright, Jane Lewis, and Mike Corbel, saxophone quartet, and a woodwind quintet consisting of Anita Topson, Mary Jane Eyster, Jim Wright, Janice Moltenberry, and Sandy Bland.

Rafel Mendez, the "world's greatest trumpeter" will appear with the Eastmoor Concert Band Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3. Mendez is appearing with the band for the second time because of his tremendous success two years ago with the combined Eastmoor-Whitehall bands. Tickets may be purchased from any band member of Mr. Kaye.

Five men from Turkey, accompanied by an interpreter, visited Eastmoor Apr. 5. Their visit was part of a tour through United States schools, sponsored by the U. S. Department of Education. The philosopher, physicist, and three businessmen were surprised to find coeducation in almost all schools and were amazed at our well-equipped classrooms.

The Senior Choir presented a selection of Easter hymns for the downtown Kiwanis Club last Monday. This was the third time in the past two years that the choir has sung at a Kiwanis Club meeting.

The Future Teachers of America Club is doing something completely new this year. The club will give a scholarship of $50 to $100 to a senior member of the club who is going into teaching. Club members will vote on the applicants and the presentation will be made at the May meeting.

Applying for the grant are Peggy Colegrove, Sandy Eiseman, Bev Krinn, Sandy Parks, and Gretchen Volz.

Eastmoor's track team, after winning its first two meets, lost to South last Thursday, 63½ to 53½. The Junior High baseball team scored a strong 14-2 win over Champion Junior High.

The varsity baseball team was out-scored 9 to 3 by Linden-McKinley last Monday afternoon.

In other baseball action, the Warriors nipped Central High's Tigers 9-8 Tuesday. Larry Gornall's line-drive bringing three winning runs across highlighted the contest.

In a triangular track meet our field Tuesday afternoon, Whitehall came out on top with 69 points. Eastmoor followed with 52½ and Rosary ended last with 27 1/3 points.

Fairmoor Scouts Take Part In School 'Frolic'

For several weeks Brownie and Girl Scout Troops of the Fairmoor district were busy making a fine assortment of items for the Fairmoor School Fun Frolic held Apr. 2.

Those taking part were: Troop 474, leader Flo Bless, made cigar box doll beds; Troop 825, leader Delores Smith, made pot holders; Troop 1039, leader Joanne Jarvis, made bean bags; Troop 1112, leader Betty Ranz, sold manicure and sewing kits; Troop 832, leader Betty Gornall, made felt purses, glass cases, and book markers; Troop 107, leader Ruth Price, made yarn dolls and lapel pins; Troop 300, leader Dorothy Clark, made tile plaques; Troop 282, leader Mary Reece, made plaster of Paris plaques; Troop 1033, leader Shirley Kauffman, made plywood lapel pins; and Troop 1096, leader Korene Hausman, made flower baskets.

As the result of the total selling effort of this Girl Scout room, $55 was donated to Fairmoor Elementary School.

East Side Man Named New Deputy Commander at Center

Col. Poffenberger

Brig. Gen. Philip F. Kromer, Jr., commander of the Army Engineer Maintenance Center, 52 Starling-st, announces the appointment of Colonel John T. Poffenberger, 3384 Broadmoor, as deputy commander for the center. He replaces Colonel Charles S. Skillman, who is departing for a new assignment in Korea.

Colonel Poffenberger comes to EMC from the Columbus General Depot, where he has served as director of warehousing.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., the 43-year-old career military engineer, accepted an ROTC commission in 1938 from the University of Alabama. He has subsequently attended the Command and General Staff College from 1952 to 1953; and earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Military Science from the University of Maryland in 1958.

The new deputy has more than seven years of overseas service. He came to the Columbus General Depot from Italy, where he served as District Engineer from 1956 through Aug. 1958. Prior to this, he saw duty as Engineer Supply Officer for the European Theater during 1946-47; and he served 19 months in Korea during 1950-51.

Whitehall VIC Members Attend Conference

Five members of the Whitehall Chapter of the Vocational Industrial Club attended the Annual Spring Conference of the State Organization at the Ohio State University, Apr. 2.

Attending were: Helen Poe, 142 Santa Maria-ln; Marjorie Phillips, 4226 Mayflower-blvd; Fred Butler, 4391 Kumler; Bill Day, 4406 Broadhurst, and Ray Caldwell, 115 Beechwood-rd.

Participating in a job application contest, Bill Day was awarded a gold medal for himself and a gold plaque for his club, William Shipe, club sponsor, reports.

EARN AND LEARN CORNER

Area DE Pupils Select Grocery Merchandising

Grocery merchandising is the distributive area chosen by Les Lotte, 278 Pineview-dr, and Fred Phillips, 4095 Beechbank-rd, two of Whitehall High School's distributive education students.

Les and Fred are employed by Big Bear, Co., in the Town and Country Shopping Center.

Distributive education is an instructional program in the field of distribution. Distributive education students spend one-half of a day in school and one-half of a day in a local retail, wholesale, or service establishment.

A representative of the school coordinates the classroom instruction with the on-the-job training that the students receive during the afternoon hours.

Les began his employment with Big Bear, Co., as a carry-out boy. Here he applied his classroom instruction in salesmanship and customer service. He soon was rotated to the grocery department. He was able to apply principles of buying, selling, advertising, display, and store organization which he studied in his distributive education classroom.

Les is presently in charge of ordering and receiving for two sections in the Town and Country store. He plans to remain with Big Bear, Co., after his graduation from high school in June.

Fred also carried out groceries in his early days with Big Bear. After he had proven that he had the desire and ability to work, Fred was rotated to the job of cashier. Here he was able to apply principles of customer service, salesmanship, and mathematics which he learned in his distributive education class.

Next, Fred was transferred to the Housewares Department. This transfer gave Fred the opportunity to apply principles of display, advertising, buying, receiving, and marking which he studied in his morning classes in school. Fred also plans to remain with the store after graduation from high school in June.

Fred and Les, along with the other distributive education students, had the opportunity of visiting with Mike Knilans, Purchasing Executive for Big Bear, Co. Knilans visited the distributive education classroom to explain the procedure used by businessmen in determining retail prices for goods.

Knilans' visit is an example of the practical instruction given to the students in the classroom. Ted Williams, Credit Manager for the Sherwin-Williams Paint Co., 195 S. High-st, will visit the distributive education classroom this week to discuss credit and collection with the students. The speakers are planned to supplement the units that the students are studying.

Pageant Planned By Young People

Christian Endeavor of East Columbus Christian Church, under the direction of Robert Driscoll and Leroy Walker, will present an Easter pageant for the Sunrise service Easter at 6:30 a.m.

Young people will present the following scenes: Last Supper, Gethsamane Prayer, Trial before Pilate, Crucifixion, and Resurrection.

"No mud and dirt! Everything's a lot cleaner since we got a concrete street!"

Concrete's the street for good homemakers! No tar to track in . . . no clutter, dust and dirt of periodic patching and surface treatment. And laid flat, concrete stays flat—never any hollow spots to collect water. You're always sure of good drainage.

And concrete's so smooth-riding and safe. Its grainy surface gives dependable skid resistance, even when it's raining. And you'll never find potholes or ripples to cause dangerous bumps.

There's another big advantage at night. Light-colored concrete reflects up to 4 times more light than a dark surface can. It brightens things up for drivers . . . you can see and be seen far better.

With all this, concrete's initial cost is moderate—less than you'd think! And the upkeep cost is extremely low. A street of concrete will probably outlast your house. It has a life expectancy of 50 years and more.

It's the preferred pavement for residential streets all over America . . . it belongs on the street in front of your house.

Get together with your neighbors . . .

If your street needs paving, make your preference for concrete known. Concrete is the only pavement that can be accurately engineered to meet the expected traffic load on your street for years to come.

Garden Club Arranges Field Trip, Meeting

The Eastmoor South Garden Club will take a field trip to Franklin Park Conservatory, Tuesday, Apr. 19, 7:30 p.m.

A short business meeting will follow at the residence of Mrs. Clifford St. Clair, 2961 E. Mound-st.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Don Foster and Mrs. Robert Porter.

Skirts, Jeans CCL Set Benefit Card Fete

Skirts and Jean CCL will hold their annual benefit card party Wednesday, Apr. 27, 8 p.m. at the Jewish Center.

Area Woman Cops First Place In District Federation-Sponsored Sewing Competition

Mrs. John Revel, of 1485 Picard-rd, recently won the district sewing contest sponsored by the area Federation of Woman's Clubs and Vogue Patterns, held in Newark.

President of the Apogee Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Revel took first place in the district with a four-piece gabardine suit ensemble which cost $15.03 to make.

Theme of the contest was "Ideal Costume for the Clubwoman's Wardrobe." Mrs. Revel will soon attend the state competition for which $100 is offered as first prize. She may have a chance to attend the national contest in which first prize is a three-week trip to Europe.

Her ensemble includes a two-piece beige, wool gabardine suit, a matching blouse and a blue print blouse. She said versatility seemed to be the key word in winning the contest.

Mrs. Revel said that her husband purchased the suit material some time ago for $5. He planned to have a suit made for himself but finally gave the material to his wife. The suit is fully lined in silk organza.

Mrs. Revel is a very active clubwoman and hopes to organize her own woman's club in the East Side soon. Apogee, which means "highest point," is affiliated with the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, the largest women's organization in the world.

Apogee members are interested in civic, social and political problems as well as aiding the blind, retarded and crippled children.

Their activities are supported by the usual bake sales, rummage sales and card parties. The club also supplied commemoration stamps to the Veterans Hospital in Chillicothe and helps support the "Ohioanna Library" at the State Library in the State Office Building.

'Fun Festival' Planned

Guilds To Stage Benefit Fete

A games party, St. Ann's Guilds' main function of the year, will be held at Bishop Hartley Auditorium Saturday, Apr. 30, at 8.

General chairman of the event, Mary Shover, will be assisted by Mrs. Edward Hueckle, Mrs. Austin Grady, Mrs. Nicholas Herbert, and Mrs. Fritz Grimley.

Proceeds from the affair will be given to Mother Roseanne, OSF, of St. Ann's Hospital for Women.

OSU Mom's Unit Sets Dessert Luncheon Date

Group B, Ohio State University Mothers' Club, meet Tuesday, Apr. 19 at South Methodist Church for a noon dessert luncheon.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Ed Bray, Mrs. David Wilson, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Straub, and Mrs. Roy Horcher.

Mrs. Helen Haughton from the Cancer Clinic will speak and show slides.

MT. OLIVE TO MEET

Mt. Olive White Shrine, will hold its first stated meeting Friday, Apr. 15, 8 p.m. with newly-elected officers, Betty Williams, worthy high priestess, and LeRoy Hopper, watchman of Shepherds, presiding.

Willis Park Unit To Elect, Hear Discussion At Meet

Annual election of officers and delegates of Willis Park School PTA will be held at the Tuesday, Apr. 19, 8 p.m. meeting.

Following the elections, Judge Alan Schwarzwalder and Roy Baker, administrative assistant to the postmaster, will discuss "Obscene Literature — a threat to Our Children."

How obscene material gets to children and what to do about it if it does will be topics for consideration.

Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary To Conduct Benefit Card Party

Jewish War Veterans of Capitol Ladies Auxiliary 122 will hold its "Aid to Israel" card party Wednesday, Apr. 20, 8 p.m. at Jeffrey Mansion, 165 N. Parkview-av.

The party was postponed from Mar. 9, due to weather conditions.

Proceeds will go to Tel Hashomer Hospital, the JWVA Clinical Research Laboratory, JWVA Rehabilitation Center and Blood Bank in Israel.

Refreshments will be served. Tickets available from any member or at the door.

St. Alban's Guilds Set Easter Bake Sale Date

Guilds of St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Bexley, are preparing for their annual Easter bake sale, to be held in the education building of the church Saturday, Apr. 16, 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Coffee will be served in the "coffee corner."

Knights Templar To Conduct 27th Easter Sunrise

The 27th annual Easter sunrise service sponsored by Mt. Vernon Commandery 1 and Columbus Commandery 69, Knights Templar, will be held at the RKO Palace Theatre at 6:30 Easter Sunday morning.

Doors will open at 6 a.m. and the service is open to the public.

Rev. George Morey Evans, executive director of Columbus Goodwill Industries, will deliver the Easter message while the Upper Arlington Senior High School Choir will present choral numbers.

J. Fred Moehl, commander of Mt. Vernon Commandery 1, and Edgar L. Ott, commander of Columbus Commandery 69, will lead the knights in parade from the Masonic Temple to the theater and return, with Aladdin Temple Shrine Band as escort.

Sunrise Rite Set At Forest Lawn

Forest Lawn Memorial Park Association, owner and operator of Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens, 5600 E. Broad-st, will held its annual sunrise service Easter morning at 6:30.

Service will be conducted by Rev. John W. Selvey, minister of Gahanna Community Church. Music is by members of the Chancel Choir of the same church, with Virginia Selvey, director, and Carl Eisenburger, organist.

Public is invited.

GARDEN SALE SET

Bexley Garden Club will conduct an Easter garden sale Saturday, Apr. 23, 1 to 5 p.m. at Jeffrey Mansion. Mrs. Herman Wagner is chairman.

EASTMOOR

Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School PTA will present a Parent Education Study Group meeting Wednesday, Apr. 20, 1:30 p.m.

Topic is "Is Dating So Different Today?" The film, "Getting Along With Parents", will be shown and discussed.

FAIRMOOR

Fairmoor PTA will meet on Tuesday, Apr. 19, 8 p.m.

Election of officers will be held and the sixth grade chorus will present a program of songs they sang at the Music Festival held at St. John's Arena.

BRODADLEIGH

Broadleigh School PTA will meet Wednesday, Apr. 20, 7:30 p.m.

Dr. H. R. Cotterman, professor at Capital University, will discuss "No Two Alike." New officers will be elected.

Next time you're in the market for a water heater, remember these important facts. First, A. O. Smith guarantees all Permaglas water heaters for their full value . . . 10 full years for most models, 6 full years for budget-priced models . . . without ordinary "mileage" or years-in-use restrictions imposed by other manufacturers. Also, remember that A. O. Smith has produced more than 5 million glass-lined water heaters . . . more than all other makers combined!

B'NAI B'RITH GIRLS PREPARE AFFAIR

KALLING ALL KIDDIES—Bev Kaufman, left, and Sonia Gold, look over their poster announcing the B'nai B'rith Girls' Annual Kiddie Show which will be held Friday, Apr. 15, in the Jewish Center Auditorium from 2 to 4 p.m. The 50 cents admission will compose BBG's main fund raising projects of the year. The proceeds will be used for obligations as an organization. Story telling, cartoons, games and singing will compose the entertainment. All boys and girls are welcome, especially between the ages of three and 10.

Local Boys Ready Projects For April Scout-O-Rama Event

Central Ohio's popular Scout-O-Rama will be held this year on Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 23 and 24 in the Buckeye Building at the Ohio State Fairgrounds.

For the eighth year, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Explorer Scouts from Central Ohio will take part in this annual two-day scouting event, displaying more than 200 exhibits.

An entirely new area called the Midway will be set up just outside the Buckeye Building. It will be colorfully decorated and will contain 20 large displays such as a Camp Site, Tower Building, Trapping Display, and one of Monkey Bridge Building, plus others which are too unwieldy to house inside.

Smaller exhibits will be shown inside the building. All displays will be manned by Scouts who will explain them and answer questions.

Special acts in the bleachered arena, and music furnished by a number of Central Ohio high school bands, will provide entertainment.

This Saturday, Apr. 16, is officially called T-Day, and highlights the Scout-O-Rama ticket sales drive. From 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., all scouts will make neighborhood door-to-door calls selling tickets. Each ticket sells for 50 cents and will admit one adult or two children. Opening and closing hours are printed on the tickets.

For the convenience of visitors, clean rest rooms are located in the building. Ample parking space is provided free of charge, and refreshments are available at reasonable prices.

Proceeds from ticket sales are distributed among various participating scout groups and the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts of America. The scout groups use the proceeds to support activities within their groups, while the Central Ohio Council uses its share for camp development.

The Scout-O-Rama is sponsored by the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts of America and the Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Three Choirs To Sing Easter Music At Shepard Methodist

Three choirs will sing at each of two identical Easter services of worship, 8:30 and 10:45 a.m., at Shepard Methodist Church, 2260 E. Fifth-av.

Totaling more than 50 voices, the three choirs will present the following Easter music at each service:

Children's Choir, directed by Mrs. John Reichenbach, will sing "Easter Bell Carol."

Youth Choir, also directed by Mrs. Reichenbach, will present "Then Came Easter Morning" by Ellis.

Chancel Choir, directed by Eugene Walker of Capital University, will present "Rejoice Today," by Darst.

Easter message, "With Hearts and Minds Ablaze" will be presented by Rev. Marvin D. Bean, minister.

A crib room, pre-school nursery, and kindergarten will be available at each service.

Mrs. Russell Witt will arrange the Easter lilies and flowers in the chancel of the sanctuary.

Faith Church Plans Easter Worship Rites

Easter morning will be observed in three worship services at Faith Lutheran Church, Collingwood-av, near Main-st.

A sunrise service will be held at 7, followed by communion Junior Choir will sing.

Identical worship services are scheduled for 9:30 and 11. Sermon theme will be "The Battle Won." Senior Choir will sing at both services.

Easter decorations will be highlighted by an 18-foot cross of lilies suspended above the altar, in addition to potted lilies in the chancel.

Sunday School will begin at 8:30 and will be dismissed at 9:15 on Easter morning only.

Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred. — Job 6:24.

Many County Tax Returns

Franklin County taxpayers have responded "wonderfully" to the plea made by County Treasurer Newton A. Thatcher to "pay taxes early and avoid the rush".

Collections so far this year are 22 per cent ahead of the same day one year ago. As of Mar. 18 real estate taxes collected amounted to $9,500,000, as against an expected figure of $7,700,000.00 based on last years collections.

The total to be collected is $20,500,000.00.

Earlier payment of taxes can mean a correspondingly earlier distribution of tax money to the various local governments to meet their operating expenses, Treasurer Thatcher said.

N. American Toastmasters Pick Johnston

William D. Johnston, Jr., 98 N. Remington-rd, has been elected president of the North American Aviation Toastmasters club Installation ceremonies took place Wednesday night, Apr. 13, at the Desert Inn.

Johnson, a liaison engineer for North American, joined the club in 1957, and has served as treasurer.

Other officers elected to serve with Johnston are: Educational vice-president, Sam F. Wendt, 783 Kenwick-rd; administrative vice-president, Gene F. Mullen, 35 W. Blake-av; secretary, Roger L. Mann, 4320 Scenic-dr; treasurer, James Harriman, Marysville; and sergeant-at-arms, Ralph D. Arthur, 80 Fairway-blvd.

The club, chartered Oct. 1952, is one of more than 3100 throughout the free world. More than a half million men have participated in the toastmasters program of self-expression and self improvement since 1924, publicity director Larry Blott said.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR '40 BEXLEY GRADS

Maundy Service Is Planned In 'Upper Room' At Shepard

Maundy Thursday services at Shepard Methodist Church, 2260 E. Fifth-av, will be held in an "Upper Room" setting this Thursday at 7:30.

Service of communion, open to all, will begin by candlelight in the sanctuary. Special music, presented by the chancel choir, will include many of the traditional Lenten hymns.

Events of the "Last Supper" will be described in a meditation "And When They Had Sung a Hymn" by Rev. Marvin D. Bean. The meditation is based on Warner Sallman's picture, of the same title.

A color slide of Sallman's painting will be projected during the meditation, depicting the 12 disciples following the Last Supper.

Members of the congregation will then go for communion to an "Upper Room" lighted only by candles and an illuminated picture of Christ. Twelve at a time they will be seated around a table and receive communion.

Communion stewards include Mrs. Mary Price, Miss Judy Woolridge, Miss Carole Wimmer, Mrs. Charles Pence, Mrs. John Vargo, Mrs. Ronald Sparks and Miss Doris Strider.

Mrs. Mabel Isabel will be in charge of the nursery. Eugene Walker will direct the choir and Mrs. John Reichenbach is the organist.

Youth Council To Hold Easter Sunrise Service

Youth Council of Columbus Area Council of Churches will hold an Easter sunrise service Sunday, Apr. 17, 6:30, at Central Presbyterian Church, 132 S. Third-st.

This service is designed mainly for churches which are not having early services on Easter morning.

Rev. G. W. Bingham of Broad Street Presbyterian Church will conduct the service.

25 Hartley Students In Science Day Meet

By Lucy Ryan

The top twenty-five contestants in the Hartley High School Science Fair entered their projects in the Central Ohio District Science Day, last Saturday at Ohio State Fairgrounds.

Richard Jacobs, a sophomore, who entered a project on the grafting of the geranium plants, in the Biological Science Department, was the only Hartley student awarded a Superior ranking. This made him eligible to attend the State Science Day.

Three other Superiors were given to Hartley students. However, they are not eligible to compete in the State contest. The students, all juniors, are: Jan Murray, who project showed the causes of an ice age, and the possibility of another one; Patty Huff, with a project that described in detail the workings of the human eye; and Everhart Turner, whose project was a homemade computer.

Only 87 projects out of 1,100 could be sent to the State Science Day. The competition was so keen that Superior ratings were presented to some students even though they couldn't participate in the next step of competition.

Each project was judged twice, usually by a teacher and also by someone from industry.

Visitors viewed the projects and an assembly was held to present the awards. A speech entitled Will You Be There? was given by Dr. Harold Eibling, Supt. of Columbus Public Schools.

Mary Jo Smith and Marilyn Hanf, junior home economic students, have been selected to represent Hartley High at a selected group conference on careers at Ohio State University, Apr. 23.

The sophomore operetta, "Sunbonnet Sue", to be presented at Hartley on Apr. 29, will consist of more than just singing and speaking. With the help of Mrs. Hinderleider, the sophomores will have a "Sunbonnet" chorus line and they will present short ballet country and Virginia Reel dances. Janice Eberle will do a solo dance in the operetta.

'SHOWERS AND FLOWERS' SHOW SLATED

IT'S RAININ' VIOLETS—When the Altar-Society of St. Philip the Apostle Church presents its Second Annual "Showers and Flowers" style show and card party, those in attendance will be seeing the most up-to-date and delightful spring and summer fashions on the market. Pictured above, left to right, are Mrs. Robert M. Figley, refreshments; Mrs. N. Dale Poff, door prizes, who are looking on while Mrs. William H. MacAuley, (far right) gives pointers to two of the show's models. The models are Mrs. Earl S. Toth and Mrs. Robert E. Miller. The affair will be given Thursday, Apr. 28, 8 p.m. in the St. Philip Social Hall. The hall is located at 1555 Elaine-rd. Tickets are $1.25 and may be obtained at the door or from members.

Hartley Hi To Continue Dance Plan

One of the gala events of the spring season will take place Friday evening, Apr. 22, when the second of a series of parish dances will be held at Bishop Hartley High School under the auspices of the Christ the King tuition fund committee.

Music for round and square dancing will be furnished from 9 until 12 p.m. by Carl Capretta and his orchestra with Bud Swisher handling the square dance chores.

For those who prefer to "sit out their dances", refreshments will be available within earshot of the music.

The general decorative theme of this dance will be the Easter Parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Winnestaffer, 1140 S. Hampton-rd, are general chairmen of the dance. They are being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weisenberger, decorations; Dr. Robert Ritchey, refreshments; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whitman, tickets; Mrs. Frank Kulp, candy; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wunderlin, publicity; John O'Dea, "get-ready" committee; Ray Bott, "clean-up" committee; and Mr. Ananias Ellis, special tickets.

The general public is invited to this affair which attracted a capacity crowd at its first session in January. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the southeastern Columbus parish, or at the door the night of the dance.

Let's not forget, in our study of new theories, that the dollars that are spent in our town are the dollars that make business here.

24 Students Inducted Into The National Honor Society

Junior Class members are David Addison, Ellen Drum, Mike Friedman, Betty Harris, Judy Holt, David Japikse, Karen Mercer, Jerry Mechling, and Ellen Ziskind.

Mrs. Antoinette Barr, sponsor of the society, Mr. C. W. Jones, principal, and senior members of the Society who were inducted in their junior year conducted the program.

Those seniors participating in the program were Judy Bone, Carol Davis, Doug Fleckner, Kay Gearhart, Judy High, Kathie Kienzle, Patty Lutzy, Fred Mann, Jeff Stern, and Judy Starke.

Seniors Win Essay Contest

Darlene Cohen and Lynne Whetstone, seniors, won third and fourth prize, respectively, in the district essay contest sponsored by the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.

Darlene received a 25 dollar Savings Bond, and Lynn received ten dollars in cash.

WBBA Figures One Ad Covers Cost Of Player

Linn Hiatt, finance chairman for the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association, said Tuesday that if each merchant in the area will support one boy in its Little League by buying an ad in the group's program book, the summer program will be a success.

He said that besides the cost of ball diamonds to play on, the average cost to supply a boy with playing equipment is approximately $10.

Here is the breakdown on the costs: shirts and pants, $6.50; caps, $1; socks, $1; lettering and numerals, $1.50; shared expenses of balls and bats, $3; shared cost of umpires and catchers' equipment, $2.

This totals $15, but, according to Hiatt, by buying this equipment in volume, the WBBA purchasing committee has been able to reduce this cost to about $10.

Total cost for the 300 uniforms and other equipment needed will be $4500, said Hiatt. The WBBA season will open June 14.

Maxwell Named New Taxpayers Group Chairman

James Maxwell, Jr., Whitehall city solicitor, has been elected state chairman of the newly organized State Taxpayers Corp.

The group officially organized Sunday night but already has a lobby in Washington, D.C. Purpose of the organization is to watch and investigate taxes.

Maxwell said, "I think it's abot time property owners begin to take an interest in this type of organization and the taxes that affect them."

He that is slow to anger is better than the highty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.—Prov. 16:32.

Mercantile Agency Head Dies At 69

The retired president of the United Mercantile Agency, Earl J. Stewart, of 783 Vernon-rd, Bexley, died Wednesday, Apr. 6, of a heart attack in Grant Hospital.

The 69-year-old businessman founded the collection agency in 1920 at Long and High-sts, with his brother, Fred. The agency is now located at 700 Bryden-rd.

Mr. Stewart was a member of the Bexley Methodist Church, an honorary member of the Downtown Kiwanis Club and active in Masonic orders.

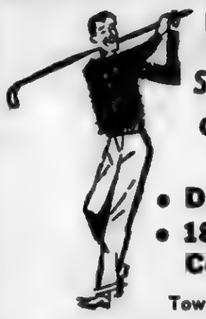
Services were held last Saturday.

HIGHWAY LAG



Senator Holland (D-Fla.) says internal difficulties in some countries along the route are delaying completion of the inter-American highway.

Holland recently told the Senate delays are not due to dallying by the United States. He said this country already has appropriated $138,000,000 as its share of the cost of the project, to provide a land route from the Mexican border near Laredo, Texas, to the Panama Canal.

Local Theaters Will Show Films On Cancer Detection

As a part of National Cancer Crusade Month, the American Cancer Society has arranged for free educational movies to be shown Apr. 18, 19 and 20.

The educational phase of the Society's three-point program of research, education, and service, is important since early detection of the disease can actually save lives.

Each of these films showing will be double features, to be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. On Monday and Tuesday, Apr. 18 and 19, the program will be for women only, featuring "Time and Two Women" (the story of uterine cancer), and "Self Examination of the Breast".

On Wednesday evening the double feature, for all adults, will include "The Warning Shadow" (story of lung cancer) and "The Other City," (a general story of cancer).

At the conclusion of each showing a member of the Columbus Academy of Medicine will be in attendance to conduct a brief question and answer period.

Among the theaters which will be showing the films are the Westmont, 2686 W. Broad-st; Markham, 1320 S. High-st; Eastern, 1624 E. Main-st.

Cancer Crusade Month will be climaxed on the evening of Tuesday, Apr. 26th when more than 12,000 Crusaders will deliver life-saving literature to every home in the Franklin County area.

Prelim Test Results Announced At Hartley

Winners in the Preliminary Ohio State Scholarship Tests were announced at Hartley last week. The top three scorers in each subject are eligible to take the Final Ohio State Scholarship Test at Ohio State University on May 7.

Below are listed the first and second place scorers in each test. These are not necessarily the students who will take the final test, because it is only possible to take one final exam and some students are eligible to take the final test in more than one subject.

The high scorers were:

English XI — Lucy Ryan and Virginia Kastl, Mary Ann Sharkey and Ann Wuellner, tied for second place. English X — Janet Van Balen and Richard Maier. English IX — Christine Church and Carol Krauss. American History — Ronald Glass and Lucy Ryan, tied for first place. World History — John Dooley and Mary Ann La Follette. Latin II — Mary Pat Kramer, and Suzanne Preidis and Janet Van Balen, tied for second place. Latin I — Christina Church and Carol Krauss.

French I — Lucy Ryan and Patty Kusan. Spanish I — Virginia Kastl and Jan Murray and Karen Stopper, tied for second place. Chemistry — Howard Distelzweig and Lucy Ryan. Biology — Janet Van Balen and James Fairbanks. Algebra II — Don Van Horn. Geometry — Tom Geist, and Janet Van Balen, Mary Pat Kramer and Virginia Knoll, tied for second place. Bookkeeping — Bob Wunderlin and Dolores Neel.

Florence Crittendon Home Invites Public Inspection

An open invitation to visit the Florence Crittenton Home is being issued to clubs and organizations in this area.

Visiting day will be Sunday, Apr. 24, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. when "open house" will be observed. The event will climax the home's 57th anniversary observance.

The United Appeal-supported agency, located at 1166 S. E. Main-st, provides care and rehabilitation services for unmarried mothers and their babies.

The open house is being held to create better understanding of the problem and facilities for helping alleviate it.

Youth Worker Will Speak At PTA Meeting

Rev. Charles Harrison

The Rosemore Junior High School PTA will meet in the school gymnasium on Monday, Apr. 18, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, president, will preside.

The speaker for the evening, following the invocation given by Rev. Francis T. McCarty, will be Rev. Charles L. Harrison, assistant superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School and also acting Resident Protestant Chaplain.

He is a graduate of Denison University and attended Oberlin College and the Theological Seminary of the University of Chicago. He worked in the Chicago Settlement House and it was at this time that his decision was made to work with delinquent youths.

As a consultant on programming he is outstanding, and this, coupled with his religious interests and his rare sense of humor, have enabled him to participate extensively at meetings of Federated Women's Clubs, Ohio State Religion-in-Life and many other civic-minded groups.

Rev. Harrison is nationally known as a public speaker, and is an active member of such organizations as the YMCA, Kiwanis, the American Legion and Forty et Eight. He is also a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Aladdin Temple of the Shrine. The general public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Named New Jet Batboy

When the Columbus Jets open their season with Montreal, Wednesday, April 20, they'll have at least one new face kneeling in the dugout.

The blond, six-foot, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Randle, 882 Demorest-rd, was a unanimous choice of the judges.

Tom is quite a sports fan, baseball—of course — ranking the highest. "It will be quite a thrill to be part of an organized baseball team and that would be possible as batboy" he wrote as one of his reasons why he wanted to be batboy.

Homemaking Hints

Put Zip Into Vegetables; Your Family Will Love Them

Bertha B. Everhart

Watch your family clamor for more and more vegetables when you try different methods of preparation; vary the seasoning and serve them more attractively.

Have you ever tried baking vegetables for a change? If not, try baking, sliced, diced or shredded potatoes, carrots, beets and squash in a casserole while your meat or main dish is in the oven. Red beets taste so good when shredded and baked. Peel red beets thinly, shred, add about one tablespoon water per red beet, salt and butter to season. Cover tightly and bake at 350 degrees for 20-25 minutes.

Any kind of squash may be diced and baked as for red beets. Winter squash (acorn and Hubbard) are excellent when cut in half and baked cut side down in a flat pan containing about one-fourth inch of water. When about tender, turn squash upright and season with salt, butter, brown sugar or honey. Bake 15-20 minutes longer.

By Steaming

Braising or panning produces vegetables which are unusually flavorful. Carrots, celery, beets, cabbage, cauliflower, spinach and other greens are good and different when prepared by this method. Slice, dice or shred the vegetable. Melt one or two tablespoons butter in a heavy skillet or saucepan, add vegetable and salt. Toss until vegetable is coated with fat. Do not add water. Turn heat low, cook covered or uncovered until tender but crisp.

By Broiling

Slice raw potatoes one-quarter inch thick, place on broiler pan, brush with butter, sprinkle with salt. Broil until brown, turn, brush with butter, add salt and complete cooking. Large Spanish or Bermuda onions, eggplant and tomatoes, are excellent broiled in the same manner.

By Seasoning

If you haven't already done so, experiment with herbs. Try adding a pinch of basil to peas; rosemary or marjoram to green beans the last few minutes of cooking time.

Important Reminders

To insure vegetables retaining their maximum in food nutrients: peel and cut vegetables just prior to using them; peel thinly—a swivel knife is an aid; cook in little or no water until crisp-tender.

EASTER GREETINGS

Poor Knots In Fishing Lines Can Cut Strength 40 Per Cent

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Breaking of the knot used to tie fishing line — the weakest part of the linkage between angler and his catch—can be virtually eliminated. Studies conducted by DuPont show that selection of the knot and the way in which it is tied are the two most important factors in preventing loss of fish through knot failure on spinning line and leaders.

Repeated runs on electronic testing machines, backed up by high-speed movies to show why knots fail, proved that three knots will handle every fishing job usually, maintaining from 90 to 100 per cent of rated line strength.

Results with other knots varied widely.

Clinch Knot Preferred

For tying spinning lines and leaders to flies, lures and hooks, the improved clinch knot is recommended:

1. Thread the end of the line through the eye of the hook or swivel.

2. Double back and take at least five turns around the standing part of the line. Knot strength drops off sharply with less than five turns.

3. Thrust the end between the eye and the first loop, and then back through the big loop.

4. Slowly pull the knot up as tight as possible. Cut off the end at one-eighth inch. Do not attempt to break it off by hand.

Turns Important In This One

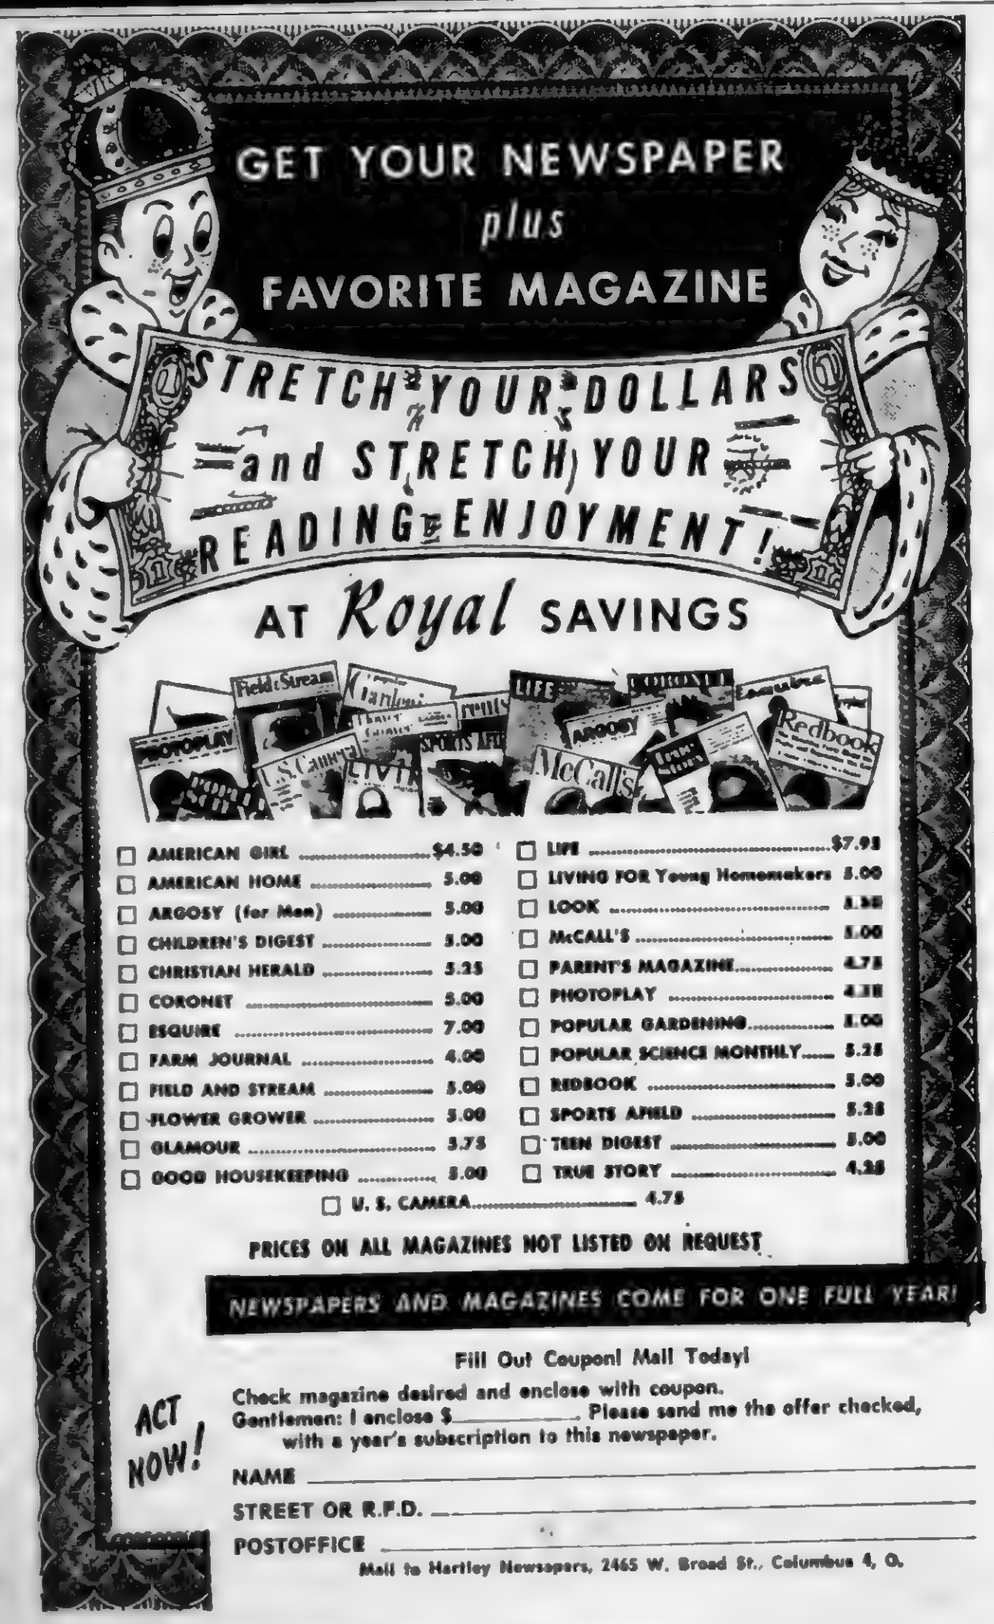
1. Lap the ends of the strands to be joined. Twist one end about the standing part of the opposite line, making at least five turns. Count the turns to be sure. Four turns can drop the strength of a 10-pound monofilament down to eight and one-half pounds. Bend end back over turns and place between strands. Shift hold to prevent unwinding.

2. Repeat procedure for the opposite side, winding five turns in the same direction. Push end through strands at center of lap.

3. Pull the knot up slowly and tight, allowing the turns to gather, and cut off ends.

Improved End Loop

For those times when you need an end loop in your line, this knot is suggested:



1. Form a double strand by bending back about four to six inches from the end.

2. Then fold the "U" bend back and spiral around itself five times.

3. Next, insert the end of the "U" bend through the first loop made by its backward turn.

4. Pull up as tight as possible without breaking.

WVKO To Carry Indians-Detroit Game Tuesday

For the 11th consecutive year, WVKO radio will be carrying the play-by-play action of the Cleveland Indians baseball games.

Jimmy Dudley and Bob Neal will once again team-up for the action account. In addition, Jimmy Dudley will do a pre-game show, "Dugout Interviews," during which he will interview players, managers and coaches of both teams.

Following each game, Neal will do his "Tenth-Inning" program, with all the latest scores and a rundown of the action of the game just played.

WVKO will carry a total of 109 games. There will be 63 day games, carried on AM and 46 night games, broadcast on FM. No games will be broadcast when they would interfere with the Columbus Jets home schedule.

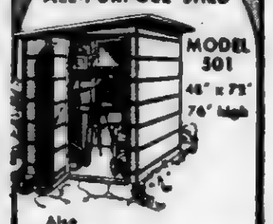
The first game will be carried at 2:55 p.m. Tuesday, Apr. 19. It will be the Cleveland-Detroit game, which will be played in Cleveland.

Canadian Club Names President

The Canadian Club of Columbus has announced its slate of officers for 1960.

Named were George O. Sweetman, president; Randal Dineen, vice-president; Ab Neufeld, treasurer; Ruth Dorcy, secretary; Dorothy Jaye and Freda Sweetman, public relations.

The club, which is composed of former Canadians and their families residing in and around Columbus, will gladly welcome new members.



Anyone interested in joining the group and meeting with fellow Canadians, may call Dorothy Jaye at BE. 1-7732 or Freda Sweetman at HU. 8-2149.

TV Specials Highlight Future Programming

Two-hours of religious programming will highlight the Easter Sunday telecasting by WBNS-TV, Channel 10, and will feature the Catholic Easter Mass in the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception and the Protestant Easter Festival Service from the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C.

The Catholic service will be televised from 10 to 11 a.m., with His Excellency Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, as the celebrant.

From 11 to 12 noon, the Protestant Easter Festival will feature the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre, Jr., Dean of the Cathedral. Both programs will be telecast live.

More televising radiance for the televiewing audience includes a total of 26 baseball games of the Cincinnati Redlegs which will be seen on WLW-C, Channel 4, announced James Leonard, vice president and general manager.

Of the 26 Redleg games presently scheduled, 13 are being played in Cincinnati, 13 are away, 13 are in color and 13 in black and white.

WTVN-TV, Channel 6 on your frequency selector, announced that they will telecast the Mike Wallace narrated controversial space film, "The Race for Space."

Columbus viewers will get a chance to view the film, despite the fact that it was denied time on the three major networks as a matter of Company policy because the film was not produced by their own news department staff. It will be shown April 27 at 7:30 p.m.

"The Race for Space," gives the true facts, impartially and objectively about the race between the USA and Russia in missile development. It contains American and Soviet rocket films never before seen outside our Intelligence Service, including first views of the dog carrying Sputnik II.

From the "Where to Go for "Entertainment" department, Mershon Auditorium on the Ohio State University campus announced that reserved seat ticket sales for the Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong "pop" concert began Tuesday, April 12, at the 15th and High-st ticket office.

The show, sponsored by Ohio Staters, Inc., is a related event of Ohio State's traditional May Week activities.

Program time is 8 p.m., May 6.

The OSU Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Norman Staiger, will present its annual home concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 24, also at Mershon Auditorium.

Highlight of the concert will be the performance of Gail Kubik's "Litany and Prayer," a work written especially for men's chorus and brass and percussion instrumentation. The School of Music Brass Choir, under the direction of Richard Suddendorf, will provide accompaniment for the Kubik work.

Admission to the program is free.

This Is Cancer Control Month; 7 Danger Signals

One out of every three present cancer patients could have been cured if detected soon enough, according to Mike Peppe, 1960 Cancer Crusade Chairman for Franklin County.

Mr. Peppe further pointed out that heeding cancer's seven danger signals and having annual health checkups are a major part of this early detection.

As a community vice, this newspaper is cooperating with the American Cancer Society by printing these seven signals in the hope that through greater knowledge of the disease, each individual may help to save a life, perhaps his own.

The Society emphasizes that these danger signals do not necessarily mean cancer. However, if the signal lasts longer than two weeks a physician should be consulted, for any physician's office may well be regarded as a cancer detection center.

Danger Signal No. 1—Unusual bleeding or discharge; No. 2—a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; No. 3—a sore that does not heal; No. 4—persistent change in bowel or bladder habits; No. 5—persistent hoarseness or cough; No. 6—persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; and No. 7—change in a wart or mole.

Rita Kunkler In Honors Program At St. Mary's

Miss Rita Kunkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kunkler, of Columbus, is participating in the College of St. Mary of the Springs' Honors Program, reserved for superior students at the Columbus school.

Honor Program students are selected on the basis of high school grades and extensive tests given as college freshmen. Students must maintain a Dean's List grade level in their regular studies to continue in the program.

Freshmen in the program attend weekly seminars devoted to creative thinking. Sophomores study the Psychology of Woman, and juniors attend a Great Books Program in conjunction with the college's Adult Education Program. Seniors do independent research in their major fields.

NSPA Honors Bexley 'Torch'

The Bexley High School Torch, a monthly student publication, received the "All-American Award" of the National Scholastic Press Association.

The award is given for superior ratings in news and sports coverage, features, make-up and creativeness.

Mrs. Sara Amos is the faculty advisor to the publication and Jack Dickey, 798 Euclaire-av, senior, is editor.

Seven other similar publications received identical awards in competition among 71 high schools.

Local Motorcycle Racer Advises 'Keep Your Head And You'll Win'

Dick Klamfoth, winner of 17 national motor cycling events, considers racing an art. He said, "Use your head and keep out of trouble and you can usually win."

Klamfoth, who lives on Simsrd, near Groveport, engages in racing as a sport rather than a profession. The stakes aren't high enough for racing to be followed as a career, according to him.

He competes in 30 races a season on the average and travels 35 to 40,000 miles a year to attend meets throughout the country. Klamfoth said that the largest purse he ever won was $2,500 at the Daytona races. He came in first in this 200-mile race in 1949, 1951, and 1952.

Dick ran into trouble this year at the Daytona meet, when a racer spilled in front of him on the fifth lap and he hit his cycle. Klamfoth got up and continued in the race until the fifteenth lap, but was forced to quit the race because his engine was starved-out by a pinched exhaust. He said that at the time of the accident he was doing well, having moved up from sixtieth position to the fifth spot.

Klamfoth doesn't consider motorcycle racing a dangerous sport. Of the 7000 riders who enter the races throughout the country, one or two riders are killed yearly. He rode in 30 events last year and saw only two or three broken limbs.

He believes accidents are few because of the good sportsmanship of the racers.

He is looking forward to an added event this year in Ohio. Motorcycle races will be held at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus on the last day of the fair. He believes the $3500 purse will draw competitors from all over the country. He stated there will be nine different racing events on the last day and a motorcycle show the whole week of the fair.

Dick began racing as a novice in 1947, when he was seventeen and started racing in the expert class in 1949. He has won races at Laconica, N.H.; Richmond, Va.; Columbus; and Heidelberg, Pa. besides at Daytona title. He has also won the Canadian National Championship.

Commission Gives Motel New Pact

The Columbus Airport Commission approved an amended contract with Avis Ford, Inc., last week, for construction of a $450,000 50-unit motel at Port Columbus. City Council insisted the project begin June 1.

Attorney Bernard Solsberry, who represents Avis Ford, admitted his client defaulted on the original contract awarded in 1958 calling for completion of the project by Sept. 30, 1959.

Avis, Solsberry told the commission, has invested $25,000 to $30,000 in the project and is ready to begin contruction upon approval of contract amendments.

Councilman Robert L. Van Heyde reported that the delay made it appear that Avis didn't want to build the structure.

Robert Teafore, a commission member, said the city had contributed to the delay by not demanding start of construction.

Solsberry said most of the sub-contracts will go to local contractors.

Conference Scheduled

First major step in a statewide citizens project to raise the quality of public school and higher education will take place here Thursday, Apr. 14, at an initial regional meeting of the Second State House Conference on Education.

The meeting here, to be held at Ohio State University's Mershon Auditorium, starting at 1:30 p.m., is designed for local leaders from central Ohio communities.

And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud.—Gen. 9:14.

"Making a sacrifice nowadays often means doing without the things our parents never had."—Tit-Bits, London.

Wives

Is your husband sure he is in the right position? We have an excellent opening in Franklin County for the right man. All applicants are given comprehensive psychological tests which point out their strongest occupational aptitudes. Our Company records show we must test 20 men in order to find the man we need. We will give the other 19 their aptitude profile so that any time spent taking these tests is time well spent. If you would like your husband to take these tests, have him write to Box No. 12, c/o Hartley Newspapers, 3465 W. Broad St., Columbus 4, O., giving his background. ALL correspondence will be held in confidence.

TEACHERS
Career opportunity in your own community. Full salary and quarterly bonus along with intensive schooling for three years at our expense. Write Box 16, in care of this newspaper, only if you are interested in embarking on a full-time basis. Please furnish age, work experience, family status.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Meats—Ham, pork loin roast, fryers, steak "specials."

YOUR EASTER MARKET BASKET

Ham is often considered to be the traditional meat for Easter. All kinds of hams are plentiful and, as usual, they are leading the meat "special" for the holiday week. However, a fresh pork loin roast or chicken may be an economical choice for you this year.

If your family prefers beef, you may find steak sales, featuring rib, round, sirloin and cube . . . and there is a good supply of fresh mushrooms to go with your steak. Lamb is available but you will likely pay a little more than last year because of the lower supply. Cold March weather and muddy roads seriously curtailed lamb marketings.

VEGETABLE CHOICES MORE VARIED

This week you will notice quite an increase in the supply of brightly colored crisp vegetables. Price tags, too, are more in your favor. For your Easter dinner, you can't go wrong on broccoli, cauliflower, or fresh asparagus. Head lettuce, as well as leaf and Bibb, are good salad choices. For variety, choose from endive and escarole, too. You may want to splurge a bit and use greenhouse tomatoes. Though the price is still high, the flavor is excellent. Vine-ripe tomatoes are also good, and the price quite reasonable.

HAVE PLENTY OF FRUIT ON HAND

The eating quality of grapefruit is at its very best. You're wise to use lots of them, for grapefruit prices will go up in a hurry as the season nears an end. Try thin slices of avocado with grapefruit. A huge crop in California explains the low prices on avocados.

More bananas for April than in March is the prediction. So, you can expect their price to stay low. Strawberry prices are still rather high and quality varies . . . you may want to use the frozen ones for awhile longer. Louisiana reports that its harvest will begin next week.

OTHER BUYS

You'll have no trouble finding all the high-quality eggs you want for Easter breakfast or the egg hunts that follow. Egg prices have leveled off after the recent sharp rises. Extra large and large sizes continue to be the best buys.

BROILER SUPPLIES have been curtailed to some extend by the recent cold stormy weather in the South which damaged many broiler houses. However, dealers are offering them at near cost levels this week, making them among the best meat choices.

FISH MARKETS will offer the first catch of Lake Erie perch this week. Dealers say the lake water is still very cold which means excellent flavored perch. Lake Superior herring and fresh smelts are also in good supply.

ENJOY YOUR EASTER FOOD SHOPPING.

IT SHOULD BE FUN

Council Approval May End Five-Month Zoning Battle

CITY BEGINS DESTRUCTION PROJECT . . .

Mickey Says Street Dividers 'Just Don't Fit Into Picture'

By John Auble, Jr.

An approximate two and one-half mile concrete strip, stretching through the corporate limits of Whitehall, has done more than divide Broadst into two right and left lane halves.

1. Construction, and
2. Destruction.

The dividers were installed in 1956 by Bob Dienst, contractor, on approval of the State Highway Department, stated Whitehall Safety and Service Director Bob Mickey.

Tuesday, a little over three years later, Whitehall road crews are busy ripping out the concrete sections to allow more access for emergency vehicles.

"When the project was on the state drawing board," Mickey said, "the dividers were put in for unlimited access of the emergency equipment."

He added, "when Town and Country and other expansion was completed, however, the dividers just didn't fit the picture."

Mickey stated that Mayor Moling and he decided to remove the concrete sections when the percentage of State Department gas tax funds were received.

City Council agreed to the removal and gave the project an extra boost, said Mickey.

Whitehall Fire Chief Arthur T. Reddy stated that he had been in favor of the removal ever since the installation began.

"Our straight runs to St. Ann and Grant hospitals and to Town and Country were greatly hampered by the dividers," the chief said.

According to Reddy, the dividers were too high to straddle and were a definite hazard to effective emergency procedures. He added that the removal of the sections will eliminate about 90 per cent of the fire department's traffic problems.

"With the dividers," Reddy said, "we had to try and figure out ahead of time where and when we could make a left turn. Nine times out of 10," he explained, "there was a driver in our way."

Mickey said that the removal project, which the city began last Tuesday, should be completed in about a month—weather and other unexpected conditions permitting.

Civic Associations, School, Ministers Fight Apartments

Monday's Columbus City Council meeting may bring about the climax to a five-month-old rezoning battle over a tract on E. Livingston-av near S. James-rd.

The tract lies on the south side of E. Livingston-av, just east of James-rd, and extends along the west side of Bishop Hartley High School property, south to Clermont-rd.

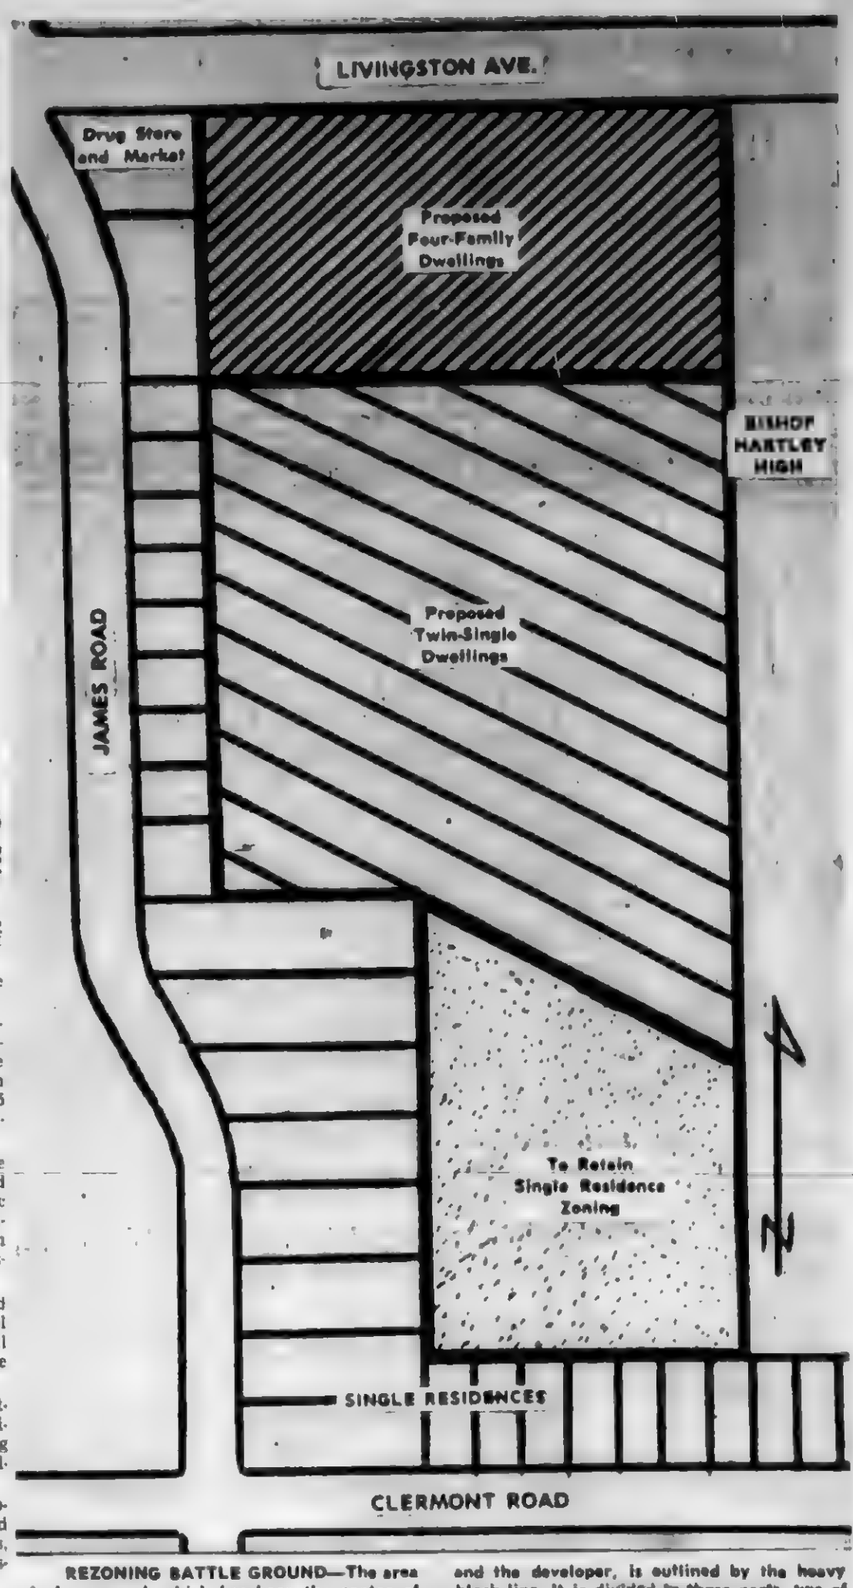
The developer is John Ranft, who has been trying to get part of the 15-acre tract rezoned from residential to multiple dwellings.

Ranft wants a seven-acre parcel of the land zoned for four-family dwellings, an 8.5-acre middle section zoned for twin singles and approximately 4.5 acres to remain single residential.

Fighting the rezoning have been Kingsgate Association and Wood Homes (both civic groups), Liv-Moor Civic Association, Berwick Civic Association and Berwick Manor Civic Association.

Rev. Robert G. White, head of Bishop Hartley High School has also been joined by several other ministers in opposing the rezoning.

Rev. White expressed in a letter to City Council that multiple dwelling units would bring a transiency in school enrollment which is not desirable.



An amended ordinance to approve the rezoning, submitted by Councilman Russell Jones, will come up before the legislators this Monday.

Property owners in the area have expressed a number of reasons why they oppose the multiple dwellings proposal but their strongest argument has been that they feel the project will lower the value of their homes and neighborhood.

Ranft has explained that he owns most of the land and is on contract for the rest. He said he plans to develop the land so it will be most profitable and multiple dwellings seem to be that.

The battle has been an active one since Nov. 23 of last year when Ranft brought a petition before council for the rezoning.

Ranft and several of the civic groups have had to acquire attorneys. There have been many joint meetings between the developer and the associations but no compromise has been reached.

REZONING BATTLE GROUND—The area to be rezoned, which has been the center of a five-month battle between property owners and the developer, is outlined by the heavy black line. It is divided in three parts, two of which may be rezoned for multiple dwellings.

Trustees of the post are as follows:

One year, Robert Taylor, 3101 E. Fifth-av; two years, Freddie Midlam, 785 N. Dawson; three years, Lawrence Kaser, Millersport.

'Prize-O-Rama' Ends Amid 'Eggs-citement'

Center's wonderful 13-week Winter Prize-O-Rama came to a climax Saturday amidst the excitement of the area's annual Easter egg hunt.

The egg hunt was conducted in the field adjacent to the shopping center, sponsored jointly by the merchants of Town and Country, the Whitehall Firemen's Association, and assisted by Boy Scout Troop 390.

All of the prize eggs were found this year. An interesting sidelight to last year's hunt was that Whitehall Mayor Walter B. Moling hid the $5 gold egg so well that no one ever found it. In fact, the mayor was unable to find it! It may still be out there somewhere.

Following the egg hunt, Ed Lasher, Town and Country Easter chairman, awarded prizes to the seven winners of the coloring contest.

The final drawings for Prize-O-Rama were then held. The awarding of the grand prize a Moretti sports car, and the first prize, a five day trip for two to Las Vegas, have been eagerly awaited by all contest entrants.

The wonderful thing about Prize-O-Rama has been that Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record readers have been winning many valuable gifts each week of the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Kirk, of 1501 Shady Lane-rd, won the trip to Las Vegas. They will be flown via TWA to Las Vegas, where they will spend five days as guests of the fabulous Stardust Resort Hotel, America's largest and finest resort h[illegible].

Present for the hunt and drawings were Whitehall Mayor Walter B. Moling, Ernest Peters, president of the Whitehall Firemen's Association, Paul O. Strohn and Mac E. Driggs representing the Trans World Airlines, and Asher Moser, president of the Town and Country Business Association.

Easements May Delay Water Main

A contract for the construction of the water main from Hoover Dam to the East Side of Columbus will not be awarded unless the easements are obtained, according to Mayor Ralston Westlake and Service Director Ernest H. Stork.

Negotiation for the easements stopped after council failed to approve granting of taps to property owners on the route of the main.

City Attorney Russell Leach stated the cost of the project would be increased if court action was necessary to obtain the easement.

The revision of the plans are scheduled to be completed next month by the consulting engineers, Burgess and Niple.

Four Named To Force; Auxiliary Men Sought

Whitehall's police strength was boosted to 19 last week with the announcement that four four new officers were sworn in.

The police are also accepting applications for the auxiliary force at the present time. Interested men are asked to apply at the Whitehall police station. Applicants will be asked to take a character examination.

HERE'S ONE THAT DIDN'T GET AWAY!

TALL TALE AND TRUE—Thirty-three inches tall, and here's picture proof of Mrs. Fred Batteiger's 19-pound carp catch last Friday. The 82-year-old fishing enthusiast caught the prize, "My biggest one ever," with an earthworm on a six-pound test line. "It bent my pole double, and tore right through the net." She and her husband, 82, residents of 280 S. Harris-av, take regular jaunts to their favorite spot in the Scioto River near O'Shaughnessy Dam. They caught 300 there last summer. "Neither of us cares for picture shows or any other recreation—but we do love to fish," she said.

Final Phase Of Census Under Way

The 1960 Census of Population and Housing entered its final stage on Apr. 16 when a picked group of interviewers began a "mopping up" operation to complete the ten-year inventory of the nation's people and their homes.

The interviewers are primarily concerned with accounting for the "blue" household questionnaires which were left at every fourth household during the first stage of the census which started Apr. 1. A small number of persons have failed to mail this report form to the Census Bureau's district office. Also, some of the report forms which have been received have not been completely filled out.

The "clean up" interviewers will make personal visits to the households from which report forms have not been received and obtain the answers to the Census questions.

Waterman Seeks 2 Nominations In May Primary

Joe Waterman will do double duty at the May Primary.

A former assistant attorney general under Mark McElroy, Waterman will be seeking nomination as a candidate for the Ohio Legislature and alternate-at-large to the Democratic National Convention.

Waterman

Now a partner in the law firm of Waterman and Jaffy, 50 E. Broad-st, he is a graduate of Ohio State University with degrees in law and business administration.

In both 1958 and 1959, he headed the Dollars for Democrats Drive for the State of Ohio.

While training to be an attorney, Waterman was president of the Ohio State University Young Democratic Club. He was then appointed Chairman of the College Democratic Clubs of America and later was selected as the outstanding college Democrat of America in 1958.

Supreme Court Candidate Member of Pioneer Families

Family roots of Medina Municipal Court Judge Elizabeth Bell Winter, candidate for Ohio Supreme Court, are deep in Columbus' west area. Both her parents were members of area pioneer families.

Her great-great-grandfather settled on 1000 acres in the Clime-rd vicinity, land granted to him in 1803 for revolutionary war service. Mrs. Winter still owns eight acres of that tract on Clime-rd at Georgesville-rd.

She is descended from the Mix family, for whom Mix-rd was named, and the Demorests, from whom that road got its name.

A cousin of her father, Edgar Mix, was the world-famous balloonist who won the international Gordon-Bennett Cup Race in 1908.

James Garfield Stewart, she is the first woman to seek a state

Judge Winter

Relatives still living in the area include: Mrs. Hal Moreland and Cecelia Goldhart, both Grove City women; a cousin, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, of 3048 Crescent-dr, and an uncle, W. E. White, of Georgesville and Clime-rds.

As a candidate at the May 3 Republican primary for the unexpired term of the late Judge Supreme Court post since Judge Florence E. Allen was elected and re-elected in the 1920s.

A native of Columbus, Mrs. Winter was graduated from North High and from Ohio State University Law School in 1929. She has practiced law since 1930.

Mrs. Winter was elected the first judge of the newly-created

Mayor Reduces Secretary Wage

A recommendation that city council lower the salary of his private secretary from $478 to $433 a month, will be presented to council by Mayor Ralston Westlake.

Practicing the economy he's been preaching, the mayor said he felt the present salary is too far above that of other City Hall secretaries.

Mrs. Margaret Castle, 87 Warren-av, has been appointed to the post. She was former secretary to Finance Director Wayne Freeman.

Mrs. Gooding Dies At 52

Funeral services were scheduled Thursday at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Gooding, 52, wife of Floyd E. Gooding, president of the Gooding Amusement Company Inc.

Mrs. Gooding passed away Saturday at her home at 1970 Elmwood-av, of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are a daughter, Joyce Ann; father, Harvey L. Irvin and a sister, Mrs. Louise Ferbrach.

Sgt. Dunston Chosen For Service Honor

Acting Master Sergeant Glenn M. Dunston, U.S. Marine Corps, non-commissioned officer in charge of the Columbus recruiting substation, has been chosen as "Armed Forces Serviceman of the Month," for April in the Columbus area. He is a resident of 473 Hillcrest, W. Hilliard.

The selection was made by a group of service club officers.

The honor, sponsored by the Armed Forces Community Relations Council, is awarded annually to a Marine in the area "who most nearly typifies the best in a military man and who is also an outstanding citizen in his community."

Sgt. Dunston is married to Arlene B. Dunston. He is the father of six children, two of whom are members of the Marine Corps.

A native of Minneapolis, Sgt Dunston enlisted in the Marines in June 1938 and served in the Pacific during World War II with the Marine Transport Squadron 253. He also served in Korea with the Transport Squadron 152.

He has been awarded the Air Medal and Presidential Unit Citation, among other military awards for both campaigns.

Since his arrival in Columbus in July 1957, Sgt. Dunston has been active in community affairs. He is a member of the following organizations: treasurer of Hilliards Police Reserve, Hilliard Booster Club, Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 1427, Knights of Columbus 1824, Armed Forces Information Panel, St. Brendan's Mens' Club, advisor and chaperone of St. Brendan's Catholic Youth Organization, Hilliard Little League, Red Cross Gallon Club, and "taxi driver" for Brownies and Cub Scouts.

State School Open House Dated May 1

"Open House" is being arranged at the Columbus State School for Sunday, May 1.

Entertainment will be provided by the Columbus State School Chorus and Band. Exhibits will be used to illustrate the training and treatment program. Most buildings will be open to the public. Guided tours will be from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m.

Officials urge citizens to avail themselves of the opportunity to become better acquainted with the program of the State School and see what is being done in the care and training of the mentally deficient throughout the state.

Sixteen Staffers Say '61 School 'Shield' Should Shine

Barbara Pursell and Susan Stroback, Eastmoor juniors, have been chosen yearbook co-editors of the 1961 "Shield." Other editorial assignments announced by Mrs. Hicks, "Shield" adviser, were Janet Gray, Mike Kohar and Connie Rau, lay-out; Carolyn Farkas and Donna Sowalsky, picture editing; Carol Denner and Sharon Reich, copywriting; Marilyn Renick, art editor and Mary Lou Case, index editor.

Pat Bussard, a junior, was elected president of the Hi-Y Club for next year. She was chosen at the April meeting of the club. Other new officers elected were Tim McCool, vice-president; Mike Kristy, secretary; Ben Rose, treasurer, and Kenny Davis, chaplain. The boys were chosen by Hi-Y members on the basis of their past service in the club.

Steven Papier, an eighth grader, was awarded second prize for his art display in a contest for Junior High students at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts. Steven was awarded a scholarship to the Columbus Art School. Phil Wilson, James Clark, and Lynn Balthaser also submitted outstanding art work.

The Senior Y-Teens brought Easter cheer to a group of patients at Children's Hospital last Thursday. Diane Ortlepp read a story to the children; Doris Wimer sang a selection of Easters songs, and Karen Smith, in her Easter Bunny costume, brought smiles to many faces.

After the program, the Y-Teens talked individually with the patients.

Kay Johnston was chairman of the service projects. Other girls participating were Mary Heffron, Cindy Husted, Betty Miller, Linda George, Carolyn Farkas, Sharon Smith, Barbara Moltenberry and adviser Miss Casey.

Several tombstones, in the form of crosses, were seen in front of Eastmoor last week. Nobody died. Student Council, in sponsoring "Safety Week" was showing the consequences of unsafe driving.

To further show the importance of safety on the highways, a display of forty pictures taken at the scene of highway tragedies was put in the main showcase. A questionnaire in which students could test their knowledge of highway rules and signs, and reminders such as "Drive Safely, It Doesn't Hurt to Be Different," were put throughout the school.

Miss Lincoln, Eastmoor Latin teacher, will give a monologue in Latin at the Columbus Latin Club luncheon meeting Saturday at the Fort Hayes Hotel. The monologue is entitled "Excerps from a Psychiatrist's Nnotebook: The Case of Cupid."

The annual National Honor Society assembly will be held next Wednesday. Seniors who have achieved a 3.2 average or better, and have shown outstanding character, leadership ability, or service are candidates for membership in the honor society. In honor of the occasion, Student Council has planned Senior Dress-Up for Wednesday.

Eastmoor's tennis team defeated Academy 3-2 last week in the first game of the season. John Braulick, John Matera and Ken LeMasters won the singles division. Other team members are Denny Tishkoff, Homer McKnight, Stuart Israel, Jim Hawk, Steve Zwelling, Bob Nacdimen, Ron Rice and Gil Feirtag.

In a triangular track meet at Eastmoor last Thursday, Gahanna Lincoln racked up 83 points while Eastmoor took 45. Franklin Heights trailed with only 19 points.

The junior high baseball squad remains undefeated after trouncing Hilltonia, 12-0, Tuesday. On the same day, the senior swatters were defeated, 8-5, by Aquinas.

The track squad will participate in the Gahanna relays on Saturday. Other schools entered in the event are Rosary, Whitehall and Mifflin. The first event will go to the starting line at 6:30 p.m.

CITY CHARTER REVISION NEEDED NOW!

Chances are that unless a concerted effort is made to the counterwise, all the money, effort and time spent toward revising the city charter will go down the drain.

We think this would be a serious and costly mistake.

Kept from the ballot last year because some feared the effect that it might wield at a general election upon candidates seeking public office, the impetus for a revision of the charter appears to be gradually grinding to a halt.

The need for a revised charter is clear. The present charter is long, long out of date.

Months of stymied legislation coupled with political bickering pointed out the need for a better method of filling vacated council seats.

The dynamic growth of Columbus over the past 10 years, in itself, pinpoints the need for a modern streamlined form of government.

The public feeling toward district representation on city council needs some serious review and consideration.

A charter commission, appointed by the former mayor, spent much time formulating changes which it thought would strengthen the governmental structure of the city. Surely these men had some ideas worth weighty thought.

City Council appropriated a good sum for consultants to study the present charter and recommend changes. Surely council realized the need for changes before making the money available for the study.

It is common sense that the city charter should be studied and revised.

Submission of a section or two as a piecemeal attempt to patch-up the inadequaces of the present charter is not the answer. The need now is for a new charter tailored to meet the needs of an expanding Columbus in a changing time.

We believe that every effort should be made to place a new charter on the November general election ballot.

This is possible. Recommendations of the recent charter commission are already available. Council could quickly make any changes which would appear appropriate.

A revised charter as soon as possible is a vital need of Columbus. A concerted drive in that direction is urgently needed today.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Jesus Drew Young Men Around Him

When we speak of "The Twelve" it is always of the inner circle of disciples. Jesus gathered them to Himself and gave them the commission that was to transform them from fishermen and others of humble life into religious leaders and founders—among the most notable men of all time.

We call them "The Twelve" even though one of them, Judas, turned out to be a traitor, and others lapsed into comparative obscurity. But all the 11 faithful were true followers of their Master.

One aspect of the apostles not commonly known is that like Jesus, they were young men.

John the Baptist, also was a young man, though, for some reason, many think of him as a sort of patriarch.

One thing is certain, the early Christian movement was a youth movement. It was earnest and impassioned young men who rallied to Jesus.

What motivated them? The record does not make it clear. They were evidently drawn by the Master's personality and teaching; but it seems obvious that they anticipated His setting up an earthly kingdom in which they were to have a special part.

How much their zeal was of youthful patriotism against Roman dominance and how much of it was religious does not appear in the passages of the Bible.

However, the youthful Twelve soon became the leaders of the greatest revolution of all time. Their hope of an earthly kingdom became transformed into the construction of the Kingdom not of this world.

That these youthful men, through Jesus, became the greatest founders of all time is the miracle of history.

Social Security Urges Filing Of Household Help

More than 100,000 housewives throughout the country may be violating the social security laws by not reporting the wages they pay their household help, according to officials of the Social Security Administration.

Many household employes are still not being reported for social security by their employers, although their cash wages from each employer may amount to well over $50 in a three-month period.

Some employers may not understand their responsibilities under the law. As little pay as $4 a week amounts to more than $50 in a quarter. Also, some household employes may have asked their employers not to file the returns because they do not want to have their share of the social security tax taken out of their pay.

If not detected by the Internal Revenue Service through routine enforcement procedures, employers who are not filing reports may later be called for a reckoning. This could happen when a worker applies to her social security office for retirement or disability benefits, or when a survivor of a worker applies for social security benefits after the worker's death.

Wildlife Subject Of 4-H Project

Wildlife production is the subject of a new 4-H Club project just released. Its purpose is to develop suitable food and cover plantings which will promote the natural production of wildlife native to the area.

Preliminary work in developing the project has been done in Franklin County under the supervision of Jim Mills, County 4-H Club Agent, co-author of the book with R. K. Davis, Extension Wildlife Specilist.

The authors suggest that many farms have certain odd areas such as ditch banks, turnrows, woodlot edges, etc., which although not suitable for cropland could produce a wildlife crop.

Agricultural Marketing Service researchers expect both cotton and leather to continue to play a large role in the manufacture of shoes. But they also expect both products to face stiff competition from rubber and synthetics.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods—Canned hams, frozen fish sticks, rib end loin roasts, chuck roasts, fryers, large eggs, cheese.

Vegetables—Asparagus, broccoli, cabbage, lettuce, frozen spinach.

QUICK AND EASY MEALS BEGIN AT THE MARKET

Saving time and energy on meal preparation is important to homemakers with crowded schedules. For example, if you are among the ones who will be ringing doorbells next week for the CRUSADE ON CANCER, saving energy for this job is important. You will want to start your work feeling rested and refreshed. Perhaps the secret is to do your food marketing with quick and easy meals in mind. If the meat dish is hardest for you to plan, here are some suggestions:

• CANNED BONELESS HAM—The abundant supply of all sizes keeps the price tags low. Usually fully cooked—easy to serve cold or heated. Plan on four or five servings per pound.

• FROZEN FISH STICKS—also in plentiful supply, and need only a few minutes in the oven on a piece of foil. The ones with the least amount of breading are the best buy.

GROUND BEEF — always economical and well liked. Save time by shaping into patties when you unwrap it.

• ASSORTMENT OF CHEESES on hand will fill the bill for sandwiches and snacks. Select some sliced and some for cubing. Include cottage cheese for easy salads.

• EGGS—have plenty on hand. They're good for any meal. Have some hard cooked ones in the refrigerator for snacks and quick salad making.

• MILK—with a good supply of milk in the refrigerator either hot or cold beverages are a cinch to make. Remember a box of chocolate or cocoa mix.

HAVE THE SALAD GREENS WASHED AND READY

On busy days you can rely on frozen and canned vegetables to save time. However, you need not skip salads, if you have plenty of salad greens such as lettuce, escarole, endive and spinach washed and refrigerated in plastic bags all ready to use. Combine any of these for a tossed salad, or use them with canned drained fruit topped with cottage cheese.

Fruits—Two good selections are bananas and frozen orange concentrate. Both are being featured in most stores. And remember canned fruits for easy desserts—pears, apricots, peaches and purple plums are especially good buys.

Here is a suggestion for dinner that can be prepared with little effort and you'll have only one pan to wash when dinner is over. Use foil in the oven for baking potatoes and the fish sticks. Wrap the bread in foil for heating.

Menu

Frozen fish sticks — Chili sauce
Baked Idahoes — Sour Cream with Chives
Buttered Frozen Peas
Pumperickel Bread (heated) — Peach Jam
Ice Cream with Frozen Strawberries

Just How Cold Was March, this year?

Look at the record...

It was an unusually cold March this year.

But HOW COLD?

Gas Company weather records show that March, 1960, was 33 per cent colder than March, 1959.

March, 1960, was the coldest on record since 1878.

This year, March was much colder than February, which is normally the coldest month of the year.

No doubt you used much more gas to heat your home during March, 1960, than you did a year ago — or for any March you may remember.

To meet such demands, your Gas Company has developed a precisely engineered delivery system of pipelines, compressor stations, and underground storage areas, where gas is stored in summer for use in winter.

All the natural gas you wanted was available this winter, and almost half of it came from underground storage, one of the big reasons why so many people in Ohio can have gas heat for their homes — no matter when the cold weather comes.

New Route Relocation Causes Stir

From all indications, it looks as if the Rt. 62 proposed relocation, between Columbus and Gahanna, might end up in the courts.

At an Ohio Department of Highways' public hearing last Thursday (Apr. 7), officials said that the proposed relocated highway would run through the southeast corner of the College of St. Mary of the Springs campus.

College officials said they would use every procedure available "even to enjoining the state" to protect the school's interest.

W. Ray Speer, Columbus attorney representing the school, said the highway would become a public issue if the highway department does not change the proposed routing.

The $3.5 million project is approximately 4½ miles in length, from Nelson and Johnstown-rds, in Columbus, to Mill and Granville-sts, in Gahanna, and will add new bridges over Alum and Big Walnut creeks.

Rev. Fr. M. Bauer, St. Mary of the Springs chaplain, said "the state has no regard for things beautiful or historical in the building of its highways".

A good garden soil contains about 50 percent solid particles and about 50 percent pore spaces, say Ohio State University Extension floriculturists.

OAGC Will Hold Regional Meet At Chillicothe Apr. 26

Area Garden Clubs of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs will attend the spring regional meeting Tuesday, Apr. 26 at the EUB Church, 573 E. Main-st, Chillicothe.

Registration will start at 9 a.m. General chairman will be Mrs. Curtis Rader, 67 S. Renich-av, Chillicothe.

Deadline for luncheon reservations will be Friday, Apr. 22, and should be made with Mrs. Rader.

Presiding at the business meeting will be Mrs. Frank E. Smith of Groveport, director, Region 9.

Presenting the morning program will be Marvin C. Carbonneau, extension specialist, Floriculture - Ornamental Horticulture, OSU.

Mrs. Charles Nelson, of Dayton will give a flower arranging demonstration in the afternoon. She is former regional director, Region 4.

Nature Tours

Ohio Association of Garden Clubs will hold a nature tour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Craig, of Goshen, Saturday, Apr. 23.

Trees will be the subject of study and the leader will be William Culbertson of Middletown.

Goshen is located on Route 28, east of Cincinnati.

Another tour will be held at Dawes Arboretum, Route 13, near Newark, Sunday, May 15.

Prof. Lee Walp, Marietta College, will lead this group.

Registration time is 10 a.m. each day. Those who attend are asked to bring lunch.

CCL Conference Date Set April 30 At Youth Center

Central District of Childhood Conservation League will hold it's spring conference Saturday, Apr. 30 at the Youth Center, Ohio State Fairgrounds.

The 88 leagues of the Columbus Federation will be hosts.

Theme of the conference will be "Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow".

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m., followed by the morning session at 9:30, and workshops at 10:30.

Luncheon will be served at noon.

Dr. Otis Maxfield will speak at the afternoon session on "Take Your Parent's Seriously." There will be special music by "The Sweet Adelines."

ANNUAL DINNER DATE ARRANGED BY ASWA GROUP

Columbus Chapter, American Society of Women Accountants will hold its annual public relations dinner, Wednesday, Apr. 20, 6:30 p.m. in the Gold Room of the Pick-Fort Hayes Hotel.

This is the social event of the year for the organization with members' employers among the guests.

Speaker will be Francis P. Cotter of Pittsburgh, Pa., Executive Assistant to the vice-president, Atomic Power Division, Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Committee includes Mrs. M. C. Neilsen, 4897 Annhurst-rd, general chairman; Miss Opal Rollins, 1457 Fairwood-av; Mrs. Evelyn Stephenson, 1289 Avondale-av; Miss Esther Wilhelm, 859 Thomas-av; Mrs. Elmer Grossman, 3457 Glenna-av, Grove City, and Miss Norma Myers, 44 Burr Oak-dr, Grove City.

Gold Stars Arrange Anniversary Program

A casserole dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., and Gold Star fathers, friends and nearby chapters are invited.

Mrs. E. H. Bartlett, 1844 Eddystone-av, is president.

SELF-CONSCIOUS

A Chattanooga housewife resigned her census taker's job because "I simply couldn't bring myself to ask my neighbors all those prying questions."

Mission Guilds To Stage Wine Fashion Festival

Hundreds of spring be-decked women will be thronging to Ilonka's Provincial House Monday, May 2, at noon for an exciting different affair.

Saints Peter and Paul Mission Seminary Guilds I, II, and XI will sponsor a Wine Fashion Festival. The event will get underway with a sherry hour preceeding the luncheon.

Elegant mauve and lavender invitations centered with a cluster of grapes and a tilted goblet spilling a stream of internationally known couturiers are on their way.

Highlight of the afternoon will be the showing of the spring 1960 DuPont collection by Cole of Columbus.

Mrs. Tom Gleba will act as commentator.

The show will feature original fashions by Dior, LaRoche, Ricci, Belenciaga, Chanel and numerous others. American adaptations of these creations will also be shown.

The vineyard motif will set the mood for the color scheme-mauve and lavender—and for the decorations. Champagne goblets with wine colored roses will serve as centerpieces, and clusters of grapes will hang from vines and arbors.

The Guilds were formed in 1957 to help a small group of newly-arrived missionaries of Sts. Peter and Paul, then located in the former Berry residence at 324 E. N. Broadway. The Guilds were able to raise sufficient funds to enable the Fathers to move into their new quarters, Sts. Peter and Paul Seminary in Hebron.

Area women participating in the Fashion Festival are Mrs. Nick E. Gianantonio, chairman Guild II, 2454 Brookwood-rd; Mrs. Thomas Bowman, 2835 Schaaf-dr; Mrs. Dominic Cenci, 2858 Fair-av; Mrs. Nick Cenci, 85 S. Drexel-av; Mrs. Vincent Cenci, 114 N. Merkle-rd.

Mrs. Carmen DeJohn, 216 S. Hampton-rd; Mrs. Samuel Ferroni, 262 Carpenter-rd, Gahanna; Mrs. Joseph Magnell, 816 Seymour-av; Mrs. John Mangia, 381 Westphal-av; Mrs. Angelo Rosati, 507 Enfield-rd.

Mrs. Richard Watts, 365 Westphal-av; Mrs. Josephine Gattone, 2406 Beverly-pl; and Mrs. Alice Whittaker, 1469 Brydenrd; Mrs. Gusty Macioce, 1742 S. Fifth-st.

Miss Lilda Delewese, 3366 Trabue-rd is president of the Guilds. Mrs. Dora Gelonese, 3366 Trabue-rd is Guild treasurer, and Mrs. Anthony Fudoli, 3155 Vandenberg, is in charge of Guild organizing.

'TABLE TOPIC TEA' IS DATED APR. 27 BY ALPHA PHI UNIT

Columbus Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi will sponsor the "Table Topic Tea," annual table decorating competition Wednesday, Apr. 27, 3 to 4 p.m. at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

The event is open to all women's organizations in the Columbus area. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will benefit Alpha Phi cardiac aid in Franklin County and the Alpha Phi Rho Chapter building fund.

Following the table judging, participating groups may, if they desire, sell their decorations. Proceeds will benefit their own organizations.

Any organization wishing to enter the competition may contact Mrs. Gene W. Thompson for table reservations and tickets.

Mothers Of Twins Will Hear Speaker

Dr. E. V. Turner will address the Columbus unit of Ohio Federation of Mothers of Twins Thursday, Apr. 21, 8 p.m., when it meets at the home of Mrs. Robert Evans, 90 E. Longview.

Mrs. Harold Steele is assistant hostess.

Members will bring items for the preparation of a gift for State Hospital patients.

Following the annual business meeting, election of new officers will be held.

Classified ads don't cost they pay dividends.

Wilson Mothers Club Plans Auction At Meet

Bexley High School LION'S ROAR

By Glenda Schattenstein

'Torch' Newspaper Staff Named For 1960-61 Edition

Karen Mercer and Jeff Schwartz will co-edit the 1960-61 edition of the "Torch," Bexley High School's newspaper.

Dave Japikse will be the photorapher, and Diane Handler will serve as head typist.

Members of the business staff are Mike Friedman, manager; Lyan Grundstein, advertising manager; Steve Gallen and Carol Miley.

A cub staff has been chosen in addition to the regular staff.

"Cub staff members are students still in the process of learning and gaining journalistic experience," said Mrs. Sara Amos, "Torch" advisor.

George Kienzle, director of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University, will be the guest speaker at the Bexley journalism banquet on Apr. 25 at the Willard Restaurant.

The banquet, which is being held for the first time this year, will be attended by 80 members of the school yearbook and newspaper staffs.

During the banquet Quill and Scroll, honorary journalism awards, will be presented to staff members.

Awards for the best newspaper stories will be made. Mr. Kienzle will select these stories and present the awards.

Man Won't Lose Sight From Blast

Pfc. Earl H. Jenkins, 20, of 354 Wilson-av, was told by the Army in Seoul, Korea, recently that he will not lose his eyesight.

Jenkins' face was burned in an explosion April 7.

His 19-year-old wife, Mary, said that she received a telegram informing her of the accident. Her husband received second and third-degree burns on the face when he accidentally tossed a lighted cigarette into a can of magnesium powder. It was at first feared his eyesight would be impaired, army medical authorities said.

Spring Sports Featured At Open House

The East Columbus Recreation Center held contests in kite flying, marbles, rope jumping, and creation of Easter bonnets at its open house last week.

Jerry Speakman won first for flying his kite the highest; Bob Eisnicher had the fastest flying kite in the contest.

TO ATTEND BANQUET

Alfred A. Long, 7168 E. Broad-st, Blacklick, has been invited to attend the Ohio Fuel Gas Company's Central Quarter Century Club banquet, honoring long-time employees at the Neil House, May 16. Long is a retired employee.

EGG HUNT PRIZE WINNERS NAMED

First Practice Tryouts Slated For Whitehall Baseballers

Despite earlier predicitions that lack of parent interest would slow this summer's program to a walk, officials of the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association have decided to hold the first practice tryouts at 9 a.m. Saturday, Apr. 23 at the Etna Road School.

"It is hoped that the sessions will finally attract enough adults to help in pointing the first steps of the program to completion, stated Henry J. Maxfield, WBBA president.

June 4, the date set for the season's first game, is the deadline for completing the new nine acre park necessary to accommodate some 600 boys between eight and 15 years of age, who will want to play this year.

The park, which is at Rosemore School, just in back of Swimland, will, if completed, consist of six diamonds with regulation sized backstops.

For the past several months a few volunteers have worked on the project, which is still far enough from completion to pose an obviously strong threat to the Association's hopes for building up to 30 teams this summer, Maxfield said.

"It was felt by officials, however, that with the season's usually quickening interest in baseball, a good many parents will be out to see the youngsters practice and thus acquaint themselves more thoroughly with the program and the part they must play to insure its success," he stated.

Church League Plan Meet Set

Chris Dean, who is presently the president of the Whitehall Church Softball League, has announced a meeting for Thursday, Apr. 21, at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the Faith Lutheran Church.

"We will discuss plans for a slow-pitch," Dean said, "and all churches interested in participating are welcome to attend."

Keys Boost Morale, Raise Funds

"Keys do a wonderful thing. I don't know what we did before they were started."

These are the words of Mrs. Mary Youmans, one of the multiple sclerosis patients of Key 7. This Key is one of 25 such groups in the county, which aid these patients. A Key is a group of women who aid and encourage patients afflicted with this problem. There are 25 such Keys in the county.

The members of Key Seven said mutiple sclerosis effects the central nervous system and causes a lack of coordination, lack of balance, and blurred vision.

The Key encourages the patients by visiting them and talking with them on the telephone, and raises money for their needs and for research by the Key headquarters.

Key 7, in the past year, raised funds by means of a bake sale, a toy party and by selling dishes. They also have a gift raffle at every monthly meeting.

One of the favorite recent projects was a cookbook which the members compiled and are selling. The book, dedicated to Mrs. Youmans: contains the favorite recipes of each of the members.

The Keys combine some of their funds to undertake projects which are too large for the individual groups. Last Christmas, they finished an upstairs room for one of the patients who had a large family. The family was living in four small rooms.

Key 7, composed of women from Edgewater Park, Groveport, Canal Winchester, Columbus, and Whitehall has three patients: Mrs. Youmans, 2921 E. Livingston, Columbus, Mrs. Ruth Haines, 199 Woodlawn, Grove City, and Donald Lambert, 792 Jaeger.

Mrs. Youmans was the Key's first patient when they began three years ago. The other two patients have been adopted in the past year.

Mrs. Youmans, who recently became a grandmother, said that being a morale booster is the most wonderful thing the group does. She enjoys knowing they are "interested in me and my problems, and would come if needed." They also bring her outside interests.

The affable lady, with a fine sense of humor, has had multiple sclerosis since her two children were small. She believes if you can keep your sense of humor "it helps a lot." She said "find anything to laugh at."

She had one message for other patients, "Don't ever give up." She said it was the type of disease in which any lapse is three times as difficult to regain. She said "I have been very fortunate to stay ahead of it."

The members of the club feel they received as great a reward from their efforts as the patients. Mrs. William McCracken said "Everytime we feel bad we call Mary. We feel so much better when we finish talking to her."

Woman Dies, One Critical, In Car Crash

One woman died and another was critically injured Wednesday in a two-car collision at Eastmoor-blvd. and E. Mound.

Dead is Glenna Schimel, 575 Eastmoor-blvd, and Sue Miller, 24, 118 Oliver-st, was still on the critical list at Lincoln Memorial Hospital Thursday.

The force of the impact sent the Miller car careening into the Charles Siple house at 3006 E. Mound-st while the Schimel car spun around in the intersection. Mrs. Schimel was apparently thrown from the car.

According to police and witnesses, Mrs. Schimel was northbound on Eastmoor-blvd and the Miller car eastbound on Mound-st. The intersection is unmarked.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Schimel suffered a possible neck fracture and a possible leg fracture. Death occurred early Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Miller suffered a possible skull fracture and leg fracture.

Charles Skillman Named Mountain School Grad

First Lt. Charles S. Skillman, Jr., 24, whose parents live at 2858 Astor-av, recently was graduated from the Cold Weather and Mountain School at Ft. Greely, Alaska, the Army's northernmost fort.

Lt. Skillman is regularly stationed at Eielson Air Force Base, Alaska, as a platoon leader in Headquarters Company of the 9th Infantry.

Census Takers To Track Down 'Floaters' April 22

Squads of picked crew leaders and census takers will fan out over this area on the night of Apr. 22 in a special 1960 Census drive to count persons who do not have a fixed address, District Supervisor W. B. Marshall said today.

The census takers will visit missions, all-night theaters, and city parks in this special effort to make sure that all residents of the area are counted.

Marshall pointed out that under law, all persons 18 years old and over are required to answer official Census questions.

Warmer Water Sharpens Fish Appetites

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Crappies have been hitting at Hoover Reservoir for a couple of weeks, but it's still "early in the season" for most anglers. It is difficult though to resist the urge to limber up the old casting arm, and as the lays warm, more of us will be out.

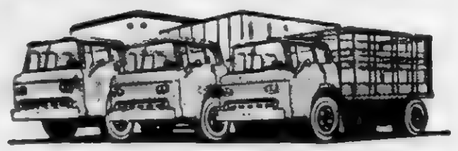
Water temperature is the thing to watch if you're prone to rush the season a little. Do not expect much bass action until the water temperature has reached the mid-50's. Bullheads and crappies, of course, start earlier, and the bluegills later.

Temperature is not the only thing to watch when fishing. You've got to understand fish a little, too. If you have a good catch when the water is 57 degrees, on a bright, windless day this spring, don't expect to duplicate it next fall when the water returns to 57. Bass are lean and hungry in the spring, and are gobbling up calories wholesale. Next fall fish will be fat and sassy, and will have a more discriminating palate.

The warm rays of spring sunshine rouse fish, especially bass, from the "sleepy" condition they have been in all winter. The part temperature plays in early fishing is to sharpen fish appetites. Expert anglers start fishing in waters that warm earliest—small ponds and streams, or shallow, protected bays of larger lakes. They often fish in 18 inches, or less, of water. Water temperature in these areas is substantially higher, and the fish soon find it.

You will sometimes locate bass in schools at this time, and it has not been explained to my complete satisfaction why this is so. Bass cannot be called "school fish," as are crappies, perch and blue gills. But when you find them cruising the shallows, look out—a rare treat is in store.

Mid-Day Fishing Best Now



The importance of water temperature in early fishing is brought out by the fact that fishing is hottest during the middle of the day. Once the season gets along, you can fish anytime. Early morning and at dusk are favorite times for many anglers, but right now high noon is best. Also, a cloudy, overcast day is fine later on, but for the next two or three weeks you can catch more on a sunny day.

If you're going to bring home the first stringer of bass in your neighborhood, you will have to work your lures slowly, or perhaps use live bait. Artificial night crawlers do a magnificent job of imitating the real thing. Whatever you use, however, must be worked at a snail's pace to entice bass to hit.

Early fishing is similar to fishing at other seasons in that it takes know-how plus some luck thrown in. The rewards of the season-jumpers are great, for after a long, hard winter they catch the first fish of the year.

TV's mobile unit will be waiting to feed it over the network. This will be telecast on May 6.

WBNS-TV has scheduled a film on Playhouse 90, Friday, Apr. 22 at 9 p.m. "Journey Into Day," a drama about mental health. Mike Nichols and Elaine May will make their dramatic television debuts, on the program.

Bob Hope will appear as the featured performer in a show sponsored by Ohio Staters, Inc. The program is scheduled at St. John's Arena on Friday, Apr. 22 at 8:30 p.m.

Appearing with Hope will be the Carl DeMarco Orchestra, The Heartbreakers, a feminine vocalist and Bobby Monahan.

Tickets are on sale at St. John Ticket Office daily except Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and to noon on Saturday.

State Fair Will Honor Exhibitors

A move is underway to honor all persons who exhibited livestock at the Ohio State Fair for 25 years or more. Those selected will be honored at a special breakfast during the 1960 State Fair where they will be given gold medallions in honor of their contribution.

State Fair Manager Rowland Bishop said, "we have formed a Quarter Century Club for livestock exhibitors because we think it's time somebody did something to honor the people who have made the Ohio State Fair the world's number one livestock show. It's our way of saying thank you."

Breed associations are being contacted for the names of members who have shown livestock for a quarter century or more at the State Fair. Anyone not affiliated with a breed association but qualified for this honor, should contact E. J. Keirns, assistant Fair manager in charge of livestock at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus.

Parents, take a tip from the Safety Council of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, and keep all medicines, insecticides, and any possibly harmful substance out of the reach of children. By making your poisons child-proof you'll make your children poison-proof.

Several Cancer Programs To Be Televised This Week

Local television and radio stations, working with the American Cancer Society in an effort to combat the deadly disease, will conduct several programs in connection with Cancer Control Month that is being held across the nation this month. The Society has established Tuesday, Apr. 26, as Cancer Control Day.

Highlighting the research phase of the Cancer Society's three-point program—Research, Education and Service. This half-hour motion picture will be shown over WLW-C Sunday, Apr. 24 at 12 noon. It is titled "Off the Shelf." Dr. Emmerich Von Haam, chairman of the Institutional Research Grant Committee at Ohio State University will introduce the program.

"Biography of a Cancer," a film record of the recent operation performed on Dr. Thomas Dooley, will be the subject of an hour-long program over WBNS-TV. The program is scheduled for Thursday, Apr. 21 at 10 p.m.

WBNS Radio's Betty Newton Show will salute Cancer Control Month Friday, Apr. 22 at 9:45 a.m., by interviewing special guests.

WVKO will interview Mike Peppe, Crusade Chairman for the Franklin County Chapter of the Society. He will be a guest in Club Time with Anne Folmer, Thursday, Apr. 21 at 9:50 a.m.

Program highlights over Columbus' three TV stations will be Vol. III Report No. 5 on Journey to Understading over WLW-C on Friday, Apr. 22 at 7:30 p.m. The program will highlight the recent visit of Pres. Charles DeGaulle to the nation's capital. On Saturday, Apr. 23 at 2:25 p.m. Major League Baseball will be televised with St. Louis Cardinals going against the Los Angeles Dodgers on the Cardinals home field, Busch Stadium.

On Apr. 27 at 10 p.m. WTVN-TV will feature a special program on Invitation to Paris. The hour-long program will feature famous French Stars. The program titled, "The City of Light," will offer gay Parisian scenes.

The wedding of Princess Margaret and London photographer Anthony Armstrong-Jones in Westminister Abbey, London, will be video tape recording it will be flown directly to New York for telecast at New York's Idewild Airport where ABC-

Big Canine 'League of Nations' Will Draw Crowd Next Sunday

SOPHISTICATED SCHNAUSER—This perky fellow will be among hundreds of dogs that will be seen at their Sunday best all day Apr. 24, at the benefit All-Breed Show and Obedience Trial, Veterans Memorial.

Taking the family to a superduper dog show at Columbus Veterans Memorial, Sunday, Apr. 24, will be leisure time well spent, the Central Ohio Kennel Club promises.

It's their 17th annual All-Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trial. Every year a major part of the proceeds is directed to a charity. This year the Franklin County April Crusade for Cancer will benefit.

A veritable "Canine League of Nations" will be at their Sunday best, said Mrs. Mary Selleck, publicity director. Among entries will be English Toy Spaniels, Italian Greyhounds, Malteses, Newfoundlands, Irish Setters, German Pointers, Pyrancees from Spain. Great Danes. Afghan Hounds, Basenjis, Poodles, Dalmatians and Chihuahuas.

Show hours are 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. More than 900 dogs from all over the nation will compete in six classes for trophies and prizes. Some of the fancier pooches are insured for as high as $75,000, Mrs. Selleck said.

Schooled Dogs Will Show

A special attraction will be demonstrations by the well-traind and well-mannered graduates of the Columbus All-Breed Training Club—dogs that "baby-sit," follow every command and almost speak.

Admission will be 90 cents for adults, 25 cents for children under 12. Hot foods and beverages will be available. Tickets may be purchased at the box office, 300 W. Broad-st.

Following is a list of dog owners in the Hartley Newspapers areas who have entries:

EAST—Miss Joyce Alspach, 2680 Wellesley-rd, collies; Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood, 3981 E. Main-st, poodles; William Ashton, 4647 E. Main-st, Professional handler.

WHITEHALL — Mrs. Lillian Enis, 4647 E. Main-st, Great Danes.

RURAL EAST—Mrs. Albert Greene, 420 McNaughten-rd, poodles; Mr. and Mrs. John Binns, RFD No. 3, Pataskala; Mrs. Edith Rankin, 6810 Clark-st, Blacklick.

SOUTH—Mrs. Carl Bowen, 49 E. Sycamore-st, Great Danes; Mrs. William J. Butler, 4525 Lockbourne-rd, Shetland sheep dogs; Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGuire, 315 Donaldson-st, cocker spaniels.

WEST—Miss Louise Ackerman, 4396 Bright-rd.

Park Visitors In Evidence

Ohio's millions of park visitors start to hit the road, for the most part, about the time Easter lilies bloom, according to V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Ohio Division of Parks.

"Interest is already stirring in people to get outdoors, and except for a few roads that are too soft to use, state parks are ready for visitors," he says.

Housekeeping cabins opened April 1, and the sleeping cabins and lodge at Lake Hope State Park, Vinton County, will open May 1. A few picnic tables were left out all winter for hardy visitors, and the rest are being placed now.

109 New TB Cases Found This Season

A total of 109 new cases of tuberculosis were recorded during the first quarter of 1960, according to the Tuberculosis Controller's office. Of these 45 were active, 23 primary active, 10 questionably active, 27 inactive and four non-pulmonary.

During the same period there were 13 TB deaths, compared with seven for the first three months last year.

The new cases of TB recorded in 1960 represent an 11% increase over new cases for the first quarter of 1959.

As of March 31 the tuberculosis case register was carrying 1,548 cases, 249 of them active.

So far this year more than 64% of all active pulmonary cases are in the moderately or far advanced stages.

Of the actives, 214 are from from Columbus, 29 from county localities, two Bexley, three Grandview, and one from Upper Arlington.

Game Bird Census Survey Underway Throughout State

Ohio's game birds have a a right to feel self-conscious now. They are being observed as they sound off during their mating seasons.

Game management men throughout the state are busy censusing breeding populations of many Buckeye game species, reports Eugene Knoder, acting supervisor of game production and investigations, Ohio Division of Wildlife

In the case of Ohio game birds, without exception, they are enumerated by counting the mating calls they utter per minute.

One of the earliest of these counts is the woodcock singing ground count already in progress. Game men stop at four-tenth mile intervals on census routes where they listen for two minutes to record all woodcock calls. The trend in the total number of calls per route from year to year indicates the size of the breeding woodcock population.

On April 1, the mourning dove count was started. This census will extend through Oct. 25, the longest of all game bird inventories. Reason for the long census is the fact that mourning doves raise several broods a year and game technicians are trying to determine the time when breeding stops. Census workers stop at one-mile intervals and listen for three minutes at each stop.

In the wooded hill country of eastern Ohio, the game men were all ears for the sound of drumming ruffed grouse Monday. They listen for four minutes at one-mile intervals on routes running through the forested regions. This census extends through April 30.

These field men will also be tuned in for the gobbling of turkey toms during this same period and under the same conditions. The turkey count is limited to areas where these birds have been released in an attempt to restore them to the game list in Ohio.

The rinkneck pheasant, Ohio's most important game bird number wise came in for its share of attention beginning Apr. 15. The pheasant crowing cock count lasts through June 10. Stops are one mile apart and listening interval is two minutes.

The bobwhite quail call will ed listened to from June 8 to July 20, also at one-mile intervals and for two minutes per stop. Reason for the lateness of the count, compared to other species, is the fact that quail nest later.

All of these census routes are run beginning at dawn and lasting for about one hour, as early in the morning is the time when the birds are most active vocally. Each species is censused in selected counties or the areas where it is most common for the sake of efficiency.

This breeding population information, when considered with other census information gathered throughout the summer and early fall months, is useful in helping to set hunting seasons. Facts gathered on these routes are the key to sound seasons and better hunting.

Poisoned Eggs Are Gobbled Up

About a dozen poisoned eggs, hidden in the woods around Lockbourne Air Force Base, are missing.

The only possible trace to any of the eggs is a dead weasel. What happened to the others is still a mystery.

But Base officials are hoping that skunks have eaten the marked eggs and returned to their holes before dying.

LOCAL YOUTHS JOIN PRO—Rafael Mendez, international known trumpet virtuoso, will be guest soloist with the Eastmoor High School concert band Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 2 and 3, at 8 p.m. Ken Stickrod, senior, left, and Eric Snider, junior, have been selected to appear with Mendez in a trumpet trio entitled "Flirtations of a Trumpeter."

Hollywood Trumpet Virtuoso Joins Eastmoor Band For Concert

Rafael Mendez, trumpet virtuoso, will join the Eastmoor High School concert band in presenting "An Evening with Mendez" musical program Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3, at 8 p.m. at the school.

Many Columbus people may remember Mendez as the musical director and soloist with the Roy Rogers Show at last summer's Ohio State Fair. Several weeks later he was a guest on the Dinah Shore Show.

For many years Mendez has been a well-known trumpeter in Hollywood, providing the musical scores behind many top movies.

He has appeared with such personalities as Red Skelton, Ed Sullivan, Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante, Bing Crosby and Art Linkletter.

Mendez was with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios for seven years and has worked on films for Universal-International, Warner Brothers and Walt Disney Productions.

Another feature of the concerts will be the presentation of Ted Turner's newest composition for band. Turner, director of instrumental music at East High School, has composed and directed much of the music heard at the annual PTA Festival of Music.

The concert program will include "Amparito, Roco," by Texidor; "Manx Overture," by Wood; "Juarez," by Mendez, "Czardas," by Monti-Mendez; "Habanera," by Bizet-Mendez; "Totem Pole," Osterling; "Fandango," by Perkins; "Waltz" by Turner; "Flirtations of a Trumpeter," by Mendez, and "Mendez Jota" by Mendez.

Tickets will be $1.25 and may be purchased from any band member or at the school.

RAFAEL MENDEZ—Eastmoor's concert band will be joined by Rafael Mendez in special concerts at the school May 2 and 3, 8 p.m. Tickets will be $1.25 and may be purchased from any band member or at the school. Interested persons may contact Jerry Kaye, Eastmoor's music director, at BE. 1-0605.

Senior Citizens Still Have Tickets For Trip To 'D.C.'

A few tickets are still available for anyone wishing to accompany a group of older folks on a three-day sight seeing trip to Washington, D.C.

The excursion, sponsored by the Senior Citizens Center, will leave Monday night, April 25, and return on the 28th. Cost of transportation and rooms will be $35. Meals are not included.

For further information call CA. 1-6090 and ask for Mrs. Fowler.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS' PROJECT

Mayor Proclaims 'Blue Daisy Days'

Mayor Ralston Westlake has proclaimed Friday and Saturday, Apr. 22 and 23, "Blue Daisy Day", in Columbus.

Annual sale of the Blue Daisy will be held by local members ofthe Blue Star Mothers of America, and will be assisted by girls from the public and parochial High schools on Saturday.

Headquarters for the West unit will be the Hilltop YMCA.

According to Mrs. H. H. Herron, publicity chairman, proceeds from the sale will be used for work in the VA Hospital, community service, educational awards to members and veterans children, and new project — the recreational center at Brecksville VA Hospital.

"Brecksville is a TB hospital for veterans and the boys there usually have a long stay", said Mrs. Herron. They are limited in activities but need some place where they can find a bit of extra cheer and sunshine. Jack ,Westall, a former Hilltop boy is a member of the hospital staff and is vitally interested in this project, It's cost will be about $15,000".

Ohio Blue Star Mothers have presented a stadium to Chillicothe VA hospital, a patio at Dayton VA center, and a Gulbranson organ to the chaped at the Soldiers and Sailors home at Sandusky.

"The purchase of a daisy will be a thank you to those who have given so much to you and me — — a free America", Mrs. Herron said.

Stringtown (Ohio) USA Not Ready For Town Hall Now

By Robert J. Wunderlin

The neat little sign by the side of the Ohio road is in error. It should read Pop. 9.

Since this past summer when the sign suddenly appeared one sunny week-end, one of the residents — N. Emerson Mathews — has died.

When we first sighted the freshly painted sign perched on its finger of green steel, we checked with the Post Office department on Marconi Boulevard.

"Stringtown?" the clerk asked. "How do you spell it — S-t-r-i-n—or how?"

• • •

We spelled out the letters. We could hear him leafing through pages. "There are five or six Stringtowns in Ohio. Which one did you want?"

I told him out near Brice. Pickaway county I thought.

There was another pause. "Yep. There's one out in Pickaway County. Serviced by Kingston. Do..'t have its own postal service. None of the Stringtowns do. Rand-McNally says there is one at . . ."

"That's the one I wanted. Thanks."

The State Highway Department didn't have much more.

• • •

"We've got no Stringtown on our map," the map department advised us. "I don't think our department put the marker up."

So we swung out through Brice, turned east on Refugee-rd, and stopped just before the road crosses Blacklick bridge. One fork of the road (the one that continues south across Blacklick becomes Long-rd. The other that swings eastward past the popular Hempy Picnic grounds becomes Refugee or County Route 7.

Here at Hempy's Grove, looking over the dam that bridges Blacklick, we found Edgar Hempy.

"Stringtown? I guess there's really no official Stringtown. But last summer one of the neighbors found an old sign, painted it, and stuck it up alongside the road. This neighHempy's, has been known as Stringtown for years.

"There used to be a store right back there by the gate," he explained. "Guess folks used to come from miles around to make their purchases at the Stringtown King's Store. That's where it got its name. I guess. But it's been gone a long time now.

"The old neighborhood has not changed much in 75 years. No housing projects out here yet. Same houses here now as were back seventy-five, eighty years ago."

We asked about the Pop. 10 letters.

"That's wrong now," he nodded sadly. "Lost one of our good neighbors not too long ago."

I told him that we often enjoyed his picnic grove during the summer. More than 350 jolly picnickers enjoy summer week-ends here.

"Wasn't this grove once an

"Don't think so. That's mostly folk-lore I guess. Nope. I've never found any signs of any Indian camp and I've done a lot of cleaning up around here."

"Your sign looks very legal," I added. "Do you have a mayor?"

He laughed. "Nope. And no town hall either. Guess we just aren't ready for one yet."

The mail-boxes reveal the names of the "nine" residents. They include, besides Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hempy, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Finks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tussing, Mrs. N. Emerson Mathews, Miss Lola Hempy and Miss Hazel Hempy.

Any one interested in driving past this little sign calling attention to the community can find it by going south through Brice to Refugee-rd, which shoots eastward, curves sharply and then gently and through Stringtown, Ohio, USA.

WILLIAMS FEATURES MINUET

The Modified Traditional style of the Conn Minuet electronic organ is shown above. This fine electronic organ is the product of almost a century of musical tradition and reflects the standard of quality in all Conn musical instruments, tone. Not merely because of its infinite versatility, but because there are no tone "borrowing," the Minuet has been called the complete musical instrument. A visit to Williams Music Store, 211 S. High-st, will prove a treat to the beginner or the accomplished musician.

WANTED: A STOP SIGN AT E. MOUND-EASTMOOR INTERSECTION

Eastmoor South Good Neighbors Strive For Intersection Situation Improvement

By John Poeppelmeyer

Where there is no stop sign, the people perish, might well be the theme of this story.

Last week, in a peaceful suburban setting, the shattering sound of metal grinding against metal was heard at the unmarked intersection of E. Mound-st and Eastmoor-blvd. When the toll was taken, one woman was dead and another, at that time, critically injured.

"It isn't the first time there has been an accident or near accident at that spot," remarked Edward Stocker, of 2892 Templeton-av, president of the Eastmoor South Good Neighbors. His group is striving to get the City of Columbus to do something about the situation that exists at the death scene.

"We are trying to petition City Council to erect a stop sign at that spot," he said. If successful, the city would probably survey the area to determine if a warning sign is needed, he pointed out.

His group met last Friday night to form a letter to be sent to the Director of Public Safety concerning the situation. "Drivers just don't stop at that intersection. Whether coming from E. Mound, or from the direction of Eastmoor, which I call a semi-through street, they all think they have the right of way."

Other residents have pointed out that near accidents have occurred at adjacent unmarked intersections. Stocker said that he has even told the city that his group would buy the signs, "but the city has informed us that cost is not the object. They said it depends on whether a stop sign is needed there or not." Stocker said that he feels there is too much confusion concerning the intersections.

Stocker said that the Eastmoor South Association has had to petition council before to erect stop signs at other locations in the area.

It is part of the association policy, Stoker said, for his group to consider stop signs at various intersections. "We've been at this since 1954," he explained.

His group was responsible for the erection of a stop sign at Astor and Eastmoor. Before that, he said, only a "yield-right-of-way" sign took care of traffic.

Stocker said that he can recall of one other case where the association failed to get a warning sign. "The city made a survey about two years ago but decided that there wasn't enough traffic for a stop sign."

He pointed out that he feels a sign is also needed at Templeton and Eastmoor.

Other residents feel that there are too many children in the area for them not to be concerned. They, too, have expressed their feelings that too many drivers look upon Eastmoor and E. Mound-sts as through streets.

Dead as a result of the crash is Mrs. Glenna Schimel, 62, of 575 Eastmoor-blvd. She was an active worker in Temple Israel. Mrs. Sue Miller, of 1118 Olney-dr, was listed in good condition Wednesday at Lincoln Memorial Hospital. At first she was said to be in critical condition.

Mrs. Schimel was also active in religious and civic groups, including the Red Cross and Council of Jewish Women. Her husband, Larry, is the owner of Larry's Clothing Store at Goodale and High-sts.

According to police, Mrs. Schimel was driving north along Eastmoor and Mrs. Miller was traveling east along E. Mound when the collision occurred.

Mrs. Miller will be subject to a second degree manslaughter charge after she is released from the hospital, police said. Mrs. Miller has told her husband that she thought there was a "yield" sign along Eastmoor-blvd.

Even that may have been enough to prevent the accident. As it so happens, there is no sign of any kind.

Mayor Says Charter Study Not In Vain

By Bill Rush

Time and money spent formulating a revised city charter won't go down the drain.

That was the word Monday from Mayor W. Ralston Westlake who stated that "amendments rather than a new charter" is what Columbus needs.

Terming the present city charter a "grand instrument certainly in need of revision," the mayor said he did not know of a single councilman in favor of accepting the proposed revised charter in its entirety.

The proposed revisions were drafted by a committee appointed last year by council. Consultants were also hired for several thousand dollars to make recommendations of any desirable changes.

A member of council at the time the committee was appointed, Westlake said "it wasn't the feeling at the time that a new charter was needed. The present charter has some weaknesses, but some changes could make it more workable today."

"A lot of us felt the charter revision committee went a long way in making recommendations for an entirely new charter. That wasn't what was intended at all. And it's probably why it isn't being accepted today."

The mayor emphasized that he is definitely in favor of some amendments and pointed out that he had urged council to place one change on the ballot this May.

That amendment dealt with filling vacated council seats and would give the mayor authority to cast the deciding vote if solons are deadlocked. Council was stymied in two recent instances when appointments made by former Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner were tossed aside by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Several other definite charter reforms are gaining support, including district representation which was studied at length by the charter revision committee last year.

Westlake said whether or not a new charter revision committee would be appointed was strictly a matter for council to decide.

Personally, he did not think it necessary and suggested that the proposed revisions be used as a master plan to chart changes as they are needed.

DOG-GONE DUCKS—On a sunny spring day what better idea is there than to take one's ducks out for a bicycle ride, as did Jim Lombardo, of 2947 E. Mound-st. Only trouble is that one's dog, "Dotty," in this particular instance, may decide that she, too, would like a lift. Jim's buddy, Gary Compton, of 803 E. Mound-st, appears amused by it all.

Rezoning Verdict Is Disappointing To Civic Groups

The five-month-old zoning problem of a 20-acre tract near Bishop Hartley High School was settled in City Council chambers Monday night—but the verdict was a disappointment to a number of East Side Civic Associations who had ben protesting any rezoning action.

By a 4-2 vote, with councilmen William P. Hoermle, Sr.; and Ronald E. DeVore dissenting, solons approved the rezoning of a section that lies south of E. Livingston-av, east of James-rd, and extending along the west side of Bishop Hartley High School to Clermont-rd.

Council action will serve to aid developer John Ranft who has been striving to get the rezoning from residential to multiple dwellings approved.

A spokesman for the Kingsgate Association said their only hope now lies with a veto by Mayor Ralston Westlake.

Mrs. Jane Harris, whose husband is president of the Kingsgate Association, stated that the four property owner association were allnged against the move. Those mentioned: Kingsgate, Wood Homes, Liv-Moor Heights and Berwick Manor.

The property owners strongest argument has been that multple dwelling would lower the value of their homes and neighborhood.

Ranft, the developer, has said that he owns most of the land and that he is on contact for the rest. He wants to develop the area so it will be most profitable and multiple dwellings seem to be "the best way."

Several ministers in the area, including Bishop Hartley High School Head Rev. Robert G. White, have voiced their disapproval at the rezoning.

Bishop Hartley News Staffers To Hold Journalism Workshop

Student reporters on the staff of the Hartley Hawk-Eye will sponsor a journalism workshop Saturday, Apr. 30, at the school for the advisors and staff members of high school papers in Central Ohio.

Reports say that the workshop will consist of three sessions of instruction in each of the four types of high school newspaper writing. The instruction will also serve as a refresher course for those who have had some previous newspaper experience.

Instructions will be given by highly qualified members of the journalism field.

Those speaking include Don Weaver, editor of the Columbus Citizen-Journal; Miss Mary McGarey, Columbus Dispatch staff writer; and Tom Pastorious, Columbus Citizen-Journal sports writer.

Father James Magmer, S.J., director of the Detroit Scholastic Press Association and of University of Detroit publications, will handle the news writing and editing courses.

Registration will begin at 8 and 9 a.m. An opening session by Father Magmer at 9 a.m. will kick-off the activities. The courses are scheduled to wind up at about 2:30 p.m.

IN SUBURBIA TODAY

AUTHOR H. ALLEN SMITH'S LIFE IS TOLD BY SPOUSE

It's not easy being married to the author of Low Man On A Totem Pole, Life In A Putty Knife Factory, Lost In The Horse Latitudes, and many other funny books — especially when you have him underfoot 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 52 weeks a year.

So says Nelle Smith, also known as Mrs. H. Allen Smith, whose husband exasperates her more often than not because he thinks he's a mechanical genius, a great cook, and because he also has a "charming" way of eavesdropping on her telephone conservations.

Her hilarious commentary on their life together—plus his view on the what it's like having her around the house all day, lead the May issue of SUBURBIA TODAY, which will be conveniently located between the pages of the May 5 edition of your Eastern Review.

The magazine is abloom with lively features this month. It starts off with the news column, "Getting Around," which introduces the startling fellow who wants to put broadloom instead of grass seed on his lawn, the little lady who runs a "free lunch counter" for birds, and many other unusual and interesting people and events in the "pleasant places."

There's a serious discussion of ways to improve a child's chances of staying safe on a bicycle. Some communities have solved their bicycle safety problems by licensing all riders. Others have Bicycle Courts, with offenders subject to stiff fines and penalties. Here's a good way to assess your own community's preparedness in this area.

Then, a noted landscape architect tells how any backyard, if planned so that a sense of being within something while out of doors is created, can become a lovely garden.

Death Claims Secretary Of Capital University

Death came Tuesday morning, April 26, to Miss Alfarata "Alfie" Peters, secretary to the president at Capital University for more than 25 years, and well known in college and business circles throughout the city.

Miss Peters, who resided at 806 College-av, Bexley, had had one serious operation about a year ago, but continued working at the university.

Secretary to the late President Otto Mees from 1931 until 1946, and after that to President H. L. Yochum, she was a 1925 graduate of Columbus Central High School.

Prior to coming to Capital University, Miss Peters was secretary to the president of the former Joint Synod of Ohio and Other States, now merged with the American Lutheran Church.

She had published many articles on hobbies, including her specialty, collecing elephants.

During 1953-1954 she served

Alfarata "Alfie" Peters

in the USO at Lockbourne Air Base, receiving a one-star pin for for more than 300 hours of volunteer service.

She had been presented the Junior Chamber of Commerce TV award for service and dup-

New Appliance Store Stages Grand Opening

The newest appliance store in Columbus is Noel's Appliance, Inc. 1400 E. Main-st, the sales branch of Noel's Plumbing and Heating, Inc.

After months of preparation, the new store will stage its grand opening today, tomorrow and Saturday. There will be refreshments, free gifts, door prizes and a cooking demonstration by The Electric Co.

President of the firm is Marvin D. Noel. His wife, Clara, is vice president. Donna Ward is private secretary to Noel, Harry Saul is sales manager and Harold Schneider is assistant appliance division manager. The store is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

Working closely with the store officials are Herman Wine, local representative for RCA Whirlpool, and Morrey Smith, local representative for RCA Victor.

Noel has been in the plumbing business for four years, being located at 401 Loeffler for the last two years. He emphasized that he still is in the plumbing business.

Noel, who lives at 1430 Zollinger-rd, is an Army veteran of the Korean Conflict.

The store carries a large stock of RCA Whirlpool refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers, air conditioners, built-in ovens, garbage disposers and other items. The RCA Victor line includes black and white and color TV sets, stereo, portable TV sets and clock and transistor radios. The TV sets are in operation.

Noel's can take care of the plumbing necessary for installing washing machines and garbage disposers.

The parent company is engaged in both residential and commercial plumbing. It can remodel entire kitchens and bath rooms.

The store has its own financing plans for appliances to suit individual needs of customers, Noel says.

Solons Air Annexation, Sewer Aid

Caution was the watchword Monday night as Columbus City Council again debated the problems of annexation and related water and sewer services for the growing East Side.

In the absence of William M. Hicks, council voted to annex 546 acres of Truro Township southwest of Livingston-av and Brice-pk. But, Mayor Ralston Westlake said he likely would veto the annexation because the city is not yet capable of providing proper services. He said he would not approve the annexation unless a large property holder, S. J. Gabay, promised in writing that the area would not be developed within five years.

It was pointed out that Reynoldsburg and Brice also may annex the area and that it lies in a section on which an interchange of the East Freeway and the outerbelt may be built.

At the mayor's staff conference Friday, two of his division heads declared that further expansion of housing and industry east of Alum Creek is not feasible unless a sewage treatment plant is built where Alum Creek meets Big Walnut. Westlake said he will ask council to set aside $60,000 to acquire a 40-acre site near Lockbourne. If approved such a project would require four or five years before completion.

Present East Side sewage is now piped as deep as 70 feet in order to get to the Jackson-pk treatment plant west of the river. Construction of an $8 to $9 million plant near Lockbourne would permit the greatest development spurt in the history of the East Side, the service engineers said.

The issue of bringing Hoover Dam water down to East Side mains again took the spotlight Monday. Democrats stood by their stand that the Stelzer-rd main should not be built unless Mifflin Township annexes. On Apr. 11 they postponed a plan to allow water taps to persons along the line who allowed easements on their land.

Westlake pointed out that without such agreements, the court costs of obtaining easements would be exorbitant.

Six-Day X-Ray To Be At Depot

The Christmas Seal X-ray Cruiser begins a six-day chest-check program Friday, Apr. 29 at Columbus General Depot, the Tuberculosis Society reports.

The cruiser will offer free chest X-rays to approximately 2800 Depot employes at three different locations within the installation.

LAW DAY PROCLAMATION SIGNED

MAYORS CONCUR—Mayor Walter Moling of Whitehall and Mayor William Schneider of Bexley prepare to sign a proclamation declaring May 1 to be "Law Day USA." The observance of the day throughout the country has been designated to foster increased respect for law, enabling the growth in moral strength as it grows in population, resources and world leadership, and to provide an occasion for the American people to re-dedicate themselves to freedom for the individual under just laws administered by independent courts. Left to right, front row, Moling and Schneider. Back row, Jack W. Falkerth, vice president of the Columbus Bar Association; Howard C. Park, solicitor of Bexley; and John Hoskins, chairman of Law Day Committee.

Eastmoor Concert Band Gets Superior Rating In Contest

Eastmoor's Concert Band, directed by Mr. Kaye, received the top rating of superior in the State Band and Chorus Contest held last Saturday at Otterbein College. The band was given a superior rating by each of the four judges. To be eligible for the state competition, the band received a superior rating in the district contest in March.

Rafael Mendez, Hollywood's famous trumpet virtuoso, will appear with the concert band in performances next Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Eastmoor auditorium. Tickets may be purchased from the music office at BE. 1-0605, or from any band member.

Ann Goldthwaite and Larry Nichols have been selected to attend the 1960 Buckeye Girls' and Boys' States sponsored by the American Legion. The juniors were chosen on the basis of their scholastic ability and their participation and leadership in school activities. Girls' State will be held June 18 to 26 at Capital University, and Boys' State will take place June 9 to 18 at Ohio University.

Fourteen Eastmoor seniors have been selected to attend the 10th annual Student World Affairs Institute sponsored by the Rotary Club of Columbus. The event will be held in the Deshler-Hilton Ballroom next Monday at 12 noon.

Students elected to go are Margrit Bauer, John Braulick, Eileen Collins, Rachel Egbert, Jennifer Douthit, Bill Gillam, Joe Goodwin, Cindy Husted, Homer McKnight, Barbara Moltenberry, Ry Poole, Karen Rea, Sidney Townsend and Gretchen Volz.

Various high schools in greater Columbus will be represented. The students will be luncheon guests of the Rotary Club. After a program by Linden-McKinley's choir, the seniors will view a panel discussion on "A New Era in Africa" conducted by Ohio State University students.

The six finalists in the contest to select Eastmoor's graduation speakers were recently announced by Mr. Goss, vice-principal. They are Eileen Collins, Jennifer Douthit, Cindy Husted, Bill Gillam, Jeff Gordon and Frank Hoffman.

The finalists will give their presentations before a faculty committee to be judged. One girl and one boy will be selected. Eastmoor's graduation will be held on Tuesday, June 7.

Arlene Mara, a junior, was elected president of next year's Future Teachers of America Club last week. Other new officers are Judy Hillson, vice-president; Connie Rau, secretary; and Janet Gray, treasurer.

Gretchen Volz was awarded an $85 scholarship by the FTA Club, for which she has been president this past year. This is the first year the club has given a grant to a future teacher. Gretchen plans to attend Capital University in the fall and major in elementary education.

John Braulick, Lynn Balthaser and Pete Miller were presented with "Good Citizenship" awards Monday by the Benjamin Franklin Chapter, Ohio Society, of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Mr. Murphy, an Eastmoor faculty member, was named one of the state's top 10 science teachers at the annual State Science Day held last Saturday at Antioch College.

One of Eastmoor's faculty bowling teams won the Columbus Teachers' Bowling League championship last week. Members of the team are Mr. Murphy, Mr. Tata, Mr. Kaye and Mr. John Young, former vice-principal of Eastmoor. A trophy was presented to the team at a banquet at the Jai-Lai Cafe on Tuesday.

Eastmoor took the second place trophy in the Gahanna Relays last Saturday with 47 points to Gahanna's 50. Four other schools participated. The Junior High baseball team defeated Indianola, 3-2, last Friday. The golf team defeated Franklin Heights for the second time last Friday by winning 11 to 5.

Cindy Husted and Jeff Gordon have been chosen senior graduation speakers. Eastmoor's commencement will be Tuesday, June 7.

The senior high baseball team defeated South High School, 15-3, Tuesday evening on the Warrior diamond.

Primary Election Essay Contest Winners Selected

Winners of the primary election contest sponsored by the Stockton for State Representative Committee were announced Monday at a luncheon held in their honor.

First prize of a $25 U. S. Savings Bond was won by Anne Hesse, 79 E. Chase-rd, a student at Dominion Junior High School. Second prize of $10 was awarded to Suzan Lundquist, 1918 Langham-rd, of Upper Arlington High School. Third prize of a "History of Ohio" was captured by Mary Nichols, 296 Piedmont-rd, of Bishop Watterson High School.

Through its Town and Country Branch the YMCA extends its program into 50 local communities in Franklin County, working with the schools and churches to develop the best type of citizenship in our young people. The new buildings, planned by the YMCA, will provide facilities which all may share.

In minimum tillage tests conducted by the Ohio Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, corn yields from minimum prepared seedbeds were equal to or greater than those from conventional seedbeds.

Humane slaughter procedures must be in effect after June 30 in all meatpacking plants selling products to federal agencies, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The YMCA and the YWCA promote thousands of activities for young folks. They need your help to expand.

NOW HEAR THIS—Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association vice president, Linn Hyatt (with microphone) is shown with his assistant, John McQuaid (at right), as they pair off the more than 600 boys waiting to swing into action. The children's parents will meet tonight (Apr. 28) at 8 p.m. in Whitehall-Yearling High School.

WHITEHALL LITTLE LEAGUE UNDERWAY

Baseball Parents To Meet

Approximately 600 Whitehall youngsters are shouting, "Play Ball," and the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association is busy making plans to accommodate as many of them as possible.

The boys met Saturday, Apr. 23, at Etna Road School to hear the association's vice president, Linn Hyatt and his assistant, John McQuaid, make announcements concerning the uniforms and other equipment to be available.

Tonight (Apr. 28), the children's parents will attend a general organizational meeting, to insure the program's success, at Whitehall-Yearling High School.

Martin Iverson, newly appointed Minor League Commissioner, after reviewing his job aspects, indicated that only a strong response from the boys' fathers would make it possible to bring his league up to the full 12 team strength.

Iverson's league is for youngsters between the ages of eight and 11 who have registered.

The commissioner stated that he would not like to see any area left without a team merely because of weak response from the parents.

"We need coaches and umpires badly," he stated. "If we don't get enough, it means an awfully lot of boys won't play."

Iverson added, "I'd surely hate to have to say 'No' to them."

Besides the Minor League, it is also proposed to have 12 Little League and six Babe Ruth teams, making a total of 30 squads.

Girls Glee Club Earns Top Rating At Contest

The Girls' Glee Club, after receiving a one rating at the district choir contest went to the state contest at Ohio State University and received a one rating in competition with schools from all over Ohio. They sang "My Heart Ever Faithful," the required number, and "O, Praise Ye The Lord."

The band also received a one rating at the district contest and went to Westerville for its state competition where they were awarded a two rating on Apr. 23. They played "Marriage of Figgaro" and "Prayer and Dreams" from Hansel and Gretel.

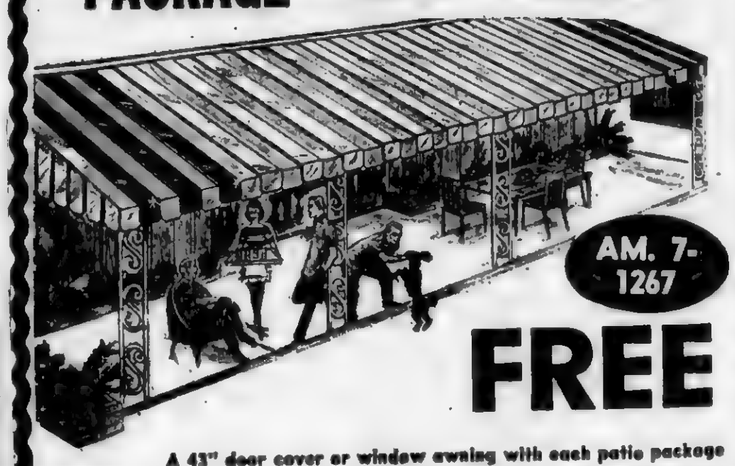
Grade cards were distributed last Wednesday. Only one more time to go and another year will be over.

The Whitehall track team participated in the annual Gahanna Relays on Apr. 23 and placed third. The season started on Apr. 1 and so far their record has been three won and two lost. Members of the track team are Jerry Millington, Rick Neutzling, Ron Neutzling, Robbie Neutzling, Bob Ranke, Don Justice, Gary Joseph, Tom Shoaf, Bob Densham, Charles Poe, Jack Hout, Bob Winship, Gary Catalina, Mike Berry, Dan Gartner, Ed Metzger, Jerry Bean, Roger Middaugh, Don Smith, Ben Farner, Larry Howard, Sam DeWorth, Clark Fuller, Larry Drake, Gary Wyant.

Another favorite spring sport is baseball. This year our team is being coached by Ted Georgeff. The boys on the varsity team are Jon Morrow, Bill Gornall, Tom Rohm, Bill Dildine, Tom Smith, Jim Franklin, Bob Leonard, Ralph Sompres, Randy Welsh.

The Aries queen, Lynda Starrett, was crowned at the dance on Apr. 22, amid an Ancient Greek setting. The Aries members were in Grecian robes which tied in with the 1960 yearbook theme. The Aries queen will now become a yearly event and is chosen on the basis of her scholastic ability, interest in school affairs and activities and the fact that she bought an annual.

Question of the week: Why don't more students go to baseball games and track meets?



There is a new look in the vocational arts room. To further training of future business leaders a section of a typical retail store has been installed.

Gary Catalina and Rick Neutzling are willing to make cut-outs of cheerleaders or members of the various teams for a slight charge. They now have the science of photographing, cutting out, and finishing to almost perfection. Interested students may contact these two in the print shop.

Cheerleading tryouts were held in front of the school, Wednesday, Apr. 20 and Melissa Cottingham, Nita Williams, Kathy Kirkpatrick, and Sally Metcalf were elected for varsity cheerleaders and Sandy Joseph, Karen Berry, Phyllis Weaver, and Diane Radcliff were elected for reserve cheerleaders.

The Medina and Whitehall High Schools will present a concert followed by a dance on Friday, Apr. 29 from 8-10:30. No tickets will be sold at the school but they can be bought at the door. The Medina band members will be staying at the homes of our band members for the time they are in Whitehall.

Brinkman Runs For First Office In May Election

A long-life Democrat, Ed Brinkman will be seeking his first public office this May when he runs in the Democratic Primary for County Commissioner.

A successful businessman, Brinkman operates his own business, Brinkman's Concessionaires" and was plant superintendent of one of the largest bottling plants of The Coca-Cola Company.

He has served as a Trustee of the School Safety Program, past president of the Charity Newsies, Past Monarch of the Grotto. He is also an active Shriner, a member of the Elks, Dutch Uncles, Agonis, Sons of St. Patrick, Knights Templar Scottish Rite and Eastern Star.

Brinkman is also associated with the Buckeye Sheriffs, Grandview Community Lodge, Bexley Businessmen's Association, Columbus Chamber of Commerce and the Ohio Showman's Association.

A family man, father of four children, Brinkman and his wife, Florence, are members of the Hope Methodist Church. They reside at 1497 King-av.

Knisley To Seek Convention Seat

Former Treasurer of State Clarence H. Knisley announced this week that he would run as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention to give Franklin County voters an opportunity to select their own candidate.

By entering the race, Knisley said he is giving voters a chance to express their preference for candidates instead of them being told to vote for the"DiSalle delegate or not vote at all."

Knisley said the choice of delegate is on the question, "Do You want home rule or boss rule?" In addition, voters not in agreement with Governor DiSalle's tax program will have the opportunity to express their opposition, he added.

Area Nazarenes To Hold Concert

The Choir of the Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill., will present a concert at the First Church of the Nazarene, 142 King-av on Thursday, Apr. 28, at 7:30 p.m.

The choir, directed by Mrs. Naomi Larson, will present a variety of religious selections. The concert is sponsored by all Churches of the Nazarene in the area.

Axminster, Brussels, Chenille, Knitted, Tufted, Velvet and Wilton are terms which denote a particular manufacturing method for making carpets.

Clifford Seeks County Courts Clerk Position

Joseph M. Clifford, 454 Kenbrook-dr, is a candidate for the office of Franklin County Clerk of Courts.

A Republican, Clifford is the son of the late Judge Joseph M. Clifford. He has been serving as assistant attorney for the City of Columbus in the office of Russell Leach and has appeared as the prosecutor on the television program "Traffic Court."

Clifford served as a deputy clerk with the late Roy King, former Clerk of Courts. He is a veteran of World War II and was graduated from North High School, Ohio State University pre-law and Franklin University Law School.

Want To Be A Teacher? Read This . . .

In association with National Teaching Career Month, during April, the various education associations list information concerning teacher training, teacher shortages and career advantages.

The associations urge that a teaching career should be given serious consideration by students preparing to enter or who are now attending college.

Job opportunities for approximately 165 to 175 thousand newly qualified teachers will exist each year through 1965 according to the National Commission on Teachers Education and Professional Standards.

Many scholarships are available for students who have the ability, but not the money, for college. Many private and civic organizations offer these scholarships as well as the colleges themselves. Information concerning financial-aid program scholarships can be obtained by writing the State Department of Education.

A teachers' work is extremely varied, according to Margaret S. Myers, Hilliard High School instructor. She stated that "teaching in today's schools is an exacting job that calls for top-notch ability. The critical need for teaching is not sufficient reason for a young person to select teaching as a career."

Test Netting For Muskies Is Underway

Test netting for muskies is under way in Southern Ohio, according to Ray Riethmiller, Wildlife District Five fish management supervisor.

First netting operation was at Lake White, Pike County, where fish management personnel were after muskies for eggs and suckers as a source of fish food at the Division of Wildlife fish hatchery at Kincaid Springs.

"The water has been too cold for the muskies to be on the move and little success has resulted thus far. They are taking suckers in the nets," he stated.

Netting for muskies at Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, started a week later. This operation will be the big effort as a large part of the eggs used in the Kincaid Hatchery come from this lake. Fishery biologists start early to net the muskies to check when the egg-bearing females, the larger of the two sexes, are ripe enough to be "stripped of their" eggs.

In addition to the muskies which are being netter, the biologists are taking bullheads for distribution to other public bodies of water open to fishing. This is being done to improve fishing during the coming angling season.

Evaporation caused over half the water loss from corn plots during an entire growing season in recent tests conducted by USDA scientists at the Soil and Water Conservation Research Station at Coshocton, Ohio.

County Economy Cited By Kunz As Chief Goal

D. J. Kunz

Democratic County Commissioner D. J. Kunz, who is seeking re-election this year, points to his former campaign promises of "economy in government and wise planning" as main reasons why he should be returned to office.

Kunz points out that when he entered office in 1958, the county's general fund was $280,893 in the red and credit was at a low ebb with bills up to three-years-old unpaid.

Since then, a budget has been set up satisfying all departments and paying off old and current bills leaving the county with a $65,000 surplus at the end of fiscal 1959.

Promises of a better welfare program, revised building code and reclassification of zoning, have all been kept, Kunz points out.

The budget of $92,000 for welfare has also been met each year and was increased to $100,000 for 1960, he added.

Kunz supports the Development Committee for Greater Columbus in its work toward providing an answer to the problem of supplying water and sewage services in areas not serviced by municipal systems.

GOP Backs Seven Men For House

The seven candidates for State Representative endorsed by the Republican Central Committee form a well balanced team with diversified backgrounds.

They are Thomas M. Herbert, son of former Lieutenant Governor, Paul M. Herbert, a life long resident of Columbus, combat war veteran and practicing attorney; Robert E. Holmes, selected as the outstanding young man of Greater Columbus in 1958, and an active civic leader; Keith McNamara, former special counsel to the City Attorney, a state-wide leader in Young Republican work and a practicing attorney; Archer E. Reilly, Jr., present incumbent State Representative; Jacob A. Shawan, mayor of Marble Cliff, past president Council of Social Agencies and a board member of United Community Council; Chalmers P. Wylie, former Columbus City Attorney, former Assistant to the Governor and Director of Workmen's Compensation; and Lytle G. Zuber, who has served four terms in the House and was Chairman of Military Affairs and Small Courts Committees of the House.

The seven-member delegation is stressing a constructive well-rounded program with particular emphasis upon finances, education, welfare and conservation.

GOP Candidate Says Next House Session Is Vital

John Herbert

Importance to the Republican party of next January's session of the Ohio General Assembly is being stressed by John David Herbert in his campaign for nomination at the May 3 Primary as State Representative from Franklin County.

"The next legislature," Herbert points out, "will be called upon to revamp Ohio's Congressional districts in accordance with the population changes determined in the 1960 census. This will vitally affect our national representation for the next decade."

Herbert also recommends a legislative program to promote a healthy business climate, to attract new industry and to encourage expansion of present business.

Herbert is a former Assistant Ohio Attorney General and son of former Governor and present State Supreme Court Judge Thomas J. Herbert. He is a practicing attorney, Korean War Veteran, is married and the father of three children.

DEM HOUSE CANDIDATES PULL TOGETHER

Devine Says Public Holds Own Answer

Editor's Note: This is the second letter from a public official in response to the campaign of Hartley Newspapers and their readers for better television programs and motion pictures.

In last week's newspaper, the letter of Governor DiSalle was printed. This week the comments of U.S. Representative Samuel Devine are carried. His letter follows).

You have requested my opinion on the practice of exhibiting suggestive-type films dealbeing shown over television.

It is my personal opinion that censorship is not the answer. As you realize, the Supreme Court has ruled on a number of cases dealing with censorship and especially as it applies to the definition of lewd and obscene material.

I would certainly agree that many of the motion pictures presently being shown in the United States appear to me to be lewd and obscene. Your paper is to be commended on the activities you are conducting to bring this matter to the attention of your readers. If it would be possible for each individual to exercise his own judgement, I believe the resultant discretion in attendance would make the presentation of such material uneconomical.

If surveys conducted on viewers' response to general programs would show that most ing with violent and illegal acts, primarily in motion picture house. You have also raised the same question in regard to the taste exhibited by producers and broadcasters in material people did not view programs dealing with murder, crime and questionable taste, I am certain the producers, advertisers, and sponsors would soon discontinue these programs. We have depended on various codes shown in movie and television industries to police the material they produce. Unfortunately, it has not proved effective and some other method must be adopted to clean up this material. I would prefer to see the general public, by their refusal to attend or view such programs, used as the manner of accomplishing this end. One more Government inspection agency would only raise more questions, both in the courts and in practice as to what is "acceptable" material.

In my opinion, the campaign conducted by your paper is one of the most effective means of bringing this matter to the attention of the general public, and I suggest that you urge your views to exercise discretion and judgement in what they view and what they allow their children to view.

The type of action I anticipate is similar to the action taken by various mothers of school-age children in their recent campaign to clean up comic books and to provide more wholesome entertainment for them than was available at various stores. This campaign was successful to some extent and is an example of what I suggest.

Samuel L. Devine, M. C.

BIBLE COMMENT

Personalities Of The Bible Seen Today

The greatest saints and the most wicked persons, the Marys and the Jezebels, the persecutors and the martyrs, despotic, evil kings, wise rulers, nobility in purple, peasants in the fields, warriors, men of peace—every type of man is found in the Bible.

It is profoundly the book of man, even as it is man's book of God.

The universality of the Bible is emphasized in a deeper and more important way in the life and teaching of Jesus.

The locality of the scene, the local manners or customs, may give color to an incident, but they do not affect the heart of the truth. Truth applies equally to time and place.

This is seen especially in the Parables of Jesus. The woman searching for a lost piece of silver (Luke15) might be any woman anywhere. The Samaritan helping the victim of thieves on the road to Jericho might be a driver of today stopping to aid the victim of a highway accident, while others, like the priest and the Levite, hasten past.

Jesus is for all the world, because His life and truth were for all the world. He was not a Galilean provincial, but a Teacher and Savior, with a world mission sending forth His disciples to make disciples of all nations.

the many responses from mothers who had their own views on what the socialigists said in the January article on the possible limitations that filtered experience through a suburban upbringing can produce in a child's development.

Finally, there's the strange saga of a couple from Milwaukee who bought a house in the suburbs in order to give their two extremely active boys a more pleasant atmosphere to grow up in—and who found, in short order, that the house they had bought was haunted.

New Dishwashers Do Pots, Pans

Elbow grease and scouring pads are seldom used in today's modern kitchen.

One big reason for this is the new cleaning power being built into today's electric dishwasher — washing power that cleans pots and pans as well as it does dishes, glassware, and utensils.

Modern electric dishwashers are designed to remove even grease film and cooked-on foods from pots and pans.

This is accomplished by powerful torrents of water hotter

HEAT COLD VARNISH

Varnish flows more smoothly when warmed. If work is being done out-of-doors or in unheated rooms, place can of varnish in pan of hot water. Use hot plate to keep it warm, or replace hot water.

It pays to keep it clean.

Landscaping Is 'Showcase' Of The Home

What do neighbors think of the appearance of your home property? Is it pleasing from the street? Do people, in passing, think "I'd like to live there?"

Often the answer to this question is to be found in character of the landscaping, which in effect provides the "showcase" of the home. Sometimes the planting of a single tree or a few shrubs can change the whole aspect. A flowering tree or shrubs, well placed, or evergreens that keep their green all year add "life" to the property.

Test the "curbside" rating of your home by standing on the sidewalk and asking yourself the following questions as suggested by the American Nursery Association of Nurserymen:

1. Is the home blended naturally into the landscape, presenting a pleasing aspect from the curb, both winter and summer?
2. Is the foundation of the home bare, or well-planted?
3. Are the foundation plantings overgrown and scrawny, obscuring windows? Do they need pruning, or would it be better to replant entirely with more tasteful plants?
4. Are there color and variety from the use of shrubs or trees with different foliage and flower textures and forms?
5. Does the property as seen from the curb "hail" the various seasons of the year?

If the answers to the above questions are in the negative, then it is time to call in your nurseryman for suggestions.

In some residential areas a walk along the street in the springtime is a delight to the eye with shrubs of various species aglow with different or even the same flowers on separate properties.

Cleaning A Lot Can Provide Extra Play Space

Is your neighborhood short on play space?

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, in offering suggestions for Spring Clean-Up Week, reminds that cleaning up vacant lots will provide more play space for children, and eliminate the fire hazard that goes hand-in-hand with empty lot rubble.

Matches-Smoking Is Leading Cause Of Fires In U.S.

Care can help prevent fires, the National Board of Fire Underwriters reminds. Statistics show that 25.2 percent of all fires are caused by matches-smoking and another 20.7 percent by misuse of electrical equipment.

And three-fourths of all fires are caused by human carelessness or forgetfulness.

The National Board points out that this is a good time to make a date with your serviceman for a furnace check. It is a good time to have an electrician repair faulty switches and replace worn appliance cords.

Make this a part of your Clean-Up Week activities.

STORING SHELLAC

Shellac keeps better in glass jars, rather than in cans. It should, however, be discarded after six months.

A Few 'Off The Cuff' Facts About The TB TAX LEVY

VOTE X FOR TB TAX LEVY Renewal

D

D

What is the TB Tax Levy?

It is a REDUCED renewal of a special tax levy to support the Franklin County (Benjamin Franklin) Tuberculosis Hospital for five years.

This is not a new levy:

Ten years ago, voters approved the levy for .65 mills. It was renewed again five year ago.

Only six cents per $100 valuation

However, the current renewal is for a REDUCED amount of .60 mills or 6c per $100 real estate valuation.

WHY THE TB TAX LEVY IS NEEDED

1. Because Benjamin Franklin Hospital is the only hospital for Franklin County TB patients. During 1959, there were 341 new TB cases: 202 active, 139 inactive cases. Deaths from TB totaled 26. (TB still kills more people than all other infectious diseases combined!)
2. Because the TB Tax Levy, in 1959, furnished 66.7% of the operating budget.
3. Because there are approximately 225 unknown active TB cases in Franklin County. (Imagine the panic if there were 225 unknown cases of smallpox at large!) To prevent infection of others and to provide cure, they must be found as soon as possible and placed under a continuing program of hospital treatment.
4. Because Ben Franklin Clinic, operated by the hospital, is also supported by the Tax Levy. Last year 45,378 persons received free X-rays or tuberculin tests there.
5. Because the Clinic provides drug treatment to an average of 275 TB patients every month.

IF IT FAILS TO PASS:

The hospital would serve primarily as an isolation facility, rather than an institution that provides the best in medical treatment for TB patients. Present TB controls could not be continued. Social services and occupational therapy would have to be reduced or perhaps eliminated altogether. Costly new and effective drugs could not be purchased. Certain surgery would be eliminated.

Furthermore, without the tax levy, patients would have to be discharged before they are cured. This would result in the spread of TB and reinfection of the patient. It would mean an increased cost to us taxpayers who bear the major part of the average $14,000 cost for each TB case. The few pennies invested now, through renewal of the tax levy, are an ounce of prevention against the extravagant waste of money caused by needless tuberculosis, to say nothing of the human misery and loss of life caused by this disease.

THESE CIVIC MINDED COMPANIES HAVE PAID THE COST OF THIS ADVERTISEMENT SO THAT . . . .

you will be familiar with the importance and urgency of this Tax Levy. The part you play is VERY simple — but VERY important.

Vote FOR the TB TAX LEVY on May 3. And urge every person you know to vote for the REDUCED RENEWAL of the TB Tax Levy!

Hi-Y Members Get First-Hand Look At City Government

ROLL CALL—This was the scene in Columbus City Council chambers last Friday when high school students first heard details of their Apr. 27 City Day program. They are being briefed by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director. Later they learned details of city government from Mayor Ralston Westlake, his staff and other elected officials. Youths holding "key jobs" sat with their adult counterparts during Monday night's council meeting. Others watched proceedings from the balcony.

When more than 100 area high school boys and girls took over offices in the City of Columbus, Wednesday of this week, they weren't exactly green at their jobs.

The youths, marking the 35th annual Hi-Y City Day, spent last Friday afternoon and Monday night taking an intensive "short course" in city government. Wednesday they were "in office."

Each delegate was given the opportunity to meet the mayor, his cabinet and other elected officials, sat with them during Monday night's Council meeting and submitted their own bills of legislation.

Hold Model Council

On Wednesday the Hi-Y members conducted their own "model Council" in the morning, visited their appropriate city departments, lunched at the "Y" at noon and honored the first City Day mayor (of the year 1926) Robert G. Matthews, a downtown insurance executive. They spent the afternoon enacting ordinances and resolutions. They were sworn into their offices by Judge Fred Donnally, presiding judge of the municipal court.

Most of the students were juniors and seniors elected by their own club membership in March to fill the various offices, which are rotated by schools each year.

The City Day programming represents a high degree of cooperation between city and school officials, the press and the YMCA youth groups, including Hi-Y Council. Chairman of the event was Harold Eigensee; assisted by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director.

Capitol Barracks, Unit Date Meet

Capitol City Barracks, 461 World War I, will meet Sunday, May 1, at Veterans Memorial Building, Room 201, at 2 p.m. Auxiliary will meet at the same time in room 203. Refreshments will be served.

Public Invited To 'Polka Hop'

The annual spring event is sponsored by the St. Anthony Lodge of Croatians of Columbus.

"The Continentals" will start the music at 8 p.m. Adam Zubovich is chairman.

Successful Fishermen Learn To Be Weather-wise

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

The Darbys are giving up good-sized catfish and rock bass, according to R. W. Recob, West Jefferson. Successful anglers reporting at Recob's store are Ralph Wilder, 301 Lilly Chapel-rd; Ted Saunders, W. Main-st, and Robert Deitsch, all of West Jefferson.

The channel catfish have ranged from three to six pounds and were caught on smelt. The fishermen reported the fish were full of crayfish—hard craws.

Big and Little Darby have long been favorite fishing waters for area anglers, and they always seem to start the season off with a bang. They have been producing good rock bass stringers for about 10 days. Nightcrawlers have been the most popular bait. A few catches of smallmouth bass are starting to come in, and the fishing for these gamesters should improve steadily for a time.

No one can predict with much certainty what the fishing will be like for the next week, because weather is always a changing condition. Just when the smallmouth fishing could be at its best, a hard rain could muddy-up waters and would stop fishing for days.

Look for the Signs

Everybody knows a little bit about the weather, and the late-at-night television weather-casts can fill you in on the next day's conditions. Being weather wise, however, will help your fishing score, and knowing that a storm is approaching may save your life someday if you like to explore around on large lakes in small craft.

The old saying, "red sky at night, sailor's delight; red sky in the morning, sailors take warning," has some truth in it. A red sunset is common in the summer and doesn't have much significance, but a hazy sunrise means humidity and often indicates rain to come.

Rising smoke indicates high barometric pressure, which means fair weather and possibly good fishing. Many anglers like to go out when the "glass" is rising (when the barometer is rising). Dew is also a sign of good weather—is condenses on the grass mornings and evenings only when the air is dry.

Most outdoorsmen know that when leaves turn over it means that rain is coming. There is a very logical explanation for this. Leaves grow bending in the direction of prevailing winds so that in normal circumstances they remain right-side-up. A change in wind direction will flop the leaves over, and such a change usually indicates rain.

If you see lightning in the West, it is a sign that you are in the path of a storm. A lowering of the cloud ceiling is also a warning of falling weather. To tell the location of a coming storm, face into the wind and the storm will be on your right —in the northern hemisphere winds circle counterclockwise.

X-Way Plans Are Nearing Completion

When expressway projects are completed this summer, motorists should have a direct path from Harrisburg in south Franklin County to Medina County, announced Expressway Coordinator, Robert F. Mott.

In his monthly report to City Council, Mott stated, " . . . drivers can utilize expressways and high capacity one-way streets in Columbus to travel a workable interim facility."

Drivers, Mott said, will be able to travel the Southwest Freeway, the west leg of the innerbelt, north leg of the innerbelt and Summit and Fourth-sts, one-way thoroughfares, to reach the North Freeway at Hudson-st.

Mott said that the expressway project cost $76 million upon completion.

WLW-C 'Hall Of Fame' To Show Top Production

By Roger Swaney

Highlighting WLW-C's Hallmark Hall of Fame on Monday, May 2 will be a special production — "Captain Brassbound's Conversion." The scene takes place in a small seaport town in the adventure land of Morocco.

Featured in the half-hour long production will be Greer Garson and Christopher Plummer. According to the commentary this is an uproarious comedy, in which judicial punishment becomes a delightful farce . . .

WTVN-TV will participate in a special half-hour long Conelrad test from 1 to 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 3. About Faces will not be televised due to this special test . . .

Heading up ABC's new program series for the 1960-61 season will be an hour-long series titled "Hong Kong." The oncoming series will feature the exploits of an American magazine correspondent against the exotic, strategic backdrop and intrigue of one of the world's most colorful and exciting cities . . .

Baseball fans will have a full weekend of sports viewing this weekend when local television stations will bring two major league games to the screen. On Saturday, Apr. 30 at 1:25 p.m. WLW-C will televise the Cincinnati Redlegs and Pittsburgh Pirates game at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

On Sunday, May 1 at 12:45 p.m. WBNS-TV will televise the New York and Baltimore game.

WBNS-TV will present a television report on "DeGaulle In America" on Eyewitness to History on Friday, Apr. 29 at 10:30 p.m. The special production will report on French President Charles DeGaulle's first visit to the country since becoming the French chief of state.

If starched clothes are to be dried in a dryer, make the starch solution slightly heavier than for line drying. Then preheat the dryer before putting starched clothes in. This will lessen the amount of starch left on dryer's drum.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, broccoli, carrots, celery, green onions, escarole.

UNDERSTANDING THE FOOD STANDARDS HELPS FOOD SHOPPERS

Have you ever thought how dependent we are upon food standards? For example, how do we know that the product bought as strawberry preserves is really strawberry preserves and not a mixture of water, pectin, artificial coloring and grass seeds?

Just as we have legal reference standards to insure uniformity of weights and measures, we also have them to insure real food values and quality of many of our basic foods. They are fixed by order of the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, to promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumers. After a standard for food goes into effect, it is misbranded under the law if it fails to comply with the specification set for it.

Three kinds of standards may be established: (a) standards of identity, (b) standards of quality, (c) standards of fill of container.

STANDARD OF IDENTITY is essentially a recipe. It specifies the ingredients that must be present in a given product, and also allows the use of specified optional ingredients that can be added if the manufacturer desires. These optional ingredients must be declared on the label, only if used.

Identity standards are developed to establish what a given food is. For example, the standard for fruit preserves requires not less than 45 parts of fruit or fruit juice to each 55 parts of sugar. Substandard or low-fruit preserves can be marketed, but must be clearly labeled "imitation."

The nutritional value of certain foods is guaranteed by identity standards. Enriched flour, rice, macaroni products, fortified oleomargarine are examples where nutrition is an important objective.

Special regulations cover certain dietary foods. Special dietary foods claiming to be low in sodium must declare on the label the amount of sodium present per 100 grams and for each average serving — one-half cup or number of wafers. If sugar is used, the measurement must be stated. If a food is reported to be low in calories, the number of calories per serving must be declared.

STANDARDS OF QUALITY — Standards of quality cover such factors as tenderness, color, and freedom from defects. If the produce does not meet the quality specifications, it must be labeled "Below Standard in Quality," followed by an explanation such as "excessively broken" or "excessive peel" and so on.

STANDARDS OF FILL OF CONTAINER—Standards of fill containers have been established for some canned fruits and vegetables, tomato products, shell fish and other products that shake down or settle after filling. In general they must contain the maximum quantity of food that can be sealed in the container and processed without damaging the food.

Do not confuse "Food Standards" with "U.S. Grade Labeling." The latter is optional and is a service a manufacturer may have to grade his products by paying a fee for a U.S. grader to do the job.

State 4-H Group Suggests Public Not Be Charged Fee

Ohio's state 4-H Club Advisory Committee has recommended that the public not be charged admission to events where the official grading of 4-H projects and activities is being done.

The committee contends that such activities as 4-H livestock shows or other competitive events are educational in that grading and explanations of grading are given. No charge should be made to 4-H educational events, the committee holds.

The recommendation, handed down at an annual committee meeting last week, would not affect 4-H shows, revues, and other activities where club members do not receive an official grade which goes on their record, committee spokesmen explain. Nor would it have any bearing on general admission or gate charges to fairs.

The committee, a 40-member group of lay people, extension agents, and junior 4-H club leaders which serves as an advisory body to the 4-H program in Ohio, also discussed new projects for older club members. Committeemen suggested the possibility of more group projects for older boys and girls —projects involving community service, studies of careers in agri-business, meat cutting, and guns and gun safety.

IN FOR RARE PERSONAL APPEARANCE . . .

Slammin' Sammy Snead Says --- 'I'm Gonna Have To Get Glasses'

By JOHN AUBLE, JR.

Golf is basically a simple game. You take a long stick with a fat hitting surface and swing at a small ball which is rock-hard and stationary. No curves, no sliders, not even a change of pace. That's all there is to it.

But golfers still go on wrapping their clubs around trees in acts of frustration. Couple a few of these frustrating moments with eye trouble and you can see that Samuel Jackson Snead, the frank spoken slammer of the links, will have his problems when he heads for the upcoming PGA tourney.

Making a personal appearance in Columbus Monday evening to publicize his fanchised Sam Snead School of Golf, he commented on his familiar straw hat by saying, "I wear it for protection of my eyes more so than anything else."

He explained, "Ever since I made some five-minute film clips in Indianapolis with those bright lights, I've began to squint. I think I'm gonna have to get a pair of glasses," Snead stated, "I can't even read my watch."

Concerning Columbus' own Jackie Nicklaus, the National Amateur golf champ, Snead commented, "The guy was right when he said, it's not how you get 'em but what you get that counts." Nicklaus has changed his style and his fundamentals don't look as sound. Of course, he still gets the job done."

Snead stated, in discussing his own condition, that he's a little over "what I normally like to play at right now." He said that he was up to 193-4 and that he liked to play at 182. "But I'm playing better than I did 10 or 15 years ago because I thing better."

"Arnold Palmer is a hitter," Snead said, "A guy like Dow Finsterwald is a swinger. The hitter will beat the swinger when he's on his game, but over a period of years, it'll even out with the swinger ahead."

According to Sammy, he's averaging 275 yards (off the tee), the average pro 240-255 He explained that you have to hit the ball harder, farther and stronger any more because they're making the courses longer and the balls fly farther.

Concerning the youngsters coming into the pro ranks, Snead stated, "They hit the tour, win $600 in a tourney, buy a Cadillac, get married and have a baby on the way, then they're out of cash and have to go find a job somewhere." He concluded, "Some are a little smarter and stay single until they've proved themselves."

Childress Routs Attack Attempt

Mrs. Grace Childress routed a would-be masher with a pistol shot late Monday (Apr. 25) as he grabbed her when she came out of her garage.

Mrs. Childress, 618 Oakwood-av, bought the .22 caliber revolver last year following a similar attack.

Advertising Contest Nets Awards For Bexley Pupils

Five awards were won by Bexley students for their essays "When I Think About Advertising . . ." in a contest sponsored by the Advertising Club of Columbus.

Judy Starke, who placed first, was awarded $75 and a trophy. Jeff Schwartz received $50 and a trophy for his essay which received second place. Kathie Kienzle was awarded $25 and a trophy for her essay which received third place.

Fourth place was awarded to Sue Yardley, and fifth place was received by Floyd Stolzenburg for his essay.

The announcement of the awards was made at a luncheon for the winners given by the Advertising Club of Columbus on Friday, Apr. 21, at the Fort Hayes Hotel.

Judy Starke's first place essay will be entered in the national competition.

Nominated for the office of Student Council president by the council's members are Jeff Schwartz and Sam McGavran. Ellen Ziskind and Steve DeVoe, and Nancy Samson and Sue Yardley were nominated for vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

The election of the officers will be made by the entire student body on May 10.

Mr. H. V. Tipton, Student Council advisor, said that the officers of Student Council, the law-making and service organization, will count the votes.

The nominees will have the opportunity to campaign during the week before elections.

Jerry Mechling, Bill Goldberg, Les Levitt and George McCloy will captain the 1960-61 basketball, wrestling and swimming squads, respectively. It was announced at Bexley's Winter Sports Banquet held Mar. 15 at the Ohio Union.

In addition to the awarding of varsity letters, recognition was given to Bill Shenk, as most valuable wrestler; Sam McCandlish and Tom Tussing, as All-CBL basketballers.

Western Electric Stirs Employes Politicial Interest

Western Electric started a program last week to increase its employes interest in political issues and voting procedures.

The company, located at 6200 E. Broad-st, provided sample ballots for the May 3 primaries to its employes and displayed voting machines and posters to stir their interest in politics.

Clark Wilson and Donald Washburn, of the Franklin County Board of Elections, visited the plant to answer any questions the workers might have.

Literature urging the employes to vote and explaining the function of the nation's political system were also made available.

An official of the company said the objective was to explain voting procedures, encourage participation in civic affairs and voting in the primaries.

Glenmont Home To Add Addition At 'Open House'

The new addition to Glenmont Home for Christian Scientists, 72 Woodland-av, will be formally opened Sunday May 1, it was announced by C. Hurley Martin, president of the Board of Trustees.

Open house for contributors and friends will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

Containing 22 rooms, the new building is an L-shaped wing joining two older buildings and will be complete with nursing facilities. It provides a place for people needing nursing care while relying on Christian Science for healing.

A charitable institution supported by contributions, Glenmont also provides rooms for Christian Scientists needing a retirement home. Glenmont was founded in 1931, originally using a mansion at 72 Woodland and has served several thousand people through the years.

Major Hogan Recently Sent To Germany

Army Maj. John F. Hogan son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay F. Hogan, 224 Little Flower-ln, was recently assigned to the Army's European headquarters in Germany.

Major Hogan was last stationed at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

The major is a 1939 graduate of Benson High School, Omaha, Neb. He is a 1943 graduate of the University of Nebraska and a 1949 graduate of the University of Texas. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

His wife, Iva, is with him in Germany.

Applications Available As Whitehall Seeks Bus Driver

The Whitehall Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination for a school bus driver for the Whitehall City School District.

The salary was announced as $170 per work month to $185. Regular substitute is $50 per month guaranteed. Extra trips will pay drivers $5 for the first three hours and $1.50 per hour after the first three, the commission announced.

Qualifications listed by the commission are, by state law, a U.S. citizen, 21-years-old and must be able to pass and obtain a school bus operator's license.

Local qualifications include. Must be willing to obtain a First Aid card within six months after date of employment; Must not have had any traffic violations within the past five years, and must be able to pass a yearly physical examination.

Jack E. Brown, examiner, announced that starting Apr. 20, ending May 6, applicants must file a completed, notarized application with a fee of $1. Brown will be available from 8 to 5 at Etna Road School, or evenings at 145 Douglas-dr, Gahanna.

The examination starts at 9 a.m. Saturday, May 7, in the Etna School auditorium. Applications for the exam are available from the examiner.

Vote for Walter J. Shapter Jr.

Democratic Candidate for OHIO SENATE
Franklin and Pickaway Counties
I believe that —
— Public Business requires fair and equal representation of all citizens.
— New taxes are not necessary. A proper reapportionment of existing taxes should produce sufficient funds for all departments.
— As your Senator I will promote legislation to encourage new commerce and industry to come into Ohio. A favorable climate for new industry is so very necessary for the welfare of our citizens.
— We should have properly worded legislation involving all State taxes, so that they will be deductible for Federal Tax purposes.
— Hesitancy and fear of change must be eliminated from Ohio's Legislature, in order that all problems facing this great State of Ohio can be solved for the good of all the people by mature judgement, sound reasoning, and fair discussion.
X For Ohio Senate

20 Eastmoor Seniors Join Nation Honor Society; Four Get Awards

Twenty Eastmoor High School seniors became members of the National Honor Society at a special assembly at the school yesterday.

The new members are Margrit Bauer, Sandra Chambers, Eileen Collins, Blanche Copley, Jennifer Douthit, Rachel Egbert, David Frederick, Barry Friedman, Linda George, Frank Hoffman, Cynthia Husted, Homer McKnight, Barbara Moltenberry, John Ryder Poole, Andrea Powell, Karen Rea, Sandra Reed, David Shupe, Sidney Townsend and Judy Williams.

The assembly program opened with a prayer by Margrit Bauer and the Pledge of Allegiance led by John Poole. Four of the honored seniors gave talks on the basic requirements for the National Honor Society. Jennifer Douthit spoke on scholarship, Barbara Moltenberry on leadership, Sidney Townsend on service, and Homer McKnight on character.

Mrs. Harold Welch, PTA president, presented excellence awards to seniors who were outstanding in certain fields. The plaques were Jennifer Douthit, academics; Dolores Mize, commercial; Doris Wimmer, home economics; and Roger Seckel, industrial arts.

David Shupe introduced the speaker, Donald Weaver, editor of the Columbus Citizen-Journal.

The National Honor Society pledge was administered by Robert Heintz, chairman of the Eastmoor Chapter. T. H. Mayer, principal, presented the members with pins and certificates.

Hartley Athletes Stage Victory Dance Tonight

Richard Jacobs, a sophomore biology student, won a superior rating at the State Science Day held in Antioch College. This is the highest rating obtainable.

Richard's project was in the grafting of geranium plants, and as a part of the judging he was asked to graft one on the spot.

A Victory Dance, sponsored by the Athletic Association, will be held at Hartley on Apr. 28. A special attraction of the dance will be the new jukebox.

Hartley's track team is practicing daily under the supervision of coaches Tom Krieger and Sandy Simpson. The team has not run in any meets yet, but will later on this season. They will take part in a full program next year.

Brave, hardy football players trembled in their desks when it was announced that the juniors wiuld be given TB shots. The shots were given by the Tuberculosis Society on Wednesday, Apr. 20. No one fainted from the pain of the needle.

The sophomores of Hartley will present an operetta entitled "The Sunbonnet Girl" on Friday, Apr. 29. It is the story of a girl who, although she does not know it, is a rich heiress.

PERMIT GIVEN

Lorenzo Russo, 341 Pineview-dr, has been given a building permit to construct a frame carport and stairway. J. L. Eastwood, 1567 Aberdeen-av, will do the contracting.

Zion Lodge Will Hold Elections

Election of officers to guide the course of B'nai B'rith's Zion Lodge 62 for the coming year will be held as part of the program Tuesday evening, May 10 at the Jewish Center.

Film highlights of the recent OSU-California NCAA championship basketball game will be presented and narrated by guest Howard Nourse, member of the OSU team. Nourse will be introduced by Alex Clowson.

Top posts of the lodge will be filled in the traditional manner by advance of the incumbents.

Unopposed nominees on the pre-election ballot are Ray Wells for chaplain; Ralph Shapiro, president; Ernest Stern, first vice-president; Bernard Yenkin, second vice-president; M. D. Portman, warden; Sam Michaels, secretary, and Walter Katz, treasurer.

Election and a film will be followed by refreshments.

Lodge Election Committee announced that voting will begin at 7:30 p.m. for those unable to stay for the regular meeting. Balloting shall be resumed by order of the president, and shall terminate at 9:30 p.m.

Any member in good standing who anticipates being absent shall be entitled to an absentee ballot if application in writing is received by the executive secretary or the chairman of the Election Committee at least five days prior to the election. Upon oral application to the president of the Lodge, no later than 3:00 p.m. on Election Day, any member of the Lodge entitled to vote, and who is ill, may obtain a ballot.

Hawaiian Style Banquet Set For Yearling Group

Hawaiian Holiday is the theme of the Third Annual Cooperative Office Education and Distributive Education Employer-Employee Banquet, to be held at Ilonka's Provincial House, 4040 E. Broad-st, May 3, 6:30 p.m.

COE and DE are cooperative business education programs offered to senior students at Whitehall-Yearling High School. The students spend one-half day in school and one-half day working in business establishments.

The businessmen work with the teacher-coordinator to provide educational experiences for the students in the distributive and office areas. The cooperative students spend the morning hours in school studying business principles which they apply on their jobs in the afternoon.

Guests at the banquet will include businessmen, teachers, board of education members, and the school's administrators. This banquet has been planned and paid for by the students to show appreciation to their employers for their cooperation during the past school year.

Live baby palm trees, men's sarongs, grass skirts, Poi, starfish, and other Hawaiian items were flown from the islands for this occasion. These gifts will be distributed to the employer guests.

This event will bring to a close one year of supervised work experience for Whitehall's cooperative students. Many of them will remain with their employers as full-time employees after graduation. Thus cooperation between the school and the business community has provided tangible benefits for both.

EVERYBODY IMITATES Permaglas WATER HEATERS

BUT NOBODY IMITATES THE Permaglas GUARANTEE!

There's a big difference in water heaters . . . in heating capacity, in operating economy, and especially in years of service. That's why [illegible] insist on Permaglas . . . guaranteed for its full value, not merely "pro-rated" according to the number of years in use.

Norwood Slates Grand Opening For Saturday

Norwood Amusement Park, 2025 E. Main-st, one of Central Ohio's oldest and most popular centers for family fun, will hold its gala 1960 opening on Saturday, Apr. 30.

Helping the Norwood Management kick off the 1960 season is Lex Mayers Chevrolet, 2212 E. Main-st, which will stage a Nickel Day celebration in honor of the occasion.

During the Jitney Jamboree all 18 rides in the park will be open to one and all for five cents a ride. Hours will be from 12 noon until 10 p.m.

A recent rennovation program has included complete rebuilding of the popular 18-hole golf course and rehabilitation of virtually all the machinery that powers the rides.

Twelve rides for the entertainment of the younger set include the circus parade, fire engines, junior size ferris wheel, tug boats, pony carts, flying sauces, boats, airplanes, whip, train and carrousel.

For the older "children" Norwood presents the ferris wheel, caterpillar, coaster, sky ride, screwball and Dodgem.

Norwood supplies entertainment for the entire family, and again this year the park's picnic grove will be available for private parties and picnics.

No charge for parking or entrance to the grounds.

To Honor Olivet

Special services in honor of Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill., will be held during the observance of National Christian College Day at the Shepard Church of the Nazarene next Sunday, May 1, according to an announcement by the Rev. E. K. Richey, Pastor.

The Young People's program at 6:30 p.m. will present the values of higher education in a Christian College.

During the day, special recognition will be given to present and former students of Olivet who are members of the local congregation.

Edwards To Seek GOP Nomination As Representative

Prairie Township resident Robert M. Edwards is seeking one of the Republican nominations for the Ohio House of Representatives in the May primary.

An attorney at 50 W. Broad-st, Edwards is a graduate of Hilliard High School and the Ohio State University College of Law. He also graduated from the College of Commerce and Administration at Ohio State.

Judge Advocate with the U.S. Air Force in the Far East during his term in the service, Edwards now lives at 192 Lenox-av. He is a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of New Rome.

He is a member of the Columbus 30 F&AM, Western Optimist Club, Prairie Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Bar Association, Delta Chi Fraternity, Phi Delta Phi Fraternity and the Capital City Young Republicans Club.

Farm capital investment per worker last year averaged $20,700, compared with an average of $15,300 per worker in manufacturing, reports Ohio State University Extension economists.

Bexley Group Is Planning Big July 4th Celebration

The Bexley Celebrations Association, after its recent successful Easter Egg Hunt, is planning one of the biggest Fourth of July celebrations in its history, according to Ernie Emswiler, public relations.

Emswiler reported that due to the increased participation of various civic and fraternal groups, these plans will be more easily carried out since a large number of enthusiastic workers have already volunteered for the plan making.

If the organization's scheduled plans become a reality, the Fourth of July event will not only be the biggest presentation of this kind by the association, but the biggest in the history of Bexley.

Youth Symphony Will Appear In Spring Concert

Quartet Of Eastmoor Instructors Honored

Harold Shurlow

John Condit

Fellowships Go To Two In Sciences

When it comes to recognizing teaching ability, then Eastmoor Junior - Senior High School has had its share of it recently.

Four of the school's faculty members have come in for a quartet of singular honors, and the list includes the ladies as well as the men.

A 23-year veteran at teaching mathematics, Harold Shurlow, has been granted a National Science Foundation Fellowship for two summers at Ohio State University.

John M. Condit, biology instructor, has also been granted a two summer fellowship at Ohio State's Stone Laboratory at Put In Bay.

Shurlow and Condit are the only two in the Columbus District to receive the awards

Literature teacher, Dorothy Marmet, has been awarded a $500 grant from the Board of Education to be used for travel in Europe this summer to concentrate on the History of English Literature

Science teacher, Don Murphy, has been named as one of the 10 outstanding Central District teachers by the Central Region of the Ohio Academy of Science.

Shurlow's round of teaching schedules at Eastmoor includes mathematics up to college algebra and trigonometry.

He said that he will spend his next two summers at Ohio State during the mid-year quarters

Condit plans to take advanced work in studying habits of birds, snakes and plants in research for a master's degree at Stone Laboratory.

Science Teacher Named One Of Area's 'Top Ten'

A distinguished accolade of being named one of the top 10 science teachers in Central Ohio has been bestowed upon Don Murphy, of 233 N Burgess-av.

Murphy, who goes about his business of inculcating scientific knowledge into students at Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School, received the "one in 10 honor" from the Ohio Academy of Science, Central District, at its recent annual meeting The award is based upon service in the promotion of science interests He was chairman of the Central District Science Day held at Antioch College

He said that he based the program on the need for doing away with time consuming factors that seemed to wiggle into previous Science Day procedures Murphy decided to utilize noted speakers instead of handing out project certificates. He also instituted, he said, a few special awards.

The young tutor has taught "most kinds" of science for nine years, the last five at Eastmoor. He has a broad background in the academic subject that extends to geology; thus he spends most of his time in standard general science classes.

He also has some definite ideas as to the woman's role in the scientific field. "There is more of a basic awareness now of girls entering the field, he explained, and also more interest on the part of the girls. They are becoming more socially acceptable, so to speak, in this line of endeavor."

Summer School For Elementary Grades Planned

Plans for summer elementary school sessions were approved by the Columbus School Board at a recent meeting.

Twenty-two elementary teachers were appointed to teach reading and arithmetic for fourth, fifth and sixth graders, in classes to start June 20 and continue for six weeks, through July 29.

School will be held four hours daily, with two-hour classes planned. Tuition rates were set for $10 each subject

Classes will be held in centrally located schools throughout the city, to be designated at a later date

Westlake's Veto Cheers Civic Groups

Mayor Ralston Westlake went against the majority of council's wishes this week and vetoed an ordinance for rezoning of a 20-acre tract near Bishop Hartley High School for multiple units.

And in doing so, Westlake made East Columbus Civic Groups "happy" in the words of Mrs Jane Harris, a spokesman for the Kingsgate Association

Yet to be faced by the Civic Groups is the possibility of council overriding the mayor's veto. It takes only a simple 4-3 majority for passage. Council last week, by a 4-2 vote, followed the recommendation of the City Planning Commission and passed the bill.

Westlake cited opposition of school officials in the area and protests from property owners as reasons for the veto. The owners felt that the addition of multiple dwelling units would devalue the property.

The mayor also added that rezoning the already crowded area would complicate school, parking and water and sewage problems.

John Ranft is the potential developer of the tract

The rezoning measure was sent back to the City Clerk's office for a one week rest before further action can be taken

Gen Zwicker Ends 33 Year Army Career

Maj. Gen. Ralph Zwicker brought to a close a 33-year Army career when he departed from his last command at the Fort Hayes garrison.

Gen. and Mrs. Zwicker were guests at a farewell breakfast Monday morning after which they said farewell to the officers and enlisted men of the 20th U. S. Army Corps.

Army personnel and civilian employes of the post lined both sides of the street to the main gate as the general departed from the post

Gen. and Mrs. Zwicker plan a vacation in the southern states during the next few weeks.

Maj. Gen. Charles E. Beauchamp who is now commanding the First Cavalry Division in Korea will take command of the 20th Corps. He is expected to arrive in mid-June.

LOOKING AHEAD—Eastmoor English instructor Dorothy Marmet takes a look at a globe in anticipation of a trip to Europe this summer. She has been given a $500 grant by the Columbus Board of Education to further her studies on the History of English Literature.

English Teacher Looks Toward Trip Abroad

Dorothy Marmet, Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School English teacher, is eagerly anticipating her trip abroad this summer.

She has been the recipient of a $500 grant from the Columbus Board of Education to travel in Europe to further her knowledge on the history of English literature.

Her itinerary includes nine European countries: England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Italy, France and Switzerland

The last stop is an especially important one to her. She will be able to visit the birthplace of her father.

Altogether she will spend 56 days abroad, sailing June 29 on the Queen Mary and returning Aug. 23 on the Queen Elizabeth

She is anxious to visit the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre at Stratford On-The-Avon as well as wanting to see the birthplace of Scottish poet Robert Burns and the home in which poet William Wordsworth lived.

Court Asked To Decide School Issue

Whitehall and Columbus School Boards, long in disagreement over the amount of indebtedness owed by Columbus on the Courtright School issue, have turned to the Ohio Supreme Court for decision

Whitehall Board of Education has filed action in an attempt to force Columbus to pay $450,103 set by the Ohio Board of Education at the time the school district was annexed by the city, according to Superintendent Robert Crabbs.

The amount has been protested by the Columbus Board. Members have agreed to pay the bonded indebtedness, but protest the sum set for Courtright building.

The matter has been turned over to attorneys representing Columbus Board of Education, according to Francis T. Rudy, executive assistant to the superintendent, Dr. Harold H. Eibling.

WALNUT RIDGE APPROVED

Unique Activity Center Planned For New School

A new $1,750,000 junior-senior high with facilities to meet the social as well as educational needs of the community will be ready for use by September, 1961, in eastern Columbus.

School Board approved Tuesday plans for Walnut Ridge School, to be built on Livingston-av at Latimer-dr.

Planned to accommodate 1500 students, the school, designed to conform to an interesting, split-level site, will have two floors throughout and three where the land drops about 20 feet

In recognition of the need for schools to provide a recreation area for after study hours, the lowest level may include a lounge and snack bar

The section will overlook a terrace, playing fields and the bordering Big Walnut Creek.

Extensive park facilities will be included in the huge, 65-acre, school board and city-owned tract. The school property of about 45 acres will be supplemented by city acreage.

Designed to incorporate instruction facilities endorsed by educators, the building will include several areas that may be enclosed for large group instruction via movies, radio or TV

Inovations in the design include the isolation of noise from gym, lockers, band room and vocal rooms, from academic portions These will be housed in the south wing, separated from conventional classrooms

Slightly larger than Eastmoor Junior-Senior High, the building is planned to allow even greater expansion, should the future need arise.

The student activity center, with its indoor and outdoor facilities, will be located at the southeast corner of the building's main portion, and might conceivably be developed into a community center for adults as well as students.

Construction of the building, to start in September, 1960, will be financed with funds made available through the passage of the bond issue in November, 1959.

LITTLE LEAGUE MEETING TONIGHT

A meeting of Whitehall Little League team managers and umpires will take place at Whitehall-Yearling High School at 8 p.m. tonight in Room 121.

New Water Main For East Side Area Near Completion

At Monday night's City Council meeting, Service Director Ernest Stork promised that the new Stelzer-rd water main will carry Hoover Dam water directly to the East Side as far south as Livingston-av by August.

Mayor Ralston Westlake was attacked by the Democratic council members for not building an East Side water storage tank first

Stork said that while earlier promises were that the water main could be extended from Morse-rd south to seventh-av he believes the entire planned length, to Livingston-av, may be reached this summer.

The approval of the bill gave the service directory the authority to grant water and sewer taps in return for easements for water and sewer lines

Councilman Robert H Smith (D) charged that the Republicans 'stubborn" adherence to constructing the East Side water main "could wreck ever taking in Mifflin Township . . which is vital to the development of the City of Columbus."

Included in the approved water-sewer bill was the first statement of the council's policy for granting exceptions to the city water-sewer freeze

Service Director Stork still will not have the unlimited authority for granting taps held by the service director in the previous city administration

The council soon found it had not settled 26 of 52 long pending water and sewer tap requests While 26 tap permits may be issued by Stork under the new ordinance, council must decide on the rest

Three sewer and one water tap requests were approved by the council, one water tap request for 1120 E. Cooke-rd was denied and the remainder were referred to Stork for recommendations.

Indicating the water main vs. water tank debate may be renewed next week, the council set a public hearing for next Monday on Mayor Westlake's revised 1960 capital improvements budget

The mayor's proposed budget includes the money for the East Side water main but deletes the $35,000 for a water tank scheduled for 1960 by the previous city administration

Eastmoor Buckeye Staters Named

Larry Nichols

Ann Goldthwaite

Two enthusiastic Eastmoor High School juniors are looking forward to the summery month of June and with good reason.

Both Larry Nichols and Ann Goldthwaite have been chosen as delegates for Buckeye State.

Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols, of 4911 Dickens-dr, will attend the Buckeye Boys State Convention at Ohio University in Athens the week of June 9-18

Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goldthwaite, of 4891 McAllister-av, is anticipating her participation in the Buckeye Girls State Convention at Capital University June 18-26

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

GOOD FOOD BUYS THIS WEEK:

Vegetables—Asparagus, carrots, celery, endive, onions, spinach.

FRUITS — Bananas, oranges, rhubarb, canned peaches, frozen orange juice.

SPRING ARRIVES FULL SCALE AT MARKET

Fresh asparagus, the vegetable that spells springtime menus, is now coming from local farms. It has a freshness you'll enjoy—picked early in the morning and hurried to markets the same day. Heavy supplies came all at once this year. Growers say they have never known asparagus to grow so fast—and the faster it grows the better it tastes.

FOR HIGH QUALITY AND FLAVOR, select bunches that have firm, fresh bright green spears with tightly closed tips. Spears that are wilted or have spreading tips have been cut too long, are wasteful, and lack the tenderness and typical flavor of fresh asparagus.

The season for homegrown asparagus is short, so enjoy it served many different ways. It's delicious with economical poultry items turkey, chicken or eggs. And it's natural, too, to go with the plentiful dairy products as butter, cream or cheese.

RHUBARB IN SPRING, TOO

Before the days of "hot house" or greenhouse cultivated rhubarb, fresh rhubarb was available in food stores only a few short weeks in the spring. Even though rhubarb is available for several months in late winter and early spring, you can buy it at the lowest price when the local crop is being harvested. Well colored stalks—either pink or red—are signs of good flavor and tenderness in rhubarb. The color depends on variety and maturity. Limp or wilted stalks mean that it has been cut too long or improperly handled. Or it may have passed its prime in tenderness and flavor before it was cut.

IF YOU PLAN TO FREEZE rhubarb, engage your supply soon. When the stalks are long, but still crisp and tender, you get the most for your money. No fruit is easier to freeze than rhubarb. Just wash, cut and seal in air-tight containers. If held at zero degree F., rhubarb will hold its original flavor and color up to one year.

FESTIVAL OF SPRING GREENS

Name a green leafy vegetable and you can find it at the market this week . . . spinach, kale, mustard, collards, turnip, beet tops and even cultivated dandelions. These vegetables like cool weather and are at their best in the spring. And what an array of salad items! Head and field-grown Bibb lettuce, escarole, endive, long slender green onions, radishes, and many more. Celery is a bargain this week. Supplies of greenhouse tomatoes are increasing. They are the finest flavored tomatoes available at this time of year.

Sweet corn time is just ahead. Word just came from Florida saying we can expect heavy shipments to arrive during the first two weeks of May.

Lausche States Action Is Needed

Plans Vigorous Questioning Of FC Members In Hearing

Editor's Note: This is the third letter from a public official in response to a campaign of Hartley Newspapers and their readers for better television programs and motion pictures.

In previous issues of this newspaper, we have carried comments of Governor Michael DiSalle and U.S Representative Samuel Devine. The letter of Senator Frank J. Lausche follows:

I received your letter of March 18, together with the clippings of several of the many letters which you have received from persons protesting against the trend of television and commercial motion picture operators showing programs that incite the passions and lead to moral delinquency.

Based upon the mail which I am receiving, it is obvious that there is general concern with the people of Ohio about the type of character that is being built into our youth by the circumstances under which it is living.

I cannot be a silent spectator while the moral fabric of our youth is being disintegrated.

The officials of the Federal Communications Commission, which is in charge of the issuances of licenses and regulations of television stations, are to appear before the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the Senate of which I am a member.

I intend at that time to do some vigorous interrogating of the members of the commission on this vital subject affecting the character of the American people, and in all probability, the future strength of our country.

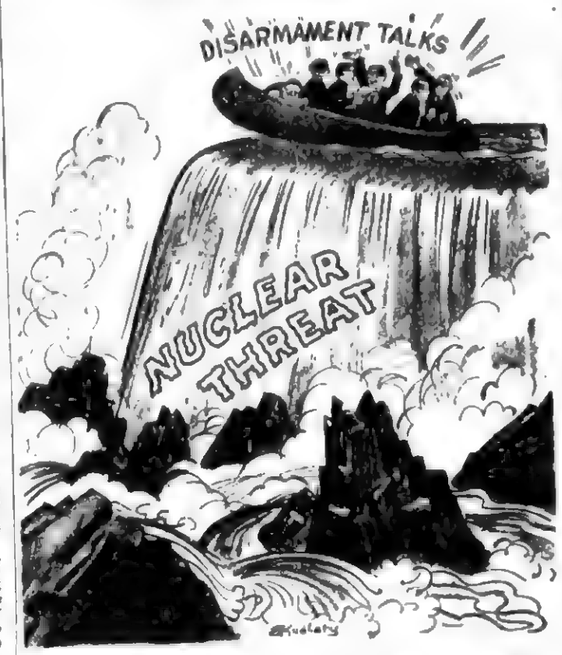
BIBLE COMMENT:

Spiritual Fact Laws Make Jesus' World

The insistent question that underlies all organized Christianity is one of the personal relationship of men and women to the Christ—Jesus of Galilee of the New Testament.

To what extent does His example and His teaching dominate their lives? Does the love that He enjoined in the two great commandments show up in the outlook of these people—in their daily lives and conduct?

These two commandments: to love God with all the heart and soul and mind, and to love one's neighbor as one's self are not, of course, limited to the Christian religion.



They were not inventions of the Master, but a basic part of the Jewish religion and of the law of the prophets which, Jesus said, He had come to fulfill, not to destroy.

In one sense, Jesus was not the founder of Christianity. He was not the originators as others have been founders of cults or religions.

If one looks deeply into the life, teaching and mission of Jesus one finds that what the Gospels show is not a religion, but a religion in all its essence and basis in God's relation to God and the relation of men to each other.

The religious world of Jesus, like the world of the universe in which we live, is a world of spiritual facts and laws. It is not a world in which there is anything artificial or invented.

Main Library Phones To Get New Number

Telephones of the main Columbus Public Library will ring to a new number starting at 9 a.m. Monday, May 9, it was announced today by City Librarian Mrs. Margaret E. Carroll.

The new number — CApital 8-6891 — will permit the addition of two new lines and cut down on busy signals, Mrs. Carroll said. Present equipment accommodates only four calls at a time.

More than 50,000 telephone calls were logged last year at the main library, with about half being requests for reference or fact-finding assistance.

LETTER TO EDITOR

County Crippled Children Society Likes Features

May I, on behalf of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children, take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for your outstanding assistance and cooperation during our recent 1960 Easter Seal campaign?

Your reports and features helped promote our work for the physically handicapped and deepened the public's understanding and acceptance of those with crippling conditions.

We are indeed grateful to you and your staff as well as to the thousands of local citizens who so generously purchased Easter Seals. It is never too late to help a crippled child.

Thank you so much.

'DIZZEY-LAND' SET FOR COURTRIGHT

VARIETY IS SPICE OF LIFE—Four members of the Youth Fellowship group of Shady Lane Presbyterian Church will prove that variety is the spice of life when they present their Second Annual Variety Show May 7 at Courtright School. The show, which will begin at 8 p.m., takes on the theme of "Dizzey-Land" with characters from all the phases of the legendary Disneyland. In the picture, standing, left to right, is Chuck Spangler, 1321 Marble-dr, Hawaiian dancer; Jim Farkas, 13, of Frontierland and Mrs. Tony Farkas, a member of the women's chorus line. Seated is pretty Miss Jereene Van Vleet, 16, representing Fantasyland. The presentation will be given for the benefit of the pew fund and admission of 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children will be charged.

Local Trio In Gas Co's. Music Revue

Three residents of this area are among those who will participate in the 19th annual spring concert of the Ohio Fuel Gas Company Chorus.

The event will be held at 8:15 p.m. Friday, May 13, at the Central High School auditorium. Admission will be free.

The local singers are Robert J. Ury, 503½ Berkeley-rd; Ronald D. Culbertson, 872 Vernon-rd, and Tom Woodyard, 1539 Burlington-av.

The 65-member chorus will give a two-part program, including a concert and a musical revue entitled "The Family Album."

The music is directed by Kenneth R. Keller, director of music education for the Columbus public schools. Accompanist is Miss Barbara Zimmerman of the Capital University Conservatory of Music faculty, organist is Robert Johnson, music instructor at Hilltonia Junior High School.

The revue was written and directed by John Sittig, director of radio and audio-visual education for the Columbus schools.

Five From Whitehall High Attend Ohio Council Meet

Bob Leonard, Bill Gornall, Linda Layman and Mr. and Mrs. Compton attended the Seventh Annual Conference of the Ohio Association of Student Councils on Thursday, April 28, through Saturday, April 30 at North High School in Cleveland.

The three delegates stayed in the homes of North High students but spent the majority of their time attending discussion groups, banquets, and dances and listening to speeches given by field service students.

One highlight of the convention was the showing of a film along with the sound, on the nomination and election of a student council president, which was presened to the assembled delegates by the WYHS delegation.

After electing the state officers for the next year and forming the traditional friendship circle, the delegates turned homeward bringing with them many ideas for the betterment of our student council. One thing that the council would like to have get underway once more is the Inter-School Council made up of the schools in the Central Buckeye League, which could be done quite easily if the president of the group was allowed to call a meeting.

Unknown to the majority of Whitehallites, there is an experimental program going on at Whitehall-Yearling in the student teacher program. Usually the student teacher is only at the high school for a couple of classes and then must return to the university for the remainder of the day, but John Barr spends his entire day at WYHS teaching physical education from 8:30-3:30 and then coaching the seventh grade baseball team after school.

Because he has completed his academic requirements at Ohio State he is able to have this schedule but he must report fully the day's happenings to his instructors. Mr. Barr plans to teach at Holy Family next year after graduating from State in une, but he is going to continue his education by working for his Master's Degree. When asked why he wanted to go into teaching he said, "I've always wanted to coach and working with young people is a challenge . . . to see them grow and develop."

Question of the week: Will WYHS have a tennis court soon?

Whitehall scored eight points in the Bellaire Relays, Saturday, April 30. Bob Neutzling tied for first place in the pole vault at 11' 6" while his brother, Rick, and teammate, Bob Densham, tied for third place in the high jump. Forty high schools from Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania were entered in the relays which was won by Warren Harding, last year's winners also.

The Rams' unbeaten golf team scored a fourth win in the Greater Columbus High School Golf League play on Saturday at the Columbus Country Club. Whitehall scored a rare 20-0 shutout against Watterson. The individual scores were: Bob Carson, 76; Jerry Bridges, 84; Harry Grubb, 84; and Larry Schmidt, 86.

The French III class will present a play in French to the other romance language students on Friday, May 6.

Judy Yeakle and Don Justice have been selected to go to Girl and Boys' State, respectively, this summer. Judy is junior class secretary and will be yearbook editor next year. Don is junior class president, a member of the track team and was elected 1960-61 football co-captain.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN TO HONOR MOTHERS FRIDAY

For the third year, Girl Scout Troop 825 of the Eastmoor District, will honor their mothers, Friday, May 6, at Desert Inn.

Under their leaders, Mrs. James K. Smith and Mrs. George Whetstone, these 15 girls, beginning May 12, will attend a four week modeling course to earn Charm Badges.

Local Areas Will Have ½-Cent Gas Increase June 1

Beginning June 1, Columbus and surrounding communities will fall under a ½-cent fuel rate increase, according to E. L. McCoy, Ohio Fuel Gas Co., news manager.

McCoy stated that during the summer months, the rate increase will add 2½ cents to the bill of the average consumer. "In the winter," he stated, "another 7½ cents will be added to those customers who heat their homes with gas."

The vicinity towns to be affected by the increase include: Bexley, Gahanna, Valleyview and Whitehall.

The rate increase applies to 34 other Ohio communities under provisions of their fuel gas clauses. The increase, said McCoy, is to justify for the increase in the cost of gas.

Eight Bexley Journalists Get Quill and Scroll Awards

Creative writing awards and Quill and Scroll awards highlighted the Bexley Journalism banquet on April 25 at the Willard Restaurant.

The creative writing awards were presented by Mr. George Kienzle, director of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University. Honored for outstanding stories were Gayle Caplan, Babs Sher, Bob Stine and Sue Ross for their feature stories; Gayle Caplan and Jack Dickey for their editorial; Glenda Schottenstein for her news story, and Jeff Schwartz for his sports column.

Quill and Scroll members inducted in 1959 were Gayle Caplan, Jack Dickey, Doug Fleckner, and Irene Humphrey.

Inducted into the honorary journalism society for 1960 were the members of the "Torch", Bexley's newspaper, and the "Bexleo," the school's yearbook staff.

Those inducted were Sandy Berlin, Carol Davis, Ellen Drum, Barbara Duffey, Gail Dunavent, Dina Flaum, Kay Gearhart, Carol Gloyd, Ed Goodman, Irv Haas, David Japikse, Kathie Kienzle, Jeff Papier, Ann Polster, Sue Ross, Glenda Schottenstein, Jeff Schwartz, Babs Sher, Connie Stebelton, Jeff Stern, Kay Tilley, Linda Weissenbach, Lynn Whetstone, and Jessie Wile.

The traditional Torch Editor's Award was presented to Glenda Schottenstein for her outstanding work as News Editor by Mrs. Sara Amos, advisor.

Presentation of the 1960-1961 Torch co-editors, Karen Mercer and Jeff Schwartz, was made by Jack Dickey and Gayle Caplan, 1959-1960 editors. John Strahm and Betty Harris, next year's Bexleo editors, were presented by Kathie Kienzle and Linda Weissenbach, this year's editors.

An international theme has been chosen for the Latin Club's annual banquet May 9 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the school's cafeteria. Club members will dress in the costumes of different countries that existed at the time of the Roman Empire.

The room will be decorated with murals and maps of the Roman Empire and surrounding countries.

Slides on Italy will be the main feature of the evening. Committee chairmen for the event are Sherry Shamansky and Sue McNaughton, decorations; Karen Mercer, food; Melissa Blanton, tickets, and Floyd Stolzenburg, entertainment.

Girl Scout News

By Elizabeth Flohr

May 10 marks the beginning of Day Camp training for all interested Girl Scout leaders in Districts 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10. Only new leaders are expected to attend the first day of training. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Any cancellation of camp training which may arise will be broadcast over WBNS radio between 7:15 and 7:30 a.m.

Other day camp dates are May 12, 17 and 19. A final staff meeting will be held Friday, June 10, and Day Camp for District 6 will open June 13 at Camp Darby.

On Apr. 29 Brownie Troop 725 received an American flag and standard as a gift.

At the same time the troop was presented a dozen smaller flags and a dozen pairs of scissors by Carl Bryant, Americanism chairman of Franklin Post, American Legion. The flag was accepted by Patricia Thomas, Brownie president.

Three songs were sung and a flag ceremony was given by Beverly Coe, Janet Flohr and Cathy Seipel. The ceremony was also attended by Frank Joice, adjutant of Franklin Post; John Cotter, Mrs. Leroy Berry, leader of Girl Scout Troop 11 and her members.

Hostesses were Lee Ann Jones and Delandra Hendricks.

Gahanna Girl Rules May Day

An area girl, Reita Cornell, of 122 Walnut-st, Gahanna, was named May Day Queen at Capital University recently.

Miss Cornell will reign at the annual May Day weekend festivities on the campus Friday and Saturday. The two-day program has the theme "Destination Disneyland."

The Saturday program includes a parade, a variety show and open house at dormitories and annexes on the campus. The program will end with the May Day Dance in Alumni Gymnasium.

Sons Of Revolution Honor Pupils For Good Citizenship

DiSalle Checked Portman Record

Governor Michael V. DiSalle announced Tuesday that he "is satisfied" that M. D. Portman will be paid "only for his actual work" on the master plan for the City of Whitehall while on the state payroll.

DiSalle previously indicated that he wouldn't allow Portman to work on the project on state time.

Portman was recently appointed staff director for a study of Ohio's welfare assistance program.

Whitehall officials had previously been assured by the consulting engineers employing Portman on the master plan, that he would be able to finish the plan.

Medical Technologists Engage In Vital Work, Enjoy Satisfying Job

"Being a medical technologist is a satisfying career because you are really doing something important," related Miss Cecelia Hogg, a medical technologist at Children's Hospital.

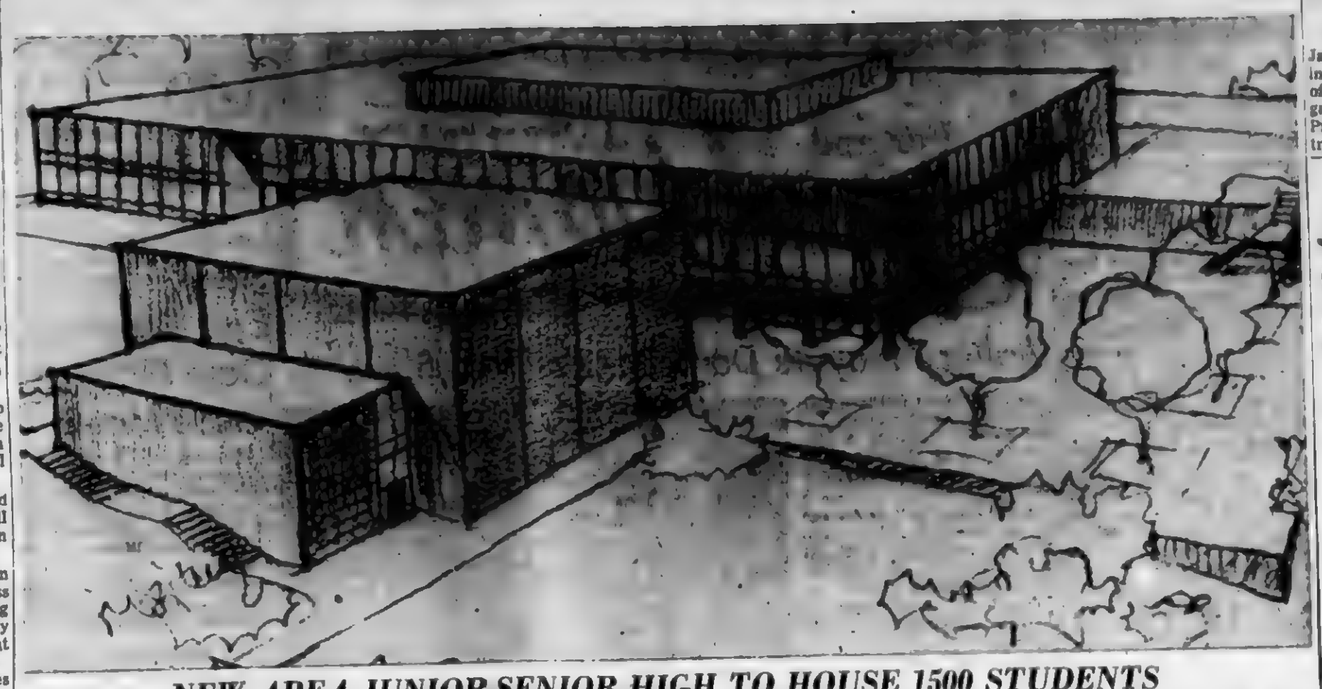
The lab receives blood specimens from several states in this area and takes care of all babies with an RH factor problem.

The hospital has the only lab with sufficient personnel trained in this type of problem and has doctors who are skilled through experience in the complete transfusion of blood required, according to Miss Hogg.

The RH factor problem in a baby results from a mother with a negative factor and a father with a positive factor. Miss Hogg said that often no problem results as there are a number of factors in the blood to be considered. She said that there is very seldom a problem with the first child.

Miss Hogg said they develop a personal interest in these families since they often return several times with additional children.

Miss Hogg stated, "We could not work as rapidly or as well if it weren't for the co-operation of the Red Cross."



The blood must be less than four days old according to Miss Hogg and without the banking service of the Red Cross they could not maintain sufficient supply of different types.

She says the Red Cross does not charge for blood. The only charge is for the hospital's equipment and labor.

Miss Hogg, who was recently elected treasurer by the Ohio Society of Medical Technologists, believes that her field is "a career of the future with a great demand" for youth who are interested.

She believes it is more of a woman's job because of the large amount of detail and neatness required. She said that men usually enter "med tech" only as a stepping stone to other medical careers.

For those interested in the profession, she urged that they study at college and not take some of the "quickie" courses offered. To be recognized by the National Society three years of college work are required.

NEW AREA JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH TO HOUSE 1500 STUDENTS

WALNUT RIDGE SCHOOL — Plans were approved by the School Board Tuesday for Walnut Ridge Junior-Senior High, to be built on Livingston-av at Lattimer-dr. The huge, two and three-story building, using a drop in site elevation for the ground floor, will accommodate 1500 students. It will be located on 45 acres of school board and city-owned land with extensive park facilities. The building will also include a student activity center, for after-school recreation hours. The school will be constructed, at a cost of $1,750,000, in time for occupancy in Sept. 1961. David Schackne, Jr., school architect, designed the building.
